TOBRUK IS LATEST OF VICTORIES

Australian and British Forces Smash Through Defences of Italian Port—East African Drive Continues

MOVE MEN AND BOOTY
LONDON, January 22 (Canadian Press)—The Admiralty announced tonight that ships of the Mediterranean fleet had removed fifty-four thousand Italian war prisoners and huge supplies of war booty from the North African theatre of war.

CAIRO, January 22 (Canadian Press)—British forces, having driven eight miles through the defences of Tobruk, were within three miles of the town itself at dusk yesterday and today operations developed satisfactorily with occupation of the town at noon. Thousands of the defenders had been cut off. Dispatches reaching here prior to the announcement said that British and Australian forces, aided by the navy and air force, had registered their gains after smashing both outer defences of Tobruk. Sydney, Australia, dispatches said that Tobruk had already fallen to the British. Italian authorities admitted penetration of the main eastern defences.

The port reports said had been reduced to ruins by the big guns of the British Mediterranean fleet and clouds of smoke from burning petrol dumps hung over the town. Australian shock troops and a picked British regiment led the assault.

In East Africa the British command announced that Italians, being pursued in Kassala sector, had withdrawn forty miles east of the Anglo-Egyptian and Sudan-Eritrean borders and were giving ground east of Metemma. They were also being driven back from positions inside the Kenya-Ethiopian frontier.

Not Only Prepared to Defend Itself Against Worst Hitler Has to Offer But is Contemplating Carrying Fight Right to Der Fuehrer's Own Door

LONDON, January 22: (CP)—Prime Minister Winston Churchill proclaimed to the House of Commons today that "this great nation is getting into its stride, is accomplishing the transition from days of peace and comfort to days of supreme, organized, indomitable exertion."

Winding up a debate on manpower, the Prime Minister said that the industrial registration policy announced yesterday was necessary because during the next six months Britain will for the first time witness an intense demand for man and woman power. He admitted that the peak of the war effort had not yet been reached and it cannot be until all plants are working. Mr. Churchill said that the loss of sixty thousand Britons in the air war—more than half of which were civilians—was a terrible figure but it was far less than the lives lost in a single protracted battle on the Western Front in 1916-17. He referred to the fact that this war had already been on for sixteen months.

Apart from the Libyan victories, Mr. Churchill said, extremely important developments were taking place on frontiers of both Abyssinia and Eritrea which may be productive of fruitful and extremely pregnant results. "It may well be that, while I am speaking, Tobruk and its garrison are in our hands," he added.

Revealing that behind the decision to conscript labor lies an intense demand for manpower to supply an army on scale for fighting both overseas and at home. Mr. Churchill disclosed that Britain was determined, not only to defend its own shores, but to carry a formidable amphibious army into Germany and German-occupied Europe to challenge Hitler on his own ground. An army of four million men was armed and uniformed not only for the purpose of defence of hearth and home but preparations were well advanced in equipping it for the offensive. He gave details of plans for the new expeditionary force which would go abroad when the time appeared propitious. Plans were well in hand to provide it with all the arms and equipment necessary for the campaign against Germany. Four-fifths of the new plants required were already completed.

Mr. Bevin Speaks
Rt. Hon. Ernest Bevin, minister of labor, said yesterday in discussing the labor registration measure, that industry in Great Britain was speeding up instead of bogging down. "Members," he said "would be gratified if I were able to tell them the speed with which military units can now be organized and equipped."

R.A.F. BOMBS ITALIANS

Bombers yesterday unloaded explosive and fire bombs over the town. Meanwhile the Greeks reported capture of additional positions in the Tepelini sector.

ATHENS, Jan. 22: (CP)—It was officially reported yesterday that Greek forces had repulsed what they described as the 'largest and most carefully planned counter-attack yet attempted in the Tepelini sector of the Albanian front. As a result of their desperate effort to halt the Greek advance, the Italians are said to have lost their original positions and great numbers of attacking forces. Swarms of tanks and planes and waves of infantry were used in vain by the Italians. Salonika was again subjected to aerial bombardment yesterday.

CONSISTENCY

Editor, Daily News.

Recently you remarked about those trying to steal our Alaska Highway but apologized for doing so as well as the cost of an outlet from Rupert because of war costs. You are too patriotic and too modest.

It is my painful duty to once more mention the fact that our Grand Trunk Railway and the whole policy on which it was based by Sir Wilfred Laurier was stolen and the rail/road up in some cases during the last war when we were supposed to be fighting to end all war.

As for the money is concerned, economy is essential but why think of it only at odd times and in certain instances? With money being wasted in so many ways at present we cannot arouse much patriotic ardor or enthusiasm regarding saving money when others throw it away as fast as we save it. Consistency is old-fashioned but still a good idea.

We must also mention a few other items which are of interest to at least half our population—the farmers. If we are told by all government experts that it costs 40c. per pound to produce butter fat then why is the price listed at that amount to the wholesaler? The high cost of butter does not get into the producers' hands at all. If one pound of butter is equal to 10 pounds of steak, which costs $3, what is all the row about? And, by the way, the farmer gets only 8c. to 10c. per pound for the steak to start with.

If the government can fix farm prices from going up, why does it not fix them from going down as well?

If the government fixed labor wages at the 1936-1937 level, why in the name of all that is decent, fair, and worthy of British justice, do they not likewise fix farm prices at the same level? I suppose the answer to that is merely that the poor boobies of farmers are not organized and in a position to put the fear of God into the government. However, that does not alter the fact that we are not getting justice.

I suppose we of the Bulkley Valley should start a howl because the fishermen of Prince Rupert get around $2 a ton for herring while we pay at least 10c. per pound. It is rumored that they will now cut us 15c. per pound. That leaves the fishermen in just the same spot as the farmers. It begins to look as though some of these government men might get farmers off their brain and look around for the racketeers who are taking both the producer and consumer for a buggy ride.

This is a painful subject but, when things are going from bad to worse and insult is being added to injury, it seems that we have to do a little fighting for our liberties closer than across the pond. The only thing that seems possible is to carry on the two fights at once. Both Hitler and screw Canadians have to be put in their place.

Quick D. T. GREENE.

EXCELLENT RED CROSS WORK

The ladies of Prince Rupert and district are rising to the occasion in the matter of Red Cross work. The record published yesterday of what has been done during the year was outstanding. However, we are reminded that much more work will be needed this year than was done last. The need is steadily increasing and any who so far have not done anything for the Red Cross are asked to do so now. This is looked upon as the crucial year in the war and, if there is an invasion of Great Britain or if Britain invades Germany, there will be even greater demand for Red Cross supplies.

READY FOR INVASION

The fact that the London newspapers are trying to arouse Britain to the imminence of invasion does not necessarily mean that the invasion will come at once. In this war psychology plays just as important a part as preparedness. For every move there is a diplomatic reason. It is possible that the fuss may have been for the purposes of urging United States to hurry forward plans for intensive aid, just as the Japanese speeches may have been for the purpose of trying to keep United States out of the conflict. At any rate the British seem to be harrying forward their African campaign so as to have the way clear for an all-in defence of the British Isles.

It is possible that the German invasion threat may be for the purpose of keeping British planes from going to Africa.

Q. C. ISLANDS

People of the Queen Charlotte Islands noted with interest that the Canadian Fish & Cold Storage Co. of Prince Rupert had donated 25,000 pounds of frozen fish for the relief of bomb sufferers in England. The Canadian Fish & Cold Storage Co. is an old and loyal friend of the Queen Charlotte Islands and Islanders applaud this act of generosity in the time of Britain's need.

During the Christmas season the Royal Canadian Air Force at Allford Bay donated $20 towards the buying of gifts for the children of the schools in Skidegate Inlet.

Fassler H. L. G. Kelley of Allford Bay was a recent visitor with relatives at Skidegate. He is the son of Rev. Peter Kelley of the mission boat Thomas Crosby which is based at Ocean Falls.

The funeral of the late Kenneth Davis, well known and highly esteemed young man of Massett, was one of the largest ever held in the Queen Charlotte Island village. The entire population turned out for the obsequies which were conducted by Rev. J. C. Murray, the Anglican rector.

"THE TASK WILL BE GREATER IN 1941 THAN IT HAS BEEN IN 1940

... it is going to demand more effort, more sacrifice and far more change in our daily lives ..."

RT. HON. W. L. MACKENZIE KING
(NEW YEAR'S EVE, 1940)

ALREADY the pattern and pace of life in Canada have undergone a profound change. Gaps in employment are rapidly filling up. Some 350,000 Canadians who were unemployed before the outbreak of war are now employed. Another 200,000 are with our armed forces. Factories, which until recently were turning out goods for civilian consumption, have been transformed into humming arsenals, pouring out instruments of war. Night and day shifts have become the rule rather than the exception. But the peak of effort is not yet in sight.

In 1941 still more factories will switch to war production ... new plants will be established, thousands more will be employed. This rising tide of activity must continue until we reach the flood of effort when every Canadian will be employed and working to his utmost, every possible square inch of plant will be utilized, every wheel will be whirling in the race we are waging against time and the enemy.

More men are working ... working longer hours ... making more munitions ... earning more money ... producing more goods ... putting more money into circulation. Most Canadians are sharing in this increased national wealth—have extra dollars in their pockets.

The effort the Prime Minister calls for is gaining momentum, but many Canadians, as individuals, have not yet felt the real pinch of sacrifice.

Canadians of all classes are sharing tax burdens, but it must be admitted that up to date the larger part of the money needed for Canada's war effort has come from business firms and individuals with large incomes. They are paying high taxes. They have already invested heavily in War Loan Bonds.

This is not enough. The plain truth is that Canada's rapidly expanding production for war purposes will require increasing sums of money. That is why the Prime Minister warned Canadians in his New Year's broadcast that the year ahead demands more effort and more sacrifice.

Every man, woman and child is asked to lend. Every dollar you lend will help to put another man in a job ... making more munitions. Every dollar you lend may save a soldier's life ... help to shorten the war. Small wage earners must carry their share of the burden, too.

No one need go without necessities, but you are urged to forego the purchase of unnecessary articles ... however small the cost ... no matter how well you are able to pay for them ... which take labour and material away from the great task of providing goods needed to win the war.

This is your war. Everything you have ... everything you believe in ... is now at stake. This is a message to you ... a challenge to every Canadian ... a call to the colours ... a call for volunteers.

Be sure to make provision to pay your Income Tax—payment is made easier by the new instalment plan. But be prepared to do more—budget your earnings to make sure that you will have money available to buy War Savings Certificates and to subscribe for War Loan Bonds. You will help Canada—you will help yourself.

Terrace Legion Does Good Work

M. Debeau Re-elected President at Recent Annual Meeting

TERRACE, January 22—Terrace branch of the Canadian Legion held its annual meeting on Wednesday and elected officers for the next twelve months.

M. Debeau was re-elected president, N. W. Beecher, and A. Creelman, vice-presidents, were also re-elected. J. B. Agar was elected treasurer and J. Sherwood was again chosen as secretary.

There was a good showing by the past treasurer A. Attree in his report of the year's results. Liquid assets showed a total of $13,077.

As the retiring treasurer remarked, the Branch does not exist for the purpose of making money and, besides the satisfactory financial result of the year just past, considerable in the way of comforts for the troops had been done. Parcels had been sent and books besides other small kindnesses.

Rev. C. A. Hinchcliffe was re-elected chaplain.

WAR ALARM
IN RUPERT

A. R. P. to Have General Practice
on Sunday Night

As a result of meetings of the sub-committee of the Prince Rupert Civil Protection committee held on Sunday and last evening plans have been completed for a trial practice on Sunday afternoon next. Events in many parts of the world have emphasized the need for preparedness and in case of public apathy, the local committee under the general chairmanship of J. J. Little have done a great amount of quiet preparation. Sunday afternoon's experiment will be the first of a series of practices aimed at finding the weak points in carrying out the plans and then rectifying them.

Those in attendance at the meetings included representatives of the naval, military and air force services. Civilian departments were the district and city police units, who will have their special police reserve on active duty; the city fire department, engineering units, decontamination and demolition squads, fire and police with assistance, and the Prince Rupert Legion Defence Corps. The latter organization will not be required for Sunday's practice but will be called on at a later date. Members of the Boy Scout and Sea Cadet troops will be used as runners in conveying messages to and from headquarters.

The general alarm will be given by various means — the fire bell, church bells, factory sirens and telephone. Members of organizations taking part will wear bandanas and badges showing that they are officially entitled to take charge where necessary.

The general civilian population is being asked to co-operate by leaving all means of communication and traffic available for the committee. Referees will be appointed to judge the effectiveness of the try-out and constructive expert criticism will enable improvements to be made. There are vacancies in some of the organizations and offers of help from the general public are being invited.

Whifflets
From The Waterfront

CNR steamer Prince Rupert, Capt. H. E. Hedden, with good-sized lot of passengers, including a number of troop reinforcements, for local units and substantial freight cargo, arrived in port at 9:30 this morning from Vancouver, Powell River and Ocean Falls and will sail at 1 o'clock this afternoon for Kelowna and Stewart whence she is due back here tomorrow night southbound.

The big American halibut schooner Eagle, which is engaged in research work on the halibut grounds for the International Fisheries Commission, left port yesterday to continue her work after having spent a couple of days in port outfitting.

Logging camp superintendents and forestry officials on the Queen Charlotte Islands have substantial imaginations and their tall stories grow no smaller when transmitted by a Daily News correspondent. Talking of deer hunting for instance, Jack Hanson, general manager of the T. A. Kelley Logging Co. at Cumshewa, is credited with having shot a buck which was so big it took the whole logging crew to yard it out to the beach while Jack Scott, forest ranger, saw one so big that it took it fifteen minutes running full speed to pass a tree.

Hundreds of people try a "spot" in the Daily News classified column and get good results. (1)

REPORTED TO BE RAIDING GERMAN-OCCUPIED FRANCE

It was reported in New York that British motor-cycle troops, forming "mobile" squadrons, have made lightning raids into occupied France during recent weeks, harassing German forces and bringing back valuable information. They are said to have been taken to France across the Channel in crawlers and fishing boats. While no immediate military objective is served, the raids are said to be staged for the effect on German morale and for the capture of prisoners from whom information is elicited.

Banker since 1817, one hundred and twenty-three years ago, to Governments—Dominion, Provincial, Municipal—the Bank of Montreal has given them the special forms of banking service they require.

Among the people employed by these governments are thousands of our customers, who keep their surplus funds in our savings department, borrow for personal or home improvement needs, or make use of our services in a score of other ways.

Serving Canadians and their institutions in every section of the community, we invite you to discuss YOUR banking requirements with us.
