While playing an important part in Canada's war effort, it is to be hoped that the system will be able to so equip itself that it will be able to meet expeditiously any new situations that may arise when the abnormalities of war are over and the Dominion settles down once again to the pursuits of peace and useful development.

Mr. Vaughan, in the closing paragraph of his statement, crystallizes the ideal of good railway service in the words: "It will always be our aim to provide efficient transportation at the minimum of cost having regard to the character of the service needed."

"Dive Bomber," With Fred Mac-Murray and Errol Flynn, at Capitol Theatre.

A story of unsung heroes of the united States Navy air force who .ly more for science than for glory nd who made possible the development of dive-bombing, "Dive Bomber," a new type of flying picture, comes to the Capitol Theatre here as the New Year's Eve and New Year's Day feature pres-

Fred MacMurray is the one who does the flying and, incidentally, dies a hero's death. Co-starred with MacMurray is Errol Flynn Ready To "Boil" who, as a medico, is engaged in olving the mysteries of what happens to men in the stratosphere, blackout, high altitude, etc. Ralph Bellamy is his collaborator. Other leading parts are played by Louis Jean Heydt and Alexis Smith, both newcomers to the screen.

"Dive Bomber" was lilmed in co-operation with the United States Navy, much of the picture having been actually taken at San Diego. Millions of dollars worth planes, ground equipment building facilities and landing fields, not to mention the United States aircraft carrier Enterprise herself, are seen.
