A Fast Disappearing Opportunity

Why will Fort George inevitably grov to be a great city? Because of its strategic location that assures her of a GREAT FUTURE as a distributing centre. Because there is the centre of the richest mining district in America-the CARI-BOO DISTRICT. Because great areas of TIMBER, 1,100 MILES OF NAVIGABLE WATERS, EX-CELLENT WATER POWERS, are tributary to Fort George. Because there are 250,000 acres of good agricultural lands, open for pre-

Because of all the railroad that are building or that have got their charter to build through Fort George. Because all the grain of Alberta and Saskatchewan shall be exported through the Panama Canal, which means that all that grain shall have to come to Fort

George before reaching either Prince Ru-

Within a few years Fort George will be where Vancouver and Winnipeg are today. This is the time to act. PEER'S ODD WAGER

Lord Tweedmouth Crosses Street on His Hands

The strange sight of a British peer walking on his hands across a San Francisco street was witnessed re

The peer was Lord Tweedmouth and the feat was to decide a singular wager with Mr. William Dupee, a wealthy owner of a large estate near San Diego, California, who makes a specialty or raising horses and an especially fine breed of polo ponies.

Lord Tweedmouth and a group of friends including Mr. Dupee, were discussing polo ponies at the former' hotel, and, having seen a pony which he greatly liked at Mr. Dupee's ranch Lord Tweedmouth made an offer for it. The breeder refused to sell it, but he said, "I will make you a wager If you will walk on your hands from this hotel balcony to the middle of the street the pony is yours."

With scarcely an instant hesitation, Lord Tweedmouth dropped on t his hands and raised his heels over his head, and walked the distance indicated on his hands without once touching his feet to the ground.

It was thirty steps, and he accomplished it amidst the cheers of a large crowd of onlookers in the hotel and in the street. Exactly a year previous Lord

Tweedmouth won a similar wager with Mr. Dupee, in which he took two polo ponies as prize. On that occasion Mr. Dupee bet the peer that he would not make his appearance on the stage at Los Angeles in a play called "The Deserts," in a scene depicting slumming in the lower quarters of a city. Lord Tweedmouth carried out his part, and duly won his

May Roberts Co. Great Success in WOMAN cook wanted at Bayview Hotel Old London Haymarket Comedy Drama "Captain Swift."

A packed house on Saturday evening at the Empress Theatre again testified to the popularity of the May Roberts stock company. Amongst their repertoire. for their all too short visit of four nights, their engagement terminating tomorrow evening, that fine old London Haymarket success, "Captain Swift," stands second to none. There were doubtless many amongst the audience who had seen it before in different parts of the world, but it can be safely said that all those who were fortunate enough to be present Saturday evening witnessed the fine interpretation offered by the May Roberts Company had never seen it better acted or the heart interest of the famous comedy drama more TWO room cabin for rent. In Messrs. Harry Cornell and Victor Gillard the two splendid parts of Wilding (Captain Swift) and Gardiner, the Queenslander, che of the most popular characters on the contemporary stage, found able representatives. They play splendidly together, and in the several compelling scenes
