THE BALKAN SITUATION

ATHENS—After crashing through the Nazi mechanized forces crossed the Yugoslavians and collided with the British and Greek forces at P. 4, 60 miles south, a fierce battle ensuing. British planes were reported swarming into Greece today, bombing and machine-gunning bridges, roads and tunnels along Germany's line of march toward the British-Greek defence line. The Royal Air Force was also active against transports and tank columns, inflicting heavy losses on the enemy. Two British planes were missing. Meanwhile Yugoslav forces to the north were endeavouring to stay the advance of the Nazis across their country and there was uncertainty as to whether or not they had been successful in preventing the Germans from joining with the Italians in Albania. Following the occupation of Zagreb, the Germans were reported to have crossed the Sava River and taken the towns of Subatika and Sambar. Berlin claimed that Yugoslavia was about "hors de combat" and that the royal family had fled to Turkey. At one point, however, the Yugoslavs were reported to be effectively driving against the Italians in Albania, one report being that they had even taken the important seaport of Durazzo. German bombers have been repeatedly and heavily attacking Athens.

TURKEY IN STATE OF SIEGE

ANKARA—A state of siege has been declared in Turkey. Evacuation of civilian population from Istanbul and European Turkey continues although this does not imply, it is said, that Turkey will necessarily be drawn into the war.

ENGLAND HEAVILY BOMBED

LONDON—Bristol was subjected to another heavy and damaging bomb attack last night while Coventry and Birmingham were digging themselves out after new attacks Thursday night. Ten German raiders were brought down last night, making thirty in all for the past four nights.

RACE FOR SUEZ

BUDAPEST—The race for Suez is now on, observers here state. Much will depend on how long Greece can hold out, if the Germans can continue their drive through Libya into Egypt and on the attitude of Turkey.

HITTING INVASION COAST

LONDON—The Royal Air Force struck again last night with a heavy bombing attack on Brest. A German airfield at Bordeaux was also attacked. Buildings on the Frisian Islands were struck and a direct hit scored on a 1500-ton Nazi supply ship off the coast of Norway.

BRITISH GENERAL CAPTURED

LONDON—The War Office announces that Major General Brian Carton Dewar has fallen into enemy hands while on his way to the Middle East.

With 91 per cent earned by the head of the family.

62 Per Cent Save

An analysis of the debt and savings of the families under survey brought out that 36.3 per cent of the total number showed increased debt; only 37 families broke even and 62 per cent of these average earners save money regularly.

The biggest savings group came between $1 and $99 annually. But 17 per cent of the total saved between $100 and $200 and about 50 families saved $500 or more.

In a study of these savings it was found that increase in the number of children in a family affected it only slightly. In 1,135 British families surveyed as typical, families with one child showed a savings of $145 annually; two children $165, three $140, four $142 and a slight drop at five children to $125.

In all cities, which included Chattertown, Halifax, Saint John, Quebec, Montreal, Ottawa, Toronto, London, Winnipeg, Saskatoon, Edmonton and Vancouver savings varied very little—highest being for two children families where 11.1 per cent of salaries were saved and in five-children families only 9.1 per cent of income saved.

The same curve was pretty well followed for debt. Of the 36 per cent, 21 per cent went into debt for less than $100 and about 50 families for more than $500.

Medical services purchases of household furniture and equipment, life insurance or property were mainly responsible. Less than six per cent reported indebtedness for motor car purchases.

Gross savings ranged from $181 per family in Ottawa, to $96 for families of foreign origin in Montreal. The average for English-speaking families was $158 annually and for French-speaking $138.

Movie entertainment proved the most popular of various paid amusements. Almost 90 per cent of total expenditure for amusements was spent on motion pictures. Almost 84 per cent of families of British origin had radios in their homes, the French of Montreal and Quebec a little less with 75 per cent.

CHURCHILL IS SPEAKER IN BRISTOL

Tells of Battle Going on in Greece—Sons of Britain Playing Important Part

BRISTOL, April 12: (CP)—Prime Minister Winston Churchill said today that "Australia and New Zealand troops may be in contact with the enemy today in classic land of Greece fighting with sons of Britain and playing an important part in a universal drama."

Mr. Churchill spoke in bomb-scarred Bristol University where United States Ambassador John G. Winant and Australian Premier R. G. Menzies received honorary degrees.

Prior to the ceremony, the Prime Minister toured the bombed areas. Waves of German raiders had battered their way through intense ground fire last night to subject the port to a very heavy raid, adopting the "hit-twice" technique of following up earlier bombings with fierce final attack.

Rupert Loses Pair Of Games

OCEAN FALLS, April 12: (Special to Daily News)—Booth Memorial High School boys and girls basketball teams both lost out last night in the opening games of the series with Ocean Falls High School. The score of the boys' game was 35 to 27 and that of the girls 50 to 25. Both paper town teams comprise snappy basketballers. FINAL BULLETINS

"DAN" MACDONALD DIES
VANCOUVER — Daniel Hugh MacDonald, 73 years of age, former fire chief at Prince Rupert, died today. He was born at Arisaig, Nova Scotia. He was a member of the Rossland fire department fifteen years before going to Prince Rupert in 1910. He leaves a widow and son Angus.

SUSPEND NEUTRALITY ACT
WASHINGTON—President Roosevelt has lifted the ban on American shipping through the Red Sea, thus enabling supplies being sent directly from United States to Egypt which is technically a neutral country. Now there is talk of the President moving to suspend the neutrality act so as to permit United States carrying munitions into war zones. This would be in defiance of a German threat to sink American ships on sight and without warning.

TENSION IN FAR EAST
TOKIO—With tension increasing again in the Far East, the Japanese government has ordered evacuation of its nationals from the Netherlands East Indies.

FIGHT IN LIBYA ON

Royal Air Force Doing Heavy Damage to Ground Concentrations of Axis—Seventeen German Planes Destroyed

CAIRO, April 12: (CP)—British and Australian fighters destroyed or damaged nearly one hundred vehicles in a column of German-Italian transport on the Tobruk-El Gazala road in Libya, the Royal Air Force announced. Many casualties were caused. Sixteen German fighters were definitely destroyed on the ground as well as a fighter as it attempted to take off. The total toll of Axis aircraft was put at twenty-one. British ground forces were reported engaged west of Tobruk with Axis divisions, the expectation being that a decisive battle will be made in that area.

GREENLAND SITUATION

Further Disclosures In Connection With United States Taking Bases

WASHINGTON, D.C., April 12.—In connection with the announcement of the agreement between United States and Denmark whereby United States obtains air base sites in Greenland, it is revealed that German bombers have recently flown over Greenland and Nazi warships have also been in that vicinity. Greenland may play a part as a convoy base for goods from United States to Britain. It would greatly reduce the crossing distance of the Atlantic.

BRITAIN IN ACTION NOW WITH NAZIS

Lull Over Good Friday as Germans Consolidate—Croats Yield Zagreb

CLIMACTIC STRUGGLE
ATHENS, April 12: (CP)—Nazi Panzer units appeared today to be forcing a climactic struggle in the battle for Greece as the Greek high command announced that German forces were smashing through from Bitolj, Yugoslavia, and had reached the Greek lines in Phlorina, a sector of the west flank, while, on the east flank, the Nazis were said to have penetrated further but without reaching the main defences. London reports said that a British armored car patrol yesterday successfully shot up a German infantry unit unloading from buses in the Bitolj area. Reuters reported from Athens to London a statement by a semi-official Athens news agency that reports of eighty thousand Greek troops being cut off and captured east of the Vardar River were "most exaggerated." The report said that Greek forces in that area were much smaller than that and thousands had been able to withdraw in time.

ATHENS, April 12.—The British expeditionary force in Greece announces it has established contact since Thursday with the German forces in the vicinity of Florina in northern Greece. There are no immediate indications as to the outcome at least as far as Allied official reports are concerned although in other quarters it appeared that the Nazis were still advancing with their heavily mechanized forces. Both Greeks and Yugoslavs were still fighting valiantly on, however, despite reverses. It was acknowledged today that the German forces had reached Florina. There have been heavy snowstorms and ice rains in the mountainous regions where fighting has been going on. Lieut. General Sir Maitland-Wilson is in command of the British forces in Greece and they include, besides Imperials, Australians and New Zealanders.

A lull developed late Thursday in the main battle in Greece as the Germans, apparently, endeavoured to consolidate the gains of their first advance before meeting the main Greek army and the British Expeditionary Force in what may be a titanic battle for the control of the Greek peninsula. There are indications that this great battle may take place in a mountainous country where the highly mechanized forces of the Nazis may not prove as effectual as they were in the comparatively flat country it had so far traversed. Great Britain is said to have 300,000 fully equipped forces with provision for strong aerial support in Greece ready to support the Greeks in battle.

In northeastern Greece courageous Greek forces, although apparently hopelessly entrapped, are still resisting bravely in the face of what would appear to be almost certain death.

In central Yugoslavia the Serbs are reported to be holding the Nazis from further advance.

The Italians, in the meantime at least, are being hard pressed in Albania from several directions by both Greeks and Yugoslavs. It was reported that the important port of Durazzo had been taken by the Yugoslavs.

Croats, stirred it is believed by fifth column activities, have revolted against the Yugoslav government and Zagreb, capital of Croatia and second most important city of Yugoslavia, has been surrendered to the Nazis.

Hungarian troops are reported entering northern Yugoslavia under the guise of protecting the Hungarian minority.

EDITORIAL

Looking To Easter . . .

Once more all Christendom celebrates the Resurrection. There is a period of mourning, chastening and cleansing culminating in the tragedy of Good Friday, celebrating the crucifixion. Three days later, which is tomorrow, joy breaks over the earth, for there comes the assurance that, while today we may all be sad, the bonds of death have been broken and tomorrow we celebrate the conquest of truth and righteousness over the devil and all his works.

How appropriate today is that Resurrection message. Today we are fighting against the forces of evil. An effort is being made to subjugate the whole world and make it subservient to Hitler and all his gang of murderers. As Christians celebrated the death of their Saviour yesterday the people of Europe found the hosts of the evil one prevailing in YugoSlavia. Happily tomorrow is the feast of the resurrection, the day on which the Saviour, the greatest of all democrats, triumphed over all his foes, a happy augury for a bright future for the forces of democracy in Europe. Let us all look forward to tomorrow with joy in our hearts, knowing that there are forces in this world that can overcome all evil. Possibly we have trusted too much in the strength of our armed forces. Tomorrow let us turn for help to the spiritual forces that set at naught all the cunning and brutality of the demons who threaten to dominate the world. Possibly the cultivation of such an outlook in Prince Rupert may be the turning point in the war. Why not try it?

Not Satisfactory . . .

The war situation still seems to be very unsatisfactory. While Africa has been pretty well cleaned up with the exception possibly of the north coast region, the fighting in the Balkans does not seem to be going well. In a divided command it is difficult to get that degree of cohesion which is necessary to success. There must be perfect faith in the various units taking part in the war in order to provide that inspiration which puts every man on his mettle and brings results.

If you lose anything, advertise for it. It's interesting to know when reading the Daily News that the people of the whole district are doing the same.

R.M.R. SHOW IS ENJOYED

Regimental Concert Party Puts On Midnight Entertainment At Capitol

A concert party from the Rocky Mountain Rangers regiment staged an acceptable variety show in the Capitol Theatre at midnight Thursday. Some thirty soldiers took part in the entertainment which was appreciated by the audience. It was largely of a light character consisting of sketches, skits, humorous numbers, novelties and vocal and instrumental numbers. Capt. F. H. Alwood acted as master of ceremonies in his usual genial manner and also contributed to the program. Part of the regimental orchestra provided background music as well as selections at opening, closing and between numbers.

The general setting was a trench scene in active warfare. The soldiers therein were in singing and reminiscent mood of a concert supposed to have been presented in Prince Rupert before they went overseas and it was thus that the show was presented in pseudo-retrospect.

First solo number was the singing of "Annie Laurie" by the popular Sergeant E. Docker assisted with a humorous phase by Private A. N. Werner. Scandinavian character representations by Private R. B. Crozier were entertaining as was the number "She Must be a Wonderful Girl" by Captain F. H. Alwood and chorus consisting of Sergeant Docker, Corp. Alex Day, Corp. F. Mackinder, Corp. E. Mackinder, Corp. J. Campbell, Corp. J. Stewart and Private A. N. Werner. A trio by Corp. G. Greenlees and Corp. H. Greenlees, guitars, and Corp. J. Corner, harmonica, was melodious. Corp. Campbell and Corp. J. Stewart gave clever vocal impersonations of such characters as Earl Kelly, Ed Wynne, K. H. Henburn and Ned Sparks. For the real music lovers Bandsman A. Holt's violin solos—"Hungarian Dance No. 5" (Brahms) and "Elegie" from "Thais" (Massenet) were delightful indeed. C. P. Balagno being accompanist for this outstanding number. Company Sergeant Major A. Pugsley proved himself a conjuror of much ability, especially adept in extricating himself from rope and chain ties. Another chorus "The Green Grass Grew All Around" by Sergeant Docker, Corp. Day, Corp. F. Mackinder, Corp. E. Mackinder and Private Werner was enjoyed. Private Ashley's vocal solos "Sunshine of Your Smile" and "Ah Sweet Mystery of Life" were appreciated. The burlesque number of Rits brother and sister in an adagio dance by Corp. Day and Corp. Campbell was a big hit. Capt. Alwood showed versatility in one pathetic monologue "Spotty" and in a humorous one "My Word." Private Ewart's jodeling song concluded the solo program.

Bandsman K. P. Henderson acted as pianist in place of Bandsman W. H. Edwards who is ill.

Halibut Landings Expected to Reach Stride During Coming Week—Trip To Port Simpson Causing Interest

Halibut landings at Prince Rupert for the first ten days of April following the opening of the 1940 fishing season at the first of the month totalled 329,800 pounds of which 183,500 pounds was from American vessels and 146,300 pounds from Canadian boats. Up to Thursday the boats had hardly had a chance to complete their first trips of the season in any considerable number and it is expected the ensuing week will see landings at Prince Rupert in considerable number. Landings for the week not including today amounted to 296,000 pounds of which 183,500 pounds was from American vessels and 113,300 pounds from Canadian. Prices so far this season at Prince Rupert, although now showing a tendency to weaken, were better at the start on the average than at the commencement of 1940. The high bid of the week for American fish 12.6c and 7c paid the Lumen for 9,000 pounds while for Canadian fish the top price was 12.2c and 7c received by the Parma for 18,000 pounds. Towards the latter part of the week the price fell off to 9c and 7c for both American and Canadian fish.

Port Simpson Trip

Quite a few people are planning to make the cruise to the historic neighboring village of Port Simpson aboard the steamer Camosun on Easter Monday and, if the weather is at all auspicious, there will no doubt, be a capacity list of passengers. Possibly many people are not aware of the fact that Port Simpson is well over one hundred years old now. Named after Aemilius Simpson, an early factor, it was established as a trading fort of the Hudson Bay Co. in 1834 at a time when James Douglas was endeavouring to expand into Alaska the company's command of the fur trade. A centre of native barter and intertribal relations, Port Simpson was for years the most important post on the sea between Fort Vancouver on the Columbia River and Sitka in Alaska where the Russian-American Co. had its seat. Its function was not only to draw to itself a great deal of the northern fur business but also to inaugurate a new regime for the benefit of the company, a regime of peace and order among warlike natives long demoralized by contacts and encounters with predatory seamen and now addicted with a slave trade of their own which made them constantly infringe upon one another's preserves. The establishment was many times beset with difficulties, at times being besieged by the natives and its safety threatened. There were numerous tribal fights around the old fort and its early days were exciting enough. In those times the post was surrounded by palisades and the picture was a greatly different one than it is today. The original population consisted of only some twenty or so persons but it gradually became a centre of considerable native settlement, to say nothing of quite a few whites at one time. Even the old steamer Beaver used to ply to Port Simpson. The Hudson Bay Co. carried on operations there until 1911 when the post was closed. The original buildings were burned down and in 1934, just a century after the establishment of the first fort on the site, the post was reopened. A picturesque and leisurely village, it is now the only Hudson Bay Co.'s post on the entire Pacific Coast and serves the needs of a community of some fifty whites and six hundred natives.

C.P.R. steamer Princess Adelaide, Capt. Henry Anderson, arrived in port at 2:30 yesterday afternoon from the south and sailed at 10 o'clock last night on her return to Vancouver and waypoints.

Union steamer Cardena, Capt. John Boden, arrived in port at 3 o'clock this morning from the south and sailed a couple or so hours later on her return to Vancouver and waypoints.

Something over ten thousand pounds of halibut was sold in Vancouver on Thursday, the price being 11c and 9c. In Seattle 40,000 pounds of Area No. 3 fish sold for 15c to 15 1/2c and 22,000 pounds of Area No. 2 fish for 12 1/2c to 15c.

Famous Bulls In Parliament

Irishman Named Roche Real Father Of Curious Oddities Of Speech

At the Prince Rupert Rotary Club Thursday afternoon, G. R. S. Blackaby presented an interesting paper on "Bulls, Boners and Literary lapses" in which he gave a number of humorous quotations from famous and ordinary writings and speeches. The paper must have been the result of a great deal of careful research and proved most interesting and enjoyable to those with an appreciation of humor. Following are a few quotations from the "bulls" made by Sir Boyle Roche, M.P. for Tralee, the real father of bulls:

"Mr. Speaker, half the lies our opponents tell about us are not true."

"Suppose you see three cows standing in a field and one of them is lying down, the one lying down is a bull."

"Why should we beggar ourselves to benefit posterity. What has posterity done for us?—Then he added as some laughed: "By posterity, I mean those who are coming after us."

"The muddy pool of politics was the rock on which I split."

"As for me, Mr. Speaker, I am a loyalist. I stand, sir, prostrate at the feet of my 'sovereign.'"

"Gentlemen, all along the untrodden paths of the future, we can see the hidden footprints of an unseen hand."

One of his famous bulls: "A man cannot be in two places at the same time unless he were a bird."

It is planned to give some of the other bulls and curious vagaries of speech in future numbers of this paper. Those who are interested in such things will look for them.

Visitors at the luncheon were R. L. McIntosh and Lieut. Commander Beaven.
