NEW YORK, April 4: (CP)-The New York Herald Tribune, in an editorial today, said the British withdrawal from Bengazi in Libya was a reverse to Great Britain but "is another reassuring evidence of British ability to stick to the main issues." The paper said it was not necessary to hold Bengazi for Egyptian security. The British had switched their effort to the Balkans and "are not diverting men or effort for reasons of prestige from what they have taken as the main task."

Defeated Rocky Mountain Rangers 3 to 1 in Football

Wednesday afternoon on Acropolis Hill the Royal Canadian Corps for Signals played a fine brand of soccer to win over Rocky Mountain Rangers 3 to 1 in the first league. game for the Commodore Cup.

Akkerman started for the Signals by scoring all three goals. The first goal came early in the game when Akkerman scored on a beautiful pass centred from the far corner by McNaught. Early in the second half Webster of the Rangers evened the score with a nice unassisted shot from within the penalty area. Akkerman scored for the second time on a well kicked corner by Brisley. The goal that sewed up the game for the Signals came late in the second half when Akkerman again scored, assisted by Lindsay. Although the Rangers were not clicking in their plays Wednesday the Signals looked good enough to give them keen competition at any

Second Night Of APPOINTED Plays Went Well

Prince Rupert Little Theatre Performers Acquitted Themselves Even More Creditably

Over two hundred persons made another substantial audience for the Prince Rupert Little Theatre last night in the repeat presentation of the two plays, "The House With the Twisty Windows" and "The Signal Lamp," and the show, if anything, went off better than on the opening night. Miss Ruth Nelson and Miss Jean McLean played piano duets before the opening curtain and Bandsman K. F. Henderson of the Rocky Mountain Rangers favored with piano selections between acts. Gavin Hume presided at the door and the usherettes were Mrs. William Collison and Mrs. Douglas Kerr. On the opening night Mrs. P. M. Ray had presided CALCUTTA, April 4: (CP)-Wal-Commodore Cafe.
