DOUBLE DROWNING ON DUNDAS ID. TROLLING GROUNDS SATURDAY

Helge Oden and Little Son, Freddie, Are Victims—Wife and Mother Has Narrow Escape in Sad Accident

John Harold Helge Oden, 35-year old salmon troller, and his four-year old son, Freddie, are dead and Mrs. Rose Oden, wife and mother, is in a state of collapse as a result of a drowning tragedy from the trolling boat Aina near the entrance of Hudson Bay Passage on the Dundas Island trolling grounds outside of Prince Rupert on Saturday afternoon. According to the information which has so far been made available to Deputy Coroner A. J. Lancaster and the provincial police, it appears that, while Mr. and Mrs. Oden and the little boy were trolling for salmon from the Aina, the child fell overboard about 2 o'clock Saturday afternoon. It is assumed that the father went into the water in a vain endeavour to rescue him and that the mother took to the skiff and nearly lost her life.

RUSSIANS HOLD OUT STRONGLY

German Drive On Leningrad Fails To Achieve End—Falling Back On Central Front

REDS LOSE RAIL TOWN MOSCOW, Sept. 15: (CP) — The first German crossing of the Dnieper River south of besieged Kiev was admitted today by Russia in an official report that the rail junction of Kremenchug, 175 miles below the Ukrainian capital, had fallen to the Nazis "after many days of fierce fighting." Farther south Red Armies were reported to be holding firm against Nazi attempts to cross the Dnieper while to the north a great fight was reported over Leningrad and on land and sea approaches to Russia's second city.

LONDON, Sept. 15:—Yesterday marked the 129th anniversary of the entry of Napoleon into Moscow. It was commencement of the thirteenth week of the war between Germany and Russia. While the first snow of the winter, mixed with rain, began to fall in Leningrad, the battle for which is now in critical stage, the Soviet forces continued their stubborn resistance at the very gates of the second city of the Soviet with telling effect upon the Nazis. Three villages near Leningrad have been recaptured by the Russians and a Nazi lieutenant-general killed.

The Red Air Force is smashing at Nazi mechanized units. Germany, on the other hand, claims that the planes of the Reich are becoming increasingly active all along the front and are inflicting heavy losses upon the Russians, particularly in the Leningrad area. One thing certain is that fierce fighting is continuing. The British Navy is giving valuable assistance to the Soviet in the Far North and Britain is making heavy deliveries of planes to help the Soviet.

A Nazi naval and air attempt to take the port of Kronstadt in the Baltic Sea close to Leningrad is claimed by the Russians to have ended disastrously for the Germans, a "suicide fleet" being sunk with loss of twelve thousand men and a great amount of equipment.

The Russian High Command announced Saturday night that ten German divisions and two panzer corps had been annihilated by the Red Army counter-offensive on the central front. To the north Leningrad was being subjected to fierce aerial pounding but the Russians are striking back valiantly with no sign of weakening.

WAR RECONSECRATION—

IMPRESSIVE SERVICE IS HELD HERE

Outdoor Congregation Hears Inspiring Addresses and Passes Rededicatory Resolution

An impressive and well attended open air service Sunday afternoon from the main entrance stairway of the local Court House featured Prince Rupert's observance of War Reconciliation Week. Principal addresses were given by Major T. W. Sutherland of the Royal Canadian Army Medical Corps and Rev. J. A. Donnell, pastor of First United Church. G. R. S. Blackaby acted as chairman. A resolution of reconsecration was solemnly passed. The service was interdenominational and the civilian congregation was augmented by a couple of companies from the Second Battalion, Sixteenth Canadian Scottish Regiment, the pipe and drum band of which also participated. Superfine weather favored the ceremony, typical warm sunlight from clear sky prevailing.

Canadians, meeting as they did on this day, could not help but think of millions of people who suffered under the scourge of tyranny and dictatorship. Major Sutherland said, "How these people must envy us!" It was appropriate that Canadians recognize reverently those who today were making "the greatest sacrifices nobly and unselfishly. It was fitting that they reconsecrate themselves to do their utmost for the maintenance of principles which had been their traditional privilege to enjoy so that faith and safety might be retained for all nations and all people. Canadians had been asked to devise and produce, to save and give, that the war effort might be maintained. Now they were being asked to pause and consider another kind of strength—the conformity to rules of conduct that had been the strength of the past.

Laws of human conduct based on fundamental belief the speaker designated as belief in God, in truth, in justice and fair play, in honor, in mercy and charity, in liberty of body, mind and spirit. All these principles the Nazis, whose prophet was the "little man with the funny moustache, denied and disregarded. There were two basically different conceptions of human conduct and belief. It was time for all people to take stock of themselves personally. Churchill and Roosevelt were showing the way—the former saying that "with the help of divine Providence we shall prevail," the latter by admitting in his great speech last week that he had considered, thought and prayed. "We too," declared Major Sutherland, "must renew our fidelity to basic principles of behaviour." Human weakness could no longer be considered an apology.

Canadians must be prepared to exercise the greatest fidelity to the principles they professed to believe in. Disunity and class division would have to be eliminated and, like in Great Britain where a great change

An official report from Cairo is awaited. The Arkansan belongs to the American-Hawaiian Steamship Co., regularly operating between New York and San Francisco, and was commanded by Capt. Paul R. Announcement By Knox Follows Edict Of Chief Executive

Order of President Roosevelt Goes Into Effect Tomorrow—Every Axis Raider on Surface or Below To be Destroyed

MILWAUKEE, Wisconsin, Sept. 15: (CP)—Secretary of the Navy Frank Knox told the American Legion convention today that, beginning tomorrow, the United States Navy will protect all lease-lend cargoes traversing the sea "between the American continent and waters adjacent to Iceland." He described the orders to the Atlantic fleet in unequivocal language to "capture or destroy" every Axis surface or sub-surface raider encountered. Knox avoided the word convoy. Secretary Knox's announcement was the first official disclosure of how the navy was preparing to carry out the new policy enunciated by President Franklin D. Roosevelt that henceforth Axis war vessels entering United States defensive waters did so at their own peril.

SINKING OF SUBMARINE

German U-Boat Sent To Bottom While Attacking Convoy Last Week

LONDON, Sept. 15:—The British Admiralty announces that, during the attack of German submarines and bombers on a British convoy in the Atlantic, a Nazi submarine was struck by the destroyer Velox and probably sunk. One German plane was also brought down. The fight occurred during a storm at sea and eight British ships out of forty were sunk.

AXIS ROUT IN AFRICA

"Reconnaissance in Force" From Libya Into Egypt Turned Back By British With Loss

CAIRO, Sept. 15:—Two Axis armored columns, based in Libya, penetrated thirty-five miles into Egyptian territory yesterday but were routed by British mechanized forces operating under close cover of the Royal Air Force, it was announced today. Disorganized Italo-German forces were said to have fallen back into Libyan territory. British general headquarters called the Axis thrust a "reconnaissance in force" and said it reached some miles into Egypt. The invaders lost considerably in equipment while falling back, a communique said.

AIR FIGHT CONTRAST

Only One German Plane Came Over Last Night as Compared With Great Battle Year Ago

LONDON, Sept. 15:—A year ago today the German offensive against Great Britain reached a peak in the most savage aerial battle the world has ever known—the battle costing the Nazis 137 planes during a nine-hour assault. In sharp contrast was the Air Ministry announcement today that only one Nazi aircraft crossed the British coast during the night, dropping bombs which caused minor damage and a few casualties in a northeast town. The Royal Air Force continued offensive operations during the night with a series of sweeps along the Nazi-occupied French coast with the German battleships Gneisenau and Scharnhorst at Brest as the object of attacks.

Scrap Your Cooking Utensils . . .

In a few days the local Red Cross Society will undertake the collection of aluminum as another part of its work in winning the war. A committee is being formed and plans will be made to have a thorough canvass of the city. It is hoped that every spare aluminum cooking utensil will be melted down and used for war purposes.

Just now there is a scarcity of aluminum and the person who contributes a saucepan or kettle will be doing a great deal toward defeating the enemy. It is a great opportunity for housewives to scrap their old utensils and buy new ones to take their place.

Learn to Eat Corn . . .

That pioneer farmer in England—no doubt one whose ancestors stood before King John demanding Magna Charta—who has grown an acre of American-style sweet corn for sale may have laid the foundation for many an experiment that some day will result in a still further "mixing up" of the affairs of the two English-speaking nations of which Mr. Churchill spoke on one memorable occasion, says the Victoria Times. This has appealed to many newspapers in Britain as a daring innovation calling for special comment. Here is a sample:

"Corn is a favorite food in America. It is also regarded as a great delicacy by Anglo-Indians throughout the east. The cob is boiled for 15 minutes and served like a potato in a jacket. The leaves are removed, butter or margarine is spread over the corn, and it is sprinkled with pepper and salt. Then, holding it at the ends, you nibble the corn like a rabbit."

While the manner of recommended service may fall short of Canadian and American standards, for corn on the cob, the description of the technique of eating is perfect. And this leads one American wag to suggest that "maybe Britain is going to get something out of the war after all; the privilege of eating sweet corn may not be worth a war, but it's worth a lot."

Brooklyn Now Game and a Half Ahead of St. Louis Cardinals

ST. LOUIS, Sept. 15.—Behind brilliant three hit pitching of 33-year old Whitlow Wyatt, Brooklyn Dodgers scored a one to nothing victory over St. Louis Cardinals on Saturday in the money game of a three game series and increased their margin of leadership in the thrilling National League pennant race to two full games. The bald-headed Wyatt fanned nine Cardinal batters and it was his twentieth win of the season. It was a heart-breaking loss for Mort Cooper, Cardinals' pitcher, who held the Bums hitless for seven innings and then was touched for a couple of two-baggers.

Yesterday the Dodgers moved on to Cincinnati where they scored a single victory over the Reds while the Cardinals were reducing the Brooklyn lead to a game and a half by taking a twin bill from the New York Giants. SCOTS ARE CHAMPIONS

Y. M. C. A. Sponsored Softball Season Comes to Close

Saturday afternoon at Gyro Park the Canadian Scottish defeated the Royal Canadian Air Force in a second straight game to gain the Inter-Services championship. The score of 23 to 5 was a good indication of the play that took place.

At no time were the Scottish even mildly threatened. Two six-run innings—the second and third—put the outcome beyond any question.

Such performances as fifteen-hit pitching by Hamilton, a home run with bases loaded by Sirianni and generally air-tight fielding accounted for the huge balance in favor of the Scots. If Wemp of the Air Force had had the support any pitcher might expect the number of hits against him would have been greatly reduced. It just seemed that the boys in the field couldn't snag a thing. When they got to bat every hit they made seemed labelled for a Scottish glove. Only in the sixth and seventh innings did they show signs of a revival.

Saturday's game completes the Inter-Services softball schedule for 1941 and brings the season of Y. M. C. A.-sponsored ball to a close.

Line-ups were:
Scottish—Bailey, Cook (Braton), Nelson (Beaudoin), Blesky, Sirianni, M. McLeod, Finney, Wilson, Hamilton (McLeod).

Air Force—Such, Dupuis, Wemp, Brown, Tigert, Walsh, Keith, Cope, Patton.

Score by innings:
Scottish 3 6 6 0 3 1 0 1—23
Air Force 0 0 1 0 0 2 2 0—5

What Language For Church Services

The council of St. Paul's Lutheran Church, at a meeting last week, discussed the question of language to be used in church services. Some members favored more services Norwegian and others less. The younger people are almost entirely in favor of services exclusively in English. Finally a compromise was reached whereby all evening services will be in English while morning services will be alternately in English and Norwegian.

Rev. J. H. Myrwan, the pastor, presided over the meeting which dealt with other church business of a routine nature.

had taken place, justice and humanitarian considerations extended to every activity of life. Perhaps in the past love of money had captured too much thought. Success had been measured too much on the basis of possession of the world's goods. Too little appreciation had been felt of the country that gave living, liberty and freedom. The speaker urged more closer adherence to principles of human behaviour which had been the help and stay of the past.

Civilization at Stake

Rev. J. A. Donnell thought it difficult for people to appreciate just what was at stake in this war since they had not experienced what it was to be without freedom and other traditional privileges of which they would be deprived should civilization be shaken by a cataclysm such as British defeat and the unleashing upon all the world of the forces of destruction. It was well that Canadians should today pledge themselves to make every effort to remove that threat. A year ago the British position appeared desperate. Today the prospect was much better and Britons could rededicate themselves to their cause with greater hope. Mr. Donnell exhorted a double dedication—to the cause of winning the war and to the making Canadians — imbued with Christianity and humility — worthy of victory and deliverance.

The chairman, G. R. S. Blackaby, in his opening remarks, recalled how Canada two years ago had taken her place of honor beside the Motherland—voluntarily, as a free and independent sister nation, choosing honor, daring loss. One year ago the Nazi beast had struck and trampled down nation after nation and then had sprung upon the tight little, tough little island of the motherland—there to fail for the first time as the navy, the army and the air force had lived up to the glorious traditions of Britain. Harder was the task of long waiting, carrying on. "We must not grow weary in the struggle, nor careless, nor indifferent, nor irritable, nor impatient, but steady and watchful, alert at all times and ready for any sacrifice which might be asked. Let us be worthy of those who have borne and are bearing the heat and burden of the day. The tunnel may be long, dark and tortuous but we see the light beyond. Our purpose today is the consecration of ourselves to the task that lies before us." Mr. Blackaby quoted appropriately from Owen Seaman's "Pro Patria," from Kipling and from Abraham Lincoln.

Prince Rupert's Pledge

The culminating feature of the service was the passing of a reconsecration resolution with upraised arms by the congregation, on motion of Rev. Father W. F. Lantagne, and Acting City Commissioner F. N. Good, pledging the citizens of Prince Rupert to whole-hearted co-operation in prosecution of the war, expressing grateful admiration for the men of the armed forces, pride in their accomplishments, reverent appreciation to those who had made the supreme sacrifice and reconsecration to those principles which by divine providence had been the help and stay of the past.

Capt. J. E. Whittles, area chaplain, gave the reconsecration prayer.

Musical features of the program included selections by the Canadian Scottish Pipe Band and solo "Land of Hope and Glory" by Len Cripps. The hymn of the day was "O God

HOCKEY AT SMITHERS

Webber Cup For Interior Junior Championship To Be In Competition Again

SMITHERS, Sept. 15: — H. C. Webber, well known insurance man, visited Smithers and Hazelton recently. He was accompanied by J. H. Smith of Kamloops who covers this territory frequently. Two years ago Mr. Webber, who is a hockey enthusiast and very interested in amateur hockey, presented a splendid sterling silver cup for competition by junior hockey teams in the Cariboo and northern areas. This cup was presented in honor of Fred M. Wells, the well known mining man of Wells who has done so much for mining development in the north and it was hoped by Mr. Webber that competition for the cup might develop a team that would be outstanding in British Columbia and perhaps go beyond that field.

The first year of competition the cup was won by Quesnel as the Smithers team was not able to get into competition owing to the break-up of winter weather earlier than was expected.

Last winter the Smithers Juniors were bent on winning the coveted trophy and, after intensive training by their coach, Cecil Steele, the popular picture theatre man and athlete of Smithers, the team travelled to Prince George where it had no difficulty in disposing of the much touted Quesnel team.

nel Juniors, defeating them decisively in two straight games, and bringing the Webber Cup back to Smithers where it was put on display for some time. The cup has again been put on display in the window of L. H. Kenney.

The Smithers Juniors will be greatly handicapped this winter in their efforts to hold this cup as they have lost several of their most effective players in the meantime, but there is always a new crop coming along and Smithers is a generous supporter of good hockey material.

"Don't you wish we could shorten the war?"

He: "Well, in a way we can, you know."

She: "But, George, we're not trained to do anything..."

He: "Training doesn't matter for what I'm thinking about. I was wondering whether we couldn't put more of our income into War Savings Certificates."

She: "And why not? We might have to go without one or two pet luxuries—but wouldn't it be worth it to bring back peace again?"

He: "And won't we be glad of the money—and the interest it will have earned—in a world without war restrictions!"

The help of every Canadian is needed for Victory. In these days of war the thoughtless selfish spender is a traitor to our war effort. A reduction in personal spending is now a vital necessity to relieve the pressure for goods, to enable more and more labour and materials to be diverted to winning the war. The all-out effort, which Canada must make, demands this self-denial of each of us.
