REICH IS HARD HIT

Royal Air Force Is Doing Enormous Damage

Bad Week-End

Berlin Has Worst Raid as Britain's Planes Attack Widely

LONDON, Sept. 8:—Royal Air Force attacks have snarled German communications from Norway to France. Shipping has been so disrupted that traffic has to be moved by railways which are also having a difficult time. Enormous damage has been done to military and industrial objectives.

After extensive attacks during the week-end from Norway to France, the Royal Air Force staged a heavy raid on Berlin last night and early this morning. The attack on the Reich capital lasted for several hours. Twenty British planes were brought down, Berlin claimed. Large fires, visible from the English coast, were left burning in occupied France.

One year from the night of the Germans' first mass attack on London, hundreds of planes of the Royal Air Force rode in moonlight over Europe and bombed Berlin from midnight until almost dawn today. The Air Ministry said it was the heaviest raid ever made on the German capital.

The Berlin raiders were but part of hundreds of planes striking at other points in Germany and the Nazi-held continent during the week-end of heavy battering in which untold tons of bombs were dropped.

The Air Ministry said that the Berlin attacks found lakes to the west of Berlin shining in bright moonlight and crews returning from the German capital said that many big fires burst out around the main railway station.

The sky over the French coast was reddened by fires which still burned today, sending up huge clouds of black smoke.

Admission of the intensity of the raid on Berlin came from the Germans themselves who acknowledged twenty-seven fatalities and property damage while the Nazi press raged against the attack.

Critical Letters - - -

We have today two letters from readers of the paper. One of these criticizes the local clergy for not preaching the gospel and attributes the poor attendance at the churches to the failure of the ministers and says he realizes the truth of the scriptures when it says "darkness shall cover the earth and gross darkness the people."

The other deals with political matters and makes a slashing attack on a political party, speaking of them as "political grafters."

We have a number of times suggested to correspondents that they should be very careful not to say anything in print that is libellous and therefore contrary to law. It is not lawful to speak of any person or group as grafters. Usually the charge is untrue but even when it is true it is not correct to make a public charge unless prepared to back it up with specific instances, giving time place and the names of witnesses who are prepared to go into court and back up the charge.

In regard to the clergy of the city, we believe they are sincerely preaching the gospel as they see it and we should not like to be the means of trying to undermine their work and causing people to distrust them.

Letters to the editor should be carefully written and of such a nature as not to involve the paper in controversies, especially religious controversies. In regard to politics we do not allow campaigning through the correspondence columns. Anyone wishing to campaign in the Daily News must pay for the privilege.

DOING MUCH WORK HERE

Activities Of Y. M. C. A. Are Illustrated In Monthly Reports

The important part that the Young Men's Christian Association, through its war service representatives, has been carrying out in connection with the organization and conducting of sports generally in Prince Rupert is indicated in monthly reports turned in to the national council headquarters. The reports also cover social, recreational and educational activities not only for the garrison area but also for the Navy and Royal Canadian Air Force stationed at Prince Rupert and elsewhere in the district as well as the units at the forts hereabouts.

The monthly report for the area alone, exclusive of those covering similar activity of equal importance for Navy, Royal Canadian Air Force and forts is as follows:

"The Y. M. C. A. co-ordinates sports for the area.

"The secretary acts as secretary-treasurer for the Prince Rupert Baseball Club which was formed to finance baseball in this area. The receipts at the gate supply the teams with equipment. The competition is keen and clean. The secretary is organizer and keeps the score. There are two Army teams, one Composite team and a Dry Dock (defence workers) team, competing in the league. Twenty-two sessions were played with 231 participants and 2450 spectators during the month.

"Six softball teams are competing in an inter-service league. During the month 52 sessions were played in this league with 456 participants and 975 spectators. Four groups played 20 periods with 199 participants and 475 spectators in impromptu games arranged by the secretary.

"In soccer three groups play in a city league in co-operation with the Y. M. C. A. Twenty-eight sessions were played with 263 participants and 1040 spectators. Ten periods of impromptu and challenge games were played with 355 attending and 86 participating.

"Volleyball is a fairly popular game and will be ever increasingly so as a winter game.

"Tennis is very popular. The 'Y' lends racquets for the game. Four borrowed them during the month to play on city courts.

"The 'Y' secretary is looked to for leadership and organizing in sports and a full program is being planned for the winter months when playing fields are too muddy to use.

Social and Recreational

"Two committees, one men of the forces and one civilian, have been organized to provide entertainment in the new hut and in huts throughout the area. These were formed by the secretary and meet with him to arrange programs. The quality of concert given is of the highest calibre. A Y. M. C. A. orchestra composed of men of the forces is organized to play for all dances.

"Two concerts were given, one by the forces and one by the civilians with a total attendance of 700.

"Twenty-six moving picture shows were shown to 48000.

"A dance was held with an attendance of 275.

"Two impromptu sing-songs on free nights were participated in by 50 men.

"Billiards is the most popular recreation indoor with ping pong a close second. Darts, cards and dominoes were used extensively with 8000 in all using the game rooms.

Educational

"A lecture was held by the Provincial Dept. of Health in the 'Y' Hut on social disease and was attended by 350. About 75 of these were soldiers.

"The secretary gave advice to and assisted 134 men in a variety of subjects such as educational, home problems, etc.

"A total of 4400 men used the reading and writing rooms.

"On the opening of the new Hut free refreshments were given to 300 persons.

"Thirteen thousand nine hundred sheets of writing paper and 7290 envelopes were distributed.

"Fourteen hospital visitations were made by the secretary where five movies were shown. On other occasions a total of 500 cigarettes were given to men in hospitals and new magazines and newspapers were distributed.

Nine hundred and eighty-five magazines were distributed to nine

SPORT CHAT

With a series of games at home coming up while their rivals, the Brooklyn Dodgers are traveling, the St. Louis Cardinals, although three games behind now, are considered to have a good chance still to win the National League pennant. Both teams were idle Friday and over the week-end. The Dodgers were at home in Brooklyn to the New York Giants before starting out at the first of this week for the west to meet Chicago and St. Louis. Meantime, the Cardinals are meeting the Cincinnati Reds and the Chicago Cubs on their home grounds at St. Louis.

Miss Enid Wilson, former British woman golf champion, now serving as an officer in the Women's Auxiliary Air Force, had her left eye injured in a recent London air raid. Doctors hope that treatment will restore full sight to the eye in time.

Big Bill Tilden won his first United States singles tennis title at Forest Hills, N. Y., 21 years ago Saturday, defeating W. M. Johnston in four sets 6-1, 1-6, 7-5, 6-3. Tilden reigned as the world's standing amateur tennis player until 1931 when he turned professional.

EVEN PLAY TURNED IN

Canadian Scottish - Signals Softball Game At Gyro Park

In a much more evenly contested game than the score of 8 to 4 would suggest, the Canadian Scottish softball team defeated the Royal Canadian Corps of Signals on Saturday afternoon at Gyro Park. Throughout the seven innings both teams played ball that was well worthy of a semi-final game. Had it not been for a few particularly costly errors, the Signals might well have kept the score at a more even standing. McLeod, of the Scottish, turned in a performance on the mound that kept the Sigs guessing and a little bit dazed.

As a result of yesterday's win the Scottish now have the right to meet the winner of the other semi-final to be played between the Royal Canadian Air Force and the Navy at Gyro Park tonight. Following this play-off the two winners will play a two-out-of-three series for the league championship.

Saturday's game was umpired by Breen Melvin of the Young Men's Christian Association.

A delightfully happy family get-together in the open was enjoyed by members of the Gyro Club who, with their wives and children, yesterday had a picnic on beautiful Lucy Island. LONDON, Sept. 8: (CP)—Twenty-year-old Joan Winifred Hobson, who gave up her ballet-dancing to join the Women's Auxiliary Fire Service has been awarded the British Empire Medal for bravery during one of London's heaviest air raids.

Joan, youngest member of the A.F.S. unit which she serves, was off duty and alone in the watch room of her station when a call for fire-pumps came in.

She grabbed a tin hat and respirator and ran to the street. Despite the blackness of the night, she was able to commandeer two automobiles, one of them carrying a naval officer at whom Joan threw orders right and left. The girl loaded both cars with hose and directed them to the fire. She dragged the hose to the roof of a tall building rocked by explosions and for four hours fought the flames raging next door.

WEDDING IS BEAUTIFUL

Miss Helen Doctor Charming Bride Friday Evening

A very pretty wedding was solemnized at the home of Very Reverend Dean J. B. Gibson, with Dean Gibson officiating, 8 o'clock Friday evening when Miss Helen Marie Doctor, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. Wain of this city, became the bride of Signalman George Rupert Marchildon, of the 9th Fortress Signals of this city.

The bride, who made a beautiful picture in a gown of white marquisette and a frothy three-quarter length veil trimmed with gardenias and orange blossoms, was attended by Miss Faith King, who looked lovely in a gown of peach taffeta trimmed with blue. The bride's bouquet consisted of pink roses, and the bridesmaid carried fragrant sweet peas.

The groom and the groomsmen, Signalman Clarence Lovin, looked very smart in their military uniforms.

After the ceremony, a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents at 1144 Ninth Ave. East. The rooms were tastefully decorated with pink and white streamers and a large white wedding bell. There was a profusion of flowers in every room.

Following the cutting of the wedding cake, Dean Gibson proposed a toast to the bride, which was aptly responded to by the groom. Corp Bob Townsend proposed a toast to the charming bridesmaid, to which the best man made a suitable response.

Tasty refreshments were served about 10 o'clock. 'Serveurs' were Miss Ruth Scherk, Mrs. Frank Hoelt, Mrs. R. Wood, and Mrs. A. Haig.

The guests included Dean J. B. Gibson, Mr. and Mrs. W. Wain, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Marchildon, Mr. and Mrs. F. Hoelt, Mr. and Mrs. M. Mintenko, Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Speers, Mrs. R. Wood, Mrs. A. Haig, Misses Ruth Scherk, Annie Mintenko, Dor-

Prince Rupert Shown Visitor By Light of Moon

Showing the city of Prince Rupert to a visitor by moonlight is rather unusual. Sunday morning about two o'clock the train arrived bringing Hon. J. Allison Glen, member for Marquette, Manitoba and Speaker of the House of Commons. He was met by Olof Hanson M.P. who drove him around for an hour and showed him the city by moonlight. The visitor was much impressed by the bigness of the country, this being his first trip to the Pacific Coast.

MOTHER OF PRESIDENT

Mrs. Sarah Delano Roosevelt Dies Suddenly at Hyde Park—Funeral On Tuesday

HYDE PARK, Sept. 8.—Mrs. Sarah Delano Roosevelt, mother of President Franklin D. Roosevelt, died suddenly yesterday. The funeral will take place tomorrow.

Mrs. Sara Delano Roosevelt, mother of Franklin D. Roosevelt, not only lived to see her only child become the country's 32nd President and also inaugurated three times as chief executive, but also to see her great-grandchildren play in the house where her son was born—the house to which she went as a bride.

Only 20 miles separates the Hyde Park estate on the Hudson, where she spent most of her married life, from "Algomac," her girlhood home, near Newburgh, N.Y.

At 78, she saw the Hyde Park home become "the summer White House" of her son. At 79, she was a happy celebrant at New York's birthday ball in his honor.

An earlier milestone: She saw her son, when he was 4, trundle his distant cousin, Anna Eleanor Roosevelt, on his back in the nursery at Hyde Park; and nineteen years later saw them married—"Frank"—young law student, his bride a girl of 21.

She was her son's childhood nurse, guided his early education, watched his political rise from state senator to President. The crowning moment of her life was when her son, just inaugurated, took her in to luncheon at the White House.

She was born September 21, 1854, the daughter of a long line of merchants in the Far East trade. Her father, Warren Delano, was engaged in banking and commerce. Her mother was the former Katherine Robbins Lyman, of Northampton, Mass.

She had four sisters, and they came to be known as "the five beautiful Delano daughters." Her marriage to James Roosevelt October 7, 1880, joined her to a line equally aristocratic. Her life was lived in an atmosphere of dignity and tradition.

She was educated by governesses in her own home, and later studied four years in France and Germany. When she was only eight years old, she went with her mother to China in the clipper ship "Surprise." It was a "square rigger" and the journey took four months.

Sees Empress Eugenie

The trip was made to join her father, who was in business in Hong Kong. They lived there for a while. On their way home, they topped in Europe for the winter. Leaning over the balustrade of their Paris home, Sara Delano saw the Empress Eugenie ride forth, surrounded by her court, and waved at her.

Her husband, James Roosevelt, was a lawyer by profession, but never practiced. He had financial and railroad interests. He belonged to the distinguished New York line whose name is recurrent in American history. His father, Isaac Roosevelt, was a distant cousin of President Theodore Roosevelt.

James Roosevelt died December 3, 1900. Thereafter his widow lived alone, but always in state, in half of the Roosevelt town house in Manhattan. Her summers she spent with her family at Hyde Park in the huge house where abounded souvenirs of her son.

Whifflets From The Waterfront

Although Saturday marked the official opening of the season for the legal hunting of deer in Prince Rupert district, it was attended with little, if any, activity in the pursuit of game. Weather is still much too summery to make hunting seem much the thing to do. Possibly if and when the fall storms come this year, thoughts will turn more actively to hunting. Then again, it seems that bird hunting during the past few years has become much more popular locally than deer hunting. Many of the hunters are also more actively engaged in their work and business just now than they used to be in the old leisurely days.

With a total of 249 passengers, consisting almost entirely of tourists, C.P.R. steamer Princess Louise, Capt. S. K. Gray, was in port from 4:30 to 6:30 Saturday afternoon. Six of the passengers left the vessel here, two taking passage from Prince Rupert for Vancouver.

Union steamer Catala, Capt. Ernest Sheppard, arrived in port at 7:30 this morning from the south, sailing at noon for Stewart and other northern points whence she will return here tomorrow afternoon southbound.

Junior Red Cross

Junior Red Cross activities organized and supervised by the public and high school teachers have become an important and vital extra curricular work throughout the schools of this province. When school closed in June, B. C. had 1613 Junior Red Cross branches with an approximate membership of 60,000. During the school year they had raised $10,000. With the opening of schools, enrolment forms have again been sent to principals and teachers in the province. Last year more than a thousand branches were enrolled before October. The provincial office is prepared for a greater rush this year.

Work Increased

Owing to increased war needs, the Provincial Red Cross Women's War Work Committee reports a "many times busier summer" this year than last. In July more than twice as much money was spent on distributed materials; more than eight times as many hospital and service supplies and three times the number of surgical dressings shipped. Over 10,000 civilian comforts were received and 8,807 were shipped during this hot holiday month.

In answer to an appeal from Britain for surgical instruments the Canadian Red Cross has formed a committee to approach Canadian Medical Associations to ask their members to donate any spare instruments. If needed these will be repaired and repaired. A recent donation of instruments, valued at $2,000 given to the B.C. Red Cross Division by Vancouver doctors, has been sent East.

Depots Overseas

Britain has many Red Cross depots, each skillfully linked to each other by a scientific plan of communication and transport so that should any part of the country raise the distress signal, aid can be rushed thereto from a dozen other points with speed and efficiency.

Mrs. Marie Somerville, of Victoria, president of the Rebekah Assembly of British Columbia, arrived in the city on Thursday evening's train. She will pay a visit to the local lodge this evening when a special meeting is being held. She is accompanied by the Assembly Marshal Mrs. Edith Sims of Vancouver.
