W. J. Crawford, well known Stewart transportation man, after a business trip to Fort St. James, arrived in the city on Saturday night's train from the interior and sailed Sunday night on the Catala on his return to Stewart.

Refreshments were served at the close of the evening.

IT'S A BEAUTY
BUT THEY'RE SCARCE!
THE
C.C.M.
FOR SPRING

FOR OVER 100 YEARS the bicycle has had a universal appeal to old and young and its appeal now is stronger than ever—especially the C.C.M. for Spring! It's a beauty but they're scarce. They're scarce because much of the material and many of the machines with which we ordinarily make bicycles are converted to war work.

However, we still make as many bicycles as we are able to get material for, as bicycles are essential for many war workers to carry them to and from their important war jobs.

In spite of our manufacturing difficulties we are rigidly maintaining the high quality and precision of C.C.M. Bicycles down to the smallest detail.

If you are engaged in war work go to your C.C.M. dealer and see the C.C.M. Bicycles for Spring. If the dealer can supply you with one you would be wise to buy it and make yourself independent of other means of transportation.

Whifflets From The Waterfront

The Jedway, Capt. Johnny Hartlin, was in from Port Simpson waters this morning with five hundred pounds of halibut which the bacon Fisheries purchased for 13c. a pound. Union steamer Catala, Capt. Ernest Sheppard, arrived in port at 9:15 this morning from Port Simpson. Stewart and the Naas River and sailed at 1:30 this afternoon in continuation of her regular voyage to Vancouver.

Reporting a voyage rather rougher than usual, Union steamer Camosun, Capt. James Watt, arrived in port at 5 o'clock yesterday afternoon from Vancouver via the Queen Charlotte Islands, sailing at 12 midnight tonight on her return south over the same route. Among calls made by the vessel on the way north was Rose Harbor where the Consolidated Whaling Corporation's station is being put in readiness for another season's operations.

"TOPPER" IS HERE AGAIN

Comedy-Mystery Is Billed For Capitol Theatre At Middle Of Week

Comedy, mystery and romance are blended in a swiftly paced story which unfolds in "Topper Returns" which comes as the mid-week feature offering to the screen of the Capitol Theatre here with a cast including such favorites as Joan Blondell, Roland Young, Carole Landis, Billie Burke, Dennis O'Keefe, Patsy Kelly, Eddie Rochester and H. B. Warner.

As in previous pictures of the "Topper" series, Topper again manifests his embarrassing fascination for ghosts. The lovely shapely spirit which haunts this time is Joan Blondell.

Almost the entire action of "Topper Returns" occurs in an old, eerie mansion fitted by sliding panels, collapsing chairs, trap doors, dark dungeons and secret passages.

Carole Landis has a romantic feminine lead opposite Dennis O'Keefe as a flip taxicab driver. H. B. Warner plays the villain of the piece while Rochester is Topper's chauffeur. Patsy Kelly is typically cast as a maid and carries much of the comedy.
