Girl Chauffeurs Appeal To Men

Fair Sex Taking Hold in Parking Lots and Service Stations and Relieving Men for War Services

By HAZEL DEAN (Canadian Press Staff Writer)

TORONTO, Aug. 21 — "One of those women drivers," they used to say — a bit derisively or maybe sympathetically — when there was a traffic jam or anything else interrupting the course of smooth motoring.

But that was before the war. Motorists today have good reason to question stories about helpless women drivers. The women filling wartime positions as service station attendants and chauffeurs in downtown parking lots have learned to do a man's job with confidence and skill.

Officials of one large store, employing women in parking service say the girls are better drivers than men. "Customers need have no apprehension when they entrust their cars to our girls. They are more careful than the men ever were." Each "parker" has her chauffeur's licence and is an experienced driver. They receive preliminary training in the company garage where they practice car placement and learn to drive to and from various floor levels on steep ramps. Besides being skilful drivers, members of the parking service staff must be courteous and well-groomed. They wear trim brown uniforms.

Customer Opinion

What does Mr. or Mrs. Motorist think of these women chauffeurs? Officials say the idea appealed to the men from the start. "But the women were a bit reluctant to hand their cars over to the girls at first. Apparently they didn't trust other women drivers very far."

Feminine service station attendants caused a stir when they took over their wartime jobs. But it did not take them long to prove their ability to "man" gasoline pumps and change customers' oil. Pleased with the girls' success one company now employs nearly 30 women attendants in its stations in Toronto alone. Many are high school graduates and some are university students working during school holidays.

Young women replacing men as service station attendants must be handy with duster and broom. Keeping the station tidy is one of the attendants' big problems. And how about the check-up jobs? Yes, my boy, they are learning to do that, too.

GAINS ARE INCREASED

Position of Americans in Solomon Islands is Further Improved

WASHINGTON, D.C., Aug. 21 — Further islands in the Tulagi area of the Solomon Islands have been captured by the American marines who are mopping up on gains already made. Attacks by Japanese aircraft, destroyers and submarines on the new American positions have been successfully fought off.

Tulagi gives the Allies an important base for the defence of Australia and the protection of shipping to the Commonwealth. United States aircraft have attacked Japanese shipping and enemy bases and a Japanese cruiser or destroyer was set afire.

While Allied scouting planes searched the waters around the embattled Solomon Islands for new evidence of Japanese naval activity, bombers made another attack yesterday upon enemy forces based on the island of Timor north-west of Australia.

RELATIONS ARE WORSE

Sixth Brazilian Ship Sunk by Axis Submarine—Cleaning Up On Enemy

RIO DE JANEIRO, Aug. 21 — A sixth Brazilian merchant vessel has been sunk by an Axis submarine and relations between Brazil and the Axis powers show further deterioration.

All Axis diplomats in the republic are being required to leave for home and there is a widespread search for fifth columnists. Many Germans and Italians are being sent to work camps in the interior. Meanwhile the sinking of another Axis submarine off the Brazilian coast—the third reported destroyed in those waters this week—was credited unofficially today to United States planes operating from somewhere in Brazil.

Gallant Sea Officer Honored

CAPTAIN PERCY AMBROSE KELLY, Chief Officer of the Canadian National Steamship "Lady Hawkins" when that vessel was sunk by an enemy submarine on the evening of February 19, 1942, was recently honored by the Dominion Government for conspicuous gallantry shown on that occasion. The testimonial took the form of a silver tray on which the following inscription was engraved:

"Presented by the Government of Canada to Percy Ambrose Kelly, Chief Officer, R.M.S. Lady Hawkins, for meritorious conduct when the vessel was sunk without warning by an enemy submarine on the night of February 19, 1942."

The presentation took place in the Nova Scotian hotel at Halifax, Captain Kelly receiving the government's token at the hands of C. H. Hosterman, Marine Agent for the Department of Transport at Halifax, representing Hon. C. D. Howe, Acting Transport Minister.

ARE OVER RIVER DON

Germans Succeed in Establishing Bridgehead to Further Threaten Stalingrad

YEAR OLD SIEGE MOSCOW, August 21: (CP) — Chancellor Adolf Hitler launched his unsuccessful assault upon Leningrad a year ago today, besieging the former capital with 300,000 soldiers. After twelve months, the city's defenders fight on.

MOSCOW, Aug. 21 — The Germans have succeeded in an attempt to cross the Don River and have established a bridgehead, increasing the threat on the steel city of Stalingrad from which the enemy are now only fifty miles distant. The advances of the enemy continue to cost them dearly in, toll of life. There is stubborn fighting south of Kletskeya where repeated Nazi attacks have been repulsed.

A dangerous infiltration towards the Black Sea continues but Russian naval vessels, despite threat to their bases, continue active and are reported to have sunk a 5,000 ton German transport.

While the Nazis continue to make headway towards Stalingrad, the Caucasus and the Black Sea in the south, elsewhere continuous and persistent Russian counter-attacks are exhausting the Germans. German forces which crossed the Don River loop southeast of Kletskeya fought violently for a pathway to Stalingrad today but field dispatches said that strong Russian bayonet charges pinned down the vanguard and a complementary thrust from the southwest was hurled back by counter-attacks.

HEAVY RAID ON FRANCE

Bombers of Britain, Canada and United States Deliver Attack Upon Amiens and Other Points

LONDON, August 21: — Planes of the Royal Air Force, the Royal Canadian Air Force and United States flying fortresses, numbering five hundred, made a great four-pronged daylight sweep over northern France late yesterday. Amiens, railway centre, sixty miles inland from Dieppe, was the principal objective and it was heavily bombed with telling effect.

SEQUEL OF BIG RAID

Germans Lost Many Planes—H.M.S. Berkeley Sunk—There Were Casualties

LONDON, August 21: (CP) — The clipped wings of the German air force in western Europe ranked today as the first big dividend of Dieppe. Allied mastery of the air is now complete beyond challenge, not only over Great Britain and the Channel but even deep into enemy territory itself.

LONDON, Aug. 21 — As a result of air battles which accompanied the action centring on the commando raid around Dieppe this week the Nazis have lost at least 273 planes — more than half of them bombers — out of an estimated 500 planes of the enemy based on Northern France and Belgium.

An estimated 26,100 bombs were dropped in these actions. It has been announced that during the raid on Dieppe the destroyer Berkeley was so badly damaged that she had to be sunk.

The British lost a number of landing vessels and there were casualties as might have been anticipated.

FIELDS ON ALEUTIANS

U.S. Bomber Pilots Say Enemy Still Have No Land Based Fighters on Job

By WILLIAM WORDEN ANCHORAGE, Alaska, August 21. (AP) — American bomber pilots' failure to encounter land-based aerial opposition at Kiska and other Jap-held bases on the outer Aleutians has led to a belief that the enemy so far has been unable to establish landing fields on any part of the islands.

An army air force officer said that the Japs are using single seat float and seaplane fighters, based neither on carriers nor on land but only on the water. This apparently is the extent of their present air defence.

The reasons for the enemy's failure to create usable runways on Kiska's beaches or rocky uplands are doubtful, inasmuch as it is known that an attempt was made.

Army sources here believe that the Japs were surprised at the strength of the American bombing of Kiska in the face of the long distances involved, the fogs and high winds which make almost impossible flying conditions. Some persons familiar with the peculiar geological formations of the Aleutians say the rock on Kiska, extremely hard and glasslike, may have proved too much for excavation, forcing the airplane runway builders to fill in depressions for their projected airfields rather than knocking off humps. This would be a longer and more laborious process.

It is barely possible that the enemy may never be able, under war conditions, to build a runway long and smooth for bombers even if he is able to hold the islands indefinitely.

EDITORIAL

INCIDENTAL TO WAR

The people of the East feel we are in a vulnerable spot here. Possibly, they have an exaggerated view of our peril. Possibly, they have not. But that is by the way. If we do see physical warfare here, serious though it may be for us in a personal way, it will, after all, be but an incident.

all very well to talk about leadership—but what is leadership if nobody will follow? Have we not actually resented leadership, thinking more of criticizing it than following it; too much intent upon following our own sweet way?

SERIOUS THINGS

The editor has found it difficult to speak of impressions of Canada—telling you in detail how very fine the crops on the prairies are, what a cool summer it has been in Ontario, how slow it seemed travelling home in a railway train after covering two and a half thousand miles by air in less than three quarters of a day, how interesting it was to see those many new sights in a great country which he had never seen before and, of course, telling you how business is, how everybody is making money these days—and spending it, too—how things are booming. Somehow or other those things seem of rather minor importance these days in the face of graver things which face us with such stark reality.

GREAT IN RESOURCES

We are so great in resources but we are so few in numbers. Maybe we have erred in the past in our failure to develop those resources, to use them effectively and efficiently for ourselves and for the rest of mankind. If we are not willing to make the sacrifice today of each and every one of us taking his or her place where we can best serve the nation as a whole in this all out effort, it will not be Canadians who will be using those resources of which we have been so blindly boastful and so extremely neglectful.

"After seeing Canada, all we have to fight for, all we have to live for, all we have to die for, what we have to save for those who follow us, one cannot escape the thought that, evade our responsibilities as we may, carry on the old way as we may wish to do, we have not much longer to decide each of us individually—are we pulling our load now and, if not, are we willing to do everything we can about it?"

MANPOWER PROBLEM

Manpower is a problem in Canada today. It is the problem upon which the whole issue of this conflict may rise or fall. There is no need to talk about the critical state of affairs. Surely it does not need much imagination on the part of any of us to picture what will happen if Canada falls in her job as an arsenal of democracy. Yes, we are only a small nation in point of population but we wonder if many of us have ever thought what the chances of the democracies would be if Canada, with all her wealth of resources, were not in this fight? And without the effective use and marshalling of her manpower, Canada cannot make the war effort that must be made. On how we use our manpower the whole issue may rise or fall.

BLAMING GOV'T

There is a tendency for some of us to criticize the government for its slowness to move. Possibly some of our criticism may have been unfair for, after all, has the government not given us what we have asked for. It is

BOXING AT THE 'Y' HUT

The first of what is proposed to be a series of boxing matches was held at the "Y" Hut on Thursday evening.

Most of the boys were not in training, and slowed up noticeably after the first round or so, but in spite of that, some very good fights were dished up.

In the first bout, Paul Miller's game 156 pounds were not heavy enough for Bill Chief's 175, and the decision went to the Chief.

One of the most popular bouts was between two lightweights, Bert Pownall and "Yorkie" Creswell. In this case the fight went the three full rounds, and the decision to Pownall.

The next three-rounder was a proof of condition, where T. Dents at 126 pounds was able to take a decision over Sgt. Fred Holland, who had been out of training for some time.

In the "heavy" class, Frank

Sciaini and Art Smith mixed it well and freely, and were going great guns when Sciaini injured a thumb that he had already put out of joint in the afternoon. So they called it a draw at the end of the second round.

Two of the best bouts of the evening were the last two, when Red McLean, 135, lost by a slight margin to George Clyburn, 130, and Orman at 132 battled to a draw with Shaw at 135.

Both these fights went three rounds, and the boys did some clean fast battling in every round. There were far fewer clinches and much more smart punching and footwork than in the preceding bouts, and each round was given a big hand by the crowd.

As there was no big purse to battle for the boys went into it for the sportsmanship, glory, good clean fun or what have you, and every round showed that — good clean fun and swell sportsmanship.

Carleton Clay, "Y" Hut supervisor, played host to the affair and thanked all those who made the bouts possible, especially Sgts. Grosso and Sciaini, who had done so much to promote the meet.

Seven bouts made up the evening's card, and it is hoped that an equally enjoyable one will be presented next Thursday.

CLEMENCY IS SOUGHT

South African Government Scheme For Food Conservation

CAPE TOWN, Aug. 21 (C)—A government commission to deal with supplying food to South African war prisoners captured in the North African campaign is to be of the Secretary of External Affairs. A fund which is being collected here as a personal donation to Prime Minister J. C. Smuts has been earmarked by him for "spring-bok" prisoners of war.

(The number of Union prisoners taken in the North African campaign has not been made public, although the Prime Minister recently sent out an appeal for 7,000 men to replace those lost and presumably in prison camps of Italy and Germany.)

Death Sentences Confirmed
 The death sentence passed on Julian Visser and Hendrik van Blerk, for dynamiting outrages on the Rand has been confirmed by the Appellate Division; the young Afrikaanders were charged under emergency regulations. A petition asking clemency has been launched.

The government scheme to conserve essential foodstuffs has been so successful that present stocks of eggs, butter, cheese and bacon are greater than the quantities on hand at the end of June, 1941.

South Africa now has facilities for the reclaiming and reprocessing of scrap rubber. It is estimated that sufficient will be produced in this way to supply the Union's essential needs.

Local transportation boards throughout South Africa have been given wide powers to restrict road transportation and certificates may only be retained for national needs.

Railways Minister F. C. Sturrock has advised firms to assist each other with mutual schemes of co-operative deliveries.

Discovery of revolutionary methods of enabling anti-aircraft and field guns to range their targets immediately on sighting, is claimed by J. D. Vanderberg of Witwatersrand. The invention is under investigation by the Department of Defence.

The government has announced a policy of non-issue of demands or summonses against soldiers at the front for payment of income or provincial taxes.

Bilingualism
 Prof. T. J. Haarhoff of the University of the Witwatersrand has suggested bilingual education as the best method of "healing the breach" between the English and Dutch sections of the Union's population. It is essential to make the second language something real and not merely a means of passing examinations, he said.

Mrs. J. C. Smuts, wife of the Prime Minister, speaking in Pretoria, said that on a recent visit to Egypt she found English-speaking South Africans speaking Afrikaans. "They told me that it seemed to bring home nearer," she said. Others such as Australian and New Zealand soldiers were also learning the Afrikaans language.

Ten Vichy-Frenchmen have been interned after being in South Africa since November when five French vessels were intercepted. Other persons from Vichy ships are being removed from the coastal belt and placed under supervision in inland towns.

The Cape Town city council is considering an expenditure of £20,000 ($89,400) for 10,000 shelter-tables for public use in air raids.

Women Of Moose Were In Session

Further Candidates Initiated— Social Evening Is Enjoyed

The Women of the Moose held their regular meeting on Wednesday in the Oddfellows' Hall with their beautiful ritualistic initiation ceremony again being used.

After the reports of the various committee chairmen, on their activities and progress had been given, the senior regent, Mrs. W. H. Tolin, spoke a few words of encouragement and thanks for their efforts.

Contests were enjoyed after the meeting. Then refreshments were served under the sponsorship of membership, library and Mooseheart chairmen, bring to a close another pleasant social evening.

EDUCATING OF FORCES

chickens at Debert. Seamen in the merchant navy are taking these courses too. Engineering and radio are their favorites, but the colored sailors—mostly greasers in tankers—have a distinct preference for music. In all the branches, introductory courses in reading and writing, English and mathematics rank high.

They Move About

Sometimes, says Mrs. Kinsey, the officials are hard pressed to keep track of its students, who may be shifting from one side of the Dominion to the other or sailing to foreign countries. Casualty cards, too, sprinkle the records of the Legion.

"We had one merchant seaman," relates Mrs. Kinsey, "who was reported missing after his ship—a tanker—was sunk in the Caribbean Sea. We returned his books to Ottawa. The other day he walked calmly into our office. He still wants that course. But he brought word of one of our students who won't come back."

"A naval reserve man registered for a course last September. Just afterwards his boat went to Scotland. He came back two days ago, and brought us lessons four to 14 inclusive, all completed. As there were 20 lessons in the course, we wondered why he hadn't done them all. But in looking over his booklet, we found a Greenwich telephone number with the name 'Irene' scribbled after it. We decided among ourselves to blame his failure to finish upon 'Irene.'"
