Dakar Is To Be Evacuated

VICHY, Oct. 1 (P)—An official source said today that Pierre Boisson, governor of Dakar, had decided to evacuate European women and children from that French West African port. DIFFICULTY AT DIEPPE

Churchill Declines to Give Details Of Participating Forces—Road Blocks Impenetrable

LONDON, Oct. 1 (P)—Speaking in the House of Commons yesterday, Prime Minister Winston Churchill declined to give figures of the strength of the participating forces in addition to Canadians in the invasion attempt at Dieppe. He admitted, however, that Canadians formed the bulk of the expedition, suffering 3,350 casualties out of 5,000 officers and men taking part.

The Prime Minister made this statement in admitting that the Canadian-led expedition met tank barriers of unforeseen strength and the attackers losses were "very nearly half the total" of troops involved. Road blocks, said the Prime Minister, had been found which it was impossible for British guns to dislodge.

U.S. LOSES TRANSPORTS

Two Vessels Sunk in Solomon Islands by Japanese

WASHINGTON, D.C., Oct. 1:—The Department of the Navy announces loss of two transports from enemy action in the Solomon Islands on August 5. Fortunately, loss of life was light as the ships had discharged.

One of the vessels, the 8,378-ton George F. Elliott, formerly the liner City of Los Angeles, was the victim of a torpedo plane which crashed into her after she had landed troops and supplies. Gasoline fires were started which could not be extinguished.

The other, the Gregory, was a destroyer type auxiliary transport and was sunk at Guadalcanal. Previously loss of two destroyers, two transports and one cruiser had been announced.

The Japanese losses amounted to 28 ships sunk or damaged and 209 planes destroyed.

Consumption of Energy Greatest In History of City

Prince Rupert is now using the greatest amount of electrical energy in its history and the load is gradually increasing, making it necessary to consider the early necessity of increasing the present power output, J. J. Little, general manager of the Northern British Columbia Power Co., states.

The maximum peak load so far has been 3,300 kilowatts which exceeds the present output of the main power plant of the company at Falls River which is 3,000 kilowatts. While Falls River operates continuously it is also necessary to use the 1,100 kilowatt plant at Shawatlans Lake part of each day.

T. Kenney, M.L.A. for Skeena, also came in with the Premier. Following arrival the Premier and his party had luncheon with Robert Gordon.

HITLER IS REALISTIC

BERLIN, Oct. 1—The people of the Reich and of the Army must face another hard winter of fighting, Chancellor Adolf Hitler declared yesterday. All the main objectives in Russia had already been taken, Hitler claimed. He treated the leaders of the democracies with sarcasm and scorn and praised German U-boat warfare and industrial production.

The Fuehrer said Germans would never capitulate but would fight to the end. The High Command was constantly prepared for a second front. Dieppe, Hitler declared, was a full-fledged but unsuccessful invasion attempt.

Hitler told the German people that "we believe we shall continue to defeat our enemies until final victory is ours." He assured the German nation that Stalingrad is bound to fall.

The Fuehrer was making his customary winter relief campaign speech to the Nazi party, Marshal Rommel was among the top Nazi leaders attending. On the same occasion last year Hitler declared that the Russians were broken and "will never rise again."

Premier Stalin Tells Defenders of City To Yield No Ground

Russians Crunch Forward North and South of Stricken City—Germans Seem Unable to Deal Knock-out Blow

MOSCOW, Oct. 1 (CP)—Backed by a stream of reinforcements from across the Volga and barrages from roving guns of the Volga flotilla, Russian infantrymen, under telephone orders from Premier Joseph Stalin to yield no more, were reported to be crunching forward today northwest and southwest of Stalingrad. Dispatches to Red Star frankly picture the city as in "the most decisive moment" of its trial as increasing weight of Axis troops and machines was thrown into the fight.

Counter-offensive strokes on the wings of the constricted front evidently were designed to wipe out or offset a new wedge driven into the northwestern flank by a fresh German tank division as reported in a Soviet midnight communique. Even with the arrival of tank and infantry divisions, the Germans seemed unable to deal a decisive blow as the Volga boatmen kept communications open across the river, bringing up Russian reserves under fierce German air attacks.

The Red Star said that 600 to 1,000 planes had been bombing Stalingrad each day, piling debris on debris.

Today's midday communique said that the enemy had been dislodged from one village at the southwestern outskirts of Stalingrad and the Red Star said that in the southern sector three settlements had been recaptured with Panzer troops thrown into panic in one place.

A Reuters dispatch to London from Stockholm said that Soviet forces had broken through the German defensive position at points along the Don northwest of Stalingrad.

Mr. Wooten recalled that Northern British Columbia had led all divisions of British Columbia in its oversubscription of quota in the last loan and he was sure it would be doing as well again in the forthcoming campaign. The speaker briefly described the organization for the campaign. Payrolls, greatly increased these days, were considered the best field for sales. Employees in large establishments, through their unions and otherwise, would be asked to form their own committees and undertake the responsibility of selling to their fellow workers. Employers would also be asked to assist in every way possible to encourage their employees to buy bonds.

Mr. Wooten explained the system of remuneration for canvassers and disabused the minds of his listeners of any wild stories they may have heard of large earnings. As a matter of fact, the salesmen of Victory Bonds in the most of cases worked at the expense of their own businesses and for less than normal earnings. There was no commission for sale of bonds to those on special names list or internal canvasses. Past President W. F. Stone was in the chair at yesterday's Gyro luncheon and guests, besides the speaker, were Jack Campbell and Morley Shier.

ST. LOUIS, Oct. 1—In another thrilling game, St. Louis Cardinals evened up the World Series count this afternoon by defeating New York Yankees 4 to 3. The teams entered the ninth inning tied at three all, the winning counter coming for the Cards in the final stanza. Cards had scored twice in the first and once in the seventh, the Yanks evening it up in the eighth. Batteries were Beesley and Cooper for St. Louis and Bonham and Dickey for the Yankees.

MELBOURNE, Oct. 1—The Japanese retreat before the Australians on New Guinea Island in the Owen Stanley Mountain area is assuming the form of a real rout. Allied bombers continue to pound the enemy's supply dumps and communication lines.

CALLING UP YOUTHS NOW

Men Nineteen Years of Age and Aliens Within Callable Ages Must Take Military Training

OTTAWA, Oct. 1 (P)—Men nineteen years of age and aliens within callable age groups are made liable for compulsory military service in a proclamation announced yesterday. It is estimated that 140,000 more men will thus be made available.

The proclamation followed an interview in Montreal on Tuesday with Elliott M. Little, director of national selective service, who said that calling up of eighteen and nineteen year old youths and married men for compulsory military service is "a distinct possibility." He added, however, that present manpower supplies for the armed forces were far from exhausted.

SUPPORT OF LOAN

Geoffrey Wooten Speaker at Meeting of Gyro Club Yesterday

Speaking before the Prince Rupert Gyro Club at its regular weekly luncheon yesterday, Geoffrey Wooten, organizer for this district in the forthcoming Third Victory Loan campaign, asked for confidence and enthusiasm in supporting the Dominion through purchase of its securities and urging others to do the same. It was patriotic to save money at this time and the more that was put into Victory Bonds the better both from the standpoint of providing the finances for war and building up resources for future purchasing power when the demands of war would be over.

Mr. Wooten recalled that Northern British Columbia had led all divisions of British Columbia in its oversubscription of quota in the last loan and he was sure it would be doing as well again in the forthcoming campaign.

The speaker briefly described the organization for the campaign. Payrolls, greatly increased these days, were considered the best field for sales. Employees in large establishments, through their unions and otherwise, would be asked to form their own committees and undertake the responsibility of selling to their fellow workers. Employers would also be asked to assist in every way possible to encourage their employees to buy bonds.

Are We Ready For "Real Thing" ...

The precautionary blackout Monday night focussed attention of Prince Rupert people once again on their Air Raid Protection measures and the check-up was a good thing. After so long a period without any alarm, there was no doubt a tendency on the part of some of us to slacken up a bit. Now there has been a scurrying about to be in a better state of readiness against the possibility of the "real thing" coming along one of these fine days or nights. We had been much in need of a practice.

The A.R.P. patrol wardens report that, as a whole, lights throughout the city in homes and elsewhere were well obscured. In fact, the number of glimmers was surprisingly small. Indications are that the householders, at least, are catching on very well to the blackout idea.

Once again the whole effectiveness of the blackout was to considerable extent lost through the driving around of automobiles with glaring headlights which were visible for long distances and most certainly could be seen from the air. We have wondered before what is the use of a blackout at all if the automobiles are to be permitted to spoil it this way. We are still wondering if A.R.P. regulations permit some of the lights which were seen Monday night, it is high time that such regulations were changed.

Meanwhile it is to be hoped that the blackout will have had the effect of generally strengthening up and perfecting the A.R.P. organization. The enemy, if he does come, will come with little or no warning and we should have all our preparations made and materials laid out and in readiness for instant use when the emergency arises. The authorities have sent a good deal of equipment of various kinds into Prince Rupert on the understanding that it will not be left lying around in a position where it would be of little or no use if required in a hurry.

The very great value of a well organized, prepared and equipped A.R.P. organization, knowing what to do and how to do it, has proven a Godsend in many places which have already been under attack in this war. And no one would feel worse than the people of the A.R.P. themselves if disaster should come here and people should die or suffer unduly through lack of organization and preparation to succor them.

The job of the A.R.P., like that of the armed forces, is not just to talk and plan what to do but to see that it is in a position to do what it should do if and when the time comes.

We should all be practising up on our A.R.P. jobs and incidentally, those who have not such a job already would make very welcome volunteers.

People who go fumbling around in the dark to faithfully adhere to the spirit of the blackout cannot be blamed for feeling a little resentful at the automobiles which go flaming by to spoil the whole purpose of the thing.

GAME WAS THRILLER

Red Ruffing Breaks Records And Nearly Made Series History—Cards Put on Great Spurt

ST. LOUIS, Oct. 1: (C)—Red Ruffing, 38-year old New York Yankee right-hander, was on the verge of pitching one of the greatest games of baseball history yesterday when the St. Louis Cardinals fell on him after two were out in the final frame of the first World Series game which the Yanks won by a score of 7 to 4. It was then that Ruffing was driven from the mound under a terrific barrage of hits as the Cardinals pushed across four runs before Soud Chandler finally stopped them. The bases were loaded with the Cardinals' tying run on first base when Stan Musial, St. Louis rookie, grounded out to first to end the game as the crowd groaned. Up to the time that Ruffing was blasted, he had set a World Series record of pitching seven-and-two-thirds innings of hitless ball. It was his seventh World Series victory, constituting another record.

The Yankees slugged out their seven to four victory over the Cardinals in the opening game of the 1942 series but only after the National Leaguers had put on one of the most thrilling finishes in the history of the series, scoring all runs in the last inning.

Letter Box

MR. MACSWEEN REPLIES

Editor, Daily News:

Your paper of Monday carries a letter from J. W. Parker, president of the British-Israel Association, in which there are certain references to myself and the position I find I am compelled to take with regard to the theory and the movement which he represents. I have no quarrel with his right to hold this doctrine and to proclaim it publicly if he should see fit but I would like to clarify a misrepresentation which appears.

Mr. Parker lectured in the city, in the church of which I happen to be the minister, on Friday and Saturday evenings, September 18 and 19. On the following day, Sunday, at the regular morning service, the theory was considered in the light of the teachings and spirit of Christ as recorded in the Scriptures, the findings of the sacred and secular historian and of the modern scientific investigator. Those who were present on that occasion will be best able to decide whether or not there was evidence of any desire to indulge in ridicule.

The next day, Monday, Mr. Parker and a mutual friend called at my home. He expressly stated that he had wished to meet me and to extend his thanks for the use of the church building. I accepted this statement of his purpose at its face value, and considered that in keeping with courtesy it was scarcely my place to introduce a subject on which we had both expressed ourselves and on which we differed so radically.

I have, and already had at that time, reason to believe that before Mr. Parker visited me he was fully aware of the stand which I had taken on the previous day and accordingly I felt at that time that his visit was the act of a thorough gentleman.

In view of these facts, sir, I will leave it to your judgment whether or not there was any unkindness or stabbing in the back. I agree with Mr. Parker that this is not the place to enter into a discussion of the claims which he and his school put forward.

But may I point out that the description which I applied to the theory was expressed in the words "fantastic and mischievous," as correctly reported in the press. The word "fanaticism" has been first mentioned by Mr. Parker and in fact had not occurred to me before his letter appeared.

Thank you for the space you have devoted to this matter, and for your fair representation of the whole affair.

ALEX. F. MACSWEEN.

Will Get Hot Reception if They Come Here, Says Radio Commentator Following Trip North

VANCOUVER, Oct. 1:—Bill Herbert, chief announcer of radio station CBR of Vancouver, following a recent tour of Northern British Columbia including Prince Rupert, will shortly give a commentary describing the work of the Fifth Division in Northern British Columbia.

During his tour with a party of newspapermen and photographers Herbert mixed with officers and men from all over Canada, sleeping in their tents, visiting their canteens, attending their entertainments and inspecting their work.

"Their preparations for Mr. Jap's reception are tremendous and we can feel secure that an enemy will find it very, very difficult to get a foothold," Bill says.

What impressed Herbert, aside from defence work, was the ingenuity with which the troops make themselves comfortable. In rugged conditions they have adjusted themselves in many ways even including the improvisation of shower baths.

Among those who Herbert met in the course of his tour was "Red" Rogers, known to movie fans as the "red haired kid" who used to play in "Our Gang" comedies. Rogers flew Herbert and his party from Prince Rupert over Queen Charlotte Islands and southeastern Alaska.

Bill found only one note of discontent in the northern camps. The food is good but the boys want more pie.

Edith Kergin in Charge of Operating Room Which Handled Casualties After Dieppe

Nursing Sister Edith Kergin, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. L. W. Kergin of this city, is the operating room superintendent of one of the military hospitals in England where wounded men following the recent raid on Dieppe were handled. She had to be "practically hit on the head to go to bed after twenty-eight hours on her feet," says a letter sent to Canada by one of the officers of the Royal Canadian Army Medical Corps who was in the same hospital with Miss Kergin at the time.

"The nurses were simply wonderful," writes this officer, Major A. A. Overholt. "They never got excited and kept the supplies going through perfectly. Where they ever got all the linen from I don't know. The old sterilizers looked as if they were ready to burst. Sometimes the towels were so hot we could hardly touch them."

MADE TRIP TO OTTAWA

Secretary of Prince Rupert Labor Council Back From Attending C. C. L. Convention

George Henderson, secretary of the Prince Rupert Labor Council, returned to the city yesterday via Vancouver from Ottawa where he attended the recent annual convention of the Canadian Congress of Labor which took up many matters of importance to organized labor under wartime conditions. The convention was, of course, devoted in large measure to dealing with resolutions but occasion was also taken for interviews with federal ministers and officials.

Mr. Henderson in Vancouver took up matters affecting shipyard working conditions. Last Saturday, he reports, shipyard laborers were given an advance in wages of 10c an hour from 50c to 60c, this being approved by the war labor board.

SPORT CHAT

The Canadian bantamweight champion, a game little guy from Montreal, still has to win a fight in Britain but he's among the most popular boxers over there. That paradox is because Pte. Eddie Petrin of the Royal Mounted Regiment has gained recognition as a tenacious and clean boxer who never quits trying even when he's taking a beating. Eddie lost to second London fighter to LAC. J. Davis of the R.A.F., an accurate-punching speedster, by a decision but it was the Canadian who received the most cheers. Petrin felled on spasmodic onslaughts pile up points. The Montrealer doesn't pick any set-ups. For his first London fight he met Jackie Paterson, British and Empire flyweight who is recognized unofficially as world champion. Eddie was flattened in the early rounds. One London sportswriter suggested the French Canadian "took to the ring like the big contest too soon after his arrival without therefore giving himself time to settle down and become acclimatized," and that he "also started, may I suggest, a little too high up the ladder."

Stocky Jimmy Wilde, that former hammer-fisted world's heavyweight champ, is sports organizer to troops stationed in a western area of England. It's a popular appointment and milk-drinking Jimmy is proud of the job. Already he believes he has uncovered some future ring stars. The Welsh clone of other days—like a postman going for a walk on his day off—seldom misses a big boxing tournament and he's always willing to help a young battler. At the British Army championships at York last spring Jimmy gave Pte. Bobby Docherty of Toronto's 48th Highlanders what Bobby called "some valuable pointers." Docherty went on to win the featherweight title.

Boxing Bits: All this resin that reminds that the rumor which said Joe Louis was coming over with the American forces in the near future is stronger than ever around London. Jackie Paterson, whose fight training mostly was made up of hard work in the Glasgow shipyards has joined the R.A.F. Colin Symons, 32, who introduced from the ring event champion since 1921, including Jack Demsey, died in Essex. He formerly was M. C. at the National Sporting Club.

Hello Heirlooms Goodbye Gadgets

Big Change Being Recorded In Costume Jewelry

NEW YORK, Oct. 1.—The big news in costume jewelry is heirlooms instead of gadgets.

Wartime metal shortages have caused a highly gratifying revolution in the budget jewelry field. Since manufacturers are unable to get any more of the brass, chromium and base metal with which we once loaded our groaning lapels, the new costume jewelry is mostly sterling silver, sometimes with a gold or platinum plate, in dainty old-fashioned designs.

WAR FUND GOING ON

Organization Carrying on Effectively—Mrs. Lawrence New President

STEWART, Oct. 1: — The annual meeting of the Portland Canal War Fund was held in the Legion Hall last Wednesday evening with Mrs. C. E. Gibson in the chair in the absence of both the president and vice-president. The report of the retiring president, Mrs. W. J. Crawford, showed that during the past year the organization had made and shipped 1240 articles for the forces and for air raid victims as well as collecting and shipping many boxes of materials for the Salvation Army. The treasurer's report showed that during the year the fund had handled $2485.29 with a balance on hand of $585.94. Of the $1899.35 disbursed only a very small part was for overhead expenses, all the balance being devoted to grants to various war charities, purchase of wool and sewing materials for goods made and shipped to the Imperial Order, Daughters of the Empire. Christmas presents to local men on active service and entertainment of visiting troops.

Hearty votes of thanks were passed to Mrs. W. J. Crawford, retiring president, H. V. Littler, retiring treasurer, William S. Orr, secretary, and the members of the executive.

Election of officers for the ensuing twelve months was all by acclamation and resulted as follows:

President, Mrs. S. G. Lawrence.
Vice-President, Joseph C. Hbpwood.

Treasurer, H. Woodford.
Secretary, William S. Orr (re-elected).

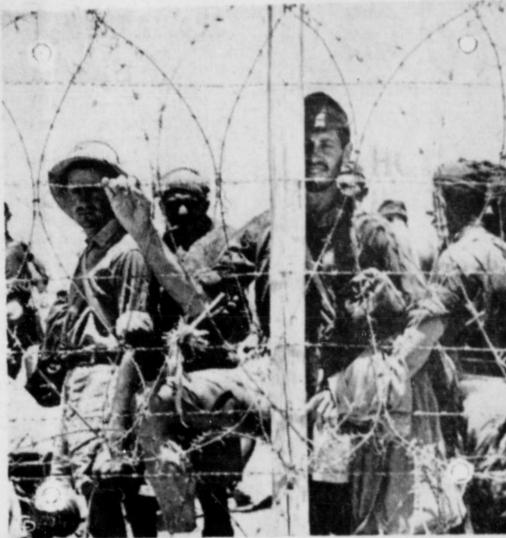

How Organization Functions
Each local organization in the district is entitled to nominate one of its members to the general council of the fund and these, with the officers elected at the annual meeting, form the council responsible for the operation of the organization for the year, thus co-ordinating all branches of community activity in connection with war charities.

The closing of the Big Missouri mine caused some changes to be made in the bylaws which provided for three Big Missouri members on the council. The meeting confirmed a decision of the outgoing executive that all men who had enlisted from Big Missouri would be treated by the Fund exactly on the same basis as those enlisting from Stewart.

This annual meeting was held exactly three years to the day after the organization meeting when, on September 23, 1939, (thirteen days after Canada's declaration of war) a handful of local ladies met in the village municipal office and took the first official steps towards the formation of the Fund. During those three years all war charity work in Stewart and Big Missouri has been handled through this organization, thus eliminating all duplication of effort and expense. During the three years the women of the Fund have made and shipped to the I.O.D.E. 3817 articles. Operations of the Fund have been too great to list in detail.

Major war charities which have received substantial money grants include the Red Cross (both Canadian and Russian), Canadian Legion War Services, Canadian War Charities, I.O.D.E., Boots for Britain, Merchant Seamen, Chinese Relief, Lord Mayor's Air Raid Relief and many others. Christmas presents have been sent away every year to every enlisted man from the district whose address could be ascertained. Visiting military and naval men have been entertained as circumstances permitted. Salvaging has been contributed to. Magazines and books have been collected. In fact throughout the period the members of the community working through this organization have been steadily busy endeavouring to meet every need and request as it arose to the full extent of

R.A.F. TALE ON SCREEN

"Desperate Journey" Thrilling Picture, Is Showing at Capitol

The stirring story of how a Royal Air Force bomber crew, forced down in the heart of Germany after a successful raid, fights its way back to England, leaving a trail of death and destruction behind, is told in "Desperate Journey," which is the feature picture at the Capitol Theatre this Friday and Saturday with Errol Flynn and Ronald Reagan in the starring roles.

Other members of the crew who find themselves prisoners of the Nazis along with Flynn and Reagan are Alan Hale, Arthur Kennedy and Ronald Sinclair. While being questioned in detail by a Nazi intelligence officer, played by Raymond Massey, the five fugitive Englishmen escape from the prison camp after putting Massey to sleep with a hard right to the jaw.

After many adventures in leading the Gestapo a merry chase across Germany and a good part of Holland, they finally steal a reconditioned British bomber. In a desperate fight against apparently overwhelming odds, they are finally successful and make their getaway to fly across the Channel and home.

ACTIVITIES OF Y.M.C.A. AND Y.W.C.A.

By DOROTHY GARBUTT, Hostess

Last night I went in behind the scenes at the Y' cafeteria. It was just at the peak hour and never have I seen work with a capital "W" as I did then. What struck me was the orderliness with which everything was done. Believe me, you don't need to worry about eating there. It's just the cleanest place I've ever run across in many a day (hope Mr. Trant reads this and gives me a free meal).

The chaperones and hostesses who are going to the regular fortnightly dance at the Midlands tonight will meet by 8:30 at the Y' as usual. As it is the music and movies program at the hut and the recreation hall may be in darkness by that time they may have to wait in the hall downstairs for the trucks or taxis to take them.

There's never a dull moment in these parts. Yesterday I spent the morning shortening sleeves on winter woollies for one of our airmen. Goes to show that on this job I have all the comforts of a husband with none of the discomforts.

Once again I should like to appeal to the good people of Prince Rupert to open their homes to those coming in—especially do I appeal, as usual, for the Navy boys on lodge and comp. The Salvation Army is doing wonderful work at its hostel but staying there can only be a temporary affair. The boys can't move their gear in there nor make anything like a settled home of it. The majority of them are young and perhaps away from home for the first time. And if they can't find warmth and comfort in a friendly home they can, or think they can, find simulated comfort in a friendly bottle. Please search your consciences and see if you can't find a spot for them in your heart and in your homes. Thank you.

TIME FOR ANOTHER

Earthquakes in Japan were recorded as early as 285 B.C., when more than 800 square miles of Japan shifted position.

local possibilities.

The closing of the Big Missouri mine and the drop in population of Stewart will reduce the size and effectiveness of the Portland Canal War Fund to a great extent but the members are determined that this reduction shall be offset as far as is humanly possible by increased effort on the part of those who remain.

WOMEN IN RAILWORK

Are Now Engaged in Round Houses As Well as on Other Jobs

Casey Jones may have some feminine rivals when the women who work in the Canadian National Railways yards at Prince Rupert as well as elsewhere in Canada finish their "roundhouse" training. At Prince Rupert the women come under Charles McNab, car foreman.

Although railway yards have been a traditional man's world for many years, the crew of girls who fill wartime jobs in the C.N.R. yards have proved women can be as efficient in a roundhouse as in their own kitchens.

Veteran railwaymen stare in amazement as the new employees polish up Pullmans and trundle wheelbarrows over the tracks.

Pleased with the girls' efficiency, C.N.R. officials "intend to employ more as they are required."

"Only requirement is that the women must be willing to work and have the intelligence to do a good job," says H. R. Batty, general superintendent of motive power and car equipment for the central region of the C.N.R. "After the crews are organized we will place a forewoman in charge of each group."

He said that women would receive the same wages as men and would be allowed to join the Brotherhood of Railway Employees at a later date.

Women have invaded another department of the C.N.R. yards, previously reserved for men only. In the commissary department they now polish shelves and pile them with canned goods and other provisions for dining cars.

"It's a peach of a job," said one woman as she opened a case of canned vegetables.
