At the outbreak of the present war in September, 1939, the 102nd Heavy Battery had five officers on its strength. All but one of those five officers are still carrying on with increased responsibility, having won distinct promotions. Of interest equal to that in the progress made by the "original" officers is the advancement that non-commissioned officers and gunners have made, sixteen having since won their commissions while three more are at present at officers' training school. Apart from all that, several of the original members of the old battery are now serving overseas.

TALK OF INVASION

Axis Press for First Time Speculates on Possibility of Allied Move in Europe.

BERNE, Switzerland, Feb. 6:—The Axis press for the first time speculated today that the United States and Great Britain might attempt an invasion of Europe in the spring. The Italian admiral Ducei, writing in the review Oggi, suggested that it was most likely such an invasion would be directed against the Balkans or northern Scandinavia.

INVESTING IN VICTORY

Canadians Asked for Little Compared With Persecuted Europeans, Says Railway Chief.

MONTREAL, Feb. 6:—R. C. Vaughan, president of the Canadian National Railways, today addressed a message to all employees of the system, numbering approximately 100,000 soliciting their immediate interest in Canada's Second Victory Loan and inviting investment in the bonds.

The message which is being distributed to each individual employee throughout the National system reads:

"Five of the countries occupied by Hitler's forces—France, Belgium, The Netherlands, Denmark and Norway—are paying tribute to Germany at the rate of $4,500,000,000 a year.

"Four and a half billion dollars is a stupendous tax on five small countries, but it does not begin to represent the full weight of the burden Hitler has heaped upon the people he dominates because the death and destruction, the torture and humiliation he has wrought upon them cannot be translated into money figures.

"The Dominion of Canada is this month asking its citizens to provide $800,000,000 through the purchase of bonds (backed by the total resources of our own country) in order to carry on the war. We will respond to this call willingly, quickly.

"What are the people of Europe getting for the billions they are paying every year in tribute to the powers that have crushed them? Only misery. The money we invest in the war loans will be restored to us with interest—just as every Victory Bond and every Liberty Bond sold in 1914-1918 was repaid in full, with interest.

"And it will be used not to strengthen a conqueror but to drive him back; to keep him from our own door; to preserve the security of our own way of life; to liberate those who have gone down before him.

Doing Their Part
 "The men and women engaged in all departments of the Canadian National system in Canada and the United States number today 100,000 and each one is doing his or her part with the utmost vigor in order that our great transportation machine shall fulfill to the maximum its vital part in the war.

"We are all in the struggle together, men and women of all ranks of railway service on 'both sides of the border which unites.' 'I know you realize that we still have a long way to go. That you will not slacken your energies nor fail to meet the new demands on the war as they rise.

"Come then; let us to the task. 'To the battle, to the toll—' 'Each to our own part, each to our station.'"

FISHING FOR WAR BULLETINS

Kitwanga Natives Make Suggestion at Meeting With Indian Agent—Hospitality Is Seen.

KITWANGA, Feb. 6:—Indians of the Skeena River are seeking through the Indian Department from the Department of Fisheries permission to catch salmon along the Skeena River and ship their catches to any cannery. This, it is suggested, would enable native people, who through age, infirmity or other reasons, are unable to work at or out of the canneries during the summer rush season and who do not receive any pension from the government, to obtain a living for themselves and at the same time assist the canneries in obtaining more fish in their war effort. This concession is asked only for the duration of the war.

The Indian agent, S. Mallinson of Hazelton, was a recent visitor here in connection with the request of the natives for the establishment of a sawmill here, the request being rejected on the ground of war conditions. In the meeting with Mr. Mallinson, Harold Sinclair was in the chair and acted as interpreter. The opinion was expressed to Mr. Mallinson that the department was too consistent in its rejecting of requests on various matters made by the Indians.

NO EXCUSE THIS TIME

Col. Nicholls Talks About Victory Bonds in Addressing Rotary Club.

"The only reason for not buying Victory Bonds is unemployment and that does not exist here in Prince Rupert," declared Col. J. W. Nicholls in speaking before the Prince Rupert Rotary Club at luncheon yesterday. "The person who won't buy a Victory Bond is simply saying he won't give up the luxuries necessary to buy one. He is not in the war on our side if he is willing to let George do it. He doesn't give a damn if the Japs come over and kill our women and children or torture them in untold ways."

Of all the cities in Canada none should be more conscious than Prince Rupert of the implications of this war, declared Col. Nicholls. "We are the city closest to the enemy of any on the Pacific coast. We see all around us actively directly dealing with the war. Every merchant and every worker in Prince Rupert is doing better than last year and the prospects for the future are promising from an industrial standpoint.

The patriotic angle was not being stressed in this Victory Loan campaign. There was nothing especially patriotic in loaning money to the government at three percent interest instead of leaving it in the bank at 1½ percent or nothing at all. It was just plain horse sense. It was also common sense for the worker with moderate earnings to allot a percentage monthly to buy these bonds. There were no valid excuses for buying one or more bonds. To say one was paying income tax was only an Irishman's excuse and no reason. If one was paying an income tax, he had an income. The more the tax, the more the income and the ability to buy bonds. Nor was it acceptable for one to say they were buying war savings certificates. This again was no reason but merely an excuse and a poor one at that. The average deduction for war savings certificates was only about $1 per month.

Col. Nicholls, who gave some observations gained on a recent trip east, told of meeting the minister of finance, Hon. J. L. Ilsley, in Ottawa. This interview was primarily on the subject of bombardment insurance but Mr. Ilsley also discussed the subject of the forthcoming Victory Loan campaign. "This loan," Mr. Ilsley had said, "must be subscribed overwhelmingly and to do so will need hard work and loyal assistance."

Lauds War Cabinet
 While in Ottawa Col. Nicholls took up several matters of concern to Prince Rupert. He met with a number of ministers and others directing the war effort and remarked on their earnestness and the long hours they were working. He was very impressed with the sincerity and ability of the members of the war cabinet he had met. One suggestion Col. Nicholls had made was that British Columbia should be better represented in general staff. Coincidentally within one week the general staff in Ottawa announced the appointment of General Harry Letson of Vancouver and General Peter Mackenzie of North Vancouver to high positions on army general staff headquarters at Ottawa.

President P. H. Linzey was in the chair at yesterday's luncheon. A canvass for the sale of Victory Bonds would be made at next week's luncheon, it was announced. W. Sheardown was initiated as a member of the club. George Franklin was the winner in the weekly raffle of a war

Japanese State Dutch East Indies Fleet Has Been Annihilated

Artillery Battle Across Johore Straits Is Still Raging—Ten Enemy Planes Down Over Rangoon—Burma Defenders Standing Firm.

Tokyo headquarters issued a high-sounding claim today that Japanese naval planes have "virtually annihilated" the Netherlands Indies fleet and claimed, in addition, that two American warships had been damaged. There was no immediate Netherlands comment but Washington stated it had no information on the report concerning American vessels.

In the siege of Singapore British guns fired on Japanese troops across Johore Strait while Royal Air Force fighters battled Japanese planes overhead.

Netherlands headquarters admitted the Japanese capture of Samarina, a town sixty miles north of Balikpapan on the east Borneo coast.

In Burma Japanese bombers blasted at Rangoon but defenders on the city shot down ten planes definitely and possibly ten more. London said that British land defenders of Burma were standing firm on Salween River 100 miles east of Rangoon.

SIXTY-FIVE DWELLINGS COMPLETED

One of Big Staff Residences in Wartime Housing Finished—New Streets Come Into Being.

Sixty-five of the 151 new houses being erected for local war workers between Sixth Avenue and Overlook Street across Hays Creek by Wartime Housing Limited are now completed and occupied. Work of completion of the other houses is being pushed and they should be ready before long. Meantime, it is reported, although no official announcement is available, that even more houses than those originally contemplated are to be built.

In connection with the re-subdivision of the property on which these houses have been built, a study of the lay-out is of interest. A number of new streets have been arranged such as Piggott Avenue, Piggott Place and Herman Place. Among the old streets in that area retaining the original names are Sixth Avenue, Herman Street and Overlook Street.

One of the big staff houses on Hays Cove Circle has just been finished and is now occupied. The second will be completed within a week and, by the end of the month the dining hall will be finished.

TRIUMPH IS LOST

Famous British Destroyer, With Great Record, Is Gone, Admiralty Announces.

LONDON, Feb. 6:—The famous British destroyer, H.M.S. Triumph, has been lost in action, the admiralty announces. A 1,000-ton vessel, she had a complement of fifty-three men.

H.M.S. Triumph is known to have sunk four enemy naval vessels and nine supply ships and was also credited with having bagged a trawler, a cruiser, another supply ship and a tanker.

Late in 1939 the Triumph hit a mine three hundred miles offshore and limped back into port with fourteen feet of her bow missing and otherwise badly damaged.

British Resistance in Libya Stiffening Although Little Change in Situation During Last Day.

LONDON, Feb. 6:—British desert fighters, hurled back almost to Tobruk, have stiffened their lines on the Libyan Desert today while the Royal Air Force pounds the lengthened Axis supply lines. A Cairo communique says there is no change in the land situation since yesterday and Axis communique omitted specific details of gains.

Last night advance units of the Axis were reported to be within sixty miles of Tobruk.

Royal Air Force attacks against the enemy are continuing to meet with good results.

Buying Victory Bonds . . .

If anybody thinks he will be giving anything away, doing any one else a greater favor than himself or performing any great patriotic duty in buying Victory Bonds when the forthcoming loan goes on the market he would do well to get such ideas out of his head immediately.

Much the opposite of giving anything away in purchasing Victory Bonds, the buyer is changing one form of security—his dollar bills—into another even better and more profitable and practically as liquid.

Rather than doing some one else a favor, he is doing a practical thing on his own behalf in helping to provide the wherewithal whereby his home, his family, his way of living and possibly his own life may be saved.

Contrary to performing any patriotic duty, he is doing something in his own best interests—saving himself and saving his future security, monetarily as well as physically.

Getting the forthcoming Victory Loan to the public, as we see it, should not be a matter of salesmanship but a problem of equitable distribution. There should not have to be any begging people to buy Victory Bonds. Sales resistance should be at a minimum this time although, of course, some fifth column propaganda and good old red herrings may, as usual, be encountered. To the thrifty and the thoughtful people who have the means of investing, even though it might involve some financial readjustments, Victory Bonds should be something to be sought after rather than to be sold on.

When the time comes to put the Victory Bonds out, we would suggest that those who propagandize and place them consider themselves more as distributors of something that is good and necessary for the people rather than straight high pressure salesmen out to make a showing.

Certainly we expect Prince Rupert will make a great and spontaneous response to the Second Victory Loan—a response that will be actuated by a sense of common sense and good business and personal wellbeing rather than from any particular motive of great patriotism or national duty.

The thought also occurs to us again that, if we do not lend our money to win the war, the government can and most certainly will find ways of getting our money from us without any undertaking of return with a good rate of interest.

He who fails to do all he possibly can in this matter of Victory Bonds is an enemy to himself and his country—the fifth column and the red herrings notwithstanding.

If there are things that we do not like about the way the war is being run, making it more difficult yet to run it, as failure to lend our money on Victory Bonds would be, is neither the appropriate or the effective way of showing our disapproval.

CEILING PRICES

Editor, Daily News:

Ronald Kenwyn, our field representative, under which office all publicity is handled, has referred to us a copy of your editorial of January 20.

We believe that you will appreciate having your attention directed to a point in the editorial referred to on which we believe there may be some misunderstanding. We refer to the second paragraph of your editorial, in which you say:

"The government, acting supposedly on behalf of the customer, has pegged prices for many groceries but has not set the price at which the goods can be purchased from the wholesalers, nor has it set the price the wholesale grocer must pay the manufacturer. This leaves the whole situation very unsettled."

You apparently have the impression that the prices charged by manufacturers and the prices charged by wholesalers are not under control. This is not the situation. We enclose copy of P.C.8527 and would respectfully draw your attention to Section 3, (1)-(7). You will note that in all instances the regulations specifically state that they cover any and all persons selling or supplying, or offering to sell or supply, any goods or services, and we might add that the regulations definitely do apply to manufacturers, wholesalers, and retailers alike.

It is true that all businesses have encountered certain conditions through the natural lag that results from an upward trend of prices such as we have been experiencing for some months. This may make it difficult in some cases for those in business to replace stocks upon which they had established their basic prices at costs which will show them a reasonable profit, because their selling prices were established on costs of merchandise bought prior to the basic period. In such instances, means are being provided to enable those laboring under this handicap to obtain relief, and while these adjustments require considerable study and a certain amount of time, we are sure that they will be cleared up just as rapidly as possible.

W. R. DOWREY,

Prices and Supply Representative for British Columbia.

NEW HOUSES ARE OPENED

Y.W.C.A. Expanding Its Activities in Connection With Forces.

TORONTO, Feb. 6:—Six new Y.W.C.A. hostess houses have been opened during the last ten days in various parts of Canada. They are now in full working order giving their hospitality and varied services to the men in Canada's active forces, their wives and relatives.

At Hagersville and Mountain View, near Belleville, Ont., hostess houses are now open to the men of the R.C.A.F. training camps and their families in those two districts. Twenty-five miles from Brandon, Manitoba, near the town of Rivers another R.C.A.F. training camp is now free to use the facilities of their Y.W.C.A. hostess house. Up in northern Manitoba, at the Macdonald R.C.A.F. camp there is another hostess house. This is just a few miles from Portage La Prairie.

For the families of men at the military and artillery training camp at Petawawa, Ont., the Y.W.C.A. has opened a hostess house 11 miles from Pembroke. It has a beautiful site, just where the Petawawa River flows into the Ottawa River. Mrs. G. Ince is the hostess in charge, and to help her she has Mrs. M. Ferris as assistant hostess. The house has an attractive lounge, an open fireplace and gives emergency overnight accommodation. It is close by the village of Petawawa where relatives arrive by train. Such a place, close to the station as it is, is badly needed because of the shortage of local accommodation which has been strained to the utmost.

Located two miles north and overlooking the town of Picton is an R.A.F. bombing and gunnery school. Here the Y.W.C.A. has opened a new hostess house, attractive with maple furniture and bright chintz. At this camp Canadian men meet the lads from Great Britain, using the hostess house as a place to entertain them and their families, and to form friendships. To the hostess house also come wives, just arriving from Great Britain.

ACTIVITIES OF Y.M.C.A.

Sports Active Despite Emergencies and Other Activities.

Notwithstanding emergencies, the month of January was a good one for sports among the services here, says the monthly report of C. F. Leslie, Y.M.C.A. war services organizer at Prince Rupert. Area boxing and basketball elimination tournaments to decide representatives to compete for district championships were a feature. During the month the second quarter of inter-services bowling was finished with Area Headquarters taking the honors. In non-athletic games ping-pong was the most popular. Social events such as dances and Sunday night entertainments draw large audiences. Three religious services were also held in the hut where for two nights some 120 men were temporarily housed during an emergency.

With the ever-increasing activity of the Y.M.C.A. war services here, a supervisor especially for the forts—Barrett, Frederick, Dundas and Charles—will be arriving here early this month.

In addition to the army, air force and navy men have also been making use of the facilities of the Y.M.C.A. hut.

Reporting for activities with the air force, A. A. Shipp reports that it has been impossible so far to move into the new recreation hall at Seal Cove and, consequently, activity in sports there have had to be somewhat curtailed.

At Allford Bay air station, six teams have been competing in a volleyball league and a schedule has been drawn up for a seven-team basketball league. Unfavorable weather conditions at three week-ends ruled out basketball invasions of Prince Rupert. Badminton has been a most popular game at Allford Bay, ping-pong being played as well. Sports for the Scottish detachment at Allford have paralleled those of the air force.

PUBLICITY CAMPAIGN

Various Events Planned to Concentrate Public Interest on Second Victory Loan.

To focus public attention on the forthcoming Second Victory Loan campaign in Prince Rupert, a number of special events and features are being planned by the publicity committee which was in session last night under the chairmanship of W. F. Stone. The publicity program will include concerts, parades, radio speeches, radio play, quiz contests, moving picture displays, church services and, as far as possible, demonstrations by the armed forces including, if it can be arranged, dropping of leaflets over the city by aircraft.

The first concert will be on February 15, Sunday evening, in the Capitol Theatre, the talent to be furnished entirely by the military services. C. F. Leslie is making arrangements for the concert. There will be a bond raffle in connection with the concert.

The radio play is being arranged by Bruce Stevens. Radio speakers on successive evenings will include J. W. Nicholls, W. R. McAfee, H. Linzey, G. L. Rorie, R. M. Winslow, Alred Rivett, J. H. Myrswang, Mrs. J. A. Teng and others. There will also be moving picture displays on appropriate subjects for pupils of the schools.

The Victory Loan dug-out this year will be on the post office grounds.

The Victory Loan parade is tentatively set for the afternoon of Saturday, Feb. 14.

Other publicity will be arranged as the campaign proceeds during the two weeks starting Feb. 16. Merchants are being asked to decorate appropriately.

Those present at the publicity committee meeting were W. F. Stone, Col. J. W. Nicholls, C. F. Leslie, Mrs. J. A. Teng, G. A. Hunter, Lorne Agget and C. F. Leslie.
