AWFUL AUTO ACCIDENT--"FISHMAID" TAKES FIRE

CHALLENGE BY-LAW BALLOT IN THE CITY HALL TONIGHT

Committee of Citizens Dissatisfied With the Returns Proclaiming All Three Bylaws Passed, Have Taken Legal Advice, and a Letter of Protest Will be Presented to the City Council This Evening

It appears that the bylaws declared passed by the returning officer on Friday are not to sail through successfully unprotected. Following the recount held on Saturday afternoon the committee of citizens dissatisfied with the figures announced approached L. W. Patmore for a legal opinion on the point regarding the percentage of votes necessary to carry the bylaws, and whether only the votes declared effective of the total votes polled, including spoiled votes, should be used in the percentage calculation. The opinion of the solicitor consulted is favorable to a determined protest against the carrying of all three bylaws, and a letter of protest will be presented at tonight's meeting of council, while any action taken by the council based upon the assertion that all the bylaws have passed will be challenged vigorously. Calculation would seem to show that the electric light bylaw at least has failed to achieve the necessary percentage of ballots in favor.

The Recount.

As noted briefly in Saturday's News, there was a demand for a recount of the votes polled in the bylaw ballot. There was some discussion regarding the legality of the recount, City Solicitor Peters maintaining stoutly from first to last that any recount was absolutely illegal. A committee consisting of W. Lynch, J. H. Hilditch and S. P. McMordeie, representing the citizens desirous of having a recount, attended at the city hall at 2 o'clock. Alderman Bullock-Webster and Alderman Dybhavn represented the council, the Mayor was present and Alderman Douglas. City Clerk Woods, the returning officer, and Purchasing Agent Brooksbank brought in the ballot boxes, the Mayor having given the word to go ahead with the recount and satisfy those in doubt. City Clerk Woods was also strongly desirous of having a recount to prove his official count correct. Accordingly, in spite of Mr. Peters' assurance that the official figures could not now be altered, the recount proceeded. Every ballot paper was closely scrutinized and careful check was kept of the votes. The result showed a slight change in the figures regarding the electric light bylaw, one vote less for the bylaw and two more against it being the result of the recount. One vote against had been counted "for" and another one "against" had been overlooked. This makes the bylaw vote stand: For the bylaw..... 229 Against the bylaw..... 152

WHAT THE ACT SAYS.

SECTION 79 OF THE MUNICIPAL CLAUSES ACT SAYS: "IN CITY MUNICIPALITIES NO BYLAW TO WHICH THE ASSENT OF THE ELECTORS IS NECESSARY BEFORE THE FINAL PASSING THEREOF SHALL BE VALID OR OF ANY EFFECT UNLESS THE VOTE POLLED IN FAVOR THEREOF BE AT LEAST THREE-FIFTHS OF THE VOTE POLLED."

instead of the official figures, which read:

For the bylaw..... 230
Against the bylaw..... 150
Spoiled ballots, eight in all, were unchanged.

The recount of the telephone vote resulted in the official figures being found correct. In the city hall bylaw recount two ballots were found counted "for" the bylaw which were challenged. One had figures scribbled on it; this one the returning officer was ready to throw out. The other had no initial signature by the returning officer and might have been thrown out, too, but City Solicitor Peters declared it all right. If the recount figures were to stand the vote "for" the city hall bylaw would now be 233 instead of 235, as officially returned. The other details of this vote were correct.

Returning Officer Trusted.

City Clerk Woods was emphatic in his assurance that he had acted absolutely on the square in his capacity as returning officer, and the citizens' committee had no desire to throw the slightest doubt upon his integrity in the matter. There is a further matter in dispute, namely the difference of opinion regarding the percentage of votes required to carry the bylaws. Several citizens hold that 60 per cent. of the total votes polled, including "spoiled ballots," is required, the city hall view, however, is that only those ballots which are effective count in the percentage. This matter was referred today to L. W. Patmore by the citizens' committee with the result mentioned at the beginning of this matter.

The Electric Bylaw.

On the basis of a three-fifths ballot in favor of the total vote polled, including spoiled votes, it would be necessary to have, according to official returns, 231 votes in favor to carry this bylaw. This would make it one vote short by the official return and two short under the recount figures, percentage required to pass on the same basis, including spoils, being the same in each case, viz. 231.

The peculiar thing is that the calculations made to find the total votes required to pass the bylaws seem to have included the spoiled ballots in the cases of the city hall and telephone bylaws, which had apparently assured majorities, but in the case of the electric light bylaw, which ran so close to the wind, the spoiled votes do not seem to have been taken account of at all in making the calculation. The fact that in this ballot also one vote got sidetracked and one onto the wrong line need not be taken as significant.

WITH HAIR AND DRESS AFIRE SPRANG FROM FLAMING BOAT

Famous Rupert Vessel, "Fish Maid" Caught Fire Today at the Government Wharf---Engineer Arthur Sparkes in Hospital Seriously Burned---Plucky Rescue Work by Captain George Thurbur---Historic Boat Badly Burnt

INJURED.

Arthur Sparkes, engineer; severely burned on hands and face.
Captain George Thurbur; scorched face and head, burned wrist.

CAUSE AND PLACE.

Backfire and explosion on board halibut boat Fishmaid at the Government wharf at noon today. Damage to vessel about $300. Insured.

Just as the halibut boat Fishmaid was pulling out this morning from the Government wharf a backfire in the engine room somehow ignited light, inflammable material in the pilot house and in an instant the upper structure of the boat was ablaze. Caught full in the face by the explosion, the Fishmaid's engineer, Arthur Sparkes was severely burned. He made a dash for safety with his hair and clothing ablaze, leaping from the vessel into the sea. Captain George Thurbur, too, was caught while at the wheel in the pilot house by the scorching flame, but though he lost his eyelashes, eyebrows, his cap and nearly all the hair of his head, he was able to save the engineer and take him to the hospital. Captain Thurbur has one bad burn on the wrist and his forehead is scorched red, but he is otherwise uninjured.

Pilot House Gutted.

An alarm was rung into the city fire brigade as the crew of the Fishmaid could not cope with the outbreak unaided. When the brigade reached the scene in record time dense smoke was pouring out of the pilot house, which a moment later burst into flames. With the chemical swiftly run out across scows by the wharf, the brigade very quickly quenched the fire and saved the best part of the boat, only the pilot house and compartment below being scorched. The engine is intact, and very little gear was lost. Damage amounting to about $250 to $300 is covered by insurance.

Injured Man's Condition.

Inquiry at the general hospital regarding the condition of the injured engineer resulted in information that his burns while painful and sufficiently serious are all about the hands and face. He had a fairly close call between fire and water, but is likely to recover all right. On board the Fishmaid when she caught fire were all the crew, consisting of Captain Thurbur, Arthur Sparkes, H. Jalmar, Fred Hawkes and Jack Stewart, the latter being one of the men who came through the famous adventure when the Fishmaid's when she turned turtle off the coast of Alaska the other winter. The Fishmaid belongs to Messrs. Butterfield, Mackie & Co., and has a fine fishing record as well as a record of adventure.

BAD AUTO SMASH-UP NEAR WESTMINSTER

R. G. Harvey Loses Wife and Babe and Probably His Own Life---Mother and Infant Suffocated in Sand Below Huge Car

(Special to Daily News.)

Vancouver, June 17.—Caught under a heavy touring car which had skidded fifty feet down from the road, Mrs. R. G. Harvey, the wife of a prominent Vancouver real estate operator, and the year old baby, Reginald, that she held in her arms were smothered to death in the sand near the foot of a steep incline four miles from New Westminster at 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon.

Husband Badly Hurt.

Mr. Harvey, who was driving the car, is at the Vancouver general hospital in a precarious condition. Two other children who had been sitting in the rear seat of the car were uninjured. They and Mr. Harvey were brought into Vancouver by Mr. George E. Trorey, managing director of Birks Jewelry Store, who had preceded the Harveys on the road by a few hundred yards. The bodies of Mrs. Harvey and the child were taken to New Westminster and will be brought to Vancouver. Mrs. Harvey was Miss Lillian Skene, daughter of Mr. William Skene, who was for many years secretary of the Vancouver Board of Trade.

Well Known Family.

The family thus so terribly bereaved is a very well known one on the Pacific coast, and Mr. and Mrs. Harvey have many friends and acquaintances in Prince Rupert. Mr. Harvey was one of the members of the famous realty firm of Loewen & Harvey, and had been on the coast since the pioneer days. Very keen regret is widespread following the shocking accident. It is feared that Mr. Harvey may not recover, and he is ignorant, of course, of the fate of his wife and little one.

Vancouver License Commissioner Declares His Letter to the Press a Lying One---Thousands of Dollars Worth of Confiscated Liquor Destroyed.

Vancouver, June 14.—In a vigorous speech, during which he occasionally waxed very warm, Commissioner Pyke at the meeting of the licence commissioners drew attention to a letter which had appeared in the press on June 6, and signed by the Rev. Dr. Spencer, and roundly denounced one or two of the writer's statements as absolutely false. Commissioner Pyke's remarks were frequently applauded by a large audience.

Commissioner Pyke said that on the next day some $3000 worth of confiscated liquor was to be destroyed and this had been confiscated during the last three months owing to the energy of the licence commissioners. He was prepared to deposit sufficient money to clear the expenses of an election if Rev. Dr. Spencer would do the same and go to the people on this matter, the winner to go on the board and the loser to send his money to the Alexandra Home or Hospital.

ORDER CONQUERS CHAOS.

Twenty-five nations are represented at an international conference on wireless telegraphy in London, England. The British government is the host, and the Post Office department is in charge of the proceedings. Since the initial conference at Berlin, six years ago, the use of the wireless has so increased that new regulations are needed. It may be necessary to control the use of the wireless by amateur operators, though it would be well to allow them all the liberty that is compatible with the orderly transaction of business and with the safety of life at sea.

The conference is one of the many evidences that the world is growing to be a smaller place and will require a more elaborate organization than it now possesses. In the days of sailing vessels America was first unknown to Europe, and then separated from it by a voyage of weeks, sometimes of months. There was comparatively little danger of collisions, and on the other hand, a vessel might go down with little chance of receiving aid. The traffic grew; steam became the motive power; the cable was laid, and finally the wireless telegraphy was introduced.

All this had a tendency to convert the Atlantic into a highway, and, like a city street, with increased danger, and with increased means of rendering aid. The civilized nations now meet there under the conditions of civilization. Order and organization must replace haphazard and anarchy. A similar process is going on in all departments of life all over the world. The indications are that before the close of the twentieth century the world will be organized upon lines not identical with but analogous to those upon which civilized society within a nation is organized.

CONGRESS AND RECIPROCITY.

The report that the reciprocity agreement between the United States and Canada has been repealed by the United States Congress is not correct. So far as the Senate is concerned the agreement has been repealed, but the House of Representatives must agree to the provision to this effect inserted in the tariff bill by the Senate, and President Taft must affix his signature before it becomes effective. The Senate, which is Republican, never was favorable to the reciprocity agreement; but passed it under pressure from President Taft. The House of Representatives, where the Democrats are in power, will not, it is announced, consent to the abrogation of the pact; and a deadlock between the houses over the tariff bill is probable. It may be taken for granted that Congress will adjourn without tariff changes of any kind being made, and the whole question will go over to the next session, which will be held subsequent to the presidential and congressional elections in November. Not much is heard about the tariff in the primary contests, but when the battle between the Democratic and Republican nominees begins this issue will come to the front. The Democrats will make the tariff issue prominent in their platform and will force the fighting upon it. As the campaign proceeds it will be possible, perhaps, to draw inferences as to the fate of the reciprocity agreement in the next Congress. Meanwhile, it remains upon the statute books.—Manitoba Free Press.

FAMOUS FRUIT TREE HONORED

Pioneers Erect Monument to Apple Tree Which Will Be Unveiled by Prominent Fruit Men Near Morrisburg.

Morrisburg, Ont., June 14.—A ceremony unique in the history of fruit growing in this or in any country will take place at Dundela, near here. A monument will be unveiled to an apple tree. The farmers of Dundela County, by popular subscription, have placed a marble stone close to the spot where stands the original McIntosh Red apple tree that succumbed only recently, after braving the storms and its natural enemies for over a hundred years. To mark the spot where stood the tree that gave the world one of its most luscious and most famous varieties of the king of fruits the donors believe that they are doing a service to posterity. At the unveiling addresses will be delivered by Hon. J. S. Duff, minister of agriculture, Toronto; Mr. W. T. Macoun, Dominion horticulturist, Ottawa; Mr. Alex. McNeil, chief of the fruit division, Ottawa; Prof. J. W. Crow, Ontario Agricultural College, Guelph; Mr. P. W. Hodgetts, director of the fruit branch, Toronto; Prof. W. S. Blair, Macdonald College, Quebec; Dr. John Harkness, Irene, Ont., and Mr. Andrew Border, M. P., chairman of the monument committee, will preside.

About 145 years ago Mr. John McIntosh, who came to Canada with the United States Loyalists, and settled in Matilda Township, found a number of young apple trees while clearing a place for a home. These he preserved. One of them produced fruit of such superior quality that he named it McIntosh Red. It bore an abundance of fruit, and soon attracted the attention of men who could appreciate its worth and possibilities. His son Allan propagated from it, and commenced to disseminate the variety. In recent years it has been widely circulated, and now is planted in all parts of the continent where desert apples flourish. In 1893, the old tree was partly injured by fire, but continued to bear on one side until 1908, when it failed forever. On the old McIntosh homestead due honor is being done to it and to its discoverer in the unveiling of a monument. The occasion is a deserving tribute to both.

You Can Thank Advertising
NEXT time you step into the corner store, take a look around. Of all the articles on the shelves, how many were on your shopping list five years ago? Make it ten years, and you will find that most of the things you buy to-day—and could not do without—were not even made then.
You men and women who buy things, let this sink in. You are better men and women because of advertising. You eat more wholesome food. You wear better clothes. Your home is better furnished. You have cleaner and more sanitary houses. You read better books and magazines. You seek more healthful amusements.
Your whole standard of living has been raised—and why? Because the men who make these better things are telling you that you will be more comfortable, happier and healthier if you use these higher grade goods.
It is advertising that makes it possible for you to buy "the best" right at your corner store. It is advertising that encourages the inventor to make new comforts and new utilities and enables you to buy them almost immediately after they are perfected.
J. J. Hill says this "high living" costs more. True for J. J.—but it is worth more. And leaving the cost aside, do you want to go back to buying jam out of a pail, oatmeal out of a barrel, raisins out of sticky boxes, or tea exposed in an open chest?
Do you regret the money you paid for a Player Piano?
Would you forego the new style razor?
Isn't a Tungsten worth a thousand candles?
Would you now be enjoying these if enterprising manufacturers had not told you about them in their advertisements?
Isn't life brighter because we have new and higher standards of living?
Let us thank advertising for it.
Advice regarding your advertising problems is available through any good advertising agency or the Secretary of the Canadian Press Association, Room 503, Lumsden Building, Toronto. Enquiry involves no obligation on your part—so write if interested.

MISS MAY SUTTON ON HOW TO PLAY TENNIS

Former Girl Champion of the United States Gives Useful Hints in a Tennis Talk Interesting to Girls of Prince Rupert

In the April number of American Lawn Tennis there appears an article entitled "Women's Play and How to Improve It," by Miss G. Sutton of Los Angeles, the former woman champion of the United States and England, and who is known to many players in Calgary. Ever since the days of Miss Sutton's advent to championship ability she has been asked to give advice to her sex with relation to the playing of tennis and maintenance of good physical condition.

The article deals with a subject so intricate that probably no one is better able to write on it than Miss Sutton. Her experience in tournament play and the care of her physical self when in preparation for the same has taught her lessons that enable her to counsel her sister aspirants. Her information may be of use to Standard tennis players. She says:

"I have been asked on various occasions to write a few words on the subject of women's play, with special reference to the ways in which members of my sex can improve their game and to touch briefly on the disadvantage our labor under by reason of our femininity.

The request to write such an article reaches me at a time when singular to relate I happen to be in the mood to do so, and I accordingly embrace the opportunity and put my pen on paper. I shall not attempt to go into any phase of the subject at length, but merely set down, perhaps in random fashion, the things that seem to be helpful, useful or interesting.

California Girls Best Players.

"Let me take first the western girl—she who has the good fortune to dwell in California. The California girl is a better player than the girl from the east or middle west, for she can, if she desires, play the year around. Consequently, she is able to practice much more frequently. It is practice makes perfect. Yet, in spite of their shorter season, there should be more good players among the eastern girls than there are. They have at least five months in the year for practice, and with the determination to learn and improve their game, there is really no reason why they should not become very good indeed.

"Of course the eastern and middle west girls cannot play out of doors in the winter as we can. But this is not altogether a misfortune. A rest from tennis is a good thing and with skating and other winter sports, eastern girls should keep in splendid condition physically. This helps tremendously when the tennis season starts. Here in California we can play right through the year.

"The result is that when spring comes we get a little tired of the game, and are not nearly so keen as we would be if we had been obliged to abstain from playing for a while. On the other hand, we have the winter months in which to practice and this extra practice should and does improve our game.

Should Enter Tournaments.

"To improve one's game one should enter as many tournaments as possible, as tournament play is the very best kind of practice. Play in tournament even if you get beaten in the first or second round. Each defeat will teach you something and if you need the lesson you will surely improve in the finals. Do not practice when you do not feel better than playing. To do so will do more harm than good. But when you do practice play for all you are worth and hard all the time. A girl just learning to play should practice with some one not much better than herself. If her opponent is much better her superiority will cause discouragement and the new player will come to think that she does not know anything about the game. Some self-confidence is needed if one is to make real progress.

"If you really enjoy playing you should, with constant practice, improve your game and eventually become a good player. The thing to do, however, is to keep at it continuously and to practice hard.

"In practice games always try to win, of course, but above all things essay new strokes, with the fixed idea of perfecting them. For example, if your backhand is weak, never get out of position in order to make a strike with your forearm, in order to back a strike with your back hand. By

FEAR FEMALE MAJORITY NOW

Limited Suffrage for Woman in Amendment to be Moved to Asquith's Bill Now Before House of Commons in Motherland.

London, June 14—Premier Asquith announced in the House of Commons yesterday that a franchise reform bill would be introduced at an early date. The bill as drafted, will give one man one vote on a short residential qualification with the simplest possible form of registration, the latter at public expense. The clause fixing all the elections for one day may be added. The official woman suffrage amendment to the bill can not be forthcoming until the bill is printed. There will probably be some limitation regarding women voters. Simple adult suffrage without reference to sex, can not be put forward with any hope of success, since such rumors would give the register, in each constituency, a majority of women. The matter is likely to cause trouble.

ALBERNI A GREAT SEAPORT IN THE MAKING!

Only When Canada Stops Growing Will Investors Cease to Make Money on Land

Do you think Canada is going to stop growing soon? No, of course not. She has only fairly started.

And as Canada grows so must new centres of population develop. The place for the investor to make big profits is in some town or city where development is inevitable.

Take Alberni for Instance Alberni is as certain to become a large shipping centre as was Vancouver. Situated on the west coast of Vancouver Island—some eight to twenty-four hours nearer the east than is Vancouver—Alberni will shortly see the largest boats of the Pacific docking at her waterfront.

With the Canadian Pacific Railway already there, and the Canadian Northern Railway rushing its tracks toward the city as fast as possible,

Alberni will develop within the next year in a way that will surprise you all.

Your chance to buy a lot in Alberni is something which you cannot afford to overlook.

We do not ask you to buy because of the few reasons we have given above.

But we do want you to get our new booklet about Alberni. It is handsomely illustrated and will tell you about Alberni in a way that is convincing. Get it today.

Lots can now be bought for $150 on easy terms. See us and talk it over.

Each year's increase in population will increase the value of Prince Rupert property proportionately. That means dividends if you collect rents; profits if you buy and sell.

An investment in Prince Rupert realty is one that will not be affected by financial "panics." Come to headquarters if you are looking for a good investment. I would like to show you these. For instance: Lots 20-21, Block 21, Section 6, with 4-room house, $4,000; $2,000 cash, bal. 6, 12 and 18 months.
