Invaders Appear to be Stalled Everywhere in Russia Now

MOSCOW, Nov. 9 (CP) — German forces, stalled in their drive towards the Georgian military highway over the Caucasian mountains, attempted to resume their march near Nalchik but Russian tank crews smashed every attack, a Soviet communique said.

Fighting in the Stalingrad area has been on a small scale northwest of the city and is confined largely to artillery duels, it is reported.

Tough For Japanese

WASHINGTON, D.C., Nov. 10 (CP) — General Thomas Holcomb, United States Marines commandant, reported today that "things are shaping up." It will be increasingly more difficult, he said, for the Japanese to put reinforcements on Guadalcanal Island in the Solomons.

SEA LOSS OF ENEMY

British Subs Score Hits on Italian Cruiser—570 U-boats So Far Sunk

LONDON, Nov. 10 (CP) — A British submarine scored two torpedo hits on an Italian cruiser off the north coast of Italy, it was announced today.

At the same time Rt. Hon. A. V. Alexander, First Lord of the Admiralty, announced in the House of Commons that the number of enemy submarines sunk, damaged or captured had increased to 570. He said: "The enemy quite failed to apprehend that we had sufficient shipping tonnage available to carry out the operations of the last two days."

OCTOBER WAS WET

Prince Rupert Makes Up For Lost Time in Matter of Rainfall

Prince Rupert made up for lost time in October as far as precipitation is concerned. Rainfall amounted to no less than 15.76 inches as compared with 11.85 inches in the same month last year, making the total precipitation for 1942 to date 62.89 inches in comparison with 64.74 inches in the first ten months of 1941. The sunshine aggregate this October was 47.6 hours as against 14.8 hours in 1941, making this year's total to date 952.8 hours as compared with 1085.9 hours in the corresponding period of last year. The weather record for this October was as follows:

- Maximum barometer reading at sea level, 30.35 on October 21.
- Minimum barometer reading at sea level, 29.16 on October 10.
- Maximum temperature, 59 on October 8.
- Minimum temperature, 34 on October 27.
- Mean temperature, 54.5.
- Precipitation, 15.76 inches.
- Sunshine, 47.6 hours.
- Maximum wind velocity, southeast, 38 miles per hour, October 16.

HEMP FOR MONEY

In early times hemp served as the standard of exchange in Kentucky.

WAR END NOT YET

Prime Minister Churchill Heartened But Not Overly Optimistic

LONDON, Nov. 10 (CP) — Prime Minister Winston Churchill said today "we have not so far in this war taken as many German prisoners as they have taken British but these German prisoners will no doubt come in droves at the end just as they did last time."

Mr. Churchill described the Egyptian campaign as "remarkable and a definite victory" and added that "the British gleam has caught the helmets of our soldiers and warmed and cheered all our hearts."

The Germans have received that measure of fire and steel which they have so often meted out to others.

"Now this is not the end. It is not even the beginning of the end. But it is, perhaps, the end of the beginning," declared the Prime Minister.

ROOSEVELT'S "BABY"

Mr. Churchill declared that President Roosevelt "is the author of this mighty undertaking" of United States arms in northwestern Africa and added "in all of it I have been his active and ardent lieutenant." Great Britain and the United States took action, he added, "for one purpose and one purpose only—namely to gain vantage ground from which to open a second front against Hitler and Hitlerism."

The Prime Minister re-stated his faith that France will rise again and disclaimed anew any British designs for new territory but added firmly—"we mean to hold our own. I have not become the King's first minister in order to preside over the liquidation of the British Empire."

Martin Swanson, Formerly Located Here, Passes Away

Word was received in the city today of the death yesterday morning in Chicago of Martin Swanson, brother of the late Capt. Alfred Swanson of Prince Rupert and himself a resident of this city many years ago.

The late Mr. Swanson, who was a painter by trade, left Prince Rupert in 1916 and had since made his home in Chicago. He revisited here in 1938 after the death of his brother, Capt. Swanson.

Swedish by birth and in his fifties, the late Mr. Swanson is survived by a widow and child. He was an aviation enthusiast and held both private and commercial pilots' licences.

Community To Be Responsible

Home Nursing Valuable to Know Even if "Nothing Happened"

In the event of an emergency, it would be necessary for the community to look after itself. W. J. Cairns, assistant national commissioner of the Canadian Red Cross Society, who is a visitor in the city points out. The value of women, not necessarily nurses, being trained in home nursing could be readily visualized he felt. The ideal thing would be to have a woman so trained in every home. "And if nothing ever happens, it is a most valuable thing to be trained in home nursing," Mr. Cairns says.

As a result, of Mr. Cairns' visit it is possible further Red Cross equipment may come to this area.

BRITISH WARSHIP BLASTS WAY TO RUSSIA

A British warship opens up "with everything" as German planes swoop down upon the largest Allied convoy bringing aid to Russia via an Arctic port. For four days enemy torpedo planes and submarines hurled themselves at the well-protected freighters in a frantic but vain effort to halt the flow of vital materials so necessary to the Soviet's valiant war effort.

ROMMEL'S COLLAPSE

Only Weak Rearguard Resistance From Once Powerful Nazi Army

CAIRO, Nov. 10 (CP) — Resistance being put up by the remnant of Marshal Erwin Rommel's retreating African Corps to the conquering British Eighth Army now out of Egypt and in Libya is reported today to be negligible. There is also practically no air resistance. Sixty to seventy thousand prisoners have already been counted and the Axis has also lost 500 tanks and 1,500 guns.

Seventy-five thousand Italians, abandoned by the Germans who took away all food, supplies and arms in their retreat, are still waiting to be picked up by the British.

No more than twenty thousand men of Rommel's once proud army of 140,000 remains.

The British Eighth Army has made further contact with the rearguard of Marshal Erwin Rommel's fleeing forces, now across the Libyan border out of Egypt. Between 60,000 and 70,000 Axis prisoners have so far been taken.

Only rearguards of Rommel's army remained in Egypt today as beaten remnants of the force which once threatened Suez fled into Libya. British headquarters announced today that these rearguards were engaged yesterday at Sidi Barani and Salum with their swift liquidation regarded as certain.

Some of the remnants of the fleeing African Corps had shook loose from the advancing British Eighth Army yesterday and plunged across the Egyptian border into Libya in the vicinity of Halfaya Pass despite heavy Allied air bombardment that made the route nearly impassable. British forces which had been making a desperate effort to catch the back pedalling enemy plunged into Libya only a few hours behind the rear of the Axis troops. The situation in Halfaya Pass was described as confusing with Allied pilots tainting relentless pounding of the enemy.

POP ON THE LINE

WHITEVILLE, N.C., Nov. 10 (CP) — On a fishing party, Fulton Memory left a heavy tug on his line. He struggled with the catch and brought up four bottles of soft drinks tied together with string.

Axis Chief And Slaves In Huddle

LONDON, Nov. 11 (CP) — Hitler, Mussolini and Laval were reported meeting in Rome today and unofficially in London believed the Fuehrer and his satellites were considering some desperate blow to halt Allied advances in North Africa.

Sunday For Remembrance

Members of Canadian Legion and Women's Auxiliary Paraded to St. Andrew's Cathedral

Members of the Canadian Legion and the Women's Auxiliary to the Canadian Legion, under their respective presidents, Dr. R. C. Bamford and Mrs. William Rothwell, paraded Sunday morning from the Canadian Legion Hall to St. Andrew's Anglican Cathedral for the annual Remembrance service on the Sunday nearest to Armistice Day. There was a goodly turnout of both organizations.

Very Rev. James B. Gibson, dean of St. Andrew's Cathedral, preached a timely and appropriate sermon and choral music and hymns were suitable to the occasion. Bugler William Rance, in the course of the service, sounded "The Last Post."

Are Installed In Water Transport

Well Known Fishermen Are Among Latest to Join Up Here

Latest recruits in Prince Rupert for the Canadian Army include three well known local fishermen who have already enlisted and been assigned to service in the Inland Water Transport of the Royal Canadian Army Service Corps here. They are Floyd Hudson, aged 32, Helge C. Essen, 35, and Rodney Valpy, 19.

Other recent enlistments here include Ray A. Bussinger, 20, and Alex Thomas, 18, both of Telkwa, who are leaving for manning depot in Vancouver tomorrow.

Miss Mary L. Janze, 23, Hazelton, is in the city on her way to Vancouver, having enlisted in the Canadian Women's Army Corps.

BLOW AT HAMBURG

First Night Raid by Royal Air Force on Germany Since October 15

LONDON, Nov. 10 (CP) — British bombers, making their first night attack on Germany since October 15, last night attacked Hamburg and other targets in northwest Germany, the Air Ministry announced. Fifteen of the attacking aircraft are missing.

Canadian squadrons took part in the raid and the Royal Canadian Air Force said two of the missing aircraft were Canadian.

WELL KNOWN LADY PASSES

Mrs. Isabella Donaldson, Mother of Mrs. C. E. Cullin, Expires After Long Illness

Mrs. Isabella Donaldson, mother of Mrs. C. E. Cullin of Fourth Avenue East and one of Prince Rupert's remarkable old ladies, passed away at 6:45 this morning in the Prince Rupert General Hospital. She had been in distinctly failing health for the past several months and about a week ago was removed from her daughter's home to the hospital.

A resident of Prince Rupert for eighteen years, Mrs. Donaldson, in spite of her great age of ninety, was very bright and able, active and keenly interested in affairs. She bore her final sufferings with courage and spirit. She had numerous admiring friends who will regret to learn of her passing and will extend their deep sympathy to the bereaved.

Mrs. Donaldson was born in Cambridge, England and was married in St. George's Chapel, London, to the late James Donaldson, who predeceased her in 1921. For many years deceased had made her home in New York, coming here from that city following the death of her husband.

Besides the daughter here, Mrs. Donaldson is survived by another daughter, Mrs. Jack Hipple, and a son, Robert Donaldson, both at Long Island, New York. Funeral arrangements, being made by the B.C. Undertakers, will be simple and quiet.

CASABLANCA AND ORAN ARE FOCAL POINTS IN ALLIED INVASION NOW

Fighting Goes on Within Former City and Likewise In Latter — Petain Takes Personal Command Of French Resistance

LONDON, Nov. 10 (CP) — An American column was reported advancing toward Libya today—the first United States thrust directly aimed at expelling the Axis from Africa—as the preliminary occupation of French North Africa rolled swiftly toward completion over Vichy's shattered and disorganized defences. The aged Marshal Henri Philippe Petain has himself shouldered the burden of commanding the French forces, replacing Admiral Jean Darlan who is a prisoner of the Americans. The Germans are reported to have sent Field Marshal Edwin von Witzleben to North Africa to direct Vichy forces on the field. A Vichy broadcast says that the American force is driving toward Bou Saada, 120 miles east of Algiers, in a direct line toward the Libyan Desert, indicating a possible attack over the inland desert at Tripoli, capital and kingpin of Italian Libya, and at the rear of Rommel's scurrying Axis Army.

YANKS HEADED FOR TRIPOLI

LONDON, Nov. 10 (CP) — Principal activity in the Allied invasion of the French colonies of North Africa centres today on Casablanca and Oran—the former on the Atlantic coast of Morocco and the latter on the Mediterranean coast of Algeria. Fighting goes on within the city of Casablanca with the Vichy French forces putting up some resistance to the landed Americans. There is also fighting within Oran. Vichy broadcasts report new American landings on the Atlantic coast and say that French naval forces have suffered severe losses in a naval battle outside Casablanca which itself has been bombarded, heavily. Yesterday Oran was described as practically encircled. Prior to the capitulation of Algiers, sea and airborne troops had closed down upon the capital of Algeria from the east and west, seizing Sidi Ferruch and Aintaya without a struggle and taking Maison Blanche and Blida airdromes in swift combat team operations. Admiral Jean Darlan, it was disclosed, authorized the surrender of the colonial capital and British and American naval units thereupon entered the harbor. The anti-British commander of all Vichy armed forces has been captured himself along with the city, this today having been definitely disclosed. Since the capitulation and occupation of Algiers, all public establishments have been closed and circulation of people in the streets banned. General Charles DeGaulle, leader of the Free French, called upon all loyal French people to "rise and help our Allies." Addressing the French people of North Africa he declared that "the war would be won, thanks to France." There has been mixed response. Such are the latest developments since the first White House announcement Saturday night that "powerful American forces" were landed on the Mediterranean coasts of the French colonies in Africa in order to "forestall an invasion" of Africa by Germany and Italy. The announcement said the landings were to prevent an enemy invasion which, if successful, would "constitute a direct threat to America" across the comparatively narrow sea from western Africa.

Disorders In Paris

LONDON, Nov. 10 (CP) — Reuters recorded a Paris radio announcement yesterday that the effect that clashes had broken out between demonstrators and police in the German-occupied French capital. The anti-British commander of all Vichy armed forces has been captured himself along with the city, this today having been definitely disclosed. Since the capitulation and occupation of Algiers, all public establishments have been closed and circulation of people in the streets banned. General Charles DeGaulle, leader of the Free French, called upon all loyal French people to "rise and help our Allies." Addressing the French people of North Africa he declared that "the war would be won, thanks to France." There has been mixed response. Such are the latest developments since the first White House announcement Saturday night that "powerful American forces" were landed on the Mediterranean coasts of the French colonies in Africa in order to "forestall an invasion" of Africa by Germany and Italy. The announcement said the landings were to prevent an enemy invasion which, if successful, would "constitute a direct threat to America" across the comparatively narrow sea from western Africa.

Total of $758,650 so Far Accounted For in Prince Rupert With Still More To Come

With further subscriptions totalling $19,500 reported during the day, the cumulative total for Prince Rupert in the Third Victory Loan up to last evening had reached $758,650. Delayed subscriptions are still rolling in to loan headquarters here and it will be some days before the record is complete. The Royal Canadian Air Force here made a fine showing. Its objective was set at $11,000 but the subscriptions from 294 individuals amounted to $21,550.

The dry dock, which had an objective of $80,250 with returns still incomplete, shows 901 subscriptions totalling $76,250.

Armistice Day . . .

Twenty-four years tomorrow it is since one great war ended and today we are in the midst of another, outstripping the former in scope, magnitude and implications. While we honor the brave men of the last war, those who died and those who are still with us, not forgetting the men of this war, many of whom have also died and many more of whom stand ready to die, let our thought be that we shall not weaken, that we shall not falter, but that we shall fight the good fight until a real peace comes, a peace worthy of the cause, a peace which will perpetuate and ensure the ideals and the things for which we fight.

It has been truly said that this is the "people's war." That is what they have called it in Britain. That is what it is in Russia and everywhere else that arms have been able to reach and inflict their horrors upon civilians and soldiers alike.

It well behoves us tomorrow to again honor those men who fought and died between 1914 and 1918, thinking that their sacrifices would have finished the job for all time.

We are all of us engaged in another great undertaking of liberation and idealism. Tomorrow we will be too busy to long lay down our tools but we will not be too busy to reflect upon those things for which they fought and for which fight and to resolve that everything we can do to carry on to a successful culmination the task for which so many have already fought and died shall be seen through the utmost efforts of us all—each and every one—until the culmination is a real Armistice Day.

TWO YOUNG MEN
with faith in themselves

BEFORE the war, two young graduates in chemistry faced the future with no assets but technical training and unbounded faith in themselves. They planned to capitalize on their years in college by manufacturing a certain chemical product. "But we'll need some money to get started," they said. "Let's put it up to the bank."
Their banker decided that their faith was well founded in character, ability, energy. "We'll finance you to start in a small way," he said.

"Make a test on the local market first."
Presently the product was being sold all over Canada and exported to the United States and overseas. Now it fills a wartime demand. The enterprise employs a large number of people.
This actual example illustrates how this country's Chartered Banks help credit-worthy people to benefit themselves, their fellows and their country under the democratic system of free enterprise.

Banks, like any other business, exist because they provide service which a community needs and is willing to pay for at a rate which will yield a reasonable profit. Chartered Bank profits average less than one-half of one per cent a year on total assets. Few, if any, other businesses operate on as small a margin.

"Simply Grand" Is "Mrs. Miniver"—
Best That Has Been Said For It
Reiterated— is Real Masterpiece

A simple story grandly told, an epic picture magnificently screened, acted and directed, a film accomplishment which excels because it has so effectively caught the spirit of the timely subject of Britain and Britons at war, "Mrs. Miniver" has already been seen for review and there can be no hesitation in that has been said for it. It would be remiss not to repeat the urgent suggestion already made—that everyone most certainly should see this fine masterpiece of the screen. "Mrs. Miniver" has been so much extolled, there have been so many spontaneous writings in its favor, on every phase of its production, that it is difficult to praise it in original terms. "Simply grand" is possibly the best way to describe it in two words. It is so easily understandable yet so breathlessly realistic, so poignantly dramatic. It is not a picture one would call elaborate or spectacular. It is a realistic record illustrated by deep human drama.

Graphic scenes of Mrs. Miniver are the air fighting over Britain, those attending the use of the great civilian mosquito fleet for evacuation of Dunkerque, another the sequence where the Miniver family sits out in an Anderson air raid shelter during the blitz. Tense is the scene where Mrs. Miniver captures the fugitive Nazi flier. Stirring is the closing episode—the service in the bombed village church where the "levelling" of the classes is so richly depicted in a setting of stress and tragedy. Probably no motion picture has ever probed so deeply into wartime emotions, yet this magnificent production does so without the use of the usual blood-and-thunder spectacle scenes. It is a beautiful picture of family life, and the emotional pulls of wartime between love and duty. Certainly, it is a tribute to the civilian warriors of England that has been long overdue.

Greer Garson and Walter Pidgeon will go down in screen history as "Mrs. Miniver" and "Mr. Miniver," their portrayals of the leading roles are so fine and yet so unostentatious. Dame May Whitty, Teresa Wright, Richard Ney, Reginald Owen, Henry Travers, and Henry Wilcoxon also have essential parts with Christopher Severn and Clara Sanders in fine juvenile pieces.—G.A.H.

WIN OUT

There is no longer any doubt now who will win the first half of the Five Pin Bowling League season. SavMors blanked the Signals three games to nil last night to go in front of the pack with a 7-game margin. There is a close tussle for second place, with Burns and Monarchs tied and Air Force and Chinese Youth one and two games below. Cy Kellett hit the jackpot again, smashing the maples for 806 including a high 341 string. Venezuela is a republic with 20 states and two federal territories.

"Down you go, Hun . . . you don't score on my team!"

His "stick" a battery of deadly machine guns, the Air Gunner plays goal for his "attack team"—fights off enemy planes when they try to interfere with the blasting of Nazi lifelines. He is the protector, the guardian of his pals. They rely on him—the Air Gunner—and go unwavering on their way to hurl their mighty bomb-load upon the enemy.

Air crew work is team work. Each man has his special job—and is trained by the R.C.A.F. to do it well. Trained, too, for a great future in the thrilling new world of tomorrow.

The expanded Air Training Plan has room for more men who want to join these fighting comrades of the skies in their great deeds of today and their great prospects for the future. Right now applications are being accepted for air crew duties at R.C.A.F. Recruiting Centres throughout Canada.

If you are physically fit, mentally alert, over 17½ and not yet 33, you are eligible. If you are over 33, but have exceptional qualifications, you may still be considered. Lack of formal education is no longer a bar to enlistment.

FIGHTING COMRADES OF THE SKIES

join "that men may fly." Canadian women fill vital jobs in the R.C.A.F. Women's Division, releasing men for air crew duties. Recruits are needed, age 18 to 40, physically fit, with at least High School entrance. Many useful and fascinating jobs await you. No experience needed. The Air Force will train you quickly to take your place with Canada's airwomen. Full information at any R.C.A.F. Recruiting Centre, or write address below for explanatory booklet.

By DOROTHY GARBUTT,
Hostess

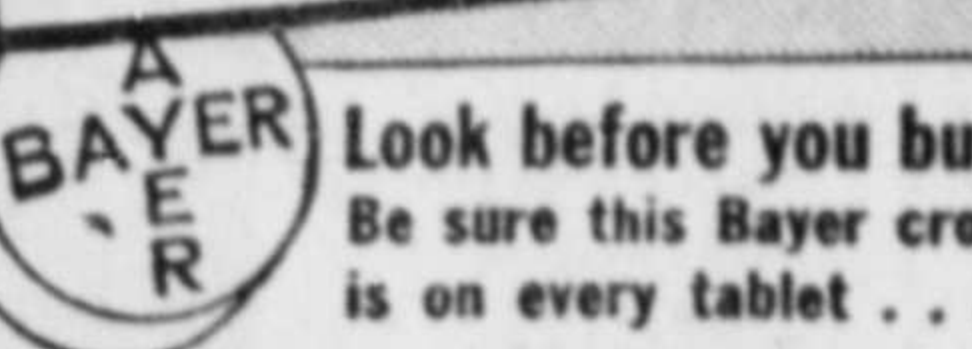

Our Jock has been sporting a cosy new turtle neck sweater which his mother knit for him and which ought to keep him warm, running from fort to fort as he does. I suspect that Harvey Orr, who is stationed with the Air Force, will have his eye on it because it is knit of Air Force blue—so if you lose it Jock, you'll know where to look for it. Of course Harvey's a bigger man than you and it might be just as well not to let on that you notice he's wearing it. Sometimes discretion is the better part of valor.

Yesterday I met Squadron Leader Walker at a luncheon and took the opportunity of asking her just how officers of the Women's Air Force were addressed. She said that all senior officers were addressed as "Madame." It seems that I'm not the only one to be puzzled by this as Flying Officer Cameron, who was one of the visiting group, reported her gardener said, "Excuse me, miss, but I'm not used to these here lady soldiers and how do you call you?" "Well," said Miss Cameron, "I don't usually call me anything, but if I did I would call me Madam." That satisfied him.

"C" Company of the Winnipeg Grenadiers have set a definite date for their first dance. It is to be on November 19 at the Armories. As they are going to a lot of trouble to make this dance a first class affair I hope all the hostesses will give them full support. Captain Clark is organizing it.

I hear that Johnny Bassado is trying to make one of the travelling camp concert parties and I wish him all the luck in his endeavours. He has voice, personality and looks and what I like about him is that he is modest about his talents. When he sings he enjoys himself and isn't concerned with the effect he is making on the audience. He's natural and his voice is pure gold.

Letter Box

KISSING BROADMINDED

Editor, Daily News:
I have been following the letters in your paper the past few weeks and seeing as everyone else has, I would like to express my opinion.

This "Lothario" persons gets a little innocent idea to help boost the Victory Loan in Prince Rupert and gets showered with blasts by our one-track minded citizens. Some of these latter take this opportunity to try to express to the rest of us just how dignified they "can be." I say "can be" because they aren't all they are cracked up to be or they would have seen the patriotic and broad-minded side of Lothario's suggestion.

If some of the people of this little town were just half as "good" as they would like others to think they are they would remain silent.

A certain person answered the Salvation Army's letter. All I can say to that is, he is at least a man, he isn't afraid to say what he thinks which I figure is a feather in anybody's hat.

Thanks Mr. Editor for your valuable space and I sincerely hope that the persons to whom this letter is intended will grow up, wake up and shut up.
