Tokyo Still Trying To Make Brave Case Out of Midway—Aleutians News Vague

BERLIN DOUBTS TOKYO
BERLIN, June 11 (CP)—The Berlin radio today broadcast Stockholm reports discounting Japanese boasts of victory at Midway and Tokyo hints that Japanese troops had landed in the Aleutian Islands.

WASHINGTON, D.C., June 11: (CP)—Imperial Tokyo headquarters still seek to minimize the gravity of the Japanese naval disaster at Midway. Today a Japanese admiral told the press in the Nipponese capital that, because of the Battle of Midway Island, United States must abandon its assistance in the defence of Australia in order to defend its own shores. This statement came after the acknowledgment by Tokyo yesterday that United States forces had sunk an aircraft carrier, heavily damaged another carrier and damaged a cruiser.

New accounts of the Battle of Midway Island today revealed that flying fortresses and other United States forces broke up two huge Japanese fleets, beat off an attack by 180 enemy planes and saved the Hawaiian Islands from invasion.

Official United States reports said that of more than thirty Japanese warships thrown into the attack against Midway at least half had been sunk or damaged and the remainder ran away so fast they did not even wait to pick up their survivors from the sea. Thousands of Japanese men had, as a result, drowned or had been left behind to succumb to exposure.

The United States reports listed sixteen and possibly eighteen Japanese warships sunk or damaged before the enemy fleet limped off in retreat.

Moreover an eye-witness account of Ensign George Gay, 25-year old Navy flier, has declared that three Japanese aircraft carriers burst into flames under torpedo plane attack.

Aleutian Islands

Tokyo headquarters also reported that Japanese Army troops were used in attacking the Aleutian Islands, three days after the Dutch Harbor raids, and declared they "are continuing operations in this area." No details were given.

Admiral Chester Nimitz, commander-in-chief of the United States Pacific fleet, described the situation in the Far North as confused several days ago but gave no hint of Japanese troop landings. Last night Washington added the statement that "certainly no inhabited islands or rocks have been troubled with uninvited visitors."

AIR FORCE

But Action Against Germany Interrupted by Bad Weather

LONDON, June 11—The Royal Air Force attacked oil tanks and other objectives on the French coast last night. For the fourth night this month the offensive against Germany was interrupted because of bad weather.

British fighters also blasted at Nazi airfields in the Low Countries as well as military targets in Northern France during the night as the bad weather over the continent kept the Royal Air Force away from the second successive night.

NEW YORK, June 11: (CP)—The New York Yankees had their margin of leadership in the American League reduced to ten games as a result of losing to the second place Detroit Tigers yesterday. The third place Cleveland Indians crept up to within half a game of the Tigers by taking a close decision from Washington Senators.

In the National League the Brooklyn Dodgers and St. Louis Cardinals, first and second place teams respectively, were idle at St. Louis. The Pittsburgh Pirates blanked the Boston Red Sox and ousted them from the leadership of the second division.

AT A WEST COAST UNITED STATES PORT, June 11 (CP)—Capt. Lyle G. Havens of San Carlos, California, says that a negro, who died from exposure in a lifeboat, was the only one of sixty members of the crew to be lost in the first torpedoing of a United States merchant ship off the Pacific Northwest coast. Two other members of the crew are, however, in a serious condition. According to the official announcement, the ship sank thirty minutes after the explosion Sunday afternoon.

At Washington, D.C., Senator Bone of Washington State said the freighter had sunk off Nash Bay, Washington. Senator Wallgren of Washington said the survivors had been taken to Port Angeles.

Bir Hacheim on Southern End Of Libyan Desert Front Lost

By British

BERLIN, June 11: (CP)—The German High Command claimed today that Bir Hacheim, southern anchor of the British line in Libya, had been captured by Axis troops. Last night it had been reported that the Axis had launched an all-out attack.

(Military circles in London said that the German claim was probably true although without confirmation and, although it would relieve supply difficulties of the Axis on the British left flank, the position was not regarded as vital.)

George Cross and Two George Medals Awarded to Canadians On R.C.A.F. Recommendation

OTTAWA, June 11 (CP)—Gallantry in the face of danger, all round hard work and efficiency are recognized in the King's Birthday list of honors awarded in Canada on recommendation of the Royal Canadian Air Force and announced here last night. For the first time since the awards were established during the Battle of Britain, one George Cross and two George Medals were awarded in Canada.

The George Cross was awarded posthumously to Leading Aircraftman K. M. Gravell of Vancouver who died of burns suffered while trying to rescue the pilot from a machine in which both crashed.

Mrs. Frances Walsh, country school teacher near Calgary, was awarded the George Medal for attempting to save Gravell's life, pulling him from a burning plane. The other George Medal goes to Flight Sergeant F. B. Lumis of Frankfort, Ontario, for putting out a hangar fire at Trenton, Ontario.

Prince Rupert And Midway...

It is a far cry from Prince Rupert to Midway Island. Yet what happened in the naval and air battle of Midway, the defeat of a Japanese fleet at the hands of the Americans, might have a very direct effect upon what might happen to us.

Conceivably it may have lengthened the time in which we might expect attack here and a few more Midways would, of course, eliminate our local risk to very considerable extent.

If the Jap can be held west of Midway, there is little danger to us on this coast. Let him take Midway, however, and we may very seriously consider what the outlook for us may be. Let him take Hawaii and we may question just how the final outcome may go and how our chances are.

What happens around Midway and west of Hawaii may very well mean the difference between the odd air raid or an actual invasion for Prince Rupert—and it may settle the whole war in the Pacific.

We may not be entirely convinced as to the actual necessity of a blackout but, when one is officially called, we do not think it should be made a joke of as, by the heed some people pay to it, has been done here.

REPORTS ON CONVENTION

J. S. Wilson Tells Local Canadian Legion Impressively of Winnipeg Gathering

At the regular monthly meeting of the Prince Rupert branch of the Canadian Legion of the British Empire Service League last evening a report of the Dominion convention recently held in Winnipeg was given by J. S. Wilson who attended as the official delegate of the branch. In addition Mr. Wilson carried proxies on behalf of the Bulkley Valley (Smithers) and the Stewart branches.

In a vivid and lucid talk, the delegate told of the impressive opening of the convention. A parade of 1,500 veterans, headed by numerous standards and with five bands accompanying, marched to the Winnipegan auditorium along Memorial Boulevard, itself a tribute to the men of the first Great War. There before an audience of four thousand the dramatic act of Remembrance was carried out in an atmosphere that gripped every individual in the gathering. Later the presentation of the highest honor in the power of the Legion, the gold medal of honor, was made to the people of Malta in recognition of their outstanding heroism in resisting the aggressor through two long years. At a luncheon on another occasion a cheque for $7,500.12 was presented to the Manitoba Red Cross from the Valour Road Memorial branch of the Canadian Legion. But the outstanding event was the broadcast speech by the Dominion President Alex. Walker who spoke of the hypocrisy of our calling any effort sacrifice if it did not entail the sacrifice of life. To engage in war at high rates of pay, to have to pay heavy taxes, to do with limited gasoline or food supplies was not sacrifice. He called for a great and united effort on all veterans to give the lead to Canada. Nothing short of total war effort was worthy of Canada. Total war effort had been handicapped and impeded by political considerations.

Other speakers had included Col. J. L. Ralston, Minister of Defence, Captain Ian MacKenzie, Minister of Pensions and National Health, with other governmental officials. In the various committees over 900 resolutions had been dealt with. The animating spirit of the convention was to do everything possible to win the war with an all-out effort. Included in the resolutions were two that had originated in the local branch and in the Stewart branch. These included the withdrawal of special privileges enjoyed by certain sects in Canada who did not assume the responsibility of supporting Canada's war effort but were willing to reap all and any benefit.

Attendance at committee meetings and provincial caucuses had kept the delegate busy in addition to the general sessions. The thanks of the branch were enthusiastically conveyed to Mr. Wilson for his illuminating talk.

A pleasing feature at the meeting of the branch last evening was the presence of Alan Robertson formerly of Ocean Falls Legion, and J. W. Campbell and Sumner of the American Legion. Mr. Campbell conveyed felicitations from the United States and also gave several items telling of the routine followed by the posts of the American Legion. These were greatly appreciated by the branch.

A committee consisting of S. A. Cheeseman, G. W. Abbott and Hubert Ward was appointed to meet with Major A. S. Parkes of the War Auxiliary Services and the City Engineer F. N. Good to discuss fully the best arrangements to be made to provide ample accommodation for parades and play-

FRUIT ON MARKETS

Strawberries and Abundant Citrus Fruits Are Feature—Apples Are Scarce and High

New season's strawberries and plenty of citrus fruits feature the local fruit market these days. Apples are almost out of sight in price as only American apples are available and there are few of them. Banana shipments are irregular and the prices are inclined to be high. Owing to big demand, supplies of strawberries are scarce and there is no word yet as to coming supplies. The abundant citrus fruits are of good quality and reasonable in price.

New potatoes are selling but they are the California product. British Columbia new potatoes are also in but they are small.

With sugar rationing now in full effect, consumers are warned that they must not have more than two weeks' supply on hand. The sugar ration hardly allows for baking now unless sugar is some other way done without.

Permission has been granted by the Wartime Prices and Trade Board to advance the price of canned milk ½¢ per tin.

There will be no more marmalade in tins but it will be available in jars.

Coconut is a commodity that is becoming very scarce.

GRADUATION EXERCISES

Another Class Finishes Training
At Booth Memorial High School

Graduation exercises for the Senior Class of Booth Memorial High School—fifty-five graduates in all—took place last night with due and fitting ceremony before a large gathering of parents and friends in the school auditorium which had been attractively prepared for the occasion. It was a fine appearing group of young people for whom an important milestone in life was marked.

The address to the graduates was given by Very Rev. James B. Gibson D.D., dean of St. Andrew's Cathedral, who delivered an appropriate message. The diplomas were presented by Alex Turnbull, inspector of schools, and the very able valedictorian was Miss Margaret Lamb, Rev. A. F. MacSween, pastor of First Presbyterian Church, read the scripture and said the prayer. W. W. C. O'Neill, principal of the school, acted as chairman. An acceptable musical program included violin solo by Miss Nancy Owens, accompanied by Miss Charlotte Balagno; vocal solo by Miss Chrissie McKenzie, accompanied by Miss Aileen Foster, and piano solo by Miss Peggy Large. Miss Bernice Eastwood presided at the piano to render the recessional and accompany the hymn "O God Our Help in Ages Past."

Following the graduation exercise ceremonies, tea was served in the home economics rooms. Presiding at the tea table were Miss Florence Wilson and Miss Ruth Hind.

The floral decorations of the auditorium were a feature which attracted much comment. The stage banked with broom had trellises of red hawthorn at either end. The speakers' table was banked with white hawthorne and the main window contained a deep box of lupin and phlox. School colors of green and yellow were used in general drapery. The art class also contributed appropriate drawings.

Address To Graduates

In his address to the graduates Dean Gibson opened in humorous vein after which he referred to the phases of physical, mental and moral growth. This graduation marked a third stage—first was the home, then the public school and then the high school. The Dean made an appeal for the importance of Christianity and the church in life—factors which did not detract from but made life fuller, adding courage, hope, virtues and all the worthwhile things. Without the anchor of the soul, shipwreck in life must come sooner or later. In the battle of life would come many a jolt and many a disappointment against which the church and religion would give something to cling. There was a great difference between making merely a living and making a life. Service and not money would buy fame. A shining example was that of William Booth, after whom the school was named, who had given his life for others. These students had a long line of Christian ancestry. They came of parents who told them what they believed to be right and true. Then the teachers had endeavored to inculcate service. The dean admonished the graduates to go out into the world intent upon making it a little brighter, a little sweeter. He urged the development of a sense of humor with faith and confidence although not over-confidence. Pursuit of pleasure should not be permitted to override responsibility. He asked his listeners if they, in life, would choose to be lifters or to be leavers.

In the valedictory address, Miss Margaret Lamb referred to the student activities of the past year. She mentioned Edward Lambe as the outstanding student and also singled out others of the students for their individual distinctions. The future looked new and some might face it with trepidation. However, they had had a good and profitable time in school. The principal and the staff were to be thanked.

HAS NEW ROMANCE

"Courtship of Andy Hardy" Is Week-end Picture at Capitol Theatre Here

Andy Hardy finds a new romance and successfully gets out of it to become a free man again in "The Courtship of Andy Hardy," another of the popular series of family pictures, which comes to the Capitol Theatre here this Friday and Saturday. Not only does Andy meet a new girl but he also rescues his sister from a dramatic scrape, gets into trouble with the police and barely escapes from the clutches of Polly Benedict who returns to further complicate his young life.

The story centres around Andy's efforts to show the new girl a good time. Judge Hardy had taken pity on the girl after trying the case of her separated parents in his court. Realizing that she led a hopelessly sheltered life with no opportunity for fun, the judge calls on Andy for help. When Andy takes her to her first dance, she proves to be a wallflower but he bears up boldly under it. Experiencing a crush on Andy, the girl learns to make herself attractive and then becomes a sensation. Hilarious events then follow in rapid succession.

Mickey Rooney, of course, plays the part of Andy. Lewis Stone is again the small town judge. The cast, in addition to these, Polly Benedict and Donna Reed, includes Fay Holden, Cecilia Parker, Ann Rutherford, Sara Haden, William Lundigan, Steve Cornell, Harvey Stephens and Frieda Inescort.

SWEDISH PORTS

TIN SUPPLY CUT

The United Kingdom formerly imported 2,500 tons of tin ore and 8,000 tons of the metal annually from countries now in enemy hands.

There's a new dilly in Andy's life!

Andy's been a busy little bee... buzzing from blossom to blossom... but this time he almost gets stung... with the village wallflower! It's the twelfth and best of the Hardy Family hits!
