Congratulations, Ratepayers! . . .

The Prince Rupert Ratepayers' Association presents a full slate of candidates for the offices of mayor, aldermen and school trustees at the forthcoming civic election. The risk of any of the offices going vacant by default is eliminated. After all, there is an encouraging interest displayed in civic affairs although the nomination committee of the Ratepayers' Association did have a rather difficult time obtaining suitable material. The effort was, however, worthwhile and the committee is to be congratulated on the quality of the candidates who have been induced to stand. The candidates themselves are entitled to appreciation on finally giving way to their sense of civic responsibility and duty by agreeing to assume the duties of civic office which in the cases of most of them, no doubt, is being done at the expense of their own personal time and business which might well have full claim upon them.

Interest in any civic election always, of course, centres upon the mayoralty and for this office the Ratepayers' Association has made a fortunate choice in person of William M. Watts, prominent and successful young local business man. For some years now Mr. Watts has taken a keen and leading interest in civic affairs and, since he has served with success as president of the Prince Rupert Chamber of Commerce and the Prince Rupert Ratepayers' Association, it cannot be said he is without modern experience and knowledge of the current political situation. He will not be deluded about the responsibilities he will be called upon to accept and the problems he will have to face if elected to the chief magistracy. Among the candidates for the aldermanic and school boards is also to be found competent and versatile material. There is no official intimation as yet of other candidates who may enter the field. Now that the first move has been made, it is to be expected that others may be expected. In any case, it is gratifying to be assured through the action of the Ratepayers' Association last night that there is now worthy talent definitely available to take charge of affairs when Prince Rupert, after nearly ten years of commissionaryship, returns to the position of municipal autonomy.

ACTIVITIES OF Y.M.C.A. AND Y.W.C.A.

By DOROTHY GARBUTT, Hostess

Well, well, and what did you think of our "Dutch's" initial literary efforts? I was very proud of him. He has a style that is whimsical and full of feline fancy. We must have more anon. Thank you, Datch.

Another well attended meeting of the Service Wives' Club on Thursday afternoon saw several new members enrolling. The work on the bags for the hospital patients was finished and how they have to be filled. (And the bags are very generous in size so they will take some filling). The inter-club raffle prize was brought by Mrs. MacCallum and won by Mrs. Huff. Tea was served by Mrs. Cameron and Mrs. Multhead.

Next Thursday there will be a bridge-whist, the proceeds of which are to go towards the children's Christmas party to be held December 19 at the "X". Any service children of ten and under whose names aren't in had better see that Mummy attends to it right away. It's awfully important!

There will be two concerts at the Capitol Theatre on Sunday afternoon and evening. Tickets are needed for the evening show only. All tickets are to be got from our headquarters.

Geordie (Island Forts) Wilkinson left the following sports report with me:

"On Wednesday evening December 2, a three-hour volley ball struggle was played at Fort Frederick. Five teams were entered comprising Regiments No. 1, Recruits No. 2, Sergeants, Searchlight Section and Grenadiers. The final game was played between Searchlights Section and Sergeants with the Searchlights coming out on top. The personnel of this team is: B. M. Hat, I. Par, Clark, Gnr. Bateman, Gnr. Bowler, Gnr. Mosson, and Gnr. Woolley. If there is a team ready to take on these Fort Frederick sharpshooters let Geordie Wilkinson of the "Y" know about it

Post-Nuptial Shower Held Last Evening

A very delightful post-nuptial shower was held at the home of Mrs. W. S. Hammond, 1123 Sixth Avenue East, on Friday evening in honor of Mrs. J. Alexander, the former Miss Lillian Davies, who was recently married in Victoria.

The evening was spent playing contests, prizewinners being Mrs. H. M. Foote and Mrs. J. Lambie. After refreshments were served by the hostess, the bride was presented with a silver choker from the invited guests. Those present were: Mrs. W. S. Hammond, Mrs. J. Alexander, Mrs. J. Lambie, Mrs. D. McKenzie, Mrs. B. Love, Mrs. G. Smith, Mrs. S. L. Peachey, Mrs. D. Owens, Mrs. H. M. Foote, Mrs. F.

Vickers, Mrs. G. Scott, Mrs. Dowther, and the Misses M. Owens, H. Hampton, M. Sharp, E. Watson.

QUIETLY MARRIED

Miss Annie Peterson Becomes Bride
Of William Baillie

At a quiet ceremony in the home of the bride's parents the marriage took place on Wednesday evening of Annie Barbara, only daughter of Capt. and Mrs. Joseph Peterson, to Alexander Baillie, eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. William Baillie, Flight Lieutenant Van Gordon R.C.A.F., officiating.

The bride, who entered the room on the arm of her father, was lovely in a floor-length gown of pink sheer with shoulder veil of net caught in a coronet of pink and blue flowers, carrying a bouquet of pink and white carnations.

As bridesmaid, Bernice Eastwood, cousin of the bride, was charming in Alice-Blue sheer with matching cap of velvet flowers, carrying a bouquet of rose and cream carnations.

Groomsman was David Baillie, brother of the groom.

Later in the evening a reception was held for the intimate friends of the young couple. The guests were received by the bride's mother in a light blue dress with corsage of pink rosebuds and the groom's mother who wore soft blue crepe with corsage of red rosebuds.

The bride and groom stood beneath a white wedding bell under an arch of pink and white streamers to receive their guests. The toast to the bride was proposed by Ptl.-Lt. Van Gordon and the groom responded appropriately. Robert Barclay proposed a toast to the bridesmaid to which the groomsman replied.

The bride's table was centred with a beautiful three-tier wedding cake decorated by Mrs. Andrew Thompson, personal friend of the bride. After an appropriate ceremony when the bride inserted the knife into the cake with the help of the groom, the cake was duly cut by Mrs. J. W. Eastwood, the bride's aunt. Mrs. G. Stromdahl and Mrs. A. Thompson poured and serviteurs were Mrs. George Dibb, Miss Norma Smith and Miss June Beattie.

The groom left on Friday morning's train for Toronto where he will continue his training with the Royal Canadian Air Force and where Mrs. Baillie expects to join him later.

Both bride and groom have lived in Prince Rupert since early childhood. The bride is in the service of the Department of Transport. The groom is with the Air Force. They will have the hearty congratulations and best wishes of many friends.

Winner of the war savings certificate at the weekly Prince Rupert Rotary Club luncheon for the Queen's Fund was Alex MacKenzie. There was no speaker.

SUNDAY MIDNITE Lynn Bari "THE MAGNIFICENT DOPE" Don Ameche

IDEAL FOR XMAS GIFTS—Special Xmas Gift Books of Tickets—Priced from $1.00 to $2.25

The question of whether or not to have the annual radio broadcast next week with Ira D'worth, this Christmas for winter relief regional representative of the C. was brought up at the meeting of the Junior Section of the Prince Rupert Chamber of Commerce last night. The matter will be taken up at the meeting of the Junior Section of the Prince Rupert Chamber of Commerce last night.

Announcement

Restrictions placed upon us by the Wartime Prices & Trade Board compel us to announce we shall be unable to put on our "Christmas Special" this year.

This practice of sending a small box of smoked fish, typical of the dominant industry of Prince Rupert, has become increasingly popular and we are very sorry we shall have to disappoint our many customers this year.

After the war, we hope we shall again be able to make this special Christmas offer available to our many friends.
