MINISTER OF DEFENCE APPRECIATIVE OF COAST'S WAR POSITION

Joint United States-Canadian Plan Is Taking Possible Emergency Into Account.

"We are fully appreciative of the exposed position in which the people of the Pacific Coast feel themselves today and we are plugging along just as fast as we can in the matter of defences," declared Col. J. L. Ralston, minister of national defence, following his arrival at Prince Rupert yesterday afternoon in the course of an inspection of Pacific Coast defences.

Col. Ralston stated that the joint United States-Canada defence plan was providing to meet any emergency which might arise on this coast and that there would be no delay in taking necessary action if and when it was required.

Col. Ralston arrived at 6 p.m. by Royal Canadian Air Force plane about an hour later after Major C. G. Power, minister of air, had landed on another plane. They had come up the coast from Vancouver following different routes. Both planes, as well as flying along the rugged 500-mile coast line, went inland to size up the country there. Major Power's plane also made a short run north to the Alaska Panhandle before landing at Prince Rupert and flew over the new United States air base at Annette Island, near Ketcharan. The planes stopped at Bella Bella enroute from Vancouver, this being their only stop, and between there and Prince Rupert passed over Terrace.

Both Col. Ralston and Major Power were entirely non-committal when asked as to their opinions in regard to defences. They said they were making the trip to the coast to see and not to talk. It had been a wonderful trip and a revelation. They were much impressed with the country and with Prince Rupert as a city and a strategic base.

Col. Ralston likened his department of defence to the "goal keeper" in a game. They are the forwards—the ones who go out and do the fighting," he remarked, turning to Major Power, the minister of air.

It was the first visit to Prince Rupert for Col. Ralston. Major Power was last here a year ago last fall when the Seal Cove air base was in an embryonic stage. "A great job has been done here," he said.

Splendid weather favored the flight north of the ministers and their party. They were shown the local defences this morning after which they left in their planes for Victoria. Major Power and his party left at 11:15 a.m. for Alford Bay enroute to Victoria. Col. Ralston left this afternoon. They are operating on no particular itinerary as far as the coast tour is concerned, being guided to large extent by weather conditions as they find them. Col. S. D. Johnston, M.C.V.D., met and escorted the minister of national defence and Flight Lieut. R. H. Morris, acting in command at Seal Cove, received the minister of air. There were guards of honor and inspection of units. The visitors had dinner last night at the Edmonton Fusiliers' officers mess.

A Narrow Escape.

Col. Ralston and Major Power left Ottawa shortly after noon Saturday. The plane of Col. Ralston had engine trouble while flying over northern Ontario and had to make a forced landing on a snow and ice-covered lake about twenty miles from Kapuskasing. Conceivably, the incident might have been attended with much more serious results. "Happily enough," remarked Col. Ralston, "none of us suffered a scratch." The minister and other members of his party, however, had to hike off the lake and out to a railway line half a mile or so through deep, soft snow. Another plane was soon on hand to pick them up and Col. Ralston continued the flight west with Major Power, leaving other members of his party behind to

NAZIS LOSE DESTROYER

Enemy Naval Attack on Convoy Headed for Murmansk Beaten Off by British.

LONDON, March 31: (CP)—British and Russian naval forces sank a German destroyer and beat off attacks of German surface craft and U-boats on Sunday while escorting a convoy to Russia. The Admiralty announced today. Three German submarines were severely damaged "if not sunk." Two British destroyers were damaged but returned safely to port.

Germany, admitting the loss of the destroyer, claimed that an Allied transport, carrying tanks to Murmansk, had been destroyed.

Lew Ayres to Conchie Camp

Famous Moving Picture Star Takes This Rather Than Bear Arms

HOLLYWOOD, March 31:—Lew Ayres, noted moving picture star and hero of the "Young Dr. Kildare" series as well as one of the leading members of the cast of the famous old "All Quiet on the Western Front," has refused on the grounds of religious objection to war to take up arms and has been ordered to a conscientious objectors' camp in Oregon. (Ayres' father—a court stenographer in Minneapolis—expresses surprise at his son being a conscientious objector. The younger Ayres had been interested in the Red Cross, the father said).

catch up later. Col. Ralston paid tribute to the manner in which Wing Commander Edward Pritchard handled the situation in the forced landing.

In addition to the ministers, the party visiting Prince Rupert overnight included Air Marshal L. S. Broadbent, chief of air staff for Canada; Air Vice Marshal Anderson, air member for air staff; Air Vice Marshal L. F. Stevenson, chief western command, Victoria; Major General R. O. Alexander, officer commanding, western military command, Victoria; Col. George Currie, executive assistant to the minister of national defence; Wing Commander McFarlane, personal assistant to the chief of air staff; Flight Lieut. Diamond and Flight Lieut. Schooling, pilots of the ministerial planes, and Lieut. Preston.

General J. C. Murchie, assistant chief of staff, department of national defence, who was here last week, will join the ministerial party at Edmonton as it returns to Ottawa.

Another Slugging Incident in City

Police Are Continuing Investigation of Logger's Complaint of Being Robbed.

City police are continuing their investigation of another slugging complaint. The complainant is Joseph Tamashumas, logger from the Queen Charlotte, who says that he hired a taxi which let him out at a lane near Third Avenue and Sixth Street where he was set upon and relieved of a stake of $200. Tamashumas lost some teeth as a result but, otherwise, was not badly injured. He is uncertain as to the identity of his assailant.

I read all the interviews with the American citizens who came from Penang. The British didn't evacuate the Americans properly.

The British didn't have anti-aircraft guns. The British didn't this resumed. Five former French and the British didn't that. The lady with the Siamese cat had plenty to say, as I remember.

If you weren't properly protected, what have you ever done to protect anyone else? Listen, sister, you get busy and join the air raid precaution service. Get busy. There's a lot to do right here. And if things don't go well right here whom will you blame—the British?

The British didn't have to have a war with Japan and they did not have to have a war with Hitler.

Do you know that? They could have tossed the continents to the winds and made a deal with both our enemies—against us. A military deal, a financial deal, a trade deal. All they had to do was go Nazi. All they had to do was agree about spheres of influence in the western hemisphere and the east. Hitler's still moaning that they didn't do it.

Did you ever look at the map? There are seventy-odd million Anglo-Saxon members of the English speaking world outside the United States and they are scattered from land's end to hell and gone. Not quite two years ago they had the Germans at the channel and there weren't any anti-aircraft guns in Britain, either.

Dorothy Thompson— GO BRITAIN, EVERYTHING ELSE GOES

Famous Woman Commentator Deplores Criticism Over Singapore—What About Pearl Harbor?

The following is by Dorothy Thompson:

All right . . . all right . . . Yes, I read Cecil Brown, and so did Goebels. He's quoting him all over the place. Yes, I know the show in Singapore was not so good. Yes, I know about the complacency . . . Yes, I know they did not follow a scorched earth policy.

Yes—you can't feel worse about it than I did. I know what it means. Maybe I know what it means better than you do—the fall of Singapore.

Just the same I can't stand the cackling. Who's calling whom names? Is this war in the Far East the fault of the British? We talked a year and a half—Ham Fish with a German agent in his office, the American first committee riddled with Nazi agents—about whether this was our war. The British supported us in the Far East, not we the British. Do you remember Pearl Harbor? Were we so hot at Pearl Harbor?

Listen, brothers: This is a war against Japan and Nazi Germany. Get this straight. The British are our allies.

CRUISER IS LOST

H. M. S. Naiad Torpedoed—Was Vessel of 5,000 Tons

LONDON, March 31:—The Admiralty announces the loss of the 5,000-ton cruiser Naiad, giving no details. (This is believed to be a 9,000-ton cruiser, the torpedoing of which has been claimed by Germany.)

BURMA IN BAD WAY

Japanese Are Making Headway—Toungou Abandoned By Defenders

NEW DELHI, March 31: (CP)—A mixed force of Japanese and traitorous Burmese has penetrated to Shadawng, within ten miles of Pronie, in heavy fighting in which an Indian frontier force inflicted three hundred casualties and captured seventy prisoners.

Possible abandonment of Toungou was indicated in dispatches from the eastern front but Chongking dispatches said the Chinese still held the eastern part of the town.

The evidence has been distasteful to Chancellor Adolf Hitler who has been urging that the trials be suspended.

New Blows Delivered at Air Bases of Enemy in New Guinea—Nipponese Lose Many Planes and Ships.

MELBOURNE, March 31: (CP)—New aerial blows at the Japanese invasion base of Lae in New Guinea were announced today. Direct hits were scored by United Nations airmen in a bombing attack in which fires were set among airdrome buildings. The rainy season has started and is severely hampering the enemy on land.

United States Army headquarters reported that United States flyers had shot down fifty enemy pursuit planes in action and sank or seriously damaged forty-six Japanese transports and sixteen warships up to March 1.

It was also declared at General Douglas MacArthur's headquarters in Australia that the United Nations had now assumed control of the air north of Australia from the Japanese.

Further Victories To Russians In Spite of Stiff German Counter-Attack

MOSCOW, March 31: (CP)—Hard won gains by Soviet cavalry which repulsed a stiff German counter-attack on the Kalinin front northwest of Moscow and occupied an important populated place were reported today by the Soviet information bureau. On the central front the Russians continued to drive towards Smolensk while in the north a strategic point west of Leningrad was claimed to have been recaptured by the Red forces.

LOOKS LIKE BREAKDOWN

Outlook Not Good for British Plan In Regard To India

NEW DELHI, March 31:—Growing indications that the proposal to grant India Dominion status might break down over Britain's insistence on retaining control of India's defences during the war came today from the All-India Congress executive committee and other sources. London sources also were pessimistic.

Fraser Valley Products Will Be Decreased

VANCOUVER, March 31:—Decreased production of berries, produce and eggs in the Fraser Valley will be unavoidable as a result of their removal of Japanese from that area, it is forecast by Austin C. Taylor, chairman of the British Columbia Security Commission.

WAR NEWS

SUBMARINE WARFARE

WASHINGTON—An intensification of submarine warfare in waters off the United States coast is expected with the coming of spring. Of course, combative measures will be similarly intensified. Nazi U-boats were reported yesterday to have sunk four more vessels—two Allied merchantmen, one United States and one medium-sized British ship.

PACIFIC WAR COUNCIL

WASHINGTON—The Pacific war council, meeting here tomorrow, will deal with questions of production, supply, shipping and general war strategy. The membership consists of Canada, Australia, New Zealand, Great Britain, United States, China and the Netherlands. India may be given a seat at a later date. Formation of the new war council has been given a friendly but not enthusiastic reception in London. It is taken as a logical sequel to the appointment of General Douglas MacArthur as commander-in-chief of United Nations forces. Wide acclaim was given in Melbourne to the new council, formation of which "

Visit of Defence Heads . . .

Two of Canada's chief defence ministers—Col. Ralston and Major Power—have been and gone. For Col. Ralston it was the first visit here. Major Power has been here before. It is well that Col. Ralston should have obtained a first-hand picture of the situation in this area and that Major Power should have refreshed himself in view of changes that have taken place since last he was here.

Prince Rupert people will feel gratified and reassured following the visit of the ministers and the principal defence aides. The war chiefs now know exactly what the position from a defence standpoint is. Possibly more important, they will have been further impressed with the part Prince Rupert can play in the Allied offensive on the Pacific which must come before our particular enemies in this theatre are overcome.

Did you ever have an Englishman or an English woman for a friend? Did that friend ever let you down?

In the hour of her greatest distress, her greatest disaster, I, an American, write these lines to England. And I say to England: In spite of Singapore I sing with you: "Land of hope and glory, mother of the free." And I sing with you: "There's always be an England, and England will be free." And I ask you to sing with me the great songs of America: "Sweet land of liberty," and "Columbia the gem of the ocean," and "Mine eyes have seen the glory."

Songs written in the world's greatest language—the great language of resistance.

There's a line in "The Star Spangled Banner": "Stars through the perils of fight."

There are stars, England.

And don't believe the lady with the Siamese cat is America. America knows where she is going—and she knows who's going with her. Holland and Norway and Russia, China and India. Yes, India.

ANOTHER SERGEANT

Editor, Daily News:

I write with regard to your recent reports and write-ups given Dr. Mandy and the absolutely unnecessary, and I might add, detrimental publicity to the marvellous condition of our wonderful city of Prince Rupert.

Inasmuch as I personally have been a member of the active force stationed at Prince Rupert for the past two-and-a-half years, I have drawn many conclusions as to the people, habits, morale and, in general, the existing conditions taken from the standpoint of a man brought up in a good home and thrust into a town where people are friendly, courteous and quite hospitable, all these characteristics more or less aided by that "damned demon" liquor.

When a group of strange men gather in a place, the easiest and perhaps the finest manner of expressing fraternity and cordiality is by inviting others to have a "tot." Nowhere else in the world is fraternity more important than in a group of men such as we have in the army, whose main necessity is high morale. And for high morale, friendship is omnipotent.

One member of the services has pointed out the lack of facilities for sports, recreation etc. That needn't be brought to the fore again. We are all fully aware of the fact and, Dr. Mandy, if you would direct all this excessive energy to some constructive idea, such as the Civic Centre, you would be doing all a great service.

As for curtailing canteens, messes, etc., this is a farce, because no civilian organization can, nor must they be permitted to try to, direct any section of our army. Certain clubs are "out of bounds" and another ordinance prohibits alcohol within military barracks. So you see that the military authorities are quite capable of looking after their own men and regulations concerning liquor.

So, Dr. Mandy, kindly take the advice of a soldier and "lay-off" this useless splurge and leave such matters to the men you elect to your civic and provincial governing bodies.

"ANOTHER SERGEANT."

FIFTH COLUMNIST

Editor Daily News:

It is gratifying to note the constructive tone of a letter signed "The Teetotaler," relative to the deplorable liquor situation in Prince Rupert. "Teetotaler's" constructive suggestions to remedy the condition are most acceptable. The completion of our civic centre project would, undoubtedly, greatly alleviate the situation. With regard to the slimy "bootleggers," they will be wiped out of existence by an honest and efficient policing and enforcement of the requisite liquor laws and restrictions. Such enforcement, with penalties of sufficiently "sharp teeth" to warrant the fear and respect of the low-down "bootleggers," should be demanded by citizens. With regard to the armed forces, as suggested by "Teetotaler," increased facilities for healthy entertainment would

Delightful Tea
By Ladies' Aid

Fine Affair Held by St. Paul's Lutheran Church Organization

The Lutheran Ladies' Aid held a successful tea at the Metropole Hall last Saturday afternoon. The hall was tastefully decorated in seasonal colors, the tables being centred with spring flowers. The weather was favorable and there was a fair turnout of callers during the afternoon.

The affair was in general charge of the president, Mrs. Chris Johnson. In charge of refreshments were Mrs. J. Iversen and Mrs. Otto Ellertson. Serviteurs were Mrs. T. Sollen and Mrs. Oke Jackson.

There was a sale of home cooking taken care of by Mrs. Bernhof Pedersen and Mrs. M. Hveding. The fancywork table was looked after by Mrs. John Murvold. Mrs. H. Johansen had charge of a bean guessing contest, the prize being a lovely cake donated by Mrs. A. Husoy. Kay Lindseth was the winner with a guess of 436, the correct number in the jar being 437.

Cashier for the afternoon was Mrs. L. Olson.

also help. There is no doubt, however, that a restriction or even rationing of liquor should be introduced. It is just as easy to ration liquor as it is to ration sugar, gasoline or anything else and liquor is non-essential.

Doubtless, there are thousands like "Teetotaler" who recognize the seriousness of this situation not only in Prince Rupert but as a national menace in many cities throughout our Dominion, from the Atlantic to the Pacific—all potential Singapore, slowly but surely being demoralized by this insidious fifth columnist No. 1.

Like "Teetotaler" these people should also have the courage to join the ranks of fighters, give public expression to their condemnation and, if they so desire, offer suggestions for the effective offensive that will be waged against this traitorous thing in our midst.

The expression of opinion and response to the citizens' resolution indicates a practically unanimous desire of Prince Rupert citizens, excepting the slimy "bootleggers," the booze profiteers, the complicant whiskey and cocktail swillers and the weaklings lacking courage, to shackle this handicap to our war effort.

Those who may not yet have signed the citizens' resolution will still have an opportunity up to April 9 to do so at the already listed localities in the city. Do your duty as loyal citizens of our glorious Dominion and shackle our fifth columnist No. 1.

MUSICAL
COMEDY

"There's Magic in Music" is Interesting Picture for Mid-Week at Capitol Theatre.

With an impressive musical cast and a novel story, "There's Magic in Music," a delightful comedy musical, comes to the screen of the Capitol Theatre here as the mid-week feature offering.

The story is about a hoydenish young burlesque queen with a magnificent voice who becomes an opera singer. Most of the story is told against the background of the famous music camp at Interlochen, Michigan. Paroled, after a raid on a burlesque theatre, in the custody of Allan Jones and Lynne Overman, Susanna Foster, a new singing star, is taken to the camp to have her voice trained. Headstrong and impish, she almost disrupts the camp with her rebellious attitude which undergoes a complete change after a series of dramatic and comic events. With her voice trained, she finally gets her chance in opera. Incidentally, there is a puppy-love romance with good-looking young Heimo Hailo. Margaret Lindsay has a romantic role opposite Jones.

Five musical celebrities—Deems Taylor, noted music critic and commentator; Tandy MacKenzie, famous Metropolitan Opera conductor; Richard Bonelli, great baritone; Grace Bradley, and Ira Petina—appear in the picture as well.

Capt. R. C. H. Durnford, former area padre here and now in the army chaplaincy service in England, writes to William Lamb of the local Too H telling of his recent marriage, an item which will be of much interest to the padre's many friends here, particularly around Seal Cove where he was formerly rector of St. Peter's Anglican Church. The marriage took place in the Old Country.
