Brazil Is Now At War With Axis

Canadians Hit—

CASUALTIES OF DIEPPE ANNOUNCED

Brigadier Southam is Among Missing—Tales of Heroism Like Days of Vimy

OTTAWA, August 22: (CP)—Brigadier W. W. Southam of Toronto, one of the officers commanding troops taking part in the Dieppe raid this week, is missing as a result of the action, his family was notified today.

In the second casualty list issued since the Battle of Dieppe, seventy additional names were added today to those announced last night as among killed, wounded and missing in the hectic fighting of Canadian troops on the French coast. The total for the two lists now stands at forty-eight killed, 23 missing and 43 wounded. Other lists will come later.

The city of Hamilton, represented in the Dieppe battle by the Royal Hamilton Light Infantry, was more heavily represented in last night's and today's lists than any other centre.

Through Canadian Army camps in Britain stories of heroism and courage of Canadians in the hell-fire that was Dieppe Wednesday are being recounted by hardened men now battle-tested. There were countless deeds on the shores of France and in Dieppe streets that will never be told but at regimental bases there are plenty of accounts from fighting men to stamp the action as something awaiting the last war's Vimy Ridge in point of valor. Claims that the clipped wings of the German air force in western Europe ranked as the first big dividend of Dieppe, hailing Allied mastery of the air as complete deep into enemy territory were proven yesterday when five hundred fighters swept over the French coast with virtually no opposition and apparently without the loss of a single plane.

ON THE AFRICAN FRONT

New Zealand troops battling the Axis forces on the Egyptian front made a successful attack on an Axis "leaguer"—a sort of corral of guns and motor transport—capturing the lot, and returning with their loot. In the UPPER photograph a New Zealand trooper examines a damaged 37-mm anti-air cannon which had been pressed into use as an anti-tank gun. The LOWER photograph shows some of the soldiers shooting at Stuka bombers after returning to their lines with their booty. The Stukas have learned to stay out of rifle range when attacking these men.

TERRACE IS BOOM TOWN AT PRESENT

Never Was It Busier With Business And Industries Flourishing—Fine Crop

(By G. A. HUNTER)

Terrace is booming today as it has never boomed before. Everybody in and around the village is extremely busy and doing well. The lumber and agricultural industries are flourishing. With vastly increased population which makes the village a bustling place indeed, there is a big demand for everything that can be produced.

The sawmills are working a shift and a half a day and cannot keep up with the orders.

The farmers do not have to worry about markets for their products as the purchasers will come to their doors to purchase their vegetables and fruits.

It has been a fine year for all the crops. The hay harvest has been a bumper one and the same can be said for oats. In spite of a recent long spell of dry weather, vegetables and apples have come along splendidly with a large yield of excellent quality.

Sawmills of the district operating at full blast include Little, Haugland and Kerr, C. L. M. Giggey, Carl Pohle, William Hagen and Gordon Little Kwinitza.

Poles are moving into town from the woods in considerable quantity.

The merchants of Terrace are plying a flourishing trade, limited only by the stocks they can obtain. It is mostly cash on the spot business too with little going on the books.

There is an acute shortage of activity around the village which in many ways has been transformed in the last few months. Only the difficulty of obtaining materials limits the volume of the building. There is an acute shortage of living accommodation.

Municipally, Terrace is in a very healthy condition. There is now only one tax reverted lot in the hands of the village and it is being held with the idea of using it for the erection of a municipal building.

JOHN HART IS COMING

Premier of British Columbia to Visit City—Attorney General Is Also On Way

TERRACE, Aug. 22—E. T. Kenney, M.L.A. for Skeena, has been advised that Premier John Hart will be paying a visit to Prince Rupert in the near future, advice as to the exact date not being given as yet.

Attorney General R. L. Maitland is also coming north and will arrive in Terrace from the interior on Saturday afternoon next. It is expected that the Attorney General will proceed from Terrace to Prince Rupert.

GOSPEL IS FREE-EASY

Fighting Men of Many Nations Crowd Y.M.C.A. Hostel for the Old Hymns and Preaching

By AGATHA PALMER (Canadian Press Staff Writer)
HALIFAX, Aug. 22: (CP)—Sturdy figures crowd the room—figures in khaki, in navy and in air force blue. The night outside is hot, but a cool breeze comes beneath the binds to make a pleasant refuge of this Halifax hostel of the Young Men's Christian Association—a former ladies' college which is now one of the oldest hostels in the war. It opened December 6, 1939.

The weekly Sunday program is scheduled for 8:30, but the warm weather has led officials to postpone it until 9 p.m. "After all," they say, "you can't blame the boys for liking to stay outside in fine weather."

Now F. C. Ibsen, who leads these programs weekly, swings the men into the tide of favorite songs. An industrious helper flashes slides of the words on a screen to assist the soldier or sailor of poor memory.

Cigarettes glow here and there through the dusk. A boy in a front seat drowsily drinks ginger ale. A girl in white flashes quick fingers across the keys of the piano, and unformed figures sway as several score vibrant voices follow the gyrations of Mr. Ibsen's shirt-sleeves.

"... But I and my true love nevermore shall meet
On the bonnie, bonnie banks of Loch Lomond . . ."

A Scottish voice wails from the back of the room. "Say, you've got that line wrong! It's 'ME and my true love!'"

Sermon and Hymns

At the canteen on one side of the room, a constant clinking makes itself heard through the interludes of song. Perched at the counter, a row of boys crack jokes with volunteer girls in blue smocks, then fall silent to listen to their comrades.

Major J. D. MacLeod, an army chaplain who has already spoken at three services today, rises to speak on those words written by St. John on stormy Patmos: "There shall be no more sea." Men, he points out, are like islands surrounded by a sea of loneliness that separates them from other men. "A new world where there is no more sea. Only that which is worthy of the blood which is being shed today."

Hymns are sung. Thomas Edmonds, a naval rating who before the war was active in musical circles at Montreal, stands up to sing a solo "I Walked in the Garden."

Then comes Home Roll call, when the boys, rising, respond to the name of their homeland as it is called out. "How many born in Scotland? In England?" Unpronounceable Welsh names roll forth, seems to be entirely composed of consonants. A blond Polish boy is so bashful he has practically to be dragged into the room, but a thick-set Czechoslovakian with dimples strides to the front joyously.

There are only nine national-

Flying Fortresses Searching Out Japanese Navy Which is Said To Be Planning Fresh Blows

PEARL HARBOR, August 22: (CP)—United States Marines stood fast in hard-won positions in the Solomon Islands today after wiping out a 700-man Japanese force which tried a stealthy night landing to pierce the American lines. Other marines and American bluejackets, with Major James Roosevelt, eldest son of President Franklin D. Roosevelt as one of the leaders, destroyed a Japanese seaplane base in an extension of the United States offensive to Makin Island in the Gilbert group, 1500 miles northeast of the American held Solomons and 2400 miles southwest of Hawaii.

This became known in spite of an assertion from Imperial headquarters in Tokyo yesterday that a small force of American troops had effected a landing on August 17 on Makin Island, there being no confirmation elsewhere of the Japanese claim that the landing was "repulsed completely" by the Japanese garrison.

In the seventeen-day old Battle of the Solomons Allied air scouts are searching the South Seas for Japanese naval activity, and reports that the enemy is massing new strength for a counter-blow against United States marines in the strategic Tulagi area.

A British Broadcasting Corporation broadcast heard in New York said that United States flying fortresses had "launched a big attack off the Solomon Islands against Japanese warships."

Patriotic songs follow, a brief prayer, and then the benediction in the chaplain's clipped accents falls slowly through the stillness.

John A. MacGregor, manager of the hostel, waves his program in laughing dismissal.

State of Belligerency Another Republic of S. America Revealed

Announcement Comes in Round-about Way Through Rio Ambassador's Intimation to Foreign Minister Of Argentina

BUENOS AIRES, Aug. 22 (CP)—Foreign minister Guinazou of Argentina announced today that the Brazilian ambassador had informed him that a state of belligerency exists between Brazil and the Axis. The announcement comes following the sinking by German U-boats of at least six Brazilian merchant vessels off the coast of South America. There has been no formal declaration of war as yet by Brazil upon the Axis powers which failed to satisfactorily answer protests at the sinkings.

GERMANS' ADVANCE HELD UP

Russian Counter-attack Proves Effective Along Don But Further South More Ground Is Lost

MOSCOW, Aug. 22: (CP)—German forces which crossed the Don River loop southeast of Kletskaia are fighting desperately for a pathway to Stalingrad today but field dispatches say that strong Russian bayonet charges pinned down the vanguard and a complementary thrust from the southwest was hurled back by counter-attacks. The newspaper Izvestia declared that almost all Germans who sought to establish bridgeheads along the Don Bend were exterminated but two fresh Nazi divisions were moved up. An entire enemy infantry column was wiped out.

The Red Army drove back the Germans in the Kletskaia area of the Don Bend northwest of Stalingrad by a surprise attack last night while the Germans generally maintained the initiative in other southern theatres, the Russians said today.

To the south the Nazis are penetrating further into the Caucasus and along the Black Sea.

DOINGS OF LOCAL 'Y'

(By the Ghostwriters)
Hostess, Dorothy Garbutt

From the world of sports Hector MacKenzie reports that the Midlands took a severe trouncing from the Ninth Heavy Battery in football on Thursday last. The league worked out very well, especially sections one and two but section three hasn't played a game to date. This situation has been a bit difficult but it is being planned to have a sudden death play-off for the Navy, the Dry Dock, the American officers and the Canadian officers.

The hut was the usual busy place yesterday with games and canteen going well. Bingo was the order of the evening under the direction of Ken Hutchinson. Several of the boys had a good sing-song around the piano and some of them have promised to come back for the padre's concert on Sunday evening. Volunteers of talent for this splendid effort are welcome.

There was a sound of revelry by night: The Air Force dance had gathered there

The beauty and the chivalry (or some of it) of Rupert: And soft the lights shone O'er fair ladies and brave (or most of 'em are, I guess) men.

But there was, thank Heaven, no Waterloo to follow. Not even a headache, I betcha. It was one of the most beautiful dances one of these ghost writers has attended for some time and those responsible for the conduct and organization of such an excellent affair are to be most heartily congratulated. May all successive dances maintain such high standards of excellence.

The Armory was the scene of a show followed by a dance both of which were well attended. It was plainly evident that the dance was well organized as everything was going along smoothly. And that is about all we have to report.

James Currie left by yesterday morning's train on his return to his duties with the Royal Canadian Air Force at Toronto after spending leave at his home here. Mrs. Currie and child will be remaining here for another month or so.

SUGAR FOR HOME PRESERVING

Sugar rationing is essential. Here are the facts regarding home preserving.

- DOES the Government want canning and preserving done in the home?
YES. The Government encourages every housewife to preserve fruit in season.
- IS extra sugar available for canning and preserving over and above the regular rations?
YES. By signing a voucher at your grocers, adequate sugar may be purchased, but this additional sugar is for preserving and canning only. (Ask your grocer—he has the forms and all particulars.)
- IS it required that sugar purchases be tied to fruit purchases?
NO. You may grow the fruit, collect wild fruit, have fruit as a gift, or buy it from ANY retailer. In any case you are entitled to the sugar required to preserve it.
- WHY, if sugar is rationed, does the Government make extra sugar available for this purpose?
THERE are four reasons why home canning and preserving is encouraged.
1. When fruit is fresh it is perishable. If it is not preserved it may be wasted and valuable food reserves lost.
  2. Home canned and preserved fruits are particularly valuable from the standpoint of nutrition. Such preserves will help maintain the proper food supply of the Nation, especially when fresh fruits are out of season and not available.
  3. Home preserving helps supplement the restricted commercial canning.
  4. Canning done at home eliminates delivery and distribution costs, and thereby saves essential labour, gasoline and rubber.

OFFICIAL SUGAR REGULATIONS

Here is authentic, accurate information to guide your war-time preserving.

PRESERVING: You may obtain sugar on the basis of one pound of sugar to two pounds of fruit for preserving purposes.

PRESERVING SYRUP: All preserving is to be done with a light syrup made from one cup of sugar to two cups of water.

JAMS AND JELLIES: You may purchase three-quarters of a pound of sugar to one pound of fruit for jams and jellies.

METHOD REQUIRED: Jams and jellies are to be made using three parts of sugar to four parts of fruit or juice.

Gill-netting Season Over and Some of Canneries Are Closing — Deputy Minister of Fisheries on Coast—
Rushing Halibut Fishing to Close

The gill netting season for sockeye salmon closed last night on the Skeena and Naas Rivers. The run on the Naas River was a very satisfactory one, the season being well up to expectations in the yield of fish and maintaining the improved record generally of last few years. The run on the Skeena River is described officially as having been "very ordinary," similar to the cycle year of 1937-38. The closing of sockeye fishing marks the conclusion of packing operations for some of the canneries with a few remaining open for putting up of fall fish. With seining in the Skeena and Naas areas over for the season while the Grenville-Prince Channel, Butedale, Bella Bella and Bella Coola areas are closed until such time as water has risen in the streams sufficient start around the end of August. Following the destruction of the Canadian Fishing Co. plant at Lagoon Bay by fire, the B.C. Packers at Pacific is the only remaining salmon cannery on the Queen Charlotte Islands.

D. B. Finn, deputy minister of fisheries and former director of the Prince Rupert Fisheries Experimental Station, is making his annual inspection tour of the coast and is expected in Prince Rupert before long.

With the naval authorities wanting the fleet to make the season's catch as soon as possible and the demand for fresh fish exceptionally heavy, curtailment measures of the Pacific halibut fleet have been discarded and the larger vessels are bringing fish into port as speedily as they can. Expectation is that the closing date for Area No. 3 will soon be announced by the International Fisheries Commission. Prince Rupert continues to get a substantial share of the catches of the larger halibut vessels. There has been somewhat of a revival in the volume of Canadian landings lately.
