Today's Summary

(By Press)

Close to Singapore Japs Spreading Out

Japanese invasion hoaxes stormed to within eighteen miles of Singapore today, hurling ninety thousand troops into a bloody climatic assault to snatch the Far Eastern stronghold. As the battle thundered nearer the mile-wide Johore Straits separating Singapore from Malay Peninsula, British headquarters indicated the gravity of the situation. A communique said there was contact with the enemy about Kului which is on the broad highway leading to Singapore gateway. Across the South China Sea, Netherlands troops were reported locked in bitter combat with other Japanese invaders in four zones of the Indies Archipelago—at Balak Papan on the East Borneo coast, above Pentianak, chief port in West Borneo; in Minehassa Peninsula on northern Celebes Island and around Kendari in southeastern Celebes. The hard-hitting Netherlands East Indies also reported fifty-four Japanese ships sunk or heavily damaged by the Dutch Navy and Air Force in fifty-four days of fighting.

Hitler Complains As Russ Victory Scored

Chancellor Adolf Hitler, with his battered armies in retreat over the frozen Russian steppes, bitterly assailed Prime Minister Winston Churchill and President Franklin D. Roosevelt today and harked back to the old complaint that he did not understand why Germany was being fought. Even as he spoke, the Russians announced details of a most spectacular Soviet gain in the Donets industrial basin of the Ukraine—a 93-mile drive in which 25,000 Germans were left dead on the battlefield.

Loss of Bengasi Admitted Today

On the North African front British headquarters said that Field Marshal Erwin Rommel's superior forces had recaptured the port of Bengasi. A communique said that British troops were making fresh withdrawals in the entire combat area of western Libya.

Another Enemy Undersea Craft Shows Up Off California Coast

LOS ANGELES, Jan. 30:—A short distance off Cape Vincent outside of San Pedro, south of here, an enemy submarine was sighted yesterday afternoon. Depth charges were sent down and the undersea craft was not seen again.

BENGASI IS TAKEN

London All But Confirms That Mediterranean Port Has Again Changed Hands

LONDON, Jan. 30:—London military authorities do not confirm claims of Rome and Berlin that Bengasi has been recaptured by the Axis forces but it is not unlikely that it has been evacuated. It will have been the fourth time in this war that Bengasi has changed hands.

LONDON, Jan. 30:—Prime Minister Winston Churchill told parliament yesterday that there was no aircraft carrier available to go with the battleships Prince of Wales and Repulse on their ill-fated mission to the Far East.

The Amazon River is navigable for ocean steamers for 2,300 miles.

HAVE EDGE IN AIR WAR

Despite Heavy Odds Against Them, Allies Are Getting Best Of It In Far East

SINGAPORE, Jan. 30:—An encouraging feature of the war in the southwest Pacific is the resurgence of Allied air strength in spite of heavy odds which existed against it at first. In spite of other reverses and heavy odds against, the scale of air losses both over Rangoon and Singapore is in Allied favor.

VICTORY OF REDS

Scored Heavily Over Germans in Ukraine During Past Ten Days.

MOSCOW, Jan. 30:—The extent of the great triumph of the Russians over the Nazis in the Ukraine has been disclosed. During ten days of fighting in the Donets Basin four hundred towns were recaptured by the Russians, while about 25,000 German soldiers were killed. The Nazi soldiers in the Ukraine were under orders to "stand fast for the Fuehrer or be shot."

No Whitewash To Churchill

Does Not Regard Vote of Confidence as That Says Prime Minister

LONDON, Jan. 30:—Prime Minister Winston Churchill has stated that the overwhelming vote of confidence passed in him yesterday will not be taken as a whitewashing of any scandal, misbehaviour or shortcoming of any members or officials of the government.

Coast Defence Discussed

SECRET SESSION

C.C.F. Member Proposes This to Consider B.C. Civilian Defence.

VICTORIA, Jan. 30:—Possibility of an unprecedented secret session of the legislature was before members today with a promise from Harold Winch, Co-operative Commonwealth Federation leader, that he would ask such a meeting unless given a "satisfactory reply" to questions regarding civilian protection steps in the province. Mr. Winch told the legislature last night that, on the basis of statements made to him and "backed on factual evidence," he had written Premier John Hart and General R. O. Alexander asking for information. If this was not forthcoming he said he would ask for a closed sitting of the legislature so that members might be informed. "We may be attacked if Singapore goes," said Mr. Winch in the course of a speech.

DISPOSING OF U-BOATS

Terse Report by Airman Is Interesting Illustration of Results Being Obtained.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 30:—The United States Department of the Navy announces that increasingly effective counter-measures are being taken against enemy submarines which have been operating off both Atlantic and Pacific coasts. So far twenty enemy submarines have been sunk or damaged—fifteen on the Atlantic and five on the Pacific.

It is not customary to announce individual incidents of submarines being disposed of but yesterday one such notable case came to hand that it was decided to make it public. A United States pilot made a four-word report as follows: "Sighted submarine. Sank it." Where the submarine was sunk was not disclosed.

GASOLINE SHORTAGE

Situation on Pacific Coast Is Becoming Serious Again.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 30:—The gasoline situation on the Pacific Coast is becoming serious again, Secretary of the Interior Harold Ickes says. The threat of enemy action on shipping and interference with deliveries of crude is having some effect.

CHILLIWACK, Jan. 30:—Mr. and Mrs. George Adams and Henry Smith are in serious condition as a result of a head-on collision between automobiles, the crash having occurred last night between Langley Prairie and Chilliwack. Mrs. Henry Smith is in a less serious condition.

BULLETINS

IN MACASSAR STRAITS
BATAVIA—Forty-eight Japanese vessels may have been sunk from the Java-bound convoy in Macassar Straits. This would leave an estimated 65 ships of the convoy with some 150,000 troops on board.

HOLDING IN BURMA
RANGOON—Japanese and Thai invaders of Burma are now being held. Since the start of the war 111 Japanese planes have been brought down over Burma with remarkably few losses of united nations' machines.

BREAK WITH AXIS
RIO DE JANEIRO—Brazil is losing no time in breaking off relations with the Axis powers. German, Italian and Japanese diplomats have already been handed their passports.

NAZI OVER SCOTLAND
LONDON—There was a single enemy bomber over a northeast Scottish town last night. It caused a few casualties including some killed.

INITIATIVE PASSING
MELBOURNE—Acting Premier Francis Ford of Australia, says the threat of a Japanese invasion of Australia is becoming less imminent although it is still a "logical possibility." The initiative in the South Pacific is passing from Japanese to Allied hands, Ford says.

PHILIPPINE SITUATION
BATAVIA—President Manuel Quisling yesterday issued a statement expressing confidence in final victory. He said only one-third of the Philippine Islands had been occupied by the Japanese, the remainder being still under "constituted authority."

NEARER TO SINGAPORE

Enemy Only Eighteen Miles Away From Stronghold Today

SINGAPORE, Jan. 30:—The fateful Battle of Singapore raged only eighteen miles away from the stronghold in the jungles of Southern Malaya yesterday. A British communique said that Japanese vanguards had advanced to within eighteen miles of Johore Strait, separating Singapore Island from the mainland, but declared that Australians had counter-attacked successfully, inflicting about two hundred casualties. On the west the enemy were 25 miles away while on the Malaya east coast, other Japanese columns had, apparently, driven to a point forty miles northeast of Johore Strait. Strict curfew has been declared in Singapore.

In the Philippines American artillery gunners are smashing new headlong Japanese infantry assaults on American defence lines on Batan Peninsula, inflicting bloody losses on the enemy. Meanwhile, the Japs launched a new drive into Dutch West Borneo and the Dutch are now defending on four fronts.

EMERGENCY PROTECTION DISCUSSED

Local Chairman Appeals for Co-Operation in Face of Dangerous Situation.

At a largely attended meeting of the Prince Rupert Rotary Club Thursday, J. J. Little, after an introduction by P. H. Linzey, spoke on Civil Protection Committee (A.R.P.) work and its organization. Mr. Little's talk was arranged under three headings, Civil Protection organization and what had been done in the past, what was being done at present, and what was hoped might be accomplished in the very near future.

An organization had been formed around January, 1940 and, since that time, meetings of executives and other different branches had been formed into a skeleton organization which was gradually enlarged as volunteers were available. Mr. Little covered the excellent work of the fire wardens, under H. T. Lock, fire chief, who had given of his time and knowledge in giving instruction to his volunteer firefighters.

The work of the special police, under Inspector Ernest Gammon, was highly commended. This force had attended lectures and was available in case of emergency. These men were sworn in as special police and were deputized with police powers.

Under the heading of first aid and nursing, Arnold Flaten, with the very able and valuable assistance of his first lieutenant and able first aid instructor, Angus McDonald, had been indefatigable in working up classes from a known twelve certified first aid workers to over one hundred at the present time.

J. S. Wilson had also done considerable work with the wardens and district wardens and, in conjunction with the teachers, has arranged for evacuation of the schools when and if an emergency arises.

At the present time, under F. N. Good, studies had been made to care for water and sewer services, demolition and gas.

All these several members were meeting weekly to consider future work, working out or arranging operations or eliminating those found impracticable.

Danger of Situation
 Mr. Little further pointed out the danger of the present situation in the Pacific, quoting distance and facts to substantiate figures quoted. He then pleaded for co-operation of all those present in offering their services and encouraging others to do likewise.

The future work appeared to be intensive instruction by means of the press and radio to inform the public to listen in on the radio and read their newspapers about any matters pertaining to the A.R.P.

Each business, commercial and domestic establishment should take effective steps to see that they have protected their own premises and educate their families what to do should an emergency arise.

The controls for the sirens had now arrived and were being installed rapidly with the co-operation of the Canadian Corps of Signals.

The principal matter now for the A.R.P. executive was to tighten up the organization and Mr. Little appealed for an enlargement by the enlistment of a greater number of volunteers.

Splendid Work
 Col. J. W. Nicholls spoke on the splendid work done by the A.R.P. organization—work often done and carried out under adverse criticism and with little outside assistance from people in Prince Ru-

MONTREAL, Jan. 30:—Sir Frederick William George Haultain, aged 84, who was chief justice of Saskatchewan for twenty-six years and premier of the Northwest Territories from 1891 to 1905, died today.

The city police report a further accumulation of found articles including bicycles, purses and watches. Persons who have lost such articles as these and others might do well to inquire at the station.

He commended the workers, executive and Mr. Little for the splendid work accomplished and voiced the opinion that every effort should be made to give them support.

INVASION IS LIKELY

Howard Green Thinks Japs Will Come Here—Liberal Joins In Criticism

OTTAWA, Jan. 30:—Howard Green, Conservative member for Vancouver South, said in the House of Commons yesterday that a Japanese invasion attempt of Canada was probable. Attacks on the British Columbia coast would come "sooner or later," by way, he suggested, of the Aleutian Islands, Prince Rupert and Port Alberni. Defence forces of the Pacific Coast were inadequate, the coast was insufficiently armed, declared Mr. Green who was opposed to the plebiscite on releasing the government from commitments in regard to conscription of man power.

The Vancouver South member said that Canada was in deadly peril with her only protection the crippled United States forces on the Pacific.

Mr. Green suggested that the Japanese would attack United States Aleutian Island bases and then Prince Rupert and Port Alberni to set up bases for air raids on shipyards and defence bases about Vancouver and neighboring United States ports.

Green said that some men in Canada's active army had no rifles and that other Canadian soldiers had old United States models with red bands, indicating that they were unfit to be fired.

George Cruickshank, Liberal member for Fraser Valley, said the plebiscite was necessary but agreed with Mr. Green on the slowness of government policy in handling the Japanese question on the coast, expressing opinion that the minister had been poorly advised.

Hon. J. L. Ralston, minister of national defence, said the defence of the British Columbia coast was being treated with seriousness.

Col. Ralston said that rifles referred to by Mr. Green were fit to be fired, Green retorting that they might be fired a few times.

The minister of national defence stated that a "protected area" in British Columbia would be announced at once.

Many of Those On Lady Somers Unaccounted For

Seventy-one of the survivors have been landed. Five persons died in the lifeboats before being picked up. Two hundred and forty-five are unaccounted for.

To Discuss Matters Of Importance

WASHINGTON, Jan. 30:—President Franklin D. Roosevelt whose sixtieth birthday it is today, expects to tell the United States in a broadcast around February 22 about the progress of the war effort. The White House said yesterday that, by that time, it is quite possible he will have things of importance to say.

On Our Toes . . .

Complacency has been as great an enemy to the democracies as the militant foe. Pre-war complacency in Great Britain resulted in unpreparedness.

Complacency in European countries now occupied by the Axis prevented unified action so that (to use Churchill's phraseology) they were taken "one by one."

Complacency built on isolation caught the United States only partially prepared when Japanese and European gangsters embroiled that nation in the conflict. Complacency in British Columbia and here in Prince Rupert is still evident despite the obvious fact that, with Japan's entry into the war, we are now in the first line of defense—a fact with tragic import.

War is grim business, and vigilance, self-sacrifice and hard work are the lot of all who participate.

Plight of Retailers . . .

Canadian retailers, some of whom may think they are hard done by, may be interested to learn of the plight of their British comrades as described by Canada's high commissioner in a letter to officials at Ottawa. The position of the British retailer is far from happy.

Says the high commissioner: "His supply of goods is daily becoming more restricted so that in many cases he has had to go out of business entirely. He is putting up a continuous and usually unsuccessful struggle to keep his employees and he himself may easily be called up. He may have had his premises blitzed and have to open in a new neighborhood only to find that his goodwill has disappeared. He is smothered under innumerable regulations and has to keep a strict eye on prices lest he find himself subject to fines."

The British Board of Trade has forbidden the opening of new shops. Food shops are exempt but the order covers a long line of businesses such as men's and women's wear, furniture, china and glass, bicycles, radios, electrical and photographic goods and also hair-dressing, circulating libraries and auctioneer services.

... "IF ANYBODY LIKES TO PLAY ROUGH, WE CAN PLAY ROUGH TOO."

HOCKEY AT SMITHERS

Stellaco Indians, First Visitors of Season, Lose Pair of Games.

SMITHERS, Jan. 30.—The first contest of the present season between a Smithers hockey team and one from the outside took place here on Tuesday evening when a team of Indians from Stellaco, east of Endako, arrived in town to cross sticks with the Smithers Juniors. The home team won 7 to 3.

The game had only started when a heavy blanket of fog settled down over the ice which interfered with the play and prevented the spectators from seeing from one end of the rink to the other. This condition, which is not at all common in this area, lasted throughout the game.

The Indians put up a good, hard fight and held the local boys fairly even for most of the game but, apparently, tired towards the end which gave the Smithers team an advantage, as the youngsters were still going strong.

The Indians were the first to score early in the game. At the end of the second period the Smithers team was ahead of the visitors by a score of 3 to 2. At the end of the game they had increased the lead and the final score was 7 to 3.

A second game was played on Wednesday evening and the conditions were much better as there was no fog to mar the play.

The score at the end of full time was 2 to 2 and the game went into two periods of overtime before it was decided. The final score at the end of the game was: Smithers, 4; Stellaco Indians, 3.

Norman Kilpatrick Jr. was the hard luck player, suffering face and head injuries in both games, while one of the visitors took home a fine black eye as a souvenir, being collected in the regular play of the game and not from any fracas as the game was played in a good spirit on both occasions. The ice was in fine shape but the crowd of spectators was not large.

INDIANS IN WOODS NOW

Are Making Good Cutting Pulpwood in Northern Ontario.

WINNIPEG, Jan. 30.—An experiment unique in the history of wood camp operation is now in progress in the northern Ontario pulpwood areas. This is the use of Indians for the cutting of pulpwood, to make up for the great scarcity of experienced bushmen who have previously spent their winters in the woods. Last evening the third contingent of Indians from the west is going east to Kapuskasing over Canadian National lines comprising 150 from various parts of Saskatchewan. They are to work in the Spruce Falls Power and Paper Company limits.

As soon as the scarcity of bush labor became acute, the matter was taken up with the Department for Indian Affairs and an experimental group of twelve men went from the reserves to the pulpwood camps. These men took keenly to the work and were satisfied as to wages and conditions. This led to a second party of 140 and the men were placed in groups throughout the area and classified according to their tribal traditions. These three movements were organized by M. Christianson, general superintendent for Indian affairs for Saskatchewan in co-operation with the colonization and agricultural department of the Canadian National Railways. A department spokesman stated that the work of the Indians had been very satisfactory in the camps. "They like the work and can make good wages and this third movement is only made possible by the success of the two previous movements."

The use of the Indians for this work is most important, especially at this time as the shortage of labor is so acute that it makes it possible for the camps to remain in operation and on the other hand it affords the Indians an excellent opportunity to make good money and cut down on the burden of federal assistance that has been necessary in some cases. The Indians have taken naturally to the work and are doing an excellent job, he stated.

WINDOW BOXES

Whether he lives in a home with a landscaped lot or in an apartment building, every one can make a window box garden. Boxes can be constructed during the winter weeks so they will be ready for the earliest start in the spring.

For an ordinary single window, a box 3 1/2 feet long, 8 inches deep and 10 inches wide is a good size. It costs less than a dollar to build. Where large or multiple windows demand greater length, the other dimensions may be larger in proportion or boxes for each window made.

Window boxes are a decoration for the house. They should harmonize with it and improve its appearance. The boxes should usually be painted to match the dominant color of the house, or of its trim. The flowers will look best if they make a contrasting note, providing an accent of color.

Perhaps the finest of all window box flowers are petunias, because they blossom constantly through the summer and provide so interesting a variety of color, form and habit. The balcony type petunias, which produce trailing vine-like stems, make graceful festoons which drape from the boxes.

Tall nasturtiums, particularly the new doubles, including Golden Gleam, and its hybrids, give the same effect as the balcony type petunias; and they are excellent window box subjects. Fragrant flowers, such as Matthiola bicornis, mignonette, ten-weeks stocks, and dwarf snapdragons are doubly attractive.

Boxes which spend most of the day in the shade offer a special problem. If the shade is that of a building, perhaps only foliage plants can be grown, such as ferns, fancy leaved caladiums, crotons, and other florists' subjects. If there is some sun, tuberous rooted begonias will probably do well. Impatiens, the Zanzibar balsam, bearing flowers of salmon or rose on bushy plants 18 inches tall, are excellent in semi-shaded places. Violas thrive in partial shade, and the list of flowers which will do well increases as the amount of sun is enlarged.

Rich soil, of the type which florists call potting soil, should be used in window boxes, for there is so little of it to feed the flowers. It needs abundant plant food; apply at rate of one level tablespoon for one square foot of soil.

XMAS TREES OF DAWSON

Former Anyox Man Turns Out Seasonal Verse.

Percy Powell, whom many of our readers will remember as a former resident of Anyox and who went to the Yukon on the closing down of the Anyox plant, sends some lines of verse which were published in the Dawson News at Christmas time.

Mr. Powell is now territorial treasurer for the Yukon, also treasurer and tax collector for the city of Dawson. He is completely sold on the Yukon and its many attractions and plans to make Dawson his permanent home.

The verses are as follows:
The Christmas trees of Dawson,
They grow on every hill;
Just take an axe and sally forth,
And cut them where you will.
They flourish by the thousand
In this great Northern land;
And decked in white 'twould seem
They'd been
Touched by a fairy's wand.

The Christmas trees of Dawson,
How brightly do they gleam
In homes where joy and gladness reign,
And good health is supreme.
With tinsel bright, and many a toy,
And colored lamps so gay,
The children reach the height of joy
On their own Christmas Day.

The Christmas trees of Dawson,
How beautiful and fair,
On porch and lawn and hillside slope,
They greet you everywhere.
From Christmas-time to New Year's Day
Their multi-colored lights
Defy the gloom and darkness of
The winter's chilly nights.

On the Christmas trees of Dawson,
With laughter and with joy,
The parents place the presents for
Each wondering girl and boy.
And gaily-colored parcels
Whose numbers would amaze,
Await the lucky children,
On this their day of days.

The Christmas trees of Dawson;
In many a window fair,
They cheer some weary, lonely soul,
Who finds a solace there.
The sight brings back fond memories
Of days of long ago;
Perhaps, to ease an aching heart
The silent tear will flow.

The Christmas trees of Dawson!
With each succeeding year,
May Christmas trees with beauty shine
To spread the Christmas cheer,
To bring new hope to wandering souls,
Where'er it can be given;
To thrill the hearts of children dear,
And point the way to heaven.
