Think Mr. Mitchell Should Come West And See Shipyard Conditions

VANCOUVER, June 17: -An invitation to come to the Pacific Coast and "see at first hand the chaos caused by the continuous production plan" for coast shipvards was forwarded to Hon. Humphrey Mitchell by a joint trades union conference representative of various shippard

Mitchell's declaration to the effect that the government intends to enforce its plan by order-in-council, thereby ignoring defiantly the opinions of organized labor in shipbuilding here, is in direct contradiction to the government's declared policy of seeking labor's co-operation." declared Lawrence Anderson, secretary of the conference, after a meeting last night.

NEW ALEUTIAN LANDINGS?

URGES ALASKA TO BE READY

WASHINGTON-The Governor of Alaska has been ordered to prepare to mobilize the manpower of Alaska in the event of an attempted invasion of the Alaska mainland. Representative Anthony J. Dimond urges that the Army and Navy lose no time in driving the Japanese out of the Aleutians so they may not have the opportunity to establish bases.

INVASION OF SIBERIA

CHUNGKING-Reports persist here that Japan is on the verge of an invasion of Siberia. The attacks on the Aleutians, it is suggested, may be to protect their flanks and interfere with the supply line between United States and Russia.

CHINESE RECAPTURE PORT

CHUNGKING-The Japanese continue to drive both east and west on the centered China railway line control of which appears to be their present objective. Meanwhile the Chinese have recaptured a port on the coast of Hope Province which the Japanese had taken the day previous.

PORT DARWIN RAIDED AGAIN

MELBOURNE-The Japanese raided Port Darwin for the fourth straight day yesterday but the attack caused few casualties and little damage despite the fact that the largest number of bombers and fighters yet was put into it. There were twenty-seven bombers and a similar number of fighters. Three of the enemy planes were brought down. United Nations planes also attacked Japanese bases on islands to the north of Australia. Four enemy planes and four Allied machines were brought down as sharp aerial blows were exchanged over New Guinea. The Allied raids were over northern New Guinea and Timor.

LONDON-British convoys have got through to Malta and Tobruk with "limited success," it was announced today. They suffered heavy attack at the hands of Axis aircraft, it is admitted.

BATTLE OF LIBYA

CAIRO-British forces have broken up an Axis armored attack on Sidi Rezegh, British main line stronghold in defence of Egypt. West SURVEY of Tobruk a large part of the British Eighth Army is in danger of being trapped. Military quarters in London last night said that no attempt may be made to defend Tobruk.

RUSSIANS ARE STRONG

MOSCOW - Another heavy artillery stroke by the Germans against Sebastapol was turned back yesterday by the Russians who are standing firm and are declared to have not budged an inch. In the Kharkov area the German advance has been stopped and the Russians are actually assuming the offensive. The Red Army is making persistent attempts to recapture Kerch Peninsula. A town south of Bryansk has been recaptured.

Work In Shipyards . . .

If everybody realizes the seriousness of the situation and is on common ground of agreement at the start that the production of the ships as speedily and as abundantly as possible is the all-important object over and above all other considerations, there should be no difficulty about settling of the issue as to whether there should be a seven-day or a six-day week in the shipyards.

The way things now stand, the government appears to be quite convinced that it must be the seven-day week and the unions are of the opinion that the six-day week would be best. Both sides claim that their respective plan will have the most effective result in turning out the ships.

The minister, apparently, believes that the longer each man works the more will be accomplished. The unions contend that the man will accomplish more in six days with the seventh off than he would if he worked the full . Notice to Public . seven.

If we cannot take the bad news, how are we going to take the "real thing?"

The Y.M.C.A. Building

The announcement of Y.M.C.A. War Services that a substantial building for recreational purposes is to be erected at Prince Rupert is a satisfactory one for we all realize that facilities here for the profitable and decent filling in of the leisure time of the men in the forces have been pitifully scant.

There still remains until the war is over, when the war services establishment will probably function as a straight Y.M.C.A., the problem of recreational facilities for the industrial workers and the civilian population generally, particularly the youth. It would be for these that a civic centre project would cater particularly.

The difficulty now is that when the war is over the city may find itself in possession of two institutions duplicating functions and the question is whether both will be able to prosper.

The Y.M.C.A., with its project to cost at least $150,-000, of course, cannot be matched by any civic centre undertaking although the latter in time may find itself in somewhat of a competitive position with it.

For years many have talked and a few have worked towards bringing about a fitting recreational centre for the city. Now it appears all of a sudden that we may get two of them within a short space of time. He that waits is doubly blessed.

Gary Cooper Has Interesting Role In Outstanding Picture Coming Here This Week-end

One of the eagerly anticipated screen events of the year, "Sergeant York," starring Gary Cooper in the title role of a World War hero, comes to the screen of the Capitol Theatre here for a special three-day engagement this Thursday, Friday and Saturday.

This is the real story of a farmer down in the Tennessee hill country, eldest son of a fatherless family, who works havd to cultivate the rather barren soil of his little farm. Known as something of a "hell raiser" he is wont to get drunk with a bunch of his friends and do his share in local saloon brawls. Then he gets religion and the dream of his life is to get a piece of rich-soiled bottom land and marry his sweetheart, Gracie Williams. Then comes 1917 and the draft. Deeply religious, he is aghast at the thought he might be called upon to kill. Nevertheless, he is drafted and his expert marksmanship soon makes him famous in his regiment. His division is swept into the bloody battle of the Argonne and there York performs his amazing feat. Hailed as the outstanding soldier hero of the war, he is decrated by General Pershing and Marshal Foch.

Joan Leslie is said to give wonderfully natural portrayal of Gracie Williams, the young sweet
