AXIS LOSES THIS ROUND ON DESERT

British Turn Back Drive On Alexandria and Suez

CAIRO, Sept. 8.—The Axis has failed in the second Battle of Egypt. The enemy has withdrawn to positions further west than those held a week ago before their drive started. They are back west of the minefields which they had crossed although a few tanks and guns are left in the wedge they made. There is no doubt now that the Germans and Italians threw everything they had into this attack and suffered great losses. The boast by Field Marshal Erwin Rommel a week ago that "we will be in Cairo next week" now seems ironic. British, Canadian and Americans, with unquestioned air superiority, played an important hand in the battle. There has been no let-up in heavy air attacks by Allied planes against Axis on the Egyptian front.

Although defeated in the frontal attack, it is not impossible that Rommel may make another attempt at Alexandria and the Suez. On land the fighting has not been as yet decisive, being described merely as jockeying for positions for the real struggle for Alexandria and the Suez Canal which is yet to come although the Axis has lost the wedge which it had driven into the British line on the El Alamein front.

TOUGH WAR: LANDING OF ROOSEVELT SABOTEURS

But Chief Executive Believes His Nation Can Stand Up To Unprecedented Challenge

WASHINGTON, D.C., Sept. 8.—"This is the toughest war of all history," declared President Franklin D. Roosevelt in concluding an address to the nation over the national radio network on the occasion of Labor Day last night. "Are we tough enough to meet the unprecedented challenge? We can answer that question now. The answer is 'Yes.'"

The country is imperilled by the imminent danger of inflation, declared the President who then described measures it was proposed to invoke to control inflationary tendencies. These would involve changes and sacrifices for all people of the nation.

The power of Germany, asserted Mr. Roosevelt, must be stopped on the battlefields of Europe and decisions were being made with a view to leading to an offensive with that end in view. There were two or three points at which the offensive could be launched but, naturally, he could not announce where those points might be. Plans were, however, being laid both in Great Britain and the United States.

President Roosevelt said he was hopeful of the outcome of the campaign in the Middle East. The Japanese air and naval offensive appeared to have been definitely stopped following the Battle of Midway Island though further attacks from Japan might be anticipated.

The President spoke from the White House at 6:30 p.m., the main burden of his address being in connection with the anti-inflation program, an outline of which he had given to Congress earlier in the day.

No Less Than Four Million Germans Killed or Out of Action In Russian Campaign

MOSCOW, Sept. 8 (CP) — Defenders of Stalingrad were reported firmly regrouped today against reinforced German shock troops seeking to enlarge a new and generous salient in western defences by non-stop attacks. Southwestern lines also held overnight. A Nazi army of more than 700,000 men is estimated standing before Stalingrad. A Red Army detachment took the initiative in a night raid, destroyed the headquarters of a Rumanian battalion south of the city, killed eighty Rumanian officers and men and blew up seven Axis ammunition trucks, said a mid-day communique.

The Red Army gained ground on the northwest approaches to Stalingrad again Sunday night and for the second time in 12 hours announced that the Soviet position had been improved. The Germans wedged into Russian positions in the Voronezhsk area of the western Caucasus but were either beaten back or held fast in the Mozdok region of the central Caucasus.

The enemy lost additional positions to the Russians on the central and northwestern fronts, it was announced. No less than 4,200,000 Nazis have so far been killed or put out of action in Russia.

THE NEW INCOME TAX

PART I - As it Affects SALARY AND WAGE EARNERS

1. Question: WHO MUST PAY?

Answer: All persons in receipt of incomes over $660 single—or $1200 married.

2. Question: WHAT FORMS DO YOU HAVE TO FILL OUT?

Answer: Unless you are single, without dependents, and not making payments for allowable personal savings (Item 5D), you should file Form TD-1 with your employer. Otherwise he must deduct the amounts provided by the Table of Tax Deductions for a single person without dependents or personal savings.

If 3/4 or more of your income comes from salary or wages, you must file your 1942 Income Return by 30th September 1943. If your income is not over $5,000, including not over $100 from investments, you will use Form T1-Special; otherwise you will use Form T.1.

3. Question: WHEN AND HOW IS YOUR TAX COLLECTED?

Answer: Your employer is required by law to make deductions from your salary or wages on account of your 1942 tax during the period September 1942 to August 1943. Each deduction must be the amount provided by the official Table of Tax Deductions for your current rate of pay, and family status and personal savings as declared on Form TD-1 (Item 2 above).

The Table is designed to collect about 90% of the tax on your salary or wages, leaving a balance of not more than 10%, in most cases, (plus tax on your other income, if any) to be paid with your Income Return to be filed in September 1943.

If your salary or wages are less than 3/4 of your income, you must pay tax on your other income by compulsory instalments. (See Part II below).

4. Question: WHAT CONSTITUTES TAXABLE INCOME?

Answer: Your income is made up of your full salary or wages before any deductions whatsoever, plus living allowances, gratuities or bonuses (including cost of living bonus) and the value of any board, living quarters or supplies, etc., given you by your employer. It also includes such receipts as interest and dividends, rents (after taxes, repairs, etc.), royalties and annuities. From your total income you deduct payments (up to $300) into certain types of employees' superannuation or pension funds, charitable donations up to 10% of your income, and medical expenses over 5% of your income (maximum—$400 single, $600 married, plus $100 for each dependent up to four), to find the amount of your taxable income.

5. Question: HOW MUCH DO YOU PAY?

Answer: (A) Normal Tax—(whichever rate is applicable is applied to the full amount of your taxable income from the first to the last dollar).

A booklet entitled "YOUR 1942 INCOME TAX" will be available shortly at offices of Inspectors of Income Tax.

- (1) Single—
 - with taxable income between $660 and $1800—7%
 - with taxable income between $1800 and $3000—8%
 - with taxable income over $3000—9%
- (2) Married (or equivalent status)—
 - with taxable income over $1200—7%
- (3) Dependents—tax credit for each—$28

(B) Graduated Tax—

- (1) On first $660 of taxable income—No Tax.
- 30% on next $ 500
- 33% on next 500
- 37% on next 1000
- 41% on next 1500
- 45% on next 1500
- 50% on next 3000
- 55% on next $ 5,000
- 60% on next 7,000
- 65% on next 10,000
- 70% on next 20,000
- 75% on next 20,000
- 80% on next 30,000
- 85% on excess over $100,000

- (2) Married (or equivalent status)—tax credit—$150
- (3) Dependents—tax credit for each—up to $80

(C) Surtax—4% on investment income over $1500 without exemptions.

NOTES

- (1) In no case are you required to pay a net tax (i.e., after credit for dependents) which would reduce your taxable income below $660 single or $1200 married.
- (2) If a wife has unearned income over $660, then both she and her husband are taxable as single persons, but any amount a wife earns does not affect her husband's right to be taxed as a married person. A married woman is taxed as a single person under all circumstances except only when her husband's income is less than $660.

(D) Tax Credit for Personal Savings—

You may deduct from the savings portion of your tax (Item 6) 1942 payments on account of—

- (1) an approved employees' (or trade union) superannuation, retirement or pension fund;
- (2) premiums on life insurance policies issued prior to 23rd June 1942 (if issued after that date ask your insurance company or Inspector of Income Tax);
- (3) annuity or savings policies not postponable without substantial loss or forfeiture; and
- (4) principal payments on a mortgage or agreement of sale, existing prior to 23rd June, 1942, on one residential property; provided (a) they do not exceed the savings portion and (b) receipts are produced for the payments when filing your Income Return.

(E) National Defence Tax—

This tax does not apply after 31st August, 1942. The deductions made during January to August 1942 apply as a payment on account of your 1942 tax.

6. Question: HOW MUCH OF YOUR TAX IS SAVINGS?

Answer:

- (1) Single—the lesser of
 - (a) 1/2 the total of your Normal Tax, Graduated Tax and Surtax; or
 - (b) 8% of your taxable income (maximum $800) plus 1% for each dependent (maximum $100 for each).
- (2) Married (or equivalent status)—the lesser of
 - (a) 1/2 the total of your Normal Tax, Graduated Tax and Surtax; or
 - (b) 10% of your taxable income (maximum $1000), plus 1% for each dependent (maximum $100 for each).

You will get back the savings portion of your tax which you actually pay, plus 2% interest, after the war.

7. EXAMPLES OF AMOUNTS PAYABLE ON 1942 EARNED INCOME (after allowing for National Defence Tax actually deducted Jan.-Aug. 1942)

ALL-STARS WIN GAME
 Interesting Match Was Played On Labor Day

The Prince Rupert All-Stars defeated the Army All-Stars 5 to 2 in baseball before a fair-sized crowd at Acropolis Hill on Labor Day.

It was anybody's ball game for the first six innings with the Rupert team taking the lead in the first inning when Heatherington scored one run. For the next three innings it was a case of three up and three down but in the fifth inning the Army scored twice on a hit and a couple of errors. The Civilians tied it up in the sixth, then took the lead with two runs in the eighth and added another in the ninth for the 5 to 2 victory.

MacKenzie, on the mound for the Civilians, and Johnstone, for the Army, waged a pitching duel with MacKenzie having a slight edge.

This ends the baseball season which has been a good one from the fans' point of view.

Milk For Bomb Shelter

 At a preparedness meeting in Vancouver the other day it was recommended that each household have a supply of certain essential foods in case of bombing. One of these is canned milk. The point of our story is that one resident ordered a case of Pacific Milk. Another brand was delivered and refused. The householder says this is no time to experiment while the best is still available.

OUR FAMILY went through hard times once. It taught us that you can't keep your independence without foresight and sacrifice. We learned what we could do without when we had to. So we know that a real nest-egg means more than just compulsory savings. It means all the War Savings Stamps and Certificates we can lay our hands on.

They're safe. And they're an investment every Canadian should make. Why? Because they help equip our fighting men to protect everything we've got. And because, too, they pay back $5.00 for every $4.00 we put aside now. We've got to win this war no matter what it costs — and we've got to prepare against the time when the boys come home.

Buy War Savings Stamps from druggists, banks, post offices, telephone offices, department stores, grocers, tobacconists and other retail stores. Certificates may be purchased for immediate delivery in denominations of $5, $10, $25 from Banks, Trust Companies and Post Offices.

Civic Centre Carnival...

Bill Stone and all those who were associated with him in the staging of the civic centre carnival last week are to be heartily congratulated on the great success of that effort. We have an unofficial estimate that something like $10,000 may have been netted as a result. If so, it will be by far the largest single item so far obtained for the civic centre fund.

The civic centre project itself is, as a result, in a much stronger position financially with a greatly increased fund of liquid financial resources with which to proceed with the project when it is possible and appropriate to do so.

Another observation that might be made about the civic centre carnival is that it demonstrated how any diversion in the way of entertainment in Prince Rupert is appreciated at this time when there is so much new population here and so little in the way of occupancy of its leisure time.

Besides providing much needed entertainment, affairs such as this can be of use in raising money for worthy projects—providing, of course, the place can be found in which to stage them and there is the necessary assistance to put them on.

It was a difficult job to put the carnival on this year from the standpoint of manpower and those who stepped in at the expense of their own interests to stage the event are deserving of the appreciation of the whole community.

It was a big job but it was well done. We predicted that it could be put over. Thanks to the energy and good management that went into it, our forecast was amply fulfilled. And we wonder where the $10,000 would have gone if the civic centre hadn't got it.

BIOGRAPHY ON SCREEN Retired Nurses To Have Course

"The Vanishing Virginian" With Frank Morgan, at Capitol

Bringing to life the memorable biography, "The Vanishing Virginian," by Rebecca Yancey Williams, the film adaption concludes a two-day showing at the Capitol Theatre today.

Frank Morgan appears in the title role as Cap'n Bob Yancey, father of the author. Spring Byington is the wife and mother. The writer is portrayed in her girlhood by Kathryn Grayson.

The featured cast includes Natalie Thompson as the older sister, and Elizabeth Patterson as grandma. The two young Virginia aunts are portrayed by Douglass Newland and Mark Daniels. The Yancey children are played by Juanita Quigley, Scotty Beckett and Dickie Jones. Louise Beavers and Leigh Whipper are the faithful negro servants on the old plantation.

There is no plot, in the accepted sense, but the narrative reveals the everyday life of a typical American family. Romance enters when the sisters fall in love with two dashing young southern blades who receive the blessings of Cap'n Bob.

He runs for re-election as State's Attorney after having served many terms, and is defeated. The family and his townspeople fear that the blow will be too much for him, but Cap'n Bob emerges laughing, undefeated in spirit and still the most beloved citizen of his community.

The story traces the adventures of the children and the older principles exactly as the biography recorded them, presenting the humor and pathos of a true American home.

NEW HAZELTON

Miss Jessie Wallace arrived last week from Vancouver to assume duty as school teacher here.

Mr. and Mrs. S. H. Senkpiel and son, Verne, are on a trip to Prince George for a couple of weeks.

In view of the shortage of nurses, the Prince Rupert Nurses' Association is making arrangements for the holding of refresher courses here for retired nurses so they may be able to return to service. This was one of the principal items of business taken up last night at the regular monthly meeting of the local Association in the Nurses' Home. Progress so far made towards the holding of the courses was reported upon and it was decided to hold an emergency meeting next, Monday evening to conclude the arrangements. Mrs. James L. Lee has offered a room in her home for the accommodation of the instructress.

A feature of last night's meeting was an interesting and instructive lecture on anaesthesia by Dr. Barbara Perry, this being much appreciated by the nurses present.

Mrs. Mary Brooks was in the chair in the absence of the president, Miss Eleanor Graham R.N.

ODDFELLOWS' VISITATION

Receive Grand Secretary and Have Regimental Lodge Members As Honored Guests

Members of Prince Rupert Oddfellows' and Rebekah attended a dinner last evening in honor of the annual visit of the Grand Secretary for British Columbia; E. L. Webber, who was the special guest acting for the Grand Master. Members of the Midlands Regiment Orange Lodge were also present.

Following the dinner Mr. Webber spoke with remarks regarding the work of the Midlands Regiment which had carried its Orange Lodge across the country stating that it was a stand-by in time of stress.

Clarence Davis, Past Grand Master of the Grand Lodge of Alberta, brought greetings from that jurisdiction.

Regimental Sgt. Major Woodside, Worshipful Master of the Midlands Regiment Orange Lodge, spoke on the lodge principles. He also stated that they had travelled from coast to coast and had been made welcome in every city where they had stopped but had not visited so many homes until they had arrived in Prince Rupert.

Jack MacIntosh, District Deputy

Grand Master, then spoke a few words of greeting to the Grand Secretary, followed by Quartermaster Sgt. Scotty Broughton giving the history of the Midlands Regiment from the date of its inception.

The dinner was in charge of Sgt. Davies assisted by waiters of the Midlands.

The program included community singing arranged by Sgt. J. C. Robb and Private C. Murray, song and dance number by Miss Gwen Smith and Miss Molly Owens, accompanied by Mrs. Bruce Love; and the sword dance and highland fling by Miss Isobel Conner, accompanied by Piper Adams. Gordon Funnell gave selections on the bones and his musical sword, accompanied by Private C. Murray.

The evening was brought to a close with dancing to music supplied by the Midlands Orchestra.

Father Walsh, well known priest of the Roman Catholic Church in the Yukon Territory, was here yesterday afternoon going through to Vancouver.

Harold Crompton arrived in the city Sunday night from Vancouver to spend the next six weeks relieving in the local office of the Union Steamship Co. The local agent, Frank Skinner, is leaving tomorrow afternoon for Vancouver on his annual vacation and, on his return, A. M. Borland will be leaving.

BEER HALL IS RAIDED

At three o'clock last Thursday the law descended upon Rufus White, Tommy Davidson, Wilfrid Marks, Dave Adams and Abel Brooks, all Halda warriors from Old Massett. This time their enemy was John Barleycorn whose malificent influence caused them to interfere with the ordinary peace and dignity of the little island village and, much more serious, obstruct two British Columbia policemen in the execution of their duty.

It seems that on the Friday preceding, in company with some twenty odd associates, they entered the Karls court beer parlor, compelled its proprietor to serve beer and subsequently resisted attempts at ejection. From all accounts a dangerous situation was not only brewing, but would have materialized save for the forbearance of Constables J. W. Downey and R. Stewart plus some voluntary help from the more stable Indians.

When the case was called all concerned entered pleas of guilty and, after provincial police inspector Ernest Gammon had stressed its seriousness Stipendiary Magistrate Wesley Singer imposed a fine of seventy dollars or ninety days' imprisonment on each of them.

Speaking on behalf of the Indians, their agent, B. T. Phillips, stated that, while he held no brief for what had transpired and deplored such behaviour, there was something to be said for the defendants. True, they were Indians, but against this, each was a duly attested Pacific Ranger, and, as such, a soldier in an emergency. This being their point of view, these five men honestly believed they enjoyed the same rights as men enlisted in active service regiments.

Magistrate Singer requested, at the close of the hearing that Commissioner T. W. S. Parsons say a few words to the many Indians present. In thanking him, the commissioner took the opportunity of setting out their precise status in relation to the Indian Act.

The police contingent was ferried across to Massett by Skipper F. H. Brooksbank, whose vessel was subsequently employed in rounding up the culprits who were fishing off various seiners engaged near Port Clements.

Commissioner T. W. S. Parsons returned to the city early Sunday morning from his week's tour of the Queen Charlotte Islands on official duties. He made the trip with Inspector Ernest Gammon aboard the police boat P.M.L. 15. Massett, Port Clements, Queen Charlotte City and other points were visited. The commissioner will spend a few days in Prince Rupert before proceeding to his headquarters in Victoria.

Government War Risk Insurance

INFORMATION OF IMPORTANCE

TO PROPERTY OWNERS

AND ALL CITIZENS OF CANADA

Regarding

THE WAR RISK INSURANCE ACT

The Government of Canada, by Act of Parliament, has set up a Plan of War Risk Insurance against damage to property caused by enemy action—by countermeasures taken against the enemy—by explosions of war munitions handled by third parties.

In terms of general information, it may be stated that the Plan provides a certain limited FREE COMPENSATION for damage to owner-occupied homes and to chattels, but the main feature of the Plan is that owners of most types of property can protect their property by PURCHASE of GOVERNMENT WAR RISK INSURANCE at very moderate rates.

This type of War Risk Insurance is not being sold today by private insurance companies, because of the risk involved. Consequently, the Government has established a national scheme to make it possible for each citizen in Canada to purchase the sense of security that comes from knowing that if his property does suffer war damage (and the war has come much closer to Canada in the last twelve months) he can call on the resources of Canada to help him make good his property loss.

HOW TO OBTAIN GOVERNMENT WAR RISK INSURANCE

The Fire Insurance Agents and Companies of Canada have volunteered to the Government the services of their extensive facilities and personnel, on a non-profit basis, thus avoiding the setting up of the large organization that otherwise would be needed to handle details of this nation-wide Government War Risk Insurance scheme.

YOUR FIRE INSURANCE AGENT OR COMPANY WILL GLADLY SUPPLY COMPLETE DETAILS OF THIS GOVERNMENT INSURANCE PLAN.

TO HOME OWNERS HOUSEHOLDERS AND OTHERS

Limited free compensation is provided under the Act for War Damage by enemy action to owner-occupied homes up to $3,000. Damage to Householder's Chattels, up to $800—for those of his wife, up to $400—for each child under 16, up to $100—for others, not householders, up to $200.

No policies are needed in this classification but insurance additional to the above amounts may be purchased.

Ask any Fire Insurance Agent or Company for complete details.

THIS ANNOUNCEMENT IS PUBLISHED so that the public may have notice of the Government War Risk Insurance scheme. The information given above is not intended to be a complete resumé of the scheme. Full information regarding conditions, exclusions, etc., is available elsewhere.
