THE AIR RAID ON JAPAN

WASHINGTON—There is no official word from Washington as yet in regard to the raid by United States bombing planes on Tokyo, Yokohama, Kobe and Nagoya, principal cities of Japan, Saturday afternoon, although further details were given out by Tokyo and Chungking, the Chinese capital, also referred to it. Japan glosses the raids over with the statement that there was little damage and no casualties. Suggesting that the raiders came from the northeast, Domei News Agency warns the Japanese people to be ready for further such attacks. As for Tokyo, the Japanese command says that the bombs were dropped not in the metropolitan area but in the suburbs. It is in the suburbs where the great industries and the typically flimsy Japanese dwellings are. At first Tokyo claimed that nine attacking planes were brought down but now says there was only one.

THE BATTLE OF BURMA

NEW DELHI—British and Chinese defenders of Burma are still fighting a rearguard action against the Japanese invaders, although the Chinese, having joined the British in the Irrawaddy, recaptured a town. A Calcutta report that the British are withdrawing from Burma and leaving the defence to the Chinese is officially denied.

GERMANY GETS FRENCH FLEET

MOSCOW—A Tass News Agency dispatch to Moscow from Geneva says that twenty-nine French warships, including three battleships, an aircraft carrier, nine flotilla leaders and ten destroyers, have been turned over to Germany and that all the armed forces of Vichy are to be under Nazi control.

RUSSIANS STILL WINNING

MOSCOW—Soviet forces on the northern front have captured a centre of resistance the fall of which constitutes a major defeat for the Finns. Tass News Agency said at Moscow Saturday. At the same time the Soviet Army newspaper Red Star said Russian units were hammering the Germans on the central front and have forced Nazi commanders to throw artillery reserves into battle to replace infantry in desperate counter-attacks which have been repulsed.

LAVAL HAS FULL REIN

Control, France Now Both Externally and Internally—First Cabinet Meeting

VICHY, April 20.—The new pro-Axis Premier of Vichy France, Pierre Laval, has called the first meeting of his ministers for today.

It was announced by Marshal Henri Philippe Petain, in a broadcast last night, that Laval would direct both foreign and domestic policy of Vichy France, having assumed the cabinet portfolios of both foreign affairs and interior. Admiral Jean Darlan is retiring from active participation in the government.

All but one minor cabinet member are labelled as "attached to Laval." The exception is a minor without portfolio who is "attached to Petain."

Laval has denied a report from Lisbon to Tokyo that the French government was to be moved from Vichy to Paris.

A new commander has been named for the French fleet at Dakar with jurisdiction over merchant as well as naval forces.

LEAFS ARE WINNERS

Defeated Detroit Red Wings Saturday Night in Dramatic Final Game for Stanley Cup

TORONTO, April 20 (Canadian Press)—The Stanley Cup series came to a dramatic finish at Toronto Maple Leaf Gardens before a record-smashing crowd of 16,218 fans Saturday night when Toronto defeated Detroit Red Wings three games to one to capture the world's professional hockey championship for the first time since 1932.

The Maple Leafs had an uphill fight in the last game as they had in the series, having had the first goal scored against them before starting themselves. In the series they lost the first games and then came back to take the last four straight.

Howe scored for Detroit and Rehrner, two, and Langell one for Toronto.

American planes would soon be co-operating with British in the assault upon German and German-controlled territory of western Europe. The United States would also be joining in British commando raids. He said that American troops might expect action within the next few months.

United Nations Draw Up Counter-Offensive Plans Against Nippon

Battle of Burma Takes Somewhat More Favorable Turn For British and Chinese—All Out Attack Against Corregidor

With the Japanese still trying to figure out how they were bombed in their own island Saturday, the United Nations drew up plans today for an Australia-based offensive in the southwest Pacific and the struggle in Burma took on a more favorable but still indecisive turn for the British and Chinese and against the enemy. General Douglas MacArthur and his aides discussed offensive plans with Australia's Prime Minister, John Curtin, at Canberra as Japan showed jitters over the raids.

Two more air raid alarms were sounded yesterday in Japan but, evidently, with no real basis. By latest account the Japanese appeared fairly convinced that the raiders were United States medium bombers launched by aircraft carriers and landing on the mainland in Free China whence they flew on to Japan. Reuters said all the American machines returned safely. There are said to have been three United States aircraft carriers far off the coast.

Further details of Saturday afternoon's air raids on Tokyo, Yokohama, Nagoya and Kobe were announced by Japanese headquarters in Tokyo today. One United States plane was forced down. Its crew was captured and is now undergoing examination at the hands of the Japanese authorities. The Tokyo radio is back on the air again after being off for several hours. A number of sport events in Tokyo have been cancelled for fear of air raids.

Meanwhile Chungking reported that Chinese troops, swooping down from the northeast, had recaptured the centre of Yenang-yuang in the heart of the Burmese oil fields and, in two days of bitter fighting, released a British force of several thousand from Japanese encirclement. In a counter-offensive against Japanese positions in Burma, the Royal Air Force smashed at an air field at Bassan in the Irrawaddy Delta and machine-gunned motor launches in the Bassein River and small barges in Gwa Bay.

It is now disclosed for the first time that the Chinese are now operating alongside the British forces in the Irrawaddy River area. Up to today the British forces had been withdrawing in that section at the rate of five miles a day.

In Philippines
The Japanese appeared today to be starting on an all out effort to batter the American fortress of Corregidor, at the entrance of Manila Bay, into helplessness. Heavy bombs and siege guns are being used.

The FilAmerican defenders on Cebu and Panay islands are resisting strongly thousands of Japanese invading forces.

Forty Jap Planes Lost
Allied airmen, racing through tropical rainstorms, are reported to have destroyed forty Japanese bombing and fighting planes on the ground in two raids on Rabaul, New Britain.

Last night the Royal Air Force continued the offensive with large forces and fighters and bombers crossing Dover Straits to occupied France to carry on the attack against enemy territory.

The enemy gave but a feeble answer. A few German raiders came over the south and south-east coast. Some bombs were dropped on a southern town and three persons were killed and a few injured but damage was unquantifiable.

GREAT FEAT OF BOMBING

Royal Air Force Is Officially Congratulated by Prime Minister On Behalf of Government

Keep Up Offensive

British Air Power Continues To Inflict Its Sting On Germany and Nazi-Controlled Territory

LONDON, April 20 (Canadian Press)— Prime Minister Churchill has sent on behalf of His Majesty's government a message of congratulation to the Royal Air Force following the raid at the week-end on the great German submarine engine factory at Augsburg. It was, said the Prime Minister's message, "an outstanding achievement in the war. The Air Force had struck at a vital point with deadly precision. "It was a memorable feat of arms in which no life had been lost in vain."

Royal Air Force raiders, despite rainy and squally weather, sustained their great bombing offensive over the week-end with fresh waves of fighter planes striving to hammer Chancellor Adolf Hitler's new Europe out of shape. Most of the British raiders on Saturday concentrated upon Bulong on the French invasion coast. The unfavorable weather held the Luftwaffe attack on Britain over the week-end to a minimum.

London, assessing the results of bold dashes into Germany and conquered territory during the week-end, found that the big diesel works at Augsburg, credited with half of Germany's submarine engine production, was heavily bombed at dusk Friday although the Royal Air Force paid a high price. Four bombers were downed on the outward flight and three over the target. Britain's new four-motored Lancaster bombers were used in the Augsburg smash while other planes set many fires in Hamburg.

Last night the Royal Air Force continued the offensive with large forces and fighters and bombers crossing Dover Straits to occupied France to carry on the attack against enemy territory.

The enemy gave but a feeble answer. A few German raiders came over the south and south-east coast. Some bombs were dropped on a southern town and three persons were killed and a few injured but damage was unquantifiable.

Saturday night the unfavorable weather had largely grounded the British planes but they were not without some action.

EDITORIAL

The War News...

The war news has been none too bright for our side these last few days but, nevertheless, there has been some silver lining among the black clouds. The growing air power of the United Nations is now making itself felt. It has been said more than once that this war will eventually be won in the air. To say the least we have been in the ascendant these last few days in that regard.

News of the great assault by the Royal Air Force on Germany and Nazi-controlled territory of western Europe during the past few weeks has been heartening. No less was that of the great raid of United States planes on the heart of Japan.

And we may expect that this activity will become even stronger as British and American co-operation in the air becomes increasingly effective.

Prices and Rations...

The Prince Rupert office of the Wartime Prices and Trade Board is now functioning and the co-operation of the citizens in seeing that there is local observance of the price ceiling and rationing regulations is sought by the officer in charge. The matter of price regulation is possibly of more interest to the women than the men and the Wartime Prices and Trade Board is particularly desirous of getting their assistance. As we have previously stated, the office is in the Besner Block where any complaints or suggestions may be lodged.

Time For Sport...

Many Canadians were much interested in the dramatic Stanley Cup hockey series which came to a close Saturday night with the stirring victory of the Toronto Maple Leafs over the Detroit Red Wings and it was quite fitting that they should have been. Possibly, many of us are inclined to spend too much time worrying about the war when we might be doing better for our country and for ourselves by taking a little diversion in these trying times. It might be better for our war effort.

No less important personages than President Roosevelt of the United States and Premier Churchill of England find it possible to take time out from their great responsibilities for sport. We have seen Roosevelt grinning broadly at a ball game from his box. We have seen the grim visage of Churchill smiling as he chewed his cigar at a soccer match. They are able to take diversion and relax. They are great because they keep fresh.

Good sport is more beneficial than many of us appreciate.

Whifflets From The Waterfront

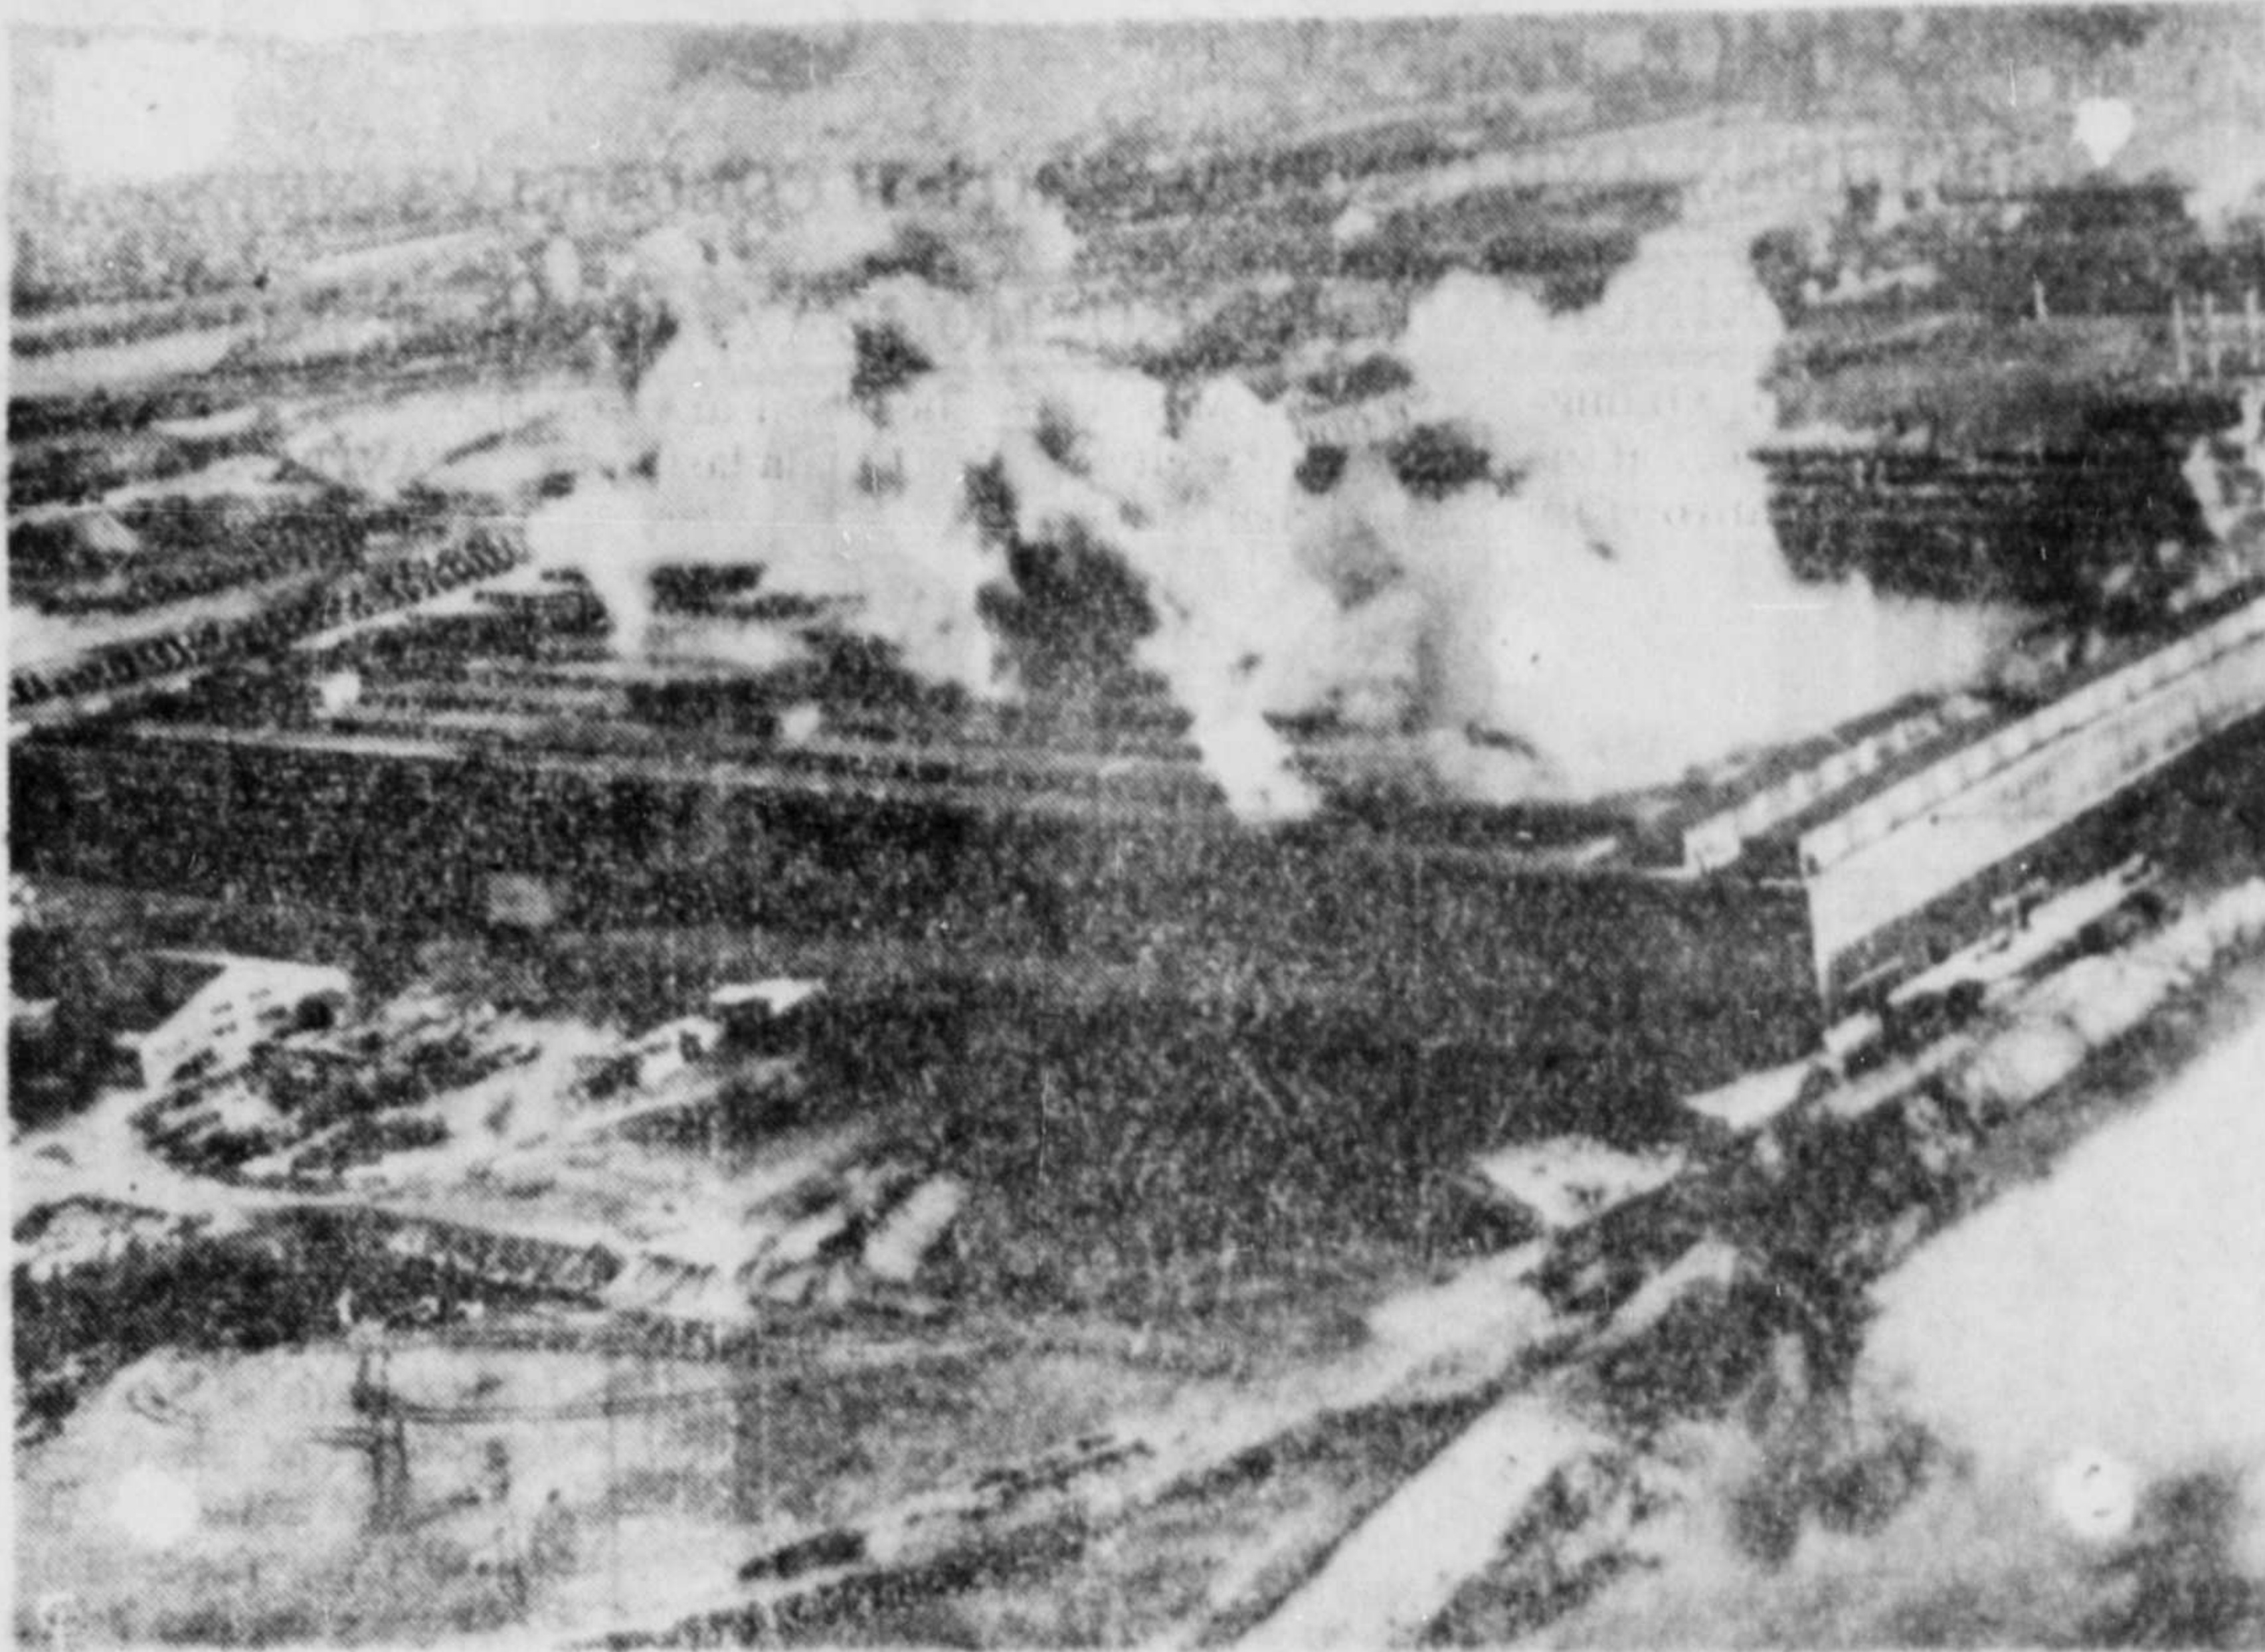

According to reports brought in from sea, weather conditions have been completely unfavorable for halibut fishing since the opening of the season at the middle of last week. Indeed, the majority of the fleet is said to have been tied up in shelter at Squadaree and other anchorages awaiting an opportunity to get on to the banks. The Fredella III, Capt. A. Husoy, which came in the latter part of the week with gurdy trouble, reported this. Evidently this is the reason why no halibut has yet been offered on the local Fish Exchange following the opening of the season.

Union steamer Camosun, Capt. James Watt, is due in port at 5 o'clock this afternoon from Vancouver via the Queen Charlotte Islands and will sail at midnight tomorrow night on her return south over the same route.

Union ss. Catala, Capt. Ernest Sheppard, arrived in port at 9:30 last evening from the south, sailing at midnight for Port Simpson, Stewart and Naas River whence she is due back here tomorrow morning southbound.

R.A.F. DAYLIGHT RAID ON POISSY FACTORY

This photo was taken in the course of a low-altitude daylight raid on the Matford factory, 10 miles northwest of Paris. The raid was carried out on March 8, 1942, by a small formation of Boston light bombers of the R.A.F. bomber command. The Boston is an American-built aircraft, and the photograph shows the accuracy of the attack. This particular factory has been producing 20 trucks a day for the German army and rows of them, ready to be delivered, can be seen drawn up at the back of the factory at left. At least two bombs exploded on these trucks while smoke from bombs bursting inside the factory drifted over the area.

Letter Box

Editor, Daily News:

During the last war, when everyone was busy making the world safe for democracy, the Union government allowed the hi-jacking of our Grand Trunk Pacific Railway and I have been down on all Union governments since.

I have broken out in a rash on various occasions since that time, but until "Traveller" expressed himself so conservatively I do not recollect hearing anyone else making a squawk.

Among other things, these coaches you mention are some of the people of the East and the Prairie would no longer consider it to ride in, let alone pay for the privilege.

We had one passenger train, with decent cars and no freight cars and it came in on time—once this winter. The general manager or some big shot came through and, of course, as we pay him a nice salary, he had to be comfortable—although the owners of the road have to put up with any old thing—He also left behind the freight train, which came through "extra" and then had the gall to preach economy when he got here.

RED CROSS GETS $500

This Is Stewart's Donation To National Drive—Interesting Incident

STEWART, April 20:— At the regular monthly meeting of the Portland Canal War Fund held here last Wednesday evening the sum of $500 was set aside for the Canadian Red Cross annual drive. The sum of $100 each was voted to the Russian Red Cross and to Chinese relief.

In view of the closing down of the Big Missouri Mine, the Portland Canal War Fund will in future be supported entirely by Stewart. However, a resolution was adopted that all men who have enlisted from Big Missouri shall be treated by the fund as residents to the same extent as those who have enlisted from Stewart.

An interesting incident was reported to the meeting. One local man in a camp in England had received a Christmas parcel from the local War Fund which included a pair of knitted socks. One day he happened to notice that one of his companions had a pair of socks bearing the Portland Canal War Fund tag. Naturally, the local man assumed that his socks had been "pinched" but he found his were still in his kit. Making further enquiries he found that several items knitted by the Portland Canal War Fund had been distributed in the same camp. It was of great interest to the local ladies who have spent so many hours knitting these comforts to know that they are actually getting to the troops.

CHURCH IS BIG FORCE

Rev. J. A. Donnell Discusses Influence of Christianity

Speaking from the text, "The leaves of the tree were for the healing of the nations," Rev. J. A. Donnell gave an impressive address last evening before a large congregation in the First United Church. Mr. Donnell suggested that, in reply to the questions was there such a tree or could there be such a one, the answer was there was. He suggested that the church was the tree.

Criticism that the church should heal itself first did not recognize the indisputable fact that the church was the greatest unifying agency in the world and that it would continue to be so. It transcended nationalism. The great Madras conference of 1938 brought together representatives of sixty nations and people who spoke a hundred different languages. The pastor questioned if there ever had been its equal. The mingling of Christian workers from such diverse and antagonistic nations in the attempt to promote worldwide brotherhood would have an everlasting influence. This was borne out by the dispassionate judgment of Henry Van Dusen, professor of systematic theology of the Union College, New York, after a critical, observant and appraising journey of eight months in which he travelled forty thousand miles. He was convinced that the Christian missionary movement had made the greatest possible contribution to the advancement of economic, social and religious civilization in the world.

Special musical numbers were given by Morris Dandell in his solo, "Gently, Lord, O Gently Lead Us," (W. T. Porter), and the hymn, "Praise, the Lord," (F. J. Hadyn with a special descent setting by T. H. Ingham). This was sung by the choir with Mrs. R. G. Large singing the descant.

FOR CONGO PRODUCTION

JOHANNESBURG, April 20:— If South Africa would go all out to assist the Belgian Congo supplying material such as copper, tin, rubber and timber, the Allied war effort would be helped considerably, said Jean Decoster, editor of the Echo du Katanga.

SPORT CHAT

Brooklyn has the power and hustle, St. Louis has the balance and speed and Cincinnati has the pitching, says Dillon Graham, Associated Press sports writer. That's how the three apparent contenders for the National League baseball pennant stack up at the get-away. You can sell yourself on any one of the trio and, while both the Dodgers and Cardinals finished ahead of the Reds last year and seemingly have better balance now, I have a hunch the Reds will hit the wire first.

No club in the majors can touch the Reds' pitching. Derringer and Walters, Riddle and Vandermeer, Thompson and Starr. That I think gives them the edge. With those trustworthy tossers, all Cincinnati needs to win is a slightly improved offense. The Reds' punch was pitiful last year. There almost was none. Yet Cincinnati challenged most of the way. There should be more power this season.

Frank McCormick should regain his batting eye. Rookie Bert Haas at third should help the attack. Veteran Ival Goodman looked great when I saw the Reds during my tour of the spring training camps. So did Eddie Joost, who has put on 20 pounds and is hitting the ball hard. Rollie Hemsley and Ray Lamanno have strengthened the catching, while the outfield will be better with the experienced Gee Walker in left.

The Dodgers and Cards look mighty good but I'm stringing with the Reds. Most baseball men tab the Cards because of their speed and balance. They almost turned the trick last year, despite many injuries. Granted good pitching again and satisfactory performances by such recruits as highly touted Stan Musical in left field and Ray Sanders at first, the Cardinals might breeze in. However I don't think Sanders or Johnny Hopp can replace John Mize's power at first. He was the Cardinal's big gun. And St. Louis can't continue to get the breaks it had with young hurlers for the past two seasons.

The Dodgers appear to be better than last year but there's some doubt as to whether they'll get sufficient pitching. There are a bunch of oldsters around who may fade. Arky Vaughan at third, Augie Galan and Johnny Rizzo in the outfield and Billy Sullivan behind the bat have strengthened Brooklyn which already was the most powerful club with Dolph Camilli and Peter Reiser.

Selected on how they look today the rating would list St. Louis, Brooklyn and Cincinnati in that order. I think it will be Reds, Dodgers and Cards at the finish. The New York Giants are better and so are the pirates. They should slug it out for the last position in the first division. It seems that the Cubs, Braves and Phillies also have improved—but not enough to get out of the second flight.

Timely Recipes

CHOCOLATE FROSTING

You needn't give up the cherished custom of celebrating the juvenile birthday with a cake. Just make cake layers from a sugarless or low-sugar recipe and frost them with chocolate frosting made of condensed milk. This recipe can be whisked together in five minutes, requires no sugar. The cake will draw special exclamations of delight from the youngsters if it is inscribed with birthday greetings spelled out with half peanuts and arranged a triumphal procession of peanut men and animals around it. Make legs and arms of pipe stem cleaners, thrust through peanut bodies with a substantial twist of the wire for feet, and mark the features with paint or a pencil.

2 squares unsweetened chocolate.

1 1-3 cups (1 can) condensed milk.

1 tablespoon water.

Melt chocolate in top of double boiler. Add sweetened condensed milk. Stir over boiling water 5 minutes until mixture thickens. Add water. Cool. Spread on cold cake. This frosting covers tops of 2 (9-inch) layers, or top and sides of loaf cake generously, or about 24 cup cakes.

Fight Against Evil Must Be From Within

That which defileth comes from within rather than from without, said Rev. A. F. MacSween in his morning sermon yesterday at First Presbyterian Church. By the establishment of rules and regulations to prevent or restrict immorality, use of liquor or gambling only a start was being made. The root must be attacked. Resistance to evil must come from within and that was to be accomplished by the building of character, by the acceptance of God. There was the great work.

All The Celery

Is Worth Using

Here's Another Way To Help Corner Wartime Food Costs.

Every speck of celery can be put into some flavorful or crunchy use. As soon as the celery comes to the kitchen, scrub in cold water. If it is wilted soak for 10 minutes in very cold water. This will help dislodge dirt as well as refreshen.

Cut off the tops and outside leaves, dry and store in covered jar for later seasoning of soups, stews and sauces. Chop the freshest leaves and add them to meat loaves, escalloped mixtures or meat sauces.

Dice the coarse stalks, cover with cold water and simmer covered for 10 minutes and you have a delicious, nutritious stock for soups, stews, pot pies or sauce blends. You can store this celery and stock covered for several days in a refrigerator.

UNIT OF DEFENCE
Smithers District Going Ahead With Corps — Cunliffe Commanding Officer

SMITHERS, April 20 — About seventy-five citizens of Smithers and vicinity met at the Municipal hall here Friday evening for the purpose of organizing a unit under the Auxiliary Defence Corps. Evelyn, Telkwa, MacLure Lake and Quick districts were all represented at the meeting and a great deal of interest was shown by all those present in the advisability of organizing such a unit.

J. W. Turner was chairman of the meeting while L. H. Kenney acted as secretary.

It was decided to form a unit with the territory including Moricetown on the west and Houston on the east to comprise the area involved with headquarters in Smithers and with the various districts having their own detachments as part of the whole unit.

A committee was appointed in the general meeting to proceed with the organization and the meeting then adjourned.

Immediately following the general meeting the committee met and was representative of the whole area.

Captain S. A. Cunliffe, late of the Canadian Engineers, was appointed as commanding officer of the unit and it is expected that full organization will soon be completed and that all necessary training, etc., will be proceeded with during the summer.

Scottish Dance Season Ended
Fine Affair Saturday Night Was Fitting Climax To Eight Month Series

The Oddfellows' held the season's final old time Scottish dance Saturday evening and the many guests present greatly enjoyed the full program.

From 9 to 12 a regular dance program, ably directed by the congenial master of ceremonies, William Davidson, was enjoyed. Then came refreshments of ice cream, cake and coffee served at midnight after which many request dances were enjoyed.

The Oddfellows' Scottish Orchestra was in attendance and Piper Donald McLennan, Edmonton Fusiliers, played for several of the dances. Also Mrs. Bruce Love rendered a piano solo for a requested three-step.

Drummer "Bill" Lyson, Edmonton Fusiliers, gave Scottish and Irish songs accompanied by Mrs. J. B. MacKay at the piano and their effort was much appreciated and commended.

At the close of the evening, Lewis Hilder, in a short address, thanked those many helpers whose untiring efforts had made such a success of these regular fortnightly affairs during the season. Another was planned to commence next September and it was hoped would prove even more enjoyable and successful.

COMEDY OF SMART SET
"When Ladies Meet" Coming With Joan Crawford, Greer Garson, Robert Taylor and Herbert Marshall

Joan Crawford, Robert Taylor, Greer Garson and Herbert Marshall head the cast of "When Ladies Meet," an hilarious comedy of scrambled loves and bewildered lovers, which is the feature picture coming to the screen of the Capitol Theatre here tonight and Tuesday.

Miss Crawford plays the part of a sentimental woman novelist, loved by Taylor, who falls for Herbert Marshall, her publisher. The jealous Taylor gets an idea and arranges for Miss Crawford and Miss Garson, who plays Marshall's wife, to meet. Not knowing they are love rivals, the two women become great friends. Amid hilarious situations, Miss Crawford confides in Miss Garson her infatuation. Then Marshall enters the scene and fur begins to fly. Miss Garson says that this last flirtation with her friend is too much. She quits Marshall, who suddenly discovers that he really loves his own wife. Taylor acts as cupid and brings them together again and the whole piece comes to a happy ending.

Some ultra-modern costumes are seen in the picture, the clothes worn by Miss Crawford and Miss Garson being complementary in each scene where they appear together.

How Much SUGAR Should Children Have?

● Children need sugar. It helps provide energy for active little bodies. But too much sugar does more harm than good. Sweets between meals tend to dull children's appetite for the foods they need for growth.

Satisfy their sweet tooth with these, instead:
 Fresh fruits, fruit juices, dried fruits such as prunes, raisins, dates, figs, apricots. (50% to 75% of dried fruits are natural sugar.) They're much better for youngsters . . . and they help save sugar for Canada and our allies.

The lawful allowance of sugar is 3/4 pound per person per week. No one is allowed to have more than two weeks' supply on hand at any time, except in remote areas.

Retailers have the right to refuse to sell or to limit sales to any person they believe is attempting to disobey the law.

Penalties provided for breaking the sugar ration law are imprisonment for as long as two years and a fine up to $5,000.00.
