NEW POLICE AGREEMENT

Provincial Force Losing Money Here and Asks City for New Deal

Giving notice of termination of the existing contract as at December 31 of this year, the British Columbia Police, in a letter from Commissioner T. W. S. Parsons to City Commissioner D. J. Matheson, is formally proposing a new form of agreement.

The communication from Inspector Parsons states that there was an operating loss on policing of the city during the year 1940-41 of $3,987.41 and the present trend indicated that the loss would become greater. The situation, said the Commissioner's letter, called for a readjustment of terms and quite shortly it was hoped to submit financial data on which to base a new agreement.

The city is at present paying the provincial police $13,000 per year for the policing of the city.

INTERIOR HARVEST

Weather Is Highly Auspicious For Getting in Crop

SMITHERS, Sept. 30—The most marvelous fall weather ever experienced in the Bulkley Valley is still continuing to the great benefit of the farmers who are rushing their threshing and fall plowing while the weather holds good. Week after week without a break, the fine weather and bright sunshine have put many extra dollars into their pockets.

Since early spring the weather could hardly have been more suited to the needs of the farmers. Good crops have been grown and are now being harvested and stored in first class condition.

The fine weather for hunting ducks, grouse, and larger game is also being taken full advantage of by the local hunters who appear to be bringing in good bags.

ROADS AT TERRACE

Board of Trade Asks For Improvements Toward Station

TERRACE, Sept. 30—The Board of Trade held its regular monthly day evening. After some discussion a resolution was passed which asked the railway authorities to do something towards improving the roads leading to the depot and to the freight cars which have to be unloaded. With the great increase in business here and the consequent frequent traffic tangles it is felt that wider road approaches would be in order.

Indeed the railway facilities are not the only ones to feel the change which has come with the tremendous growth of local activity. The post office, restaurants, hotels, not to mention the churches, are all too small for the Terrace of today.

Harry King was in the chair and Duncan Kerr acted as secretary.

SPEECH BY CHANCELLOR

Says Reich Will Go On Winning Until Final Victory Achieved

BERLIN, Sept. 30 (CP)—Chancellor Adolf Hitler, speaking today at the opening of the winter relief drive, declared that the Reich would go on winning until final victory was achieved. He predicted the fall of Stalingrad as a matter of course.

It is noted that this is the same meeting as that of a year ago when Hitler gave assurance that Russia was practically out of the war.

General Rommel, commander-in-chief of Axis forces in North Africa, was in attendance when Hitler made his speech.

Hitler said: "We are determined to hold this year what we have and attack where we believe necessary." He also declared: "The hour will come when we will answer England's bombing of German cities."

Service Stations Cutting On Hours

Will Open at 7:30 a.m. and Close at 6 p.m. in Vancouver

VANCOUVER, Sept. 30—The originator of the idea being Bud Corley, formerly of Prince Rupert, who has been for some time in the service station business in Vancouver, a number of Vancouver operators have decided to cut their hours whereby they will open at 7:30 a.m. and close at 6 p.m. It may not be long before the opening hours will have to be even shorter than that, says Corley.

PASSING OF JOHN GRAY

Pioneer of Both Prince Rupert and Smithers Is Dead

SMITHERS, Sept. 30—The many friends of John S. Gray, the well known proprietor of Gray's Jewelry of Smithers, will learn with regret that he passed away at his home here at 7 o'clock last evening. Late Sunday night he had suffered a heart attack and was in a serious condition. Since first suffering this attack on Sunday night his condition had not improved and rush calls for the doctor's help had been made on several occasions.

Mr. Gray was one of the oldest residents of Smithers, having come from Prince Rupert in 1913 with his family and established himself here in the jewelry store and watchmaking business. He was well known all along the line throughout the North.

Born in Aberdeen, Scotland, Mr. Gray came to Montreal 44 years ago, moving in 1910 to Prince Rupert where he owned and operated a jewelry store for three years. In 1913 he came to Smithers where he has been in business for the past 29 years. He was watch inspector for the Canadian National Railways. He was a talented musician and the leader of both band and orchestras.

On December 6 of last year Mr. and Mrs. Gray celebrated their fiftieth wedding anniversary, the wedding having taken place in Aberdeen on December 4, 1891.

Deceased leaves his wife, one son Alex, Vancouver, four daughters, Mrs. R. Kuhn, Portsmouth, Ohio, Mrs. J. Williams, Mrs. J. Buchan and Mrs. Frank Parker, all of Smithers, ten grandchildren and two great-grandchildren.

Blow Dealt Upon Japs

Weary Garrison Beats Nazi Tanks and Motor Infantry On 37th Day

While Soviet Soldiers Fall Within Ruined City, Two Nazi Divisions Are Routed By Relief Attack Against Invasion Flank

MOSCOW, Sept. 30 (CP)—Stalingrad's weary garrison battled off German tanks and motorized infantry in the thirty-seventh day of siege today and while fresh hundreds fell within the ruined city, it was announced that two Nazi divisions had been routed by relief attacks against the invasion flank. Hardened defence and counter-attacks took toll of Adolf Hitler's forces from Leningrad to Mzodok. One newspaper declared "the initiative remains in our hands" in the battle northwest of Stalingrad although the Germans were concentrating tremendous forces to replace defeated divisions. Field reports declared that the Red Army's revived Kalinin front offensive, bolstered by bombing several German air bases, had smashed through defences north of Rzhev which the invaders called "The Line of the Fuehrer." In addition, the Russians said that a third army division had been battered back by Red marines in the Novorossisk area of the Black Sea coast and noted repulse of enemy attacks in the Mzodok area.

Premier Hart Here Tomorrow

The change in arrangements will give the Premier a full day here to meet delegations, Mr. Richards' message says.

OPPOSED TO SPECULATION

Talk About Second Front Clearly Not Appreciated by Prime Minister Churchill—Suggests Impracticability

LONDON, Sept. 30: Prime Minister Winston Churchill, speaking in Parliament yesterday, said he welcomed the opportunity of again emphasizing the undesirability of public statements or speculation as to the time and place of future Allied offensive operations even though such statements were based on speculation and not on inside information.

Mr. Churchill's remarks were provoked by a question which was prefaced by an assumption that "the period of offensive operations by the United Nations was now approaching."

Mr. Churchill today told the House that the super-commando raid on Dieppe had cost nearly half of all Allied troops involved. There had been found unexpected barriers to landing, one hundred enemy planes had, however, been brought down in the raid.

At the same time a high British officer broadcast in French today that "more than ever the possibilities of British and Allied landing on French soil must be foreseen."

Mrs. Maggie Russell Dies in Hazelton Hospital After Lengthy Illness

After an illness which began three months ago, Mrs. Maggie Russell of Kitzegukla, who was well known in the district between Hazelton and Cedarvale, passed away in Winch Memorial Hospital at Hazelton. She was the president of the Red Wings' Ladies' Athletic Club in Kitzegukla village and her prominence in social activities won her many friends. Her passing was generally regretted.

ACTIVITIES OF Y.M.C.A. AND Y.W.C.A.

By DOROTHY GARBUTT, Hostess

We're getting to know the Grenadiers a little better at the Y now and find they're a grand lot of lads. Of course being from Winnipeg myself I could hardly say otherwise. I wonder how many of the boys remember Colcleugh's Drug Store at the corner of Sherbrooke and Notre Dame? It's been there high on forty years and is the paternal house of business. If you do recall it as a familiar landmark, do come in and have a chat with me—and if you don't come in just the same. I also went to Kelvin, Rupertsland, and worked in Eaton's City. And so if that doesn't make me a full-fledged Winnipegger I don't know what does.

I hear that Sergeant Isadore who played the clarinet so beautifully on Sunday evening at the padre's concert had his own dance band in the east and I even heard that once he was one of Mark Kenney's Western Gentlemen.

During the alert the other evening it was amusing to see how the remaining lads cheered as the various units were called back to duty. It was a case of the less the merrier. And the lack of panic among the dancers was heartening. It was a case of "and the band played on."

More cheering news for the women who come out to the weekly meetings in the family lounge—we're to have an honest to goodness stove in there this winter. Remember how our teeth chattered last year, how our lips were blue and our noses red, how we smoked cigarettes to keep our noses warm and sat on our hands to keep, well to keep the rest of us warm? Well those days are gone forever unless they ration our fuel and if that happens, it's a case of going backward fast. So warmer days are here again. Good-oh!

Mrs. Norman Moorehouse arrived back this afternoon from a holiday trip south.

Letter Box

INCONSIDERATE PUBLIC
Editor, Daily News:

I have read several letters lately in the local press regarding the congestion at the general delivery wickets in the Post Office at Prince Rupert. The general tenor of the correspondence lays the blame on the postal authorities. This is hardly fair as the public is to blame also. To give you one example, a few days ago I called for mail at the general delivery wicket. There was quite a line-up as usual, both in front of me and behind at both wickets. Just immediately in front of me there was a man, apparently a workman from the dry dock or some place where a large number of men were employed and he had a list of names nearly a foot long which he handed to the girl at the wicket. I took out my watch and timed the hard worked girl clerk. It took her twenty minutes to wade through the list. All this time, therefore, pretty nearly three-quarters of an hour before the last in the waiting line reached the wicket. It is hardly fair for anyone to ask others to call for their mail just at such time and

I would suggest the Postmaster "crack down" on such a practice as people handing in a long list of names of their friends and their friends' cousins and acquaintances.

The girls in the Post Office (bless them) look "all in" on these mail days trying to cope with inconsiderate members of the public. Many members of the mailing public don't know and don't care what the hard worked staff of the Post Office are up against just now—short-handed and all as they are.

I hope these few lines will cause the public to show a little more consideration for the Post Office folk. I could say a good deal more but let this go for the present.

JOB PATIENCE.

Landing 2000 horses on the head of a pin

Far below, a mere pinpoint, lies the home field. Easily the pilot banks, glides—smoothly lands his air dreadnaught on the runway—like parking an automobile at the curb. It looks simple, but months of study, of painstaking training—countless practice "take-offs" and "landings"—went into fitting this youthful air Viking for his job. The other members of his air crew know that he can take them swiftly to their target and bring them safely home.

That is what R.C.A.F. air crew training teaches—each man an expert at his own job, each crew a closely knit team functioning as a single unit.

And these young fighting comrades of the skies are proud to devote themselves to ridding the world of its bandits—happy in the opportunities that await them when Victory is won.

R.C.A.F. training in Canada is expanding steadily. More planes, more schools, more instructors are now available. Right now applications are being accepted for air crew at R.C.A.F. Recruiting Centres throughout Canada.

If you are physically fit, mentally alert, over 18 and not yet 33, you are eligible. Lack of formal education is no longer a bar to enlistment.

Variety Store Doing Business Now in Fine Establishment at More Commodious Location

The Variety Store reopened for business today in its fine new building at 518 Third Avenue in the heart of the shopping district of Prince Rupert. Proprietor G. D. Bryant received many admiring comments from customers and no doubt, felt a sense of pride over the attractive and interesting new establishment. In any case there were numerous complimentary comments at such features of the commodious new shop as the wider aisles, new and increased stock, modern fixtures, and service arrangements.

The place has been completely renovated and rearranged since former tenant left and the installation of fluorescent lighting together of the features. The new Variety Store presents a bright and congenial new atmosphere in which Prince Rupert's main shop for such requirements as dry goods, crockery, ware, toys, games, souvenirs, glass, kitchen smallware, hardware and stationery and school supplies and courtesy are watchwords of the Variety Store in dealing with the public and Mr. Bryant should be ensured of a full measure of success in the new undertaking.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Beckett left yesterday for Vancouver.

Mr. and Mrs. John Hewick were passengers leaving yesterday for Vancouver.

Geoffrey Wootton, Victory Loan organizer, was the speaker today at the regular weekly luncheon of the Prince Rupert Gyro Club. President George L. Rorie was in the chair and there was a fair attendance of members with a few guests.

J. L. McEwen arrived from Smithers on Tuesday night's train to take up duties that he is assuming in Prince Rupert. His family expect to follow him there shortly. Both Mr. and Mrs. McEwen have been very active in the business and social life of Smithers and they will be greatly missed in that community where they have made their home for the past sixteen years.

YOU CAN HELP TO BEAT HITLER RIGHT IN YOUR OWN KITCHEN.

First of all, give your electric range proper care so that it will continue to give you faithful service for years to come. Remember the metals and man-hours which went into it cannot be replaced.

Second, conserve the electricity urgently needed in war plants by operating your electric range efficiently. Plan your meals, plan your cooking, make full use of stored-up oven heat.

Third, guard precious vitamins — get full value from the food you buy by following the rules of scientific vitaminized cooking. That way you help maintain health and morale — help keep workers on the job.

UNITED IN MARRIAGE

International Atmosphere for Nuptials of Edna Venables and Teddy Bequette

MISS Edna Venables of Prince Rupert and Saskatoon and Technical Sergeant Teddy Lee Bequette were united in marriage at the United Church last Friday evening in a charming wedding which was international in setting. The ceremony was performed by Rev. (Captain) Claude C. Acree.

The church was filled with the many friends of the couple with the varied uniforms of the different branches of the services predominating. Flowers of the season, pleasingly arranged, formed a beautiful background for the ceremony. The bride was given in marriage by Theo. M. J. Fortune, an old friend of the family. Her mother, Mrs. L. Venables, was guest of honor.

Miss Venables was gowned in ice blue satin moulded on empire lines with sweetheart neckline and long sleeves with pointed cuff over the hand, the floor length skirt extending entrain. Her full, length veil of hand finished Belgian lace extended into a high coronet finished with tiny sprays of orange blossoms. A gold necklet, the gift of the groom, was her only ornament. She carried a shower bouquet of Johanna Hill Rapture and American Beauty roses, white heather and plumos fern. As she left the church she donned a robe of scarlet velvet hand embroidered with matching silk and lined with ivory satin.

The bridesmaid, Miss Swann, Olafson of this city, wore a floor-length hand made gown of butter cup taffeta in bouffant style. Her bouquet was composed of Bronze Chrysanthemums and fern. Little Doraleen Olsen, the flower girl, was gowned in a replica of the bridesmaid. She carried a basket of mixed garden flowers which she

DRAMA IS MUSICAL

A new musical picture, "Blues in the Night," starring Priscilla Lane, Betty Field and Richard Whorf, the last-mentioned a well known stage star making his debut in films, comes as the feature offering to the screen of the Capitol Theatre for the middle of this week—today and Thursday.

This is not a swanky extravaganza with a lot of beautiful girls cavorting in a night club to the strains of a high-class orchestra but is the story of a band whose members are inspired by their leader's belief that the music heard on the streets, in every walk of life, is the true American folk music. This small group of inspired musicians bang around the country, sleeping on fields and in freight cars, loving, hating and fighting. They get mixed up with racketeers, race track touts and small-time gamblers but, despite all their obstacles and problems, they accomplish the one thing they want most of all to do—play the songs that come from the soul of America.

The supporting cast includes such favorites as Lloyd Nolan, Jack Carson, Elia Kazan and Wally Ford.

FUNERAL OF YOUNG MAN

Donald Peebles Victim of Hunting Accident, Buried at Burns Lake

BURNS LAKE, Sept. 30: — On Saturday afternoon last the funeral of Donald Peebles of Francois Lake, victim of a hunting accident, was held in the United Church at Burns Lake. The funeral was a tribute to the regard in which the young man had been held in this district, a large number of friends gathering at the church to pay their last respects.

During the service, conducted by Rev. Adam Crisp, the hymns "Blest Be the Tie That Binds" and "O God Our Help in Ages Past" were sung. A solo "Come Ye Disciples" was beautifully rendered by Mrs. H. N. Camp.

Many floral tributes were placed on the casket by friends and relatives.

The pallbearers were Ed. Miller, Neil Kelly, Bill Wylie, Jack Walker, Sam Lord and Hugh Neave.

Interment took place in the Burns Lake Cemetery.

The keen sympathy of the whole district goes out to Mr. and Mrs. Peebles in the tragic loss of their eldest son Donald, and also to his two brothers and two sisters at home.

strewed in the path of the bride.

The trainbearers were Masters William and Henry Blackaby. They wore black velvet trousers buttoned over ivory satin blouses tyled with Peter Pan collar and long sleeves.

The bride's mother wore a floor-length gown of triple sheer crepe in tropic earth shade with beaded bodice, matching hat and veil and a fur jacket. Her corsage was of Talsman roses and fern.

Staff Sergeant J. R. Osborne acted as best man. The ushers' duties were performed by Corporal Clyde Cridlin and Corporal Clarence Burg.

Corporal Robert Stark was the organist and Louis Bon Bernard of the Canadian Navy rendered a solo "Entreat Me."

Leaving the church the bride and groom passed under an arch of rifles formed by the guard of honor composed of sixteen sergeants.

Following the ceremony a reception attended by seventy-five guests including many officers and men was held on Acropolis Hill. Reverend J. A. Donnell of the United Church pronounced Grace after which a delightful repast was served.
