Rommel Is Under Fire

Rehabilitation Of Service Men

Matter Deal With in Resolution Of Conservative National Convention

WINNIPEG, Dec. 11.—Steady increase in the Allied air and artillery tempo is allowing Marshal Erwin Rommel relief or chance to reorganize his forces in the El Agheila region. Bad weather in Tunisia has slowed into the ring of London's encirclements are arriving steadily for both the Allies and the Axis in anticipation of the expected offensive against Tunis and Bizerte. The Gulf of Gabat is expected to be the scene of the critical battle. Air fight continues for control of the air which must be settled before either side can make a decisive stand on land.

Allied headquarters in Africa announced today that Allied forces had beaten back two enemy columns, inflicting much heavier losses on the Axis than they had suffered themselves, in a battle fought yesterday almost to the edge of Medjez El Bab, twenty miles southwest of Tebourba. A communiqué said that one arm of the axis tanks and artillery drove within 2,000 yards of the vital communications centre but withdrew under bomb and shellfire from Allied artillery and planes. The town is about 35 miles southwest of Tunis.

A sudden shift away from the Tebourba-Mateur-Djedida triangle indicates that the weight of the Tunisian battle has veered to the southwest with the enemy apparently aiming a blow against the right flank of the main Allied front.

SEDITION CHARGED
FORT LEWIS, Washington — A young United States Army officer has been charged with sedition and subversive activity.

PREVENT EVASION
OTTAWA — Donald Gordon, chairman of the Wartime Prices and Trade Board, says one of the reasons for the new order requiring a year's notice to occupants of rented residences is to prevent evasion of regulations through fictitious sales such as have occurred at Windsor, Ontario.

Hair-Dos Take Time Women of Britain Learn

LONDON, Dec. 11.—Britain's women workers are having difficulty in finding time to attend the hairdressers and that's an important point for milady in overalls. One delegate at a meeting of the Industrial Welfare Society said women at his firm were allowed an hour off for a shampoo and set. A personnel supervisor said her firm urged women workers to have the "Liberty" cut, which did not need such long visits to the hairdressers.

PRINCESS CHRISTENS SHIP

STOCKHOLM, Dec. 11.—During a visit paid to Gothenburg by Gustaf Adolf and his wife, Princess Sibylla, son and daughter-in-law of Crown Prince Gustaf Adolf, a new motorship "Mangalore," of 7,300-deadweight tons, was christened by the Princess.

Infant Dies of Pneumonia

Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Daly Bereaved By Sudden Death of Their Little Son

William Daly, infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Daly, passed away early this morning in the Prince Rupert General Hospital. The child was taken suddenly ill with pneumonia and was rushed to hospital only last evening.

THOSE CIGARS AGAIN

MALDON, Eng., Dec. 11.—A box of Prime Minister Churchill's cigars brought $325 at a farmers' Red Cross sale in this Essex town.

William Daly, infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Daly, passed away early this morning in the Prince Rupert General Hospital. The child was taken suddenly ill with pneumonia and was rushed to hospital only last evening.

LETHAL RAIN-DROPS FROM SKIES

SPIES GO TO PRISON

Italian Count and Aides in Brazil Get From Eight to Twenty Year Terms

RIO DE JANEIRO, Dec. 11.—Count Edmond Robilant, chief of a large Italian spy ring operating in South America, and five of his aides were sentenced by a national security tribunal today to serve from eight to twenty years in prison.

TRAGEDY BY FIRE

Four Young Children Lose Their Lives Near Fort St. John in Peace River

FORT ST. JOHN, Dec. 11.—Four small children of N. L. Callison were burned to death Thursday night when fire destroyed their home at Rose Prairie, twenty-eight miles north of here.

The mother had gone across the road to a store when flames suddenly enveloped the farm house, trapping the children—the oldest six years of age and the youngest a six month old baby.

Coin Money Is Tied Up; Banks Requiring It

There is an acute shortage of silver and copper coin throughout Canada and an appeal is being issued to citizens to turn all such coin as they can spare into the banks so that it may get into circulation particularly during the Christmas rush. The Mint at Ottawa is working twenty-four hours a day and still cannot meet the demand for coin.

BUSINESS BY WHEEL

LONDON, Dec. 11.—Treasury officials who formerly travelled by car on government business now are encouraged to go by bicycle.

Japs Are Collapsing

ALLIED HEADQUARTERS, IN AUSTRALIA, Dec. 11.—Collapse of a counter-attack by Japanese ground troops trapped at Buna and confirmation of reports that the Allies have occupied all of Guina were announced today in a noon communiqué.

HELD BY WEATHER

Extreme Winter Conditions Hammer Fighting in Russia

BLIZZARD BREAKS MOSCOW, Dec. 11 (CP)—Violent fighting flamed along the broad area of the central front today with a break in the blizzard which had swept the Muscovite plains for several days while on the Stalingrad front the Red Army has made fresh progress in three sectors, the Russians reported. Resumption of big-scale operations in the snow-crusted Velikie Luki-Rzhev area, west of Moscow, was also reported to have started with heavy but ineffective German counter-attacks upon wedges driven into enemy lines in the recent Red Army offensive. These clashes were developing all along the 140-mile strip where Soviet forces now stand only ninety miles from the Latvian border.

MOSCOW, Dec. 11.—Extreme winter weather continues to slow up the great Russian counter-offensive and there is little change in the general Russo-German war situation despite heavy fighting.

The Red Army has stormed and gained further positions in the Stalingrad, Rzhev and Leluke Luk areas, the Nazis leaving further dead in the freezing snow-laden fields.

HE TALKED TOO MUCH

Voluble Prince George Man Makes Break Before Official

This is a story of a man who talked too much in a restaurant at Prince George.

A customer complained loudly when the waitress refused to give more than his allowance of sugar for his cup of coffee. From complaining about sugar he went into a general diatribe against the Wartime Prices and Trade Board generally.

He ended his outburst with the remark:

"Well, I've got three pounds of tea they don't know anything about."

A man sitting near him at the counter thereupon produced his credentials as an officer of the Wartime Prices and Trade Board and remarked:

"Now that you have made this statement in front of witnesses you had better give up that tea or turn in covering coupons from your ration book."

The local office of the Board at Prince George reports that the coupons were relinquished.

Two women patients arrived in the city from Terrace on this morning's early train and were removed by the ambulance to the Prince Rupert General Hospital. One was Mrs. J. L. Bethune who is suffering from appendicitis and the other, Mrs. Rebeycca, wife of a soldier.

WARSHIPS AT TOULON

Details of Those Which Scuttled And Those Taken Over by Germans

WASHINGTON, D.C., Dec. 11 (CP)—Secretary of the Navy Frank Knox has reported that of seventy-five ships of all types in Toulon, when the Germans moved in twenty were, apparently, left intact, fifty-one were sunk or damaged or are now unaccounted for and four escaped.

The vessels damaged—some of which may be reclaimed—includes three battleships, he said.

Vessels described as "afloat and apparently intact" included two light cruisers, three destroyers, four submarines, two gunboats, one demilitarized battleship and five tankers.

Those which escaped, as previously known, were four submarines.

MRS. EDDIE MANN DIES

Former Local Girl Passes Away in Ketchikan After Heart Attack

Mrs. Edward Mann of Nelson, daughter of Mrs. Axel Osberg of Ketchikan, died in the Ketchikan General Hospital early Monday morning after a sudden heart attack and the remains were here last evening enroute to Nelson where interment will be made. Mrs. Mann for several years lived in Prince Rupert both before and after her marriage. Many old friends will learn with regret of her death.

Mrs. Mann was 45 years of age and in apparent good health. She had been ill suddenly shortly after midnight and died about an hour later.

She had come to Ketchikan less than three weeks ago to visit her mother and was planning to return south soon to be home in time for Christmas.

Born Mae Emmons in New York state in 1893, she came to Seattle with her parents in 1909, attended school there. However, she later joined her parents in Ketchikan, then went to Stewart with them, and then to Prince Rupert. She was married in Prince Rupert about 1914. Later they moved to Nelson, where Mr. Mann is the owner of a drug store and has been prominent in civic affairs. He is head of the Masonic Lodge there this year and has headed the board of Trade for years.

Mrs. Mann is survived by her mother, by the widow in Nelson, and by three children—Marjorie, a graduate of Washington State College now a nurse in Vancouver; Roy, who is in the Royal Canadian Air Force, and Margaret, the youngest, who is attending school near Vancouver.

Tobacco To Be Limited

Restrictions Are Announced by Wartime Prices and Trade Board

OTTAWA, Dec. 11.—No new brands of tobacco products are to be allowed in Canada nor can there be any change in prices, announces the Wartime Prices and Trade Board. Minimum size packages of cigarettes and tobacco will be set. There will be no less than eighteen cigarettes to a package with a minimum of one-thirteenth of a pound of cut tobacco after April 30.

The order of the prices board requiring that cigarette packages shall contain 18, 20, 22, 24, 40 and 50 cigarettes eliminates the small packages of cigarettes and also the dime package of pipe tobacco.

CANDIDATES FOR LEADER

Bracken, Diefenbaker, MacPherson, Green and Stevens in Field At Convention Today

BRACKEN ELECTED

WINNIPEG, December 11 (CP)—Premier John Bracken of Manitoba was elected national Conservative leader on the second ballot at the convention here this afternoon.

WINNIPEG, Dec. 11 (CP)—Five candidates, all from Western Canada, were nominated last night for the leadership of the National Conservative party. They are:

Premier John Bracken, Manitoba.

John Diefenbaker, Prince Albert, Saskatchewan.

Major Murdoch MacPherson, Regina.

Howard Green, Vancouver.

Hon. H. H. Stevens, Vancouver.

The convention votes for the leader today.

Mr. Green collapsed while making his nomination speech last night. He recovered rapidly after being carried from the platform but did not finish the speech. Hon. R. L. Maitland, British Columbia Conservative leader, said the collapse would not affect Mr. Green's campaign for the party leadership.

Several Falls Of Snow; Little Real Cold Yet

SMITHERS, Dec. 11—Having had several falls of snow recently the country side is now well blanketed and it would appear that this winter will see a heavier fall than usual. No colder weather than just around the zero mark has yet been experienced and with some fine sunny days the weather on the whole has been very enjoyable in every way.

AIR FORCE RECRUITING

Both Men and Women Enlistments To Be Received Here

A complete Royal Canadian Air Force mobile recruiting unit will visit Ocean Falls and Prince Rupert. The unit will be at the hospital in Ocean Falls the afternoon of December 15 and all day December 16, and at the City Hall in Prince Rupert on the afternoon of December 18 and all day December 19.

The recruiting party will consist of two recruiting officers, a medical officer, a women's division officer and an airman, fully equipped to administer most of the tests and medical examinations necessary to enlistment for both men and women.

Membership of Union Growing

Carpenters' Local Here Passes Five Hundred Mark

The Carpenters' Local Union at Prince Rupert has now passed the 500 mark. The local controls the big jobs going on at Terrace, Smithers and Prince George. James Black, Prince Rupert business agent, is kept busy handling these jobs.

The basic rate for all northern British Columbia is now $1 per hour plus cost of living bonus.

CBC Makes Good Move...

Extension of the CBC service to Prince Rupert is a wise move, says the Vancouver News-Herald. It would be justified even in peace time to round out the national service of the Canadian Broadcasting Corporation. But in wartime it is not only desirable, but essential.

In a recent series of articles from northern B.C., the News-Herald reported the woeful lack of entertainment facilities for Canadians and Americans in the armed services. Hitherto, even full time radio facilities had been lacking.

The new move at least remedies this one great deficiency.

Protecting the Renters...

House owners who rent out their houses will feel as badly done by through the new federal regulation requiring a year's notice before tenants can be evicted as the tenants will themselves feel relieved over removal of the spectre about having their homes "sold over their heads."

On first consideration it would appear that a rather long bow is being drawn on behalf of the renters.

Certainly, the new regulation will have the tendency of very materially slowing up if not altogether paralyzing for the time being at least the sale of houses now in the hands of the renters.

Of course, if the rental charges are so established that they provide a reasonable enough return on the capital involved, the house owners may not feel themselves so badly off even if the capital may now be definitely frozen at the pleasure of the abiding tenant.

The new regulation may also be expected to further stifle any desire that might exist for the tying up of small private funds in houses for rental purposes.

The object of this regulation, like others of its kind, is, of course, to stabilize residency during these days and help in another way to increase the concentration on the war effort.

The measure is drastic and may be expected to draw forth considerable protest from the quarter which appears to be rather adversely affected.

Already some indignation has been expressed here in Prince Rupert—and, of course, some gratification.

Hospitals Hard Hit...

Maintenance of civilian hospital service under wartime conditions has become a difficult problem, chiefly through loss of staff but also through curtailment in supplies or equipment. Hospitals generally have the same problems, overcrowding of patients and decreasing facilities for carrying on services.

With few exceptions, Canadian hospitals are carrying war loads with rediced staffs not only in numbers but also in experience. Hospitals have not been classed as an essential service but have to compete with government or industry in salaries.

The curtailment of supplies has begun and will be increasingly severe until the war is over. Much of the kitchen, laundry, operating room and laboratory equipment cannot now be bought. Here in Prince Rupert it is also difficult to get full equipment. This means reduction of service to what is really essential.

The public will be keenly interested in this whole situation because of the extreme importance of hospital service being available to those who need it. It may be impossible to do anything about the shortage of hospital supplies and equipment, but it should be possible to do something about the maintenance of hospital staffs. Selective service should give attention to this great need. The hospitals provide such an essential service that they should be assisted to secure and retain employees up to their reasonable minimum requirements.

SPIRIT IS IMPORTANT

Inspirational Address by Ira Dilworth at Rotary Club Luncheon

Speaking before the Prince Rupert Rotary Club at its regular weekly luncheon yesterday, Ira Dilworth, regional representative of the Canadian Broadcasting Corporation and well known British Columbia educationist, said that he had become grieved, as another year of great struggle drew to its close, with the importance of taking stock of a number of things which were abiding and worthwhile. The tendency of the day, said Mr. Dilworth, who suggested that he might be considered to be "thinking out loud," was to become bewildered by the immediate exigencies, thus making it difficult to keep in view things of greater importance.

Quoting from Shakespeare's "Henry V" to illustrate the traditional spirit of the British people to place honor above other considerations, Mr. Dilworth declared that "we are banded together as free men proud of a spiritual heritage that has come to us down through the ages—a spirit that has sustained us at all times and in all places and will go on sustaining us, a faith that is worth dying for and worth living for."

Appropriate enough to the immediate occasion as might be such words as "Praise the Lord and Pass the Ammunition," the mechanical aspect of things could not be minimized or overlooked but neither should the spiritual and immortal things be overlooked. There was need of resourcefulness in doing things in mind and in hand. The resourcefulness of spirit must never be lost sight of if the peace is to be won and preserved. There was need of good humor, courage, determination and tolerance, attributes which were so amply depicted in England.

Possibly in this country, the speaker suggested, there was a tendency to be too grim, too serious. There was need of a glint of good humor if perspective in the long view of things was not to be lost. Nor did that imply evasion of doing one's tasks.

"I honestly believe," concluded Mr. Dilworth, "that at this juncture of the struggle we must remind ourselves over and over again of the spirit of things so that we may place ourselves in the calm and proud procession of eternal things."

the speaker, "that at this juncture of the struggle we must remind ourselves over and over again of the spirit of things so that we may place ourselves in the calm and proud procession of eternal things."

President George C. Mitchell occupied the chair and, in addition to a large attendance of Rotary members, there were guests including Lieut. Orme Stuart, George L. Bruce, G. A. Hunter, D. C. McRae, Bruce Delihal and Mr. Carpenter of Victoria.

The occasion of the birthdays of two members—R. G. Van der Sluis and L. M. Gordon—was mentioned.

W. L. Coates was winner of the weekly raffle for the Queen's Fund.

WEDDED IN VANCOUVER

Miss Muriel Collison becomes bride of Tony Badinich

Miss Muriel Elise Collison and Anthony Marcus (Tony) Badinich, a well known and highly esteemed young couple of Prince Rupert, both of whom have lived here since early childhood in the real pioneer days, were united in marriage on December 1 at St. Mary's Anglican Church in Kerrisdale, Vancouver, with Rev. J. H. Craig, the rector, officiating. The groom returned to the city this morning from the south and the bride will arrive next spring to take up residence. They will have the hearty congratulations and best wishes of many friends.

Some twenty-five or thirty persons including relatives and intimate friends attended the quiet wedding ceremony. Miss Joyce Collison, R.N., sister of the bride, was bridesmaid. Capt. Gordon Worsley was groomsman. Following the ceremony, a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Collison, 2913 Forty-Second Avenue West.

WOMEN DO FINE JOB

Right Across Canada Girls in Trousers Are Taking Men's Places

By MARGARET ECKER
Canadian Press Staff Writer

OTTAWA, Dec. 11 (P)—They look like women from Mars with grotesque helmets on their heads, blow torches in their hands. And they are daughters of Mars—Canada's women brought from their homes, their gentle office jobs to build the machines, the tanks, the ships, the guns of war.

Canadian women have put on trousers, rolled up sleeves and got grease splotches on their noses. They're doing a mighty fine war job, says Mrs. Rex Eaton, director of the women's division of the National Selective Service.

The cartoonists are having fun with women welders, lumberjacks and machinists, but Mrs. Eaton doesn't think it would be very funny for industry if the girls stayed at home, looking feminine and fragile by the fireside.

In Vancouver and Victoria, for instance, between 3,000 and 4,000 women are working in war industries alone. High up on the hull of a ship that will carry munitions to Britain or Russia, girl boilermaker welds a welder's torch.

In Burrard Dry Dock on the coast between 300 and 400 women operate cranes, steam hammers and work at riveting, welding, drilling, polishing, rope-splicing, heating rivets and passing them, too. Boeing Aircraft at Vancouver employs 1,900 women and the number will be doubled by spring.

Right Across Dominion

The story is the same the Dominion over. In a Montreal shipbuilding plant a girl operates a five-ton crane. In Pictou, N.S., women have taken over all manner of jobs in a shipyard. In Toronto women are helping build corvettes and mine-sweepers to keep the enemy from these coasts. In Halifax women are learning to make patterns for Tribal class destroyers now building, the biggest fighting craft in Canada's navy.

And now it's "lumberjills." This summer women worked in the lumbering industry all over Canada. In Hearst, Ont., French Canadian and Indian women worked as pulp-cutters, averaging a cord of pulp a day. Women took over some of the toughest jobs in Saskatchewan's largest sawmill at Crooked River. They were paid the same wages as the men. In British Columbia, more than 1,000 women are working in shingle mills and wood-working plants like planing mills and veneer and plywood factories.

Making Bomb-Thrower

The battle of Egypt is a personal thing to 100 girls working in a one-time laundry in central Ontario. They are making a secret bomb-thrower which has been an aid to British tanks advancing across the African desert.

Women aren't afraid of getting their faces dirty any more. In Florence, N.S., at the Bras d'Or mine, they work at the bankhead cleaning coal. Near Edmonton, a woman operates a tipple, device which unloads cars of coal.

At the International Nickel Co. mines at Sudbury, Ont., and Port Colborne, Ont., women are working on the surface, oiling machinery and working on the sorting belt, eliminating waste rock from the ore.

Women are working at a steel plant in Hamilton and many of them do such heavy jobs as moving bricks and mortar and cleaning up the plant yards. For Algoma Steel Corp. they work as laborers, recorders and inspectors.

Workers in skirts have even invaded the masculine stronghold of the railroad roundhouse. At railway terminals on Vancouver Island women are doing engine-wiping, boiler-watching and car inspection. They do similar jobs in Toronto railway yards as well as clean pullmans and stock up dining cars.

Construction Jobs

All over Alberta women are working as laborers on war construction jobs. Calgary women moved lumber and shovelled gravel at new hangar buildings there while women carpenters are working on houses and buildings.

Women are working as gas station attendants and garage mechanics all over Canada. They are doing a good job as taxi-drivers in every large city. In some of the coldest parts of the country they drive milk trucks and bread wagons. They're coming into their own in bakeries, replacing men as bakers. In aircraft and munitions factories they are doing yeoman service.

In rural districts they have run threshing outfits and taken over every rugged job there is to do on a farm or ranch, including the digging of drainage ditches. Civilian women as well as women in uniform are working in Canada's airports as wireless operators and meteorological observers. Women tramp wintry streets as mail carriers.

There seems no end to the jobs women are doing today to release men for active service and the heaviest jobs in war industries.

To The Electors of PRINCE RUPERT

In accepting the Ratepayers' Association nominations for the Mayoralty and Council, it is desirable that we make clear to you what policy will be followed by the nominees on the Ratepayers' slate if elected. In a particular way, we pledge ourselves to:

1. Have a thorough survey made of school facilities, to the end that extension and improvement be made as soon as practically possible.
2. Make every effort toward having improvement made in condition of city streets and bring into effect immediately the amended Traffic Bylaw as recommended by the police officials.
3. Survey the sufficiency and condition of fire-fighting equipment.
4. Examine conditions and contracts existing between the city and government authorities, with particular reference to existing sanitary arrangements, housing, school and street conditions. To take any action necessary.
5. Arrange for a thorough check-up, by competent authority, of the capacity and condition of the city's water system, particularly as regards the Woodworth Dam and the main supply line. To take any action such examination might prove necessary.
6. Review the policing program with a view of having improvement made in local conditions. Endeavor to have liquor profits bear larger portion of police costs.
7. Consider present-day needs of transportation and power supply in the Municipality and to take such action as may be deemed necessary to protect the best interests of the City.
8. Co-operate fully with the Defence Services, keeping in mind civilian needs and interests.

The greatly increased population has thrown heavy pressure on all city services, many of which have had no adequate maintenance for several years. The bringing of these services to sufficiency is a first need, to which we pledge ourselves as and when labor, material and money are available.

Permanent industry is one of the great needs of the community. Every effort will be made to foster the growth of existing industries, to encourage the establishment of new ones and to improve conditions under which those established are operating, particularly in regard to the fisheries and port facilities. The city MUST take the initiative in such matters.

Re. THE CITY MANAGER APPOINTMENT

In the interests of efficiency and harmony in staff, and to relieve the Mayor, Council and School Board of much of their routine and detail work, a city manager or superintendent will be appointed. Briefly, such an official's duties will be to supervise schools, clerical staff and the service departments. He will be responsible for the orderly operation of the city's business and would make all appointments to or dismissals from the staff, after consultation with the department heads concerned. He will at all times be responsible to the Mayor and Council.

The Mayor and Council will determine all matters relating to policy, finance, contracts and bylaws.

The Mayor and Council will serve with remuneration until the appointment of a City Manager is made, after which honorariums will be greatly reduced or eliminated entirely.

Ratepayers' Association candidates are definitely not affiliated with any other organized group nor with any particular political party. They are taxpayers who have the best interests of the city at heart.

We submit that such a plan as briefly outlined above is efficient and is in accord with the principles of Democracy. If it appeals to you, your support is solicited at the polls next Thursday, December 17.

Vesper Ceremony to Be Held in First Baptist Church

Part of a nation-wide Christmas celebration when Canadian Girls in Training from Charlottetown to Victoria, with their parents and friends, will worship together as one community, reading the familiar Christmas story, and lighting candles as a symbol of the light that came into the world at Christmas. A Christmas vesper service will be held this Sunday evening in the First Baptist Church here. Canadian Girls in Training will conduct the service. There will be carol-singing and a candle-lighting ceremony.

Part of the offering taken at the service will be contributed to the National Girls' Work Board of the Religious Education Council of Canada which sponsors the Canadian Girls in Training movement. These offerings enable the Board to carry on its work of promoting the Canadian Girls in Training movement in the Protestant churches in Canada.

TELKWA MAN PASSES AWAY

William Croteau Had Been in Bulkley Valley Thirty Years

SMITHERS, Dec. 11 — William Croteau, one of the oldest settlers in the Telkwa district, passed away in the Smithers Hospital on Monday night. He has been a farmer near Telkwa for over thirty years and was also in the real estate business there in the early days.

One son, Stuart Croteau, is in Smithers and also a brother from Nanaimo who arrived here a short time ago. Mrs. Croteau is at present in the United States.

The funeral was held in Smithers on Thursday afternoon.

ACTIVITIES OF Y.M.C.A. AND Y.W.C.A.

By DOROTHY GARBUZZ,
Hostess

I think everyone was pleased to have the "Y" dances resume Wednesday night, judging by the smiles of everyone. It was more or less of a reunion. Of course the PA system would choose that one night to die of old age or something but thanks to Mable Darling and another young lady who spelled her off at the piano the dancers had their music. The idea of stopping the dancing at 10:30 went over well with all but a few habitual late comers.

Welcome to the new crew of the new minesweeper in port. We hope they make as good use of the "Y" as the crew of the ship they replace. I know one lad, Whitey, left a broken heart or two or three behind.

Parties and dances galore on the Christmas program and none of them formal. It won't hurt to reiterate the program so date—Ontario Christmas party and dance, December 22; H.M.C.S. Chatham party and dance at the navy barracks, December 26; USO Christmas party and dance, December 28. Thanks to our dance calendar these are all nicely spaced and all junior hostesses, Red Cross Corps members and Cambrai Junior LCDE members are invited. All will meet at the "Y" as usual.

The Service Wives' Club held its weekly meeting in the family lounge at the "Y" on Thursday. Cards were the order of the day. Prizes were won by Mrs. Newell, Mrs. Aylesworth and Mrs. MacGregor and Mrs. Berthelet won the raffle donated by Mrs. Morris. Next week there will be no meeting but members are asked to help fill the bags for the boys in hospital as well as for the children's party at Mrs. Cameron's house, 418 7th Avenue West on December 16. Remember the Children's Christmas party will be Saturday week and all names must be in by this Saturday, December 12. Leave name and ages of the servicemen's children under ten years of age with Mrs. Garbutt at the "Y" as usual.

The Rebekah Lodge held a very enjoyable and successful dance in the Oddfellows' Hall Wednesday evening, about 150 being in attendance.

The hall was gaily decorated for the affair with red and green streamers bearing huge groups of many colored balloons suspended overhead. Gay bunting, tinsel and greenery throughout added quite a cheery Christmas effect to the whole setting. The fine orchestra of an Ontario regiment supplied the music and, as usual, left nothing to be desired by the dancers.

Supper was served at midnight after which much merriment was caused by the throwing of favors and release of balloons.

The committee in charge consisted of Mrs. F. D. Morrison, convener, assisted by Mrs. D. V. Smith, Mrs. A. Barbe, Mrs. E. Gardner, Mrs. D. Gell, Mrs. L. G. Hilder, Mrs. A. Peterson, Mrs. D. Owens and Mrs. N. Moorehouse. L. G. Hilder was a genial and energetic master of ceremonies.

John Eyolfson was at the door and H. Eyolfson was in charge of the check room.

Bingo Night For

Successful Affair by Catholic Ladies Wednesday Night

A very successful bingo night was held by the Catholic Ladies on Wednesday. Mrs. J. L. Blain was general convener.

In charge of the bingo games were Mrs. E. Fitzpatrick and Mrs. L. Gillies, assisted by Johnny Comadina and E. Fitzpatrick. Mrs. J. Garon and Mrs. F. Riffou conducted the hot dog stand.

During the evening a drawing was made of $10 worth of theatre tickets donated by D. G. Borland. They were won by Nancy Owens with No. 900. A second prize of $5 worth of theatre tickets was won by Mrs. J. G. Johns with ticket No. 303.

The proceeds of the evening will be used for the children's Christmas tree.

Announcement

Restrictions placed upon us by the Wartime Prices & Trade Board compel us to announce we shall be unable to put on our "Christmas Special" this year.

This practice of sending a small box of smoked fish, typical of the dominant industry of Prince Rupert, has become increasingly popular and we are very sorry we shall have to disappoint our many customers this year.

After the war, we hope we shall again be able to make this special Christmas offer available to our many friends.

SPORT CHAT

British lightweight champion Eric Boon and Jake Kilrain, former welterweight king, were mighty mad at each other when they stepped into the ring of London's Queensbury Club. Taunts had been bared since Boon knocked out Kilrain a couple of weeks earlier with a body blow that the loser declared was low. So they put on a terrific battle in the return match but Boon proved without doubt that he is the master. He couldn't quite put the Scot away but he sent him to the canvas eight times during the 10-round tilt. Victory put Boon in line for a return match with Ernie Roderick, welter titlist who gained a triumph when the two last met two years ago. Against Kilrain, a crafty ringman, Boon gave his best display in two years and critics agreed the Scot soaked up enough punishment to beat three men. Boon weighed 144 pounds nine above the lightweight limit, while Kilrain weighed in at 149.

On the same card, Jack Hyams, a London cabbie who has been boxing for 20 years, showed that experience can beat youth when he took a 10-round verdict from Pat O'Connor, Irish middleweight. In another match, Len Beynon of Wales, who in 1939 was the first soldier boxer to appear in a London ring during this war, suffered a cut right eye in his bout and the decision went to Jackie Rankin.

At Liverpool, the leading contender for the British lightweight crown handed a member of the merchant navy his first defeat in 23 professional bouts. Conceding
