WARDENS' SESSION

Was Completed For Air Raid Rehearsal On Sunday Afternoon

At a meeting of the district wardens last evening plans for action in connection with Sunday afternoon's air raid rehearsal were worked out. While the details of the various "incidents" are still a secret there was a general discussion regarding the observation of blackout regulations.

When the sirens sound all A.R.A. personnel will report to their respective headquarters or beats. Traffic will cease except for those carrying the official permits. As the "incidents" develop, the members of the various groups—police wardens, first aid, fire fighters—will deal with them according to practice. Special police will be on duty. The decontamination squad will be available. Sea Cadets will operate as runners in maintaining or supplementing other means of communication. The general public will be expected to obey all the regulations laid down in blackout orders.

At a suitable interval after the sirens sound that the "imminent danger blackout" is over, there will be a demonstration by the brigade and auxiliary fire services of the equipment they have and its effectiveness. This will be given on Third Avenue near the post office but the public is cautioned that during the imminent danger blackout they must remain in their homes so as not to interfere with the activities of the members of the civilian protection committee organization.

All district wardens were present at the meeting—J. L. MacIntosh, G. T. German, Ray Allen, G. P. Tinker, T. Boulter, J. H. McGlashan, J. E. Boddie, Severino Dominato, G. Storrie and R. B. Skinner. Mr. Wright, of the Canadian National Railways fire service was also present. J. S. Wilson was in the chair.

Reds Still On Advance

KING ASKS 'YES' VOTE HIS STAKE

Prime Minister Speaks To Canadian Nation on Subject of Plebiscite

OTTAWA, April 25: — Prime Minister William Lyon Mackenzie King, in a nation-wide address last night, again urged Canadians to vote for the affirmative in Monday's manpower plebiscite.

Mr. King said that discussion of the plebiscite had revealed how little some regarded the gravity of the situation, how easily some were being led astray by appeals for a "No" vote.

"Those who say vote 'No' are misleading you," asserted the Prime Minister. Those who said to vote "No" were in no way helping this country, were merely helping the enemy. Those who voted "Yes" would be helping Canada.

The issue was not one of conscription, declared Mr. King, but to give Parliament and the government a free hand.

The plebiscite offered a great opportunity to show national unity of the Dominion. It was desirable to demonstrate this unity in unmistakable terms not only to the enemy but to the Allies, particularly to the United States.

The walls and floor of the emergency hospital are now being put in.

Shelter for auxiliary fire-fighting equipment is available and erection will be proceeded with.

The demolition squad requires a building where the final stages of the process may be carried out and steps are being taken to find such a place.

Extra kits have been ordered for the first aid sections.

Sea Cadets will be available for communications in Sunday afternoon's air raid rehearsal.

With regard to the building which had been assigned first to the local museum board, authority had now been received to use it as an A.R.P. station. In it will also be housed a health unit which has been authorized by the Provincial Board of Health.

It was agreed to discontinue the broadcasts over CFFP which various members of the committee and helpers had given. Thanks were expressed to the local station for their splendid co-operation at all times.

Once again the need for official cars to make application for permits to run during an imminent danger blackout was emphasized. Individuals will not be permitted to use cars during imminent danger blackout without the official permit.

The executive approved of the plans for the air-raid rehearsal on Sunday next. Some time after the sirens sound that the imminent danger is over there will be a demonstration of fire fighting equipment in front of the post office.

HEALTH CENTRE

Provincial Government Unit, Coming Here, To Centralize Important Services

A public health centre is to be established in Prince Rupert. A message received yesterday afternoon by City Commissioner D. J. Matheson from Hon. A. Wells Gray, minister of municipalities, stated that a public health unit was being sent here. Civic cooperation is sought with the assurance that the cost will be no more than $600 in excess of what is already being spent by the city annually on public health services. The minister, in his message, expressed the hope that an improvement in general health conditions due to increased population would be the result of the establishment of the centre in Prince Rupert.

While details of the public health centre were not available as yet at the city hall this morning, the understanding is that it will centralize, under the direction of a medical man, such services as medical health officer, public health nursing, school inspection and sanitary inspection. A number of pressing health problems, it is hoped, will be simplified as a result.

Headquarters of the public health centre will be in the old armory building on Second Avenue which was more lately used for museum purposes.

PROGRESS OF A.R.P.

Various Phases of Civilian Protection Organization Are Reported Upon

Little, was in his chair and others present were Inspector Ernest Gammon, J. S. Wilson, Lieutenant Ralph Thistle, H. T. Lock, F. N. Good, Arnold Flaten, Angus MacDonald, Dr. N. M. Carter, St. John's Ambulance Association, and A. M. Davies, secretary.

The walls and floor of the emergency hospital are now being put in.

Shelter for auxiliary fire-fighting equipment is available and erection will be proceeded with.

The demolition squad requires a building where the final stages of the process may be carried out and steps are being taken to find such a place.

JOIN FOR 'YES' VOTE

Prominent Liberals, Conservatives and C. C. F'ers Get Together In Vancouver

VANCOUVER, April 25 — Senator and A. deB. McPhillips, prominent Liberal, C. C. F'er and Conservative respectively, joined in speaking under the auspices of the Vancouver Board of Trade yesterday to urge an affirmative vote in the federal manpower plebiscite on Monday.

"More harm can be done to Canada by a negative vote than by Japanese bombing," declared Faris. "Voting 'no' or staying at home will both give comfort to the enemy."

Sea Cadets will be available for communications in Sunday afternoon's air raid rehearsal.

With regard to the building which had been assigned first to the local museum board, authority had now been received to use it as an A.R.P. station. In it will also be housed a health unit which has been authorized by the Provincial Board of Health.

BIG PORT ON BALTIK BATTERED

Successive Nocturnal Raids by R.A.F. Surpass Luftwaffe's Worst —Exeter Is Bombed

LONDON, April 25 (Canadian Press) — Rostock was battered fiercely overnight in the second successive 1,000-mile round-trip by the Royal Air Force against the big German war aircraft plant and shipping centre on the Baltic Coast. British authorities estimated today that more than four thousand tons of explosives had been dropped in the two attacks on Rostock. Smashes at Rostock surpassed anything the German air force has ever dealt out to Britain. The Air Ministry said that British fliers had blasted the Heinkel aircraft works with heavy bombs and left huge fires flaring in Rostock's Neptune yards.

Rostock was one of a series of night operations and Royal Air Force squadrons took to the air again by daylight to strike at Nazi bases across the English Channel. In a reprisal raid last night Nazi dive bombers heavily attacked an English city which the German High command identified as the cathedral town of Exeter. At least twelve persons were killed and hundreds left homeless.

Sergeant R. W. Taylor of Victoria was among Canadians participating in the Rostock raid.

During daylight yesterday the British fliers dealt heavy blows at docks and shipping at Flushing in occupied Holland. Squadron after squadron of British planes engaged in the attack, fighters engaging the German defenders at great height while the bombers got in their heavy work below. Nine British fighters failed to return and five of the enemy were brought down in combat. All the British bombers got

EDITORIAL*Vote and Vote "Yes"...

We have been doing what we can to urge a "Yes" vote in the manpower plebiscite on the coming Monday. At the risk of appearing repetitious we make this final appeal to the people of Prince Rupert to give their answer in an overwhelming affirmative.

The ballot paper asks "are you in favor of releasing the government from any obligation arising out of any past commitments restricting the methods of raising men for military service?" In discussion of the referendum however, the question of the plebiscite has assumed much broader implications. While the ballot paper does not say as much, the question implied in the plebiscite has come to be accepted as whether or not Canada is in favor of a total war effort.

We may or may not admire the action of the government in putting the question before the people when it might have taken the necessary action itself but, now it is being asked, there appears to us to be only one way for all loyal Canadians to answer and that answer, we say, is "Yes."

There is reason to believe that there has been strong, if under cover, campaigning for a "No" vote. Possibly many people have been unwittingly led away from the issue by red herrings and subtle propaganda. Some, of course, may welcome an excuse to vote against a total war effort.

Certainly, those who feel critical of the government and its war effort can by no stretch of the imagination feel that they will be hurting the government by voting "No." Such a vote would only be asking for a continuation of the lethargy and inefficiency with which some accuse the government of so far pursuing the war effort. Those who are critical of the government should be the most keen to put the government "on the spot" by voting affirmative.

There are some who fear that many who would vote "Yes" may be pathetic and just fail to turn out and vote. Those who have not sufficient sense of responsibility to see that they vote on this very important matter are certainly not very estimable citizens in this time of crisis. It would be difficult to understand such crass disinterestedness or indifference—such lack of responsibility of citizenship.

Again let us urge everybody to turn out and vote and for obvious reasons, vote "Yes." Let us in Prince Rupert, who feel that we are doing so much in the war effort, show emphatically by our votes where we stand.

The Horticultural Society...

It is very gratifying to see the Prince Rupert Horticultural Society, in spite of activities and distractions of these busy war days, deciding to carry on—even though its functions may be on a curtailed basis.

Even if the Horticultural Society does nothing more in the meantime than to maintain the community of interest among gardeners, it is well worthwhile for it to keep going. With much community development and transformation, it is all the more important that the gardens should keep pace and in this connection the Horticultural Society can carry out a very important function.

The Horticultural Society has already played a leading part in civic improvement through encouraging activity and interest in gardening. There is even more important work for it to do in the future. Evidently, the members appreciate this deciding to carry on.

Letter Box*"GOTT UND VOLK".Editor,
Daily News:

A certain book under the above title is published and distributed among the people of Germany in large and repeated editions. The purpose of the book is to make clear to the people the new relation between Nazism and Christianity. It is not known if the book is published by the Nazi leaders as such. It is plain, however, that the publication and large distribution of the book have the support of the Nazi leaders.

The undersigned has made translation of a few very striking and telling statements found in the book. The statements are pointed and appear with the precision and definiteness of the New Order:

"We Germans are the first to be called by fate to break with Christianity. The church has had time to begin the amalgamation of mankind into one higher and purer and constantly rising race. A thousand ties bind us to the Christian Church. But, one stroke shall set us free.—To make the Germans strong and ripe for this stroke is now our most holy aim.

"Wherever there is fighting for the German soul, there also are two lines of battle. These battle lines are clear: One is called "The Christian Church"—the other is called "Germany".—There is no third line. And there is no compromise.

"We are those who attack. The front of the Cross has one strong wing and one weak wing. The strong wing is Roman Catholicism. The weak wing is Protestantism.—We fight both.

"We do not intend to tear down the cathedrals. We will fill them with a new spirit. The suffering, agony-twisted image of the Crucified shall disappear. Our heroes shall carry the sword in hand, instead of the cross on the back.

"Regarding baptism and confirmation, we declare: We will adopt the newborn children into the National communion—not as Catholics not as Protestants, but as Germans.

"Regarding marriage: In the future there will be only one German marriage rite. That will not take place in the name of the church.

"Regarding the Bible: Take the Old Testament and burn it in the Holy Places. —(The Church) — Thank God for the Fuehrer.

"Regarding civilization: The age of the Christian civilization is at an end. Only German civilization has significance from now on.

"We are Germans, therefore can not be Christians. The Germans have had two loyalties, one earthly and one heavenly. As long as a German has two masters, he can not find the way to eternity. From now on a German has only one—the Fuehrer, not the Savior.

"Regarding education of the children and the young: Each day and hour that our youth spend in church are lost. We have as our aim to instruct the young how to tear the Christian faith out of their hearts. Only Germany has room there.

"How do we intend to instruct our children? Only as if they had never heard of Christianity."

No commentary to the statement is necessary. What Nazism is doing in Norway these days proves conclusively that the ideologies enunciated in the book mentioned are definitely and brutally put into practice.

LEGION AND PLEBISCITEEditor,
Daily News:

The Canadian Legion does not agree that the forthcoming plebiscite is necessary but the government of Canada has decided there shall be one and the Legion is working for and voting "yes" 100 percent.

So far as the Legion is concerned in the plebiscite, we are not interested in party politics but are profoundly concerned about winning this war.

In October 1941 the Dominion Command of the Legion got out a program for "Total War" and urged the government to accept it. Some of its features have been acted upon but the whole program cannot become operative unless a "yes" vote prevails.

Contrary to what some people think, voting "yes" is neither an endorsement nor condemnation of Mr. Mackenzie King but a means of saving ourselves from destruction. If we are to win this war, we do not mean winning the war for Winston Churchill or Mackenzie King, but for ourselves. To preserve our own lives, the lives and freedom of our children, then we must have "Total War".

Total war means every man and woman must contribute to the maximum of their capacity in such positions as they are best qualified to fill. It means co-operation between the workers and management in the production of munitions and other war necessities. It means compulsory loans without interest. It means profit must be taken out of our war effort. It means our fighting forces must be sent anywhere to fight the enemy where they can be fought to our best advantage and that an intelligent form of enlistment must be by selection and not as present (for forces outside Canada) by the haphazard method of volunteer enlistments. Why not?

Australia has declared for and is working towards "Total War". Great Britain is moving in the same direction. China is second only to the Soviet Union war program and Russia has had a 100 per cent total war policy in effect since the first day Hitler's hordes invaded that country.

The Canadian Legion believes we can win this war only by all the Allies adopting the principle of total war. Our special interest is in Canada's program and at present Canada is not pulling her full weight.

If it were just another war where the victors change national boundaries and set huge indemnities for the defeated to pay, the Legion would not be taking any part in it but this is a war with only two possible endings. We either end up as free peoples or fascist slaves.

If we have any doubt about the fate that awaits us if we do not win then let us look at the plight of the peoples in the conquered countries. Let us remember Hong Kong where defenceless men were bayoneted to death and women maimed.

Let us not be led astray by smoke screens or rumors of confusion emanating from ignorance or fifth columnists, but rather let us do our duty by voting "yes", then demanding Total War and Victory.

CANADIAN LEGION.

WORKERS VOTE "YES".

Editor.

Daily News:

Last night's headlines which raised the possibility of an Allied invasion of Europe were very welcome and it is hoped they will become reality in the near future. The way to victory in 1942, not 1943 or 1944, as Donald Nelson would say, is to open the second front in Europe, to crush Hitler between the Red Army and that of Britain and the United States.

Gen. McNaughton has indicated that Canadian troops overseas are "a dagger pointed at the heart of Berlin". Before this dagger can be plunged home it must be assured of replacements. Canada must go on a total war basis if we are to play our part in safeguarding our homes, trade unions, education, our hopes for the future, none of which would survive a Fascist victory.

That is why the Youth Committee is calling on the young workers in Prince Rupert to go to the polls on Monday and vote "YES" for the kind of Canada they believe in, a Canada they will never see if Hitler triumphs. As usual, the Quislings and Fifth Columnists have sown the seeds of confusion. They would have some of us believe that this is a political issue and that the way to protest against what we don't like is to vote "NO". Nothing could be further from the truth. It is the "YES" vote, the vote for action, that exposes inefficiency and corruption where it exists. A "NO" vote is a vote for Hitler and his friends, the Quislings and Fifth Columnists, who do not want total war against the Axis but prefer to have us wait for invasion in our own countries so that they may pick us off one by one.

A "YES" vote is a vote for peace, for freedom and for security.

Halibut Fishing Season Off To Slow

Start—Bad Weather Reason—

Salmon Fishing Also Held Up

Extremely unfavorable weather prevailing at sea during the first ten days following the opening of the season has caused a slow start for 1942 halibut fishing out of Prince Rupert. While many vessels of the fleet cleared with the intention of being on the banks for the legal opening date on April 15 the majority of them had to take shelter on the way out and stay there for several days. The result is that the second half of the fleet which had held back for eight days following the departure of the first has caught up with the latter. Therefore, a glut of landings is expected to ensue with many of the boats coming in to market about the same time, probably within the coming week. The first boat to sell halibut at the Prince Rupert Fish Exchange this season was the Ketchikan vessel Pearl which disposed of 10,000 pounds on Wednesday, receiving the high price of 19.1c and 17.1c. On Friday the first Canadian fish was sold on the Exchange, 17,800 pounds having been brought in by three boats, receiving 14.5c and 12c to 14.7c and 12c. The same day four American boats landed 55,500 pounds for 15c and 12c to 15.5c and 12c. The Whiz Fish Co., which has established a buying branch at Prince Rupert, purchased its first halibut yesterday. The first week's halibut landings at Prince Rupert this season totalled but 80,900 pounds. This figure is negligible when compared with 1,844,400 pounds which had been landed up to a corresponding date last year.

C. S. Salter, manager of the Canadian Fishing Co.'s salmon cannery at Carlisle on the Skeena River, was here aboard the steamer Cardena last night enroute to the river from Vancouver. Carlisle, like other canneries in this district is now being put in readiness for the 1942 season's operations.

Having come direct here from Kitimat where she made her monthly call while coming north from Vancouver, Union steamer Cardena, Capt. John Boden, reached port at 10:15 last night from the south and, after discharging a larger freight cargo than usual here, sailed at 4 o'clock this morning to make her calls in the Skeena River today before proceeding on her return to Vancouver. The vessel was expected to get away from the Skeena this afternoon.

The unfavorable weather has been holding up salmon as well as halibut fishing operations. Trollers have now moved out to the grounds and camps are being established. Landings are, however, light so far. Prices have been quite satisfactory so far.

UNITED IN MARRIAGE

Miss Patricia Wiggins Becomes
Bride of Corn. James Godfrey
Hilder

A very quiet but beautiful wedding was solemnized last evening at 7:30 in the vestry of St. Andrew's Anglican Cathedral when Patricia Gorman Wiggins, younger daughter of Mrs. L. Wiggins and the late Robert Wiggins of this city became the bride of James Godfrey, younger son of Mr. and Mrs. F. Hilder of Vancouver. Padre Brown officiated.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her mother, looked charming in a heaven blue ensemble with navy accessories and a corsage of sweetheart roses and white heather.

Miss Joan Wiggins, who attended her sister as bridesmaid, wore Florida tan jersey with chestnut brown accessories and corsage of pink carnations.

Sgt. Andrew Akkerman of the Royal Canadian Corps of Signals was groomsman.

Mrs. Wiggins, gowned in navy blue sheer with corsage of rose pink carnations, received the best wishes of their many friends under an arch of pink and white rosebuds from which was suspended a large white wedding bell.

The bride's table, which was covered with an ercu lace cloth and centred with a silver basket of pale pink carnations and white tapers in silver sconces, held the beautiful three-tier wedding cake which was duly cut by the bride.

The toast to the bride was proposed by Sgt. Major Cowgill to which the groom made a suitable response while the toast to the bridesmaid was proposed by Cpl. Norman Creighton and responded to by Sgt. A. Akkerman.

Mrs. F. R. Hunter, aunt of the bride and Mrs. A. J. Phillipson poured while the serviteurs were Mrs. E. Brock, Miss B. Eastman and Miss B. Barber.

The bride, who was born and educated in Prince Rupert, has been a member of the staff of the local telephone exchange and the groom is a corporal in the Royal Canadian Corps of Signals.

The happy couple sailed later in the evening on a two-weeks honeymoon trip to Vancouver and elsewhere in the south after which they will return here to take up residence at 1144 Second Ave.
