Surgery Case Before Court

Recovering Youth Tells How Older Man Allegedly Counseled Him to Offence

Testifying at the preliminary hearing of Ernest "Blackie" Burke, who was committed for trial on a charge of counselling youth to commit forgery, George F. Robertson, whose name is Burnaby, and who is serving sentence on the forgery charge, and for making false statements under the National Registration regulations last night, admitted that, on the advice of Burke, he had forged the name of George F. Robertson to a check which he had received by mistake in the mail. Also on the advice of Burke he had taken out a registration card in that name to facilitate enterprise. The check and registration card had been cashed at a local bank by a friend of Burke.

Robertson claimed that he had received no money from the transaction but had later received a small sum from Burke which enabled him to return to Vancouver.

Prosecutor was W. O. Fulton and T. W. Brown appeared for defence.

ISOLATION HOSPITAL

New Plan for Operation by General Hospital for City Adopted

A new arrangement for the operation of the isolation hospital is being entered into between the city council and hospital board. The plan, submitted by Dr. R. G. Knipe, director of the public health unit, provides for staffing and supervision of the isolation hospital by the general hospital, the city to make necessary repairs and alterations to the building and to pay to the hospital board $10 per day while the hospital is occupied, also assuming charges for fuel, light, telephone and water. The hospital will collect accounts from the inmates and the collections will be divided between hospital and city on a basis to be called for. Tenders are to be called for alterations and repairs.
The new plan for isolation hospital operation was adopted by the city council last night on recommendation of the health committee.

The city of Halifax had a letter before the local city council last night telling of financial assistance it had been able to obtain from the federal government in connection with municipal health services necessitated by increased wartime population. The federal aid is contingent upon a considerable measure of expenditure by the city of Halifax itself.

Daily News In Eight Columns Instead of Seven; Conserve And Improvement Is Dual Aim

In the interests of improvement of service and at the same time conserving space and materials in these war times, the Daily News today appears as an eight-column instead of a seven-column newspaper.

It is the hope of the Daily News that the change will be acceptable to our steadily increasing number of readers and that, as time goes on, we will be able to increase the measure of our service and interest with possibly some additional features, including pictures.

One of the advantages of the change will also be making it possible for us to give better display to advertising matter.

The imposition of a newsprint ration, making it necessary to conserve use of paper is one of the actuating factors in the change starting today.

Martial Law For Detroit

United States Army Takes Over Control of City to Put Down Wild Race Disorders

DETROIT, June 22—The city of Detroit was placed under martial law at 10 o'clock Monday night after the civilian police had been unable to put down wild race riots between whites and negroes. President Roosevelt ordered the Army. Early this morning order seemed to have been restored.

Governor Harry Kelly has arrived in Detroit and a battalion of military police from Fort Custer has reached the city.

Twenty-three persons have been killed and 700 injured. Six hundred arrests have been made.

One of the latest incidents was the burning of two negro homes by white men. There has been indiscriminate hoodlumism by young people. Under the martial law edict, the two million people of the city must be off the streets by 10 p.m. nightly, all places of amusement must close at 9 p.m. and all sale of alcoholic beverages is banned.

Of the 23 killed up to last night 20 were negroes, one a woman. The three white men killed included one doctor who was pulled from his car while attending a call.

DAILY EDITION  Tuesday, June 22, 1943

Looking Ahead . . .

By next December 10 the present world conflict will have run exactly the time of the Great War of 1914-1918. It is more than doubtful if December 10, 1943, will see another armistice—we have not yet progressed that far, but we will undoubtedly be much closer to the triumphant termination of the struggle than we are at present. The great victory of our armed forces in North Africa, the increased tempo of the air attacks on the "Fortress of Europe" and the continued stubborn resistance of the gallant Russians leave no doubt in anyone's mind as to the eventual outcome of the war. We can be satisfied on these points.

What we must start to think of is the sort of reception we will give our soldiers when they return home. It is not the purpose of this article to discuss the economic world which will await them, but merely the kind of welcome they should be accorded. What sacrifices, in this respect, could be too great to make for these men who have given the best years of their lives, their blood and their sweat, and their labor that life may be made safe for us in Canada? What could we possibly do that would be too much for them?

It is questions such as these that the average Canadian citizen should be asking himself, now, when our soldiers are still continuing their battle against the forces of evil. It is now that we should be planning the way in which we will welcome the returning heroes. Let there be no chance that a charge of ingratitude or careless apathy be laid at our doors when this war is over. Let us not be an illustration of the truth of Rudyard Kipling's poem, "Tommy Atkins," in which the civilian population is shown to be contemptuous of the soldier when peace reigns.

This, admittedly, is planning ahead—but necessary planning. As far as the present is concerned, we should make every effort to make things easier for our boys overseas.

Send them all the little luxuries of life possible—cigarettes, food, clothing and, of course, mail. Next to food and ammunition, nothing is more important to boys away from home.

Censoring the News . . .

The Daily News has been accused of bending backwards to accommodate the military authorities in regard to the non-publication of news which might be of value to the enemy. Prince Rupert people through the silence of the press, refrain from publication of projects and events which a few years ago would have rated the greatest of headlines, have become used to seeing big things going on all around them without reading in their papers about them.

It has been a condition of affairs about which the newspapers here have not been happy although we have been induced to remain silent on the strength of the argument that it might be harmful to our own case and useful to that of the enemy to reveal many things.

Nor is it conducive to making us any the more contented when, through some special dispensation on the part of the censors, we see stories and pictures in the big Toronto and Vancouver papers the like of which we have been discouraged from printing—stories and pictures even of our own neighborhood.

It's interesting to know when reading the Daily News that the people of the whole district are doing the same.

CONCERT BY NAVY

Fine Show Staged Sunday Night By Boys of Minesweeper

(By Dorothy Garbutt)

It's really too bad, when the boys of a minesweeper stage a grand show as they did Sunday night, that I can't come right out and say the name of their hip and thus give credit where credit is due. But Security forbids. The boys worked hard and, by the time they came into port, had everything ready and with very little rehearsal ashore went right into their act.

The boys were introduced by Cleaver Wilson, disguised as a sailor, and what a sailor. The trousers of his suit were so long it might easily be said he tripped in and out of the wings with the greatest of ease. In fact he outtrilled Gypsy Rose Lee as a trip tease artist. (Corn, worthy of the great McClelland himself). Opening with their theme song, "Anchors Aweigh" the Three and a Half Balls of Fire, Chick Wiebe, Larry Sawatsky, Art Ralph and Glenn Harlow, next played a rousing "Beer Barrel Polka."

Ivan Mallett, the YMCA supervisor to the Navy, sang "Bells of the Sea" and "Forgotten" very pleasingly. His accompanist was Mrs. Osborne.

To vary the all male cast Marie Boulter danced a trim little "Top Hat Taps." Marie has a smart sense of humor which she manages to cleverly insert into her dancing and her costumes are charming.

Four numbers were the next offerings of the "Three and a Half Balls of Fire"—"Somebody Else is Taking My Place," a novelty character song "When Pa Was Courtin' Ma," the lovely "La Paloma" and by very popular request "The Bello Chasse Lam."

much as we enjoy getting and Chick's grin is highly infectious. It was Chick's turn as soloist next and he improvised very beautifully the old favorites—"Pennies From Heaven," "Tonight We Love," "I'll See You Again" and "Smoke Gets In Your Eyes."

As special guest artist of the evening, Flight Sergeant Tommy Lennon of the R.C.A.F. sang "Tommy Lad," "Johnny Doughboy" and "Danny Boy." Shades of Chauncey Olcott and Fiske O'Hara but that boy has one of those Irish tenor voices that tear your heart strings apart and make them go zing!

As solo accordionist Art Ralph entertained with a medley of Swedish folk songs, a Swedish Schottische and, as a very popular encore, "Twelfth Street Rag." Next came the sad ballad of the feud between those wild mountain boys "The Martins and the Coys" which Glenn Harlow told us in all its gory detail, followed by "The Sailors Alphabet," a unique sea chantey. Larry Sawatsky, accompanied by Chick Wiebe on the accordion, sang and played "Ridin' Down the Canyon." Larry is by way of being quite a yodeller and puts over a cowboy ballad in good style. The finale was by the "Three and a Half Balls of Fire."

It was a first rate concert and the enthusiasm and co-operation on the part of these lads is worthy of our praise and thanks.

This new club will answer a long felt need for a recreation and relaxation centre for American officers in this district.

Smile

When you go around feeling blue To better yourself, you cannot do.

The world against you seems to be. All kinds of troubles you seem to see.

You go to a mirror anywhere, And look at the person that is there.

That person you'll find is also blue, Waiting on a smile just from you.

Just give a smile, one or two, That person will smile right back at you.

That person's blues then you'll say, If I keep smiling they'll stay away.

So within yourself keep a little smile, You'll find this always to be worthwhile.

When the world against you seems to be, It's only within yourself you see.

LETTERBOX

ONLY GOOD FOOD

Editor, Daily News:

It's hard to believe in a time like this that such a thing as giving men decent food should stand as an obstacle before the building of ships which are needed to carry vital war supplies. To me and others it's nearly unbelievable. I think as well as others that certain so-called gentlemen who make themselves out to be democratic ought to be fully ashamed of themselves if they ever go out into public and talk about democratic rights.

We have listened to democracy preached till one's head is full of it but we are still wondering what it's all about. I guess we must be very dumb. I wonder why it's not tried out once or twice. Here is a good time to experiment with it. We would like to see how it works. I would not be surprised if the men in the yard fell for it first chance if the experiment was tried out on their stomachs.

This condition which still exists has been demoralizing our war effort for months. We are always hearing what the post-war world is going to be like. If things are not any better run they are here we have a wonderful future ahead. I call upon the people of Prince Rupert to give their support to matter. All we men ask for is a fair chance and we shall be regardless of what certain democratic gentlemen think. I would like to hear about this matter. Surely there are some people who are for justice I would like to hear some of our so-called democratic gentlemen. I might sooner than I think. Maybe I don't know what I am talking about but I believe in live and learn or experience the latter runs into kinds of channels, some of these being pretty muddy. Others are out for a big per cent war effort. We are asked to give it. We are asked to give it. If we are asked to give it that means you know what that means. I heard a remark the other day which I thought was a joke. One fellow said to another: "If Mussolini beat this, even hard pressed as he is, he would rush out to people and shout 'long live democracy!' don't give in! We still have a chance."
