

DECLARATION BY CHURCHILL, ROOSEVELT AND STALIN MADE

Plan for Smashing Germany From Three Sides Perfected; Peace Era Is Also Charted

CAIRO, Dec. 6 (CP)—Prime Minister Winston Churchill, President Franklin D. Roosevelt and Premier Joseph Stalin have agreed completely on the scope and timing of operations "to smash the German army from three sides," an announcement signed by the three statesmen after an epic four-day meeting in Teheran and released today disclosed. The Allied leaders also chartered a peace era in which all nations would be invited to join "a world family of democratic nations" as on reaffirmed principles of the Atlantic Charter.

The history-making conference of heads of the world's most powerful military and political combine was held in the Iranian capital November 28-December 1 and was attended by scores of top flight military chieftains and diplomats.

Heavily underscoring the urgency of the military phase, the combined British, American and general staffs subsequently met in Cairo, scene of the November 22-23 meeting of Generalissimo Chiang Kai-Shek and Roosevelt, and staged concentrated planning sessions from Friday through today. Churchill joined in these and other sessions.

Leading to the probability that other disclosures of paramount international importance are still to come Roosevelt's whereabouts since the Teheran conference are undisclosed.

THE DECLARATIONS

Two Teheran declarations were signed simply: "Roosevelt, Stalin, Churchill"—and announced these results:

War—"Our military staffs have joined in our round table discussions and we have concerted our plans for the destruction of the German forces. We have reached complete agreement as to the scope and timing of operations which will be undertaken from east, west and south. The common understanding we have reached guarantees that victory will be ours. No power on earth can prevent our destroying the German armies by land, their U-boats by sea and their war plants from the air. Our attacks will be relentless and increasing."

Peace—"We are sure that our concord will make it an enduring peace. We recognize fully the supreme responsibility resting upon us and all United Nations to make a peace which will demand goodwill of overwhelming masses of peoples of the world and banish the scourge and terror of war for many generations. We shall seek co-operation and active participation of all nations large and small whose peoples in heart and mind are dedicated, as are our own peoples, to elimination of tyranny and slavery, oppression and intolerance. We will welcome them as they may choose to come into the world family of democratic nations unquote."

COUNCIL IS IN SESSION

Post-war Rehabilitation Committee is Hearing Local Representations Today.

Consisting of the chairman, Hon. H. G. Perry, and other members in the persons of J. A. Paton of Vancouver, Harold Winch of Vancouver and E. T. Kenney of Terrace, each members of the legislature, a special committee of the provincial Post-war Rehabilitation Council is in session at the city council chamber today to hear local representations. This morning a memorandum on behalf of the city council was presented by Mayor W. M. Watts, the school board submitting a memorandum at noon. This afternoon a joint memorandum of the Prince Rupert Senior and Junior Chambers of Commerce is being submitted to be followed by a brief from the Boilermakers' and Iron Shipbuilders' Union advocating the establishment of a steel mill.

At the opening session this morning, Mayor W. M. Watts welcomed the committee to Prince Rupert. The city was happy, said the mayor, that the committee had seen fit to accept the invitation to meet here as it had long desired to make representations. Prince Rupert was the centre of a vast area of resources and it was a proper venue for the session. The memorandum which was being submitted would deal in a general way with a post-war program of developments here. It was hoped that opportunity might be forthcoming later for further and more detailed representations.

Later the chairman, Mr. Perry, acknowledged the mayor's welcome and told of the purposes and objectives of the council. Activities of the council here included a civic luncheon at noon followed by a tour of the city with the mayor. This evening a dinner meeting of the Prince Rupert Chamber of Commerce will be attended.

Ham Antonelli, who has been here for the past few weeks in connection with fight promotion, leaves tonight on his return to Vancouver. His protegee, Phil Palmer of Vancouver, leaves tomorrow for the south.

Steel Mill Advocated

Local Boilermakers' Union Having Petition Circulated

A petition urging the establishment of a steel industry in British Columbia has been drawn up by the Prince Rupert local of the Boilermakers' and Iron Shipbuilders' Union which intends to have it circulated for endorsement by various groups and organizations in this and other communities.

Citing such benefits as the opening up of the known enormous deposits of iron ore in the province and the expansion and development of the manufacture of steel wares, the petition points out such ancillary advantages as the stimulation of the coal mining and power industries, and a host of the building trades which would profit by the erection of new industries.

The petition states that the immediate construction of a steel mill on the coast would further the wartime construction of steel ships after the war.

It will be sent for endorsement to the Prince Rupert Chamber of Commerce, the Canadian Legion, the city Council and to industrial groups in the city.

It will also be sent to Vancouver and Victoria and other communities which will be urged to set up petitions of their own similar purpose.

Ground Hog Railway Plan

N. Bird of the Civic Labor Federation appeared before the Post-war Rehabilitation Council this morning advocating a rail-field to Stewart as a recon-struction measure.

Count Ciano Is Executed

LONDON, Dec. 6 (AP)—A Reuters dispatch from the Swiss-Italian frontier said today that Count Ciano, former Fascist foreign minister of Italy and Benito Mussolini's son-in-law, was shot this morning by a firing squad, according to reports reaching the frontier. The report did not make it clear but presumably any such execution would be under direction of German authorities.

RED ARMY MOVES ON

LONDON, Dec. 6 (AP)—Smashing ahead northeast of Propolsk, the Red Army today was threatening Mogiliv, one of the last important German held rail centres in White Russia as other Russian units squeezed Nazi defence lines near Zhlobin and Rogachev in the Gomel area.

First to File Nomination

Mrs. Myrtle Roper, 1140 Sixth Avenue East, is the first candidate to formally enter the field for municipal election honors by filing of nomination papers. She is a candidate for the board of school trustees as a standard bearer of the Civic Labor Federation. Her proposer is Ald. George Hills and seconder Ald. T. H. Sorensen. Mrs. Roper is at present on a trip to Vancouver and filed her nomination papers before she left.

Cost of Living Bonus Policy Changed

Government Loans At Low Interest Are Proposed To Rehabilitate Facilities

The recommendation that the governments involved in the wartime depreciation of public utilities and services in Prince Rupert and other communities along the northern Canadian National line advance money at a low rate of interest to rehabilitate those facilities and services was an outstanding item in brief laid before the Provincial Rehabilitation Council by a joint committee of the Junior and Senior Chambers of Commerce this afternoon.

Burdened with wartime overloads, the public facilities, which, in normal times would have supplied the permanent citizens of these communities amply for a considerable number of years, are being worn out without recompense and will have to be replaced in whole or in part before or after the end of the war, the brief states.

It also suggested that, of the money advanced to return these utilities to peak performance, a substantial part of it be written off immediately by the governments in order to pay for their use of the services and to cover increased costs due to the higher cost of labor and material as compared with pre-war levels. Many private companies, faced with the inability to get labor and materials, are compelled to defer maintenance of their properties, and because of high taxation, are not able to build up capital reservoirs to do it at a later date. Thus, the memorandum states, if allowances were made in taxation for deferred maintenance, these companies could be assured of rehabilitating their properties after the war. (Continued on Page 3)

LONDON, Dec. 6 (AP)—Canadian soldiers are doing their part in Britain's "Save Fuel" campaign. Sawdust which they used to pay people to cart away now is being used to keep huts warm at base camps.

Collective Bargaining to Be Made Compulsory—Plans for Ensuring Nation Minimum of Security After War.

OTTAWA, Dec. 6 (AP)—The present cost of living bonus will be added to basic wage rates and there will be no occasion for further bonuses, Prime Minister William Lyon Mackenzie King announced Saturday night. He said that a revised wage control order will be announced this week.

The Prime Minister also announced a new code providing for compulsory collective bargaining being established including formation of a national war labor relations board separate from existing boards.

The government will accept main proposals approved in majority and minority reports of the National War Labor Board's public inquiry as "basis for revised labor policy." These reports have not yet been published.

The government believes it can hold the cost of living at the present level but, if the cost of living rises more than three per cent and remains at that level for two consecutive months, the government will review the whole program of price and wage control and take "appropriate action."

Mr. King said that plans for

ADVANCE IN ITALY KEPT UP STEADY

ALGIERS, Dec. 6 (AP)—The Anglo-American Fifth Army, by-passing German strong points, has captured new heights commanding the road to Rome west of Mignano while the British Eighth Army's drive has carried to the Morro River ten miles beyond Sangro, Allied headquarters announced today.

The Nazis launched strong counter-attacks against the British and American infantry, storming heights in bitter hand-to-hand battles and threw in new reinforcements including mechanized grenadiers against the Eighth Army in a desperate attempt to halt Allied drives.

An Admiralty communique said that submarines of the British Mediterranean fleet had sunk sixteen German vessels in forays in the Aegean Sea.

a national minimum of human welfare for all people after the war was to be outlined later and should embrace useful employment for all willing to work, standards of nutrition and housing and social insurance against unemployment, accident, death of bread winner, ill-health and old age.

Highway Construction, Civic Improvements In Post War Plan

Comprehensive Memorandum Presented to Post-war Rehabilitation Council Here Today.

Lack of highway connection with tributary areas in the interior known to be rich in natural resources has been the main reason why the progress which normally should have been expected of strategically situated Prince Rupert has not materialized. This is the prime summation of a brief laid by the city before a special committee of the provincial Post-war Rehabilitation Council which opened this morning at the city hall with Hon. H. G. Perry presiding and other members attending in the persons of E. Kenney, J. A. Paton and Harold Winch.

The brief presented recommendations of a scope calculated to improve the life of every member of the community in the reconstruction period following the war. With its initial accent on transportation, the brief stressed strongly that the proposed southern trans-provincial highway be of improved surface width and that the section under construction in the lower valley be safeguarded against the water and snow conditions in mind the potential of Prince Rupert as a world port, the petition urged the discovery of a means of tapping the rich coal fields and that the highway be completed which will give the Peace River block to this port.

With regard to the Canadian National Railway line from Red River to Prince Rupert, the petition urged for the past few years has been maintained at a high level, the petition stated that before the line could be converted to efficiently handle the volume of traffic which will burden it, an extensive program of rehabilitation and maintenance would have to be undertaken.

Construction of coal bunkers, installations suitable to the storage and warehouse capacity of the port will also be necessary. (Continued on Page Six)

Gaines, a welded ship built in the Portland Kaiser yards for the American Maritime Commission.

WAGE CONTROL CHANGES OTTAWA—There will be some changes in wage control measures announced during the coming week, Prime Minister W. L. Mackenzie King announced. In war industries, there will be compulsory bargaining. The present cost of living bonus will be abolished in basic wage rates and there will be further bonuses.

RUSSIANS MAKE GAINS MOSCOW—The Nazis are unable to stop the new offensive of the Russians who have made important new gains in the central and southern sectors. Cherkasy has been surrounded.

Invasion by Jutland? . . .

It is reported that the German high command is massing 250,000 veteran troops in Jutland and the areas south of Denmark to meet an expected invasion. If this is the case it is realization by the enemy that this area offers particularly suitable conditions for a successful invasion of Germany. In considering an invasion of the continent of Europe from English bases, the obvious lines of invasion are the most likely to succeed. They are those bordering the narrow seas and the North Sea. Of all the coasts between Brest and Hamburg, the eastern portion seems on the whole the most attractive. It is true that the coasts of Brittany are farthest from the German homeland, but control of this region would not materially damage German power. Indeed much the same argument may be used for any part of France, except as regards the industrial region in the northeast corner.

What about the Lowlands? Here is a region with low coasts close to England where our armies could be disembarked relatively easily. But the innumerable canals, in capable German hands, would constitute a menace to our forces which would be absent to the west and east of the delta of the Rhine. On the whole, if we consider the topography, distances, industrial value and menace to German security, the coasts and comparatively empty moorlands in the vicinity of Emden and Bremen offer the best bridgehead for a Western Front invasion. Indeed Groningen contains a friendly Dutch population—if it has not all been moved inland by this time. It should be safe to assume that this section of the coast will not be more heavily defended than any other part of the coastline. Adequate transport by air and by water is assumed, and so is Allied aerial supremacy. As for the problem of movement from the coast inland, progress would be relatively easy down the ancient ice-thaw channels to Berlin.

This route commands both the great industrial areas. The sea crossing would not be impossible with adequate air protection, nor too long to move supplies over. It is a flat country to traverse and it is east of the main fortifications in France. The Jutland route has advantages not to be found in Norway, through France by going up the Valley of the Rhine, or in the Italian route into Germany. There have been rumors of an attack in the Baltic but these can be dismissed. The Skagerrak and the Kattegat are too heavily defended. Perhaps Berlin has chosen the right spot. We should not have to wait so very long to find out.

HAROLD WINCH— NEW PARTY BETRAYAL OF LABOR

Two Years to Win — One at Home and Another Abroad—
Federal Candidate Heard.

Speaking in Prince Rupert at a public meeting Sunday afternoon, Harold Winch, leader of the C.C.F. opposition in the provincial legislature, charged the Labor-Progressive party with betrayal of the Labor movement in Canada. To those who may be playing the game of capitalism to break the united front of the working class, Mr. Winch stated that it was the intention of the C.C.F. to contest every provincial and federal seat in British Columbia. "In my humble opinion," he declared, "the Labor-Progressive party is doing a lot of harm to the future of Canada and her people by opposing the C.C.F. at this time when it has reached a point in the political organization of working, farming and professional people where it has landed its representatives' in legislatures to such a degree that it has the old line parties really worried." If the Labor-Progressives were sincere in their support of the unity of the Labor movement they would not have formed a new party of political action at this time and would not be calling the C.C.F. Fascists. The door of the C.C.F. party was always open to all friends of the Labor movement but not as members of other political parties. It is a betrayal for the Labor-Progressive party to play the game for capitalism by taking any action against the united front support of the C.C.F. as it would be doing in Prince Rupert by nominating a candidate for the provincial seat.

In answer to a question, Mr. Winch clarified a statement he was purported to have made at Calgary in regard to opposition to government policies if a C.C.F. government came into power by declaring that the C.C.F. would never in any way endeavour to repress the free expression of opinion as long as force was not resorted to in endeavouring to advance that opposition.

There were two wars to win today, declared Mr. Winch—one the C.C.F. was interested equally abroad and one at home — and in winning of both. It would be betraying the future of the Dominion to be not so interested. The war abroad must be won so that there would be the opportunity of reserving the principles of free democracy at home including the right to set up a new system of economic security based not on the motive of profit for capitalism but on the basis of the needs and the rights of the people. Capitalism in Canada was the same as capitalism anywhere else in the world and, if security was not provided for the people of Canada after this war, Canada would be laying itself wide open not to have peace within the Dominion itself.

Mr. Winch felt that the government was delaying unduly the putting into effect of the recommendations which had been made last January by its Post-war Rehabilitation Council. It was time now for action and not for talk.

The constitutional power already existed in Canada, said Mr. Winch, to achieve economic security within Canada by the adoption in an orderly and peaceful way of Socialistic principles.

L.A.C. Archibald

Also heard at yesterday afternoon's meeting was Leading Aircraftman Harry Archibald who has been nominated as C.C.F. candidate for Skeena in the next federal election.

Archibald spoke of the strides which Prince Rupert had made since 1939. Likewise the C.C.F. had grown by leaps and bounds. The young airman criticized the federal government for putting the armed forces to work as labor battalions for the private companies and for refusing to permit member of the forces to write letters to the newspapers. The government of Canada was duplicating the acts of the Hitlerite machine. The C.C.F. was no opportunist party and its platform today was the same as in 1933. It claimed that it could bring into effect in Canada a Socialistic government by the vote and educational means. He pointed to the accomplishment of the New Zealand government in two years of solving unemployment, guaranteeing the price of farm produce, providing a decent standard of living, socializing the banks and blanketing heavy industries.

the country with social and health insurance and initiation of a real housing program. The C.C.F. intended to do likewise in Canada by constitutional and democratic means. Canada could not be permitted after this war to fall back into private control and unemployment such as it had had in the depression before the war. The C.C.F. stood for full employment and social freedom after the war. There was the choice of financial dictatorship or social ownership. Canada had the chance to build up in a peaceful social revolution economic system which would be an example for the rest of the world. Capitalists of Canada were more afraid of social changes at home than they were of the war abroad.

Ald. James S. Black acted as chairman of the meeting. He spoke briefly referring to the fact that the C.C.F. was now the official opposition in four western provinces except Alberta and was represented in all legislatures of the Dominion except two.

A question period closed the meeting and there were exchanges between Mr. Winch and Bruce Mickleburgh who is prominent in the Labor-Progressive movement here.

Industry is helping win the war...
industry must help build a peacetime world

The will of our soldiers assures an unconditional surrender...
The will of our people can assure a just and durable peace

Today the United Nations are joined in their determination to win a decisive victory. On every battle front and on every farm and in every production centre a singleness of purpose is speeding "unconditional surrender".

Tomorrow millions of soldiers and workers can have steady employment if they also unite with determination to bring about "a just and durable peace".

Prosperity can be realized only through the will of an informed and a united people. With their courage and their determination, the people's will to accomplish a righteous peace is irresistible.

People here, in common with people of other lands, can prosper materially and spiritually after the war ends—but only if now the peoples of the United Nations make loud their demands for "a just and durable peace".

CANADA BIG COG IN HUGE AERIAL MACHINE

Airmen From Dominion Play Major Role in 1943 Air Offensives in Many Parts of the World.

By FRANK FLAHERTY
Canadian Press Staff Writer

OTTAWA, Dec. 6 (CP)—Canada's war effort in the air paid rich dividends to the United Nations in 1943. The dread of the founders of the British Commonwealth Air Training Plan in 1939 of an air force of "overwhelming strength" became a reality as immense fleets of heavy bombers carried almost nightly loads of explosives to German industries, long-range aircraft hounded submarines in the Atlantic and air support proved a vital factor in offensives in the Mediterranean area, the South Pacific and the Aleutians.

The mass-production training organization of the R.C.A.F. in Canada produced many of the men. Canadian airmen played a major role in air operations on many fronts.

More than 30 per cent of R.A.F. Personnel sent on bombing missions to Germany from the United Kingdom are Canadians. They are other members of the 36 Canadian squadrons operating there or of the R.A.F. squadrons which, in all, contain 11 Canadians to every one in an R.C.A.F. squadron.

Growing Strength

Early this year the aid training plan's schools turned out their 50,000th trained aircrewmen. Since then training has gone on but the R.C.A.F. won't tell how many more have been produced.

The strength of the R.C.A.F. is reported as more than 200,000. Just how many are overseas is a military secret, but the number grows each month. It took a special jump as the year-end approached when a number of home war establishment squadrons moved overseas intact.

Canada is committed to provide half the regular recruits taken into training schools in Canada with Britain, Australia and New Zealand providing the other half.

Last summer recruiting dropped to a level which R.C.A.F. authorities considered dangerous but the crisis passed and in November Air Minister Power was able to say the supply of aircrews was assured until well into 1944, and perhaps until the end of the war.

Women Take Over

Making possible the re-mustering of some 10,000 men from ground to air crew was the steady enrolment in the R.C.A.F. women's division, which took over an increasing number of ground jobs in a wide variety of trades.

Formation of the Canadian bomber group in Britain was one of the important organizational developments of 1943. It was followed by organization of Canadian fighter wings and establishment of all-Canadian fighter squadrons. Some Canadian bomber and fighter squadrons moved to North Africa before the invasion of Sicily and Italy.

The City of Windsor fighter Squadron moved from Malta to a captured airfield in Sicily, the first Canadian squadron to operate from a European base.

The R.C.A.F. Home war establishment assumed increased anti-submarine duties during the year, taking charge of air patrols in the western Atlantic.

NAZI TIGER TANKS IN THE FAMOUS BRENNER PASS

This photo, radioed from Stockholm, Sweden, to New York, shows German Tiger tanks in the vicinity of the Brenner Pass, the door way between Italy and Germany, according to information from German sources. Reports are that Germans and Italians fought a bitter battle for control of the Brenner, with the Nazis emerging in possession of the vital pass.

Industrial Development

Paralleling the city council's brief on Monday which urged the establishment of a pulp industry, the memorandum stated that few people realized how close Prince Rupert came to having a pulp mill in 1927. This area is ideally suited for such an industry, having, it is reported, 25 billion feet of timber available within a radius of 100 miles. All the other ingredients for making pulp are to be had within an even smaller radius. The earlier project did not develop, but the petition said, if it is to be brought about after the war, investments must be given a fair return if it is hoped to attract men of vision who will run the risk of creating new industries.

Fisheries

Prince Rupert has been dependent for a number of years on the fishing industry and will derive a great deal of its future prosperity from a sane approach to consideration of the fishermen in all branches. The installation of better port facilities, the carrying out of scientific researches aimed at broadening the markets for cheaper classes of fish, to make them more readily marketable and available as food.

Transportation

A land air base should be built near Prince Rupert, to conjoin with Alaska and interior air bases, it was suggested, and consideration should be given also to the study of a rail link between the Peace River country and some point on the Canadian National Railways line.

The brief urged the repair and maintenance of the Prince Rupert-Red Pass line, and the widening and modernizing of the Rupert-Terrace Highway.

Development of Agriculture

Interior farmers ought to be encouraged to join co-operative movements, and taught to properly bulk and package their produce to make it available to distant markets, where it could be profitably sold, and thus stimulate farming in the agricultural areas of the interior. Lectures and instruction by the district agriculturalist and the location at strategic places of adequate refrigerated space for handling produce should be encouraged.

The Chambers of Commerce committee on rehabilitation was headed by J. J. Little, chairman, and members of the senior chamber on it were S. E. Parker, W. J. Scott and William Stone. Junior Chamber committee members were Richard Mortimer, R. E. Gladding, C. F. McCarthy and Louis Felsenthal.

Up to Nov. 10, 1942, 570 enemy submarines were recorded as damaged or sunk by the Royal Navy.

More Candidates For Council Are Entering Field

Dark horse candidates are beginning to enter the field for the civic election in Prince Rupert. Today it became known that Thomas B. Black, wire chief for the Northern British Columbia Power Co. and pioneer local boy, Gordon Bryant, prominent business man and proprietor of the Variety Store, and J. W. Ferguson, east-end grocer, would be candidates. Other names are also being mentioned and may be available for official announcement within the next day or so.

Thieves Work Over Week-end Entering Field

Four Burglaries in City Reported Over Week-end.

Using the break and entry technique, thieves over the week-end broke into four places, looting them of such varied items as cash, jewellery and groceries.

The dry dock commissary was broken into between Friday night and Saturday morning and groceries and merchandise valued at about $63 taken. The yard, surrounded by a high fence, is guarded by sentries and patrolled by a fire guard.

The room of Mrs. Margaret Armstrong on Sixth Avenue was broken into and a purse containing about $20 taken. Mrs. Armstrong had left her room for a few minutes to go downstairs when the theft occurred. Entry was made through a rear window.

Entering through a window at the back, where they had pried the protecting bars off, thieves entered the premises of McRae Brothers, and rifled the cash register of $10 in change. The theft was discovered Saturday morning.

Discovered last night was the theft of jewellery from the room of Oscar Ivy Smith on Seventh Avenue. Here again the marauders gained entry through a back window.

War Savings Certificate Sales Bigger

Sales of War Savings Certificates in British Columbia and the Yukon registered a slight gain in October, amounting to $325,504, as compared with $325,992 in September. There were 56,437 individual buyers as against 55,040 in the previous month.

October sales were 7.74% of the $4,504,364 Canadian total. In September, sales throughout the Dominion were $5,485,292, with British Columbia-Yukon investing 7.03% of this total.

Sales of War Savings Stamps showed a substantial decrease, from $38,295.50 in September when the Druggists of the area staged a successful drive, to $61,879.00 in October, when no special promotion was undertaken.

PALMER WINS BOXING BOUT AT ARMY POST

Vancouver Fighter Was Much Too Good For Game Lad From U.S. Coastguard.

In a special appointment at the United States Army post here Saturday night, hard-hitting Phil Palmer, 153-pounder from Vancouver, knocked out Red Knox, 152 pounds, of the United States Coastguard in the fourth of a scheduled ten-round main event of a big fight card between the Coastguard of Ketchikan and Prince Rupert-Port Edward. A right to the chin finally finished Knox off after he had been knocked down four or five times. The coastguardsman was game but Palmer was too much of a slugger for him.

A large service men's crowd witnessed the evening's program of ten events, the majority of which were won by Prince Rupert-Port Edward. Results were as follows:

Rehm, Coastguard, 136 lbs., defeated Sonnenberg, Prince Rupert, 140 pounds.

Wallingford, Prince Rupert, 170 pounds, defeated Krause, Port Edward, 170 pounds.

Morgan, Prince Rupert, 145 pounds, defeated Diwan, Canada, 147 pounds.

Tupper, Coastguard, 170 lbs., defeated Berkeley, Canada, 170 pounds.

Kelley, Prince Rupert, 140 pounds, defeated Mellota, Canada, 140 pounds.

Zaffarano, Prince Rupert, 162 pounds, defeated November, Coastguard, 165 pounds (Second round technical knockout).

Morris, Prince Rupert, 152 pounds, defeated Marshall, Coastguard, 154 pounds.

Wallace, Prince Rupert, 171 pounds, defeated Henniger, Coastguard, 170 pounds.

Houlton, Port Edward, 200 pounds, Thoms, Coastguard, 200 pounds.

Honorary Officials were Col. Weed, Col. Adams and Col. Stewart and others were:

Referees — Capt. Siff, Capt. Dixon.

Time Keepers—Capt. Brann, Lt. Goodlett.

Announcer—Pvt. Bob Burroughs (S.S. office).

WEEKLY WARTIME FOOD HINTS

Martha Logan, Swift's famed Home Economist, whose weekly cooking column is a regular feature of this page. Look for these valuable hints every Tuesday.

By Martha Logan

Sauces

A good sauce can make a party dish of leftovers

Now that we all must learn to make do with less meat or less familiar meats the importance of knowing how to make appetizing sauces is more important than ever.

So this week's Food Hint tells you how to make the basic "Mother Sauce" or Béchamel. Once you can do this perfectly you can turn out a wide range of appetizing sauces, for instance:

In each case add ingredients to 1 recipe Mother Sauce.

Barbecue Sauce (Brown base) Add 1 tbs. Worcester Sauce, 1/2 tsp. mustard dissolved in 1 tsp. vinegar.

Bearnaise Type Sauce (White base) Boil 1 cup cider vinegar with one onion chopped fine, until vinegar is reduced by a quarter. Allow to cool slightly. Add to Mother Sauce with 1 tsp. chopped parsley. Beat the yolk of 1 egg, stir in part of sauce, return to remaining sauce and stir 2 minutes in double boiler. Season with salt and pepper.

Brown Gravy (Brown base) Simmer meat trimmings and 1 small onion in 1 1/4 cups of water for 1 hour. Add to Mother Sauce.

Hollandaise Type Sauce (White base) Stir sauce into beaten yolks of 2 eggs, return to heat for two minutes stirring constantly and slowly adding 1 tbs. lemon juice.

Experiment yourself with other flavourings and ingredients, tomatoes, pickles and herbs can all be used.

MOTHER SAUCE

1 1/4 cup milk or stock
1 small onion
1 sprig parsley
1 bay leaf
4 or 5 pepper berries
Pinch of mace or thyme
1/2 tbs. butter
2 1/2 tbs. flour
Salt and pepper

Simmer milk or stock, (use meat stock for brown sauces) with onion and herbs for 30 minutes. Melt butter, stir in flour (for brown sauce allow mixture to brown slightly). Stir in hot milk (or stock). Stir and cook over boiling water until thick and smooth. Strain. Season.

Keeping Sunday Not Requirement Of Jesus Christ

Sunday sacredness was not embraced in the New Covenant which was ratified by Christ's blood on Friday the Crucifixion Day, declared Evangelist Balmer last evening in the Oddfellows' Hall. Continuing he said every Bible doctrine that is taught today was sanctioned by Christ before He died. What His life's blood sealed could not be changed thereafter according to Paul in Gal. 3:15, Heb. 9:15-17. Keeping Sunday as a holy day was not a requirement of Jesus Christ. It had no part in the great gospel commission given to the disciples. It was not the Sabbath of the law of the New Covenant under which men were saved. It was just three days too late to have any merit or part in the New Covenant ratified by Christ on Friday.

"By working on Sunday or pursuing legitimate pleasure on that day we do not violate any Divine commandment," said Mr. Balmer. "Christ, who is our example (according to the Apostle Peter) kept the seventh day Sabbath—Saturday. It is the Lord's Day (according to Mark 2:28). It was made in the beginning for men (Mark 2:27 and Gen. 2:2,3) and observed by patriarchs, prophets and apostles."

ACTIVITIES OF Y.M.C.A. AND Y.W.C.A.

By DOROTHY GARBUTT

The R.C.A.F. show "Washouts of 1943," which made such a hit locally, went over to one of the Forts one night last week and really gave the boys a treat. Although duties interfered with some members of the cast, The Army Service Corps took the troupe over and after the show, refreshments were supplied by the Y.M.C.A. Canteen. Chester le Maistre was in charge of arrangements and Arthur Peacock, the Y.M.C.A. supervisor at that fort asks me to thank the members of "Washouts" and Chester for a grand evening.

A name for our blessed evening column is little Myra Clair Siriani who was born to Lance Bombardier and Mrs. Siriani on December 1st. The baby weighed 6 pounds eight and one half ounces when born. Congratulations everybody.

This next Wednesday evening there is to be a sporting event of great interest when a challenge basketball game will be held in the Navy Drill Hall, the proceeds to go in aid of the All Services Children's Party on December 20. The game is between the Yanks and All Stars and as a curtain raiser at 7 p.m. Promptly, the Pooth Memorial High School Girls basketball team is challenging the team of the Women's Division, R.C.A.F. So sport Fans, come out and enjoy yourselves. The tickets may be bought at the door.

I would like to thank our Highway Regiment for getting me the handsome Christmas tree which is now up in the Ladies' Lounge and also thanks to Corporal Lillian Wright W.D. and "Chuck" Monck of the navy and LAC Charlie Holt for helping with the decorating and clearing up afterwards. It's just a still and very small voice, but Christmas is coming and the service boys and girls would like to get in a real honest to goodness home part of Christmas day. So, how's about it, everyone?

HIGHWAY CONSTRUCTION.

sary to make the city important from the standpoint of seaborne trade, the memorandum stated, and, to solidify this importance, the dry dock and shipbuilding yard must be maintained in first class condition.

Some consideration should be also given for facilities for the efficient construction of wooden ships required locally.

Having in mind the city's position in relation to the Orient, any rehabilitation scheme should include the establishment of an airport at Prince Rupert.

Fishing

The need for better docking float facilities for the fishing fleet, recognized by the Dominion government before the war and viewed favorably by the fisheries minister a few months ago, should, if it is not satisfied before the end of the war, be included in the post-war plan.

The petition suggests that the fisheries experimental station moved to Vancouver a year ago be returned to Prince Rupert at the end of the war and that it should concentrate on the utilization of fish by-products in order to help stabilize the prices of fish. The brief also included recommendations for improved railway rolling stock and the construction of a public refrigerated warehouse.

New Basic Industries

Timber is the keynote sounded by the petition with regard to the establishment of new industries along the northern coast and it stressed the "unlimited" supply suitable for the manufacture of pulp, paper, fibre board, and allied products.

It advocated that surveys should be undertaken immediately to determine the suitability of existing timber for such projects and the most logical program of development should then begin of the basis of the survey.

Municipal Projects

A one and a half million dollar rehabilitation program for the improvement of the city itself, which would include the installation of new water mains and the repair of old ones, the construction of additional reservoir capacity, the repair and resurfacing of streets and the repair and extension of sewers, is a part of the recommendations of the brief.

On top of this it advocates the development of park areas and children's playgrounds, the extension of the telephone system, and the erection of a new municipal building which would house the city administration staff, the public library, the fire department, and the police force.

Not having been included in earlier federal housing projects, and with a wide field here for such a program, the brief urged that the federal government foster the building of homes here on a scale in line with the needs of the community.

The memorandum, read by Mayor W. M. Watts, was presented by a committee consisting of Aldermen Norah E. Arnold, H. M. Daggett, George Hills and T. H. Sorenson.

MIDLANDS

Something of a record in speed for administering justice was set in Cobourg recently when a Toronto man was arrested, tried, and fined for driving in excess of the forty mile an hour speed limit on No. 2 highway, all within half an hour.

J. M. Earl of Cobourg was among the survivors of a ship which went down in the Mediterranean while carrying Canadian nurses and soldiers to the Italian theatre of war. A torpedo finished off the vessel from which 99 nurses were rescued as well as all but one of the personnel.

W. H. Morford left Cobourg recently for Toronto to begin air crew training with the Royal Canadian Air Force.

Timely Recipes

DANISH FANCIES

4 tablespoons mild-flavoured fat
1/4 cup brown sugar
1 egg yolk
1/2 teaspoon vanilla
1 1/2 tablespoons finely chopped mixed peel
1 1/4 cups sifted pastry flour or 1 cup plus 2 tablespoons all-purpose flour
1 teaspoon baking powder
1/2 teaspoon salt
1/4 cup chopped raisins
1 slightly beaten egg white
1/2 cup crushed corn or wheat flakes
Jelly

Cream fat, gradually blend in brown sugar, then egg yolk, vanilla and mixed peel. Sift flour, baking powder and salt and add raisins and combine well. Roll small pieces of dough into balls, dip in slightly beaten egg white and roll in crushed corn or wheat flakes. Place on a greased baking sheet and, using a thimble or fingertip, make a deep depression in the centre of each ball. Bake in a slow oven, 325 deg. F 20 to 25 minutes. Fill depressions with jelly or jam. Makes 15 to 18 small cakes.
