Land His Typewriter Was Main Worry of C.P. Man Covered Occupation of Kis

... Jones, one of the two Canadian correspondents who covered the American-Canadian occupation of Kiska, put in plenty of sleepless nights digging up the stories now appearing in The News. Jones was handed the assignment out of a clear blue sky by his general manager, Gillis Purcell. As he tells it: "I found it hard to believe that they'd picked me when there were a number of other newsmen closer to the scene."

CANADIAN GUNNERS GIVE AXIS LINES IN SICILY A POUNDING

Stripped to the waist, artillerymen with the Canadian forces in Sicily are pictured feeding one of the guns engaged in pounding German defence lines near Nissoria. The formidable fire power of their batteries and efficiency of the Canadian gunners was responsible in no small measure for infantry advances in the bitter fighting inland toward Mount Etna. One knocked-out target is shown at top—the wrecked hulk of a German tank discarded in the main street of Leonforte.—Canadian Army Overseas Photo.

BIG CROWD OUT AGAIN

Civic Centre Carnival is Still Going Strong

Another record-breaking crowd was in attendance at the third night of the Civic Centre Carnival last evening and all the features were excellently patronized. One of the features last night was the presentation to Rosemarie Deveson and the Cooper Sisters, who are starring in the stage show, of handsome bouquets by Private Sydney R. Arthur on behalf of the armed forces. Tonight's program will be similar to that of the preceding evenings while tomorrow night the crowning of the Carnival Queen and the Victory Loan drawings will be featured. The final count in the Carnival Queen contest will be made tonight.

Ceiling Prices For Sausages Have Been Set

Maximum retail prices of fresh sausage, bologna and weiners have been worked out by the Wartime Prices and Trade Board. These foodstuffs are now under a definite price ceiling and the retailers' markup is not to exceed 30 percent on the selling price of fresh sausage, and 25 percent on bologna and weiners. Fresh sausage must be sold as either "pork" or "commercial" ("commercial meaning any sausage other than all pork"). The prices are based on the wholesalers' maximum and if the wholesale price, as is possible in some cases, be lower than the maximum, the corresponding reduction should be passed on to the consumer. Maximum selling prices for this zone are as follows: Pork sausage in a package not over 1 1/4 lbs., sheep casings (small), 36c lb. Pork sausage, in hog (large) casing, 33c lb. Pork sausage, in bulk or in packages, over 1 1/4 lbs., sheep casing, 34c lb. Pork sausage, in bulk or in packages, containing over 1 1/4 lbs., and in hog (large) casing, 31c lb. Commercial sausage, which is any fresh sausage other than pure pork, in sheep (small) casing, 27c lb. Commercial sausage in hog (large) casing, 24c lb. Bologna, weiners, etc., 22 1/2c lb. Weiners or frankfurters in sheep casing, 30c lb. Weiners or frankfurters in hog (large) casing, 27c lb. Weiners or frankfurters in artificial casing, 26c lb.

The Mayor's Report . . .

The mayor may not have had any very tangible results to report immediately following his trip to Ottawa to press the municipal case for federal aid in financing rehabilitation and extension of the city's facilities and services but we may be assured that the needs have been doubly stressed as a result of his presentation of the case to the ministers and officials primarily concerned and in a position to act.

No snap decisions could have been fairly expected but we may fairly anticipate some favorable action to develop as soon as due consideration has been given to the claims. If this is not forthcoming in the fairly immediate future it will be in order to more vigorously pursue the demands until the action which is our due materializes from the quarters responsible for the situation in which we find ourselves placed by the concentration of the war effort and the pressure of our facilities caused thereby.

The Quebec Conference . . .

The historic Quebec conference has ended and statements made in connection therewith have been cleverly vague. We have the assurance of the great leaders who participated that definite and important decisions were made, the nature of which will be communicated to the enemy by way of direct action. Not until then will the full import and impact of the decisions become apparent.

That optimism and confidence pervaded the conference is abundantly apparent and that is a good and encouraging sign. Gone is the old gloom and nigh despair of the early days of the war. Everything is offensive and in the way of forward movement on our side now.

With the enemy in Europe definitely on the defensive, we are told that the war against Japan in the Pacific will loom more largely in the global campaign plans of the Allies and that is of very immediate interest to us here in Prince Rupert.

The Meaning of Kiska . . .

Military experts seem pretty well agreed now on the belief that the Japanese naval garrison pulled out of Kiska for the simple reason that the position was of no further operational use because it had been by-passed following the capture of Attu Island by the Americans. "Therefore, the Japanese just picked a dark night and pulled out," says one commentator. The abandonment of Kiska marks a change in the usual Japanese tactics which has caused considerable speculation.

BOYS HAVE FINE CAMP

Minicog Island Was Donated For Use of Sea Cadets.

MIDLAND, Ont., August 26.—Minicog Island was donated to the Navy League for use as a Sea Cadet camp by the co-owners, Gordon C. Leitch, Toronto, honorary president of the Navy League of Canada and president of the Ontario division, and James Norris, a former Canadian, now of Chicago and New York. The Navy League remodelled the former summer resort and turned the 278 acres of island over to the R.C.N.V.R. H.M.C.S. York, Toronto, supplies the personnel and equipment for both the Princess Alice and the Queen Elizabeth on nearby Beausoleil Island.

The camp, one of 13 in Canada, is open from June to September and accommodates from 250 to 300 boys for two-week periods. There is not a woman on the island—even the registered nurse in "sick bay" is a man. Sick bay is manned by a doctor, a nurse and a sick berth attendant. The kitchen, also womanless, is manned by eight cooks.

The Sea Cadets live a healthy life. At 6:30 a.m. they rise to the call "wakey, wakey, wakey, rise and shine!" and swim before breakfast. Divisions on the quarter deck follow, with prayers and the hoisting of the ensign. The cadets learn how to take soundings, heave lines, drop anchors, signalling, both naval signalling and semaphore, in their home towns, the cadets study "divisions" or drill, knots and nautical terms. For breach of discipline, the boys must wash dishes and polish brass over and above "duty watch" which means keeping the "ship" clean. The cadets swim before the mid-day dinner and again in the afternoon. At 2200 hours, that is 10 p.m., the cadets "pipe down," and day is done.

In the winter, in their home

SLIM LET THE BOMBS GO, right on the split second, but back of that second were hours of preparation and months of training. The whole crew chipped in, the way any team will when they're all out to win.

Maybe you have felt you were teaming up, too, by making the weapons our fighters use. But how about being a fighter yourself? Your job may have seemed essential until now—but the one essential job today is delivering the knockout blow to the Axis.

LONDON, Aug. 26 — Much of Britain's increased prison population is due to wartime offences created by defence regulations, Home Secretary Morrison said in a London address. He said the prison population in 1942 was 12,400, increase of 2,000 over 1939—the year war began.

TELL ABOUT TRIPS EAST

Interesting impressions of eastern cities which they have just returned from visiting were given to the Prince Rupert Gyro Club at luncheon yesterday by Mayor W. M. Watts and W. F.
Stone. Both the local men's furnishings dealers told of the difficulties that were to be experienced these days in buying goods for their stores.

Mayor Watts found train travel, while crowded, quite comfortable with a surprising standard of service being maintained. His Worship found Ottawa an attractive and interesting city. He had also had occasion to cross the Ottawa River to Hull. In Montreal he ascended Mount Royal and also visited the Shrine of Brother Andre as well as points of real historic interest such as the old fortifications of three hundred years ago in the Hochelaga days. Toronto and the industrial cities of Hamilton and Kitchener were also included in Mrs. Watts' tarvels.

A feature of Mr. Stone's trip had been the airplane trip from Vancouver to Winnipeg on which he was accompanied by his wife and little daughter. A couple of weeks at Winnipeg was followed by a visit of several days to Chicago with all its sights and points of varied interest. A National League baseball game in which Cincinnati had defeated Chicago 4 to 1 was another incident. Vancouver and Victoria were visited on the way home.

With President W. J. Scott in the chair, luncheon guests included Miss Thelda McEwen, Gyro candidate in the Carnival Queen contest, T. N. Youngs, Ralph Green and Charles Guy.

Alphonse and Gaston Incident
At Hospital

An affair of courtesy in the best Alphonse and Gaston manner took place in front of the General Hospital the other night when the city ambulance drove up bearing a passenger whom the driver had picked up on Third Avenue in what appeared to be a sick condition.

On his arrival the man was inclined toward violence and was refused admittance into the hospital on the grounds that he was drunk. The hospital authorities called the police.

Before the police arrived the man made a quick getaway from the ambulance and legged it off down the street but fell down before he had gone very far.

He was lying on the street
when a police constable arrived.
The constable looked the man over and decided that he was sick.

"He is yours," said the police constable.

"No, he is yours," said the
hospital.

"The police station is not a
hospital."

"The hospital is not a police station."

Since this could have gone on for hours, the man was mercifully loaded into the Maria, and was taken off to the police cells.
