Americans in Fifth Army Also Push On Against Stubborn Resistance.

ALGERS, November 30 (CP) — British Eighth Army captured the main winter line of the Germans at the Adriatic end of the front by driving four miles forward from the Sangro River. Allied headquarters announced today. In thirty hours of continuous fighting, General Bernard Montgomery's forces captured positions of the vital Sangro River, northwest of the river, and routed the Nazis from the town of Mezzagrona while pushing up the Sangro Ridge. British, New Zealand and Indian troops, under Montgomery's command, widened their bridgehead to twelve miles. Simultaneously United States troops of the Allied Fifth Army fought one mile through enemy shellfire to capture the town of Castelnuovo west of Montaquile.

Yorkshire Claims Pr. Rupert Man

Writes Up Award of Distinguished Flying Cross to Hugh Forrest.

The Yorkshire Post tells of the recent awarding of the Distinguished Flying Cross to Flying Officer Hugh Lindsay Forrest, son of Hugh Forrest, formerly of Prince Rupert and now of Winnipeg. The Old Country paper fails anywhere in the item to admit that the local man is anything but an Englishman. Indeed, Yorkshire appears to have completely appropriated him despite the fact that he really lived the greater part of his life in Prince Rupert, receiving all his schooling here and being employed in this city before going to war. He is in the Royal Canadian Air Force and is at present engaged in instruction in Britain after having been for over a year on operational flying over enemy territory. About February of next year he expects to return to operational flying.

The Yorkshire Post has the following to say: "Flying Officer Hugh Lindsay Forrest was born in 1918 at Eastbourne and his home is at Beverley. (That is where his wife resides). He served in the ranks and is Canadian-trained under the joint air training plan. He was commissioned as air observer in the Special Reserve in 1942. Throughout his period of operations, says a citation, this officer has proved himself to be a most efficient and reliable navigator. His many successful sorties have included sixteen to the industrial centres in the Ruhr area. He has also participated in many mine-laying missions, always displaying consistent keenness and a high degree of navigational skill."

Cranberries, it is said, will be scarce this year but there seems to be a steadier supply of fruits and vegetables now. Oranges, lemons and grapefruit are commencing to come in again in good quantities.

The Civic Election . . .

It is gratifying to see at least one organization—the Civic Labor Federation—keeping the interest alive in municipal affairs by nominating a full slate of candidates for the forthcoming civic election. We were going to call it a civic election "contest" but, from the looks of things to date, it is not going to be much of a "contest." Evidently, no other local organizations consider the civic election of sufficient importance to take a hand in offering a slate of candidates unless, of course, they are satisfied with what labor is offering.

We are not criticizing the labor candidates, indeed the labor people are to be congratulated on coming forward the way they have done, but it does seem it would have been quite fitting if there had been some sort of a contest to bring out the various angles and aspects of civic affairs.

A civic government these days is, of course, pretty well sewed up by government regulations and financial limitations so possibly it does not make a great deal of difference.

It is no use raising any bogeys in regard to labor now or indulging in recriminations later if no action is taken now. This is the time and there is not much of it left between today and election day.

Organizing Victory . . .

Those who discuss the immediate opening of a second front are apt to have overlooked the enormous amount of preparation and organization involved in what would probably be the greatest overseas transportation of troops in history. We do not know how many troops would be used, but by studying the problems of supply during the Allied advance in Africa this year, one can form an idea of the factor. The Eighth Army used 5,000 tons of supplies a day. Half of this was pipelined from the Nile. One came from wells, and 1,500 tons was shipped daily in special trains. Each man required about five pounds of food daily as well as two ounces of tobacco weekly, and two boxes of matches. An artillery barrage such as was used in the North African campaign used up 1,000 tons of shells per hour. All of which, and all medical equipment had to be shipped to the front by truck. Airfields were built fast enough so that they were never more than 20 miles behind the front lines. Roads had to be reconstructed as the army moved forward, hour by hour. Tank and truck engines called for 24-hour repair garage services. In addition to this, huge prison camps had to be erected and maintained. The Royal Navy, in order to fulfill its duty of supply by sea enlarged its stores department to 30,000. Every crate was marked for its special dock. Army field ambulances were used five miles behind the front lines, each with a staff of nine medical officers and 233 other ranks. All this mass of men and material had to be moved forward day and night as the army drove westward.

A second front in Europe would be an undertaking on a much larger scale but these figures give an idea of what is involved in supplying such a campaign.

I DON'T WANT TO CHEAT MY FAMILY of the Big Health Factors

IN WHOLE-GRAIN QUAKER OATS

I know that no other natural cereal gives them such an abundance of protein—meat's main element. Growing children simply must have protein for normal growth—adults for stamina. Whole-grain oatmeal is also rich in all natural vitamins in vitamin B1—needed for sound nerves and top energy. So I serve big bowls of delicious Quaker Oats to my family daily. Nothing matches that delicious oat-like whole-grain flavour. No other cereal gives the same healthful benefits stored by Nature in real whole-grain oatmeal.

The Experts Say . . .

What do you order for lunch on meatless Tuesday?

Nutrition Services suggest that a bowl of the ever popular Canadian pea soup and a glass of milk make a good meatless choice. These two foods together provide food value that is similar to that in meat.

EASY ON CAN OPENER—If housewives will intersperse their use of canned vegetables with storables, they will avoid monotony in the winter diet and do much to maintain a supply of tinned goods which will see the country through until fresh vegetables come on the market again next May. Now that tinned vegetables have been unfrozen for the first time since last July, the Consumer Branch of the Prices Board advises using the tinned product only when it is impossible to procure storables in order to maintain the country's larder.

TIN MINES IN CANADA—Worked by Canadian housewives, tin cans are a source of trouble. But this is virtually what is happening through the collection of collapsible tin tubes. During the past two months tin amounting to 12,802 pounds has been reclaimed from 70,000 pounds of used collapsible tin tubes turned in across the country. It's not only a logical obligation to look in cupboards for many possible tubes, says the Prices Board, it's a patriotic duty.

precious tons of coal are doing their best to heat Canadian homes but they need our co-operation to do their utmost. The heat won't have much chance to leave the radiator if it is stopped by radiator covers, chairs, or chesterfields. Whisk off the covers and move the furniture clear to make this a "warm" winter.

ANOTHER COAL TIP—The Coal Conservation Committee tells us that placing shiny sheets of reflective material behind all the radiators can save us a heap of coal between now and next May. Reason is that they toss the heat rays back into the room instead of letting them be soaked up by the walls. Insulation board or even cardboard painted white or light cream is better than nothing.

A SPOONFUL OF WHEAT GERM—Added to the morning dish of hot cereal helps to meet the need for thiam or vitamin B1, so necessary with starchy winter diets. Be sure to add it just before serving to get its full vitamin value, for thiamin

Tuberculosis Xmas Seals

During the past two weeks tuberculosis Christmas seals have been mailed to many of the residents in this area by a committee of the local Municipal Chapter Imperial Order, Daughters of the Empire, under the chairmanship of Mrs. G. E. Moore, other members of the committee being Mrs. A. G. Landels, honorary secretary-treasurer, Miss Helen Valentine and Mrs. G. G. Withers.

The area covered included the Queen Charlotte Islands, Stewart, Butedale, villages on the Naas and Skeena Rivers and up the line as far as Terrace.

The committee feels that many names have inadvertently been missed from their mailing list. If any of these people would notify Box 895, Prince Rupert, seals will be mailed promptly. Any contribution to this worthy cause is acceptable. Such donations are the only means of obtaining financial assistance to carry on the fight against tuberculosis.

Ladies Guests At Orange Social

Members of the Orange Lodge were hosts to the Orange ladies and their friends at a social held last night in the Oddfellows' Hall.

With more than forty people present, twelve tables of whist and two tables of cribbage were in play. Following the card playing a social period was enjoyed which was concluded with refreshments. The social was under the direction of Lance Corporal Frank Tickner who acted as master of ceremonies.

CURRENT JAM—Has been made successfully in the testing kitchens of the Marketing Service of the Department of Agriculture, Consumer Section, and has kept well. EDUCATING NAVAL MEN

H.M.C.S. Chatham Has Outstanding Schoolmaster In Sub-Lieut. Hobbs

It was J. B. Priestly in one of his "Britain Speaks" series over the B.B.C. who stressed the point that it was necessary to plan the peace which follows war in order to realize a successful accomplishment of victory.

War has upset the plans of thousands of young men and women who felt the urge to join the services greater than their desire to continue their education.

It was with this thought in mind that the Canadian Legion Educational Services embarked on their new project. Through ample funds provided the organization on budgets approved by the Directorate of Special Services (Naval), officers and ratings of the Canadian Navy, whether serving ashore or afloat are privileged to continue studies in all branches.

Sub-Lieutenant Alfred E. Hobbs, R.C.N.V.R. late of Northern Vocation School, Toronto, has been recently appointed schoolmaster in H.M.C.S. Chatham. Sub-Lieut. Hobbs has a brilliant record of scholastic achievements to his credit. After undergraduate work at the University of Western Ontario he received his M.A. degree at Columbia University in New York.

In addition to educational positions filled in Canada Sub-Lieut. Hobbs has taught in Scotland.

A keen student of educational systems he has travelled extensively in Europe. In Germany and Italy he took particular interest in Fascist youth movements which operated prior to the war. Lessons were also learned in Russia, Poland and France.

His interest in current events resulted in the founding of the monthly magazine "World Affairs" which he edited from 1935 until he received his appointment last summer in the R.C.N.V.R.

The mantle of editorship has now fallen on the shoulders of his wife, also an M.A. (Columbia University) and a brilliant student of current events.

The circulation of this magazine, now over 12,000 copies, indicates the interest it is arousing.

Having such a capable leader in the educational branch of the Naval Barracks has provided an accelerated interest in the Legion Services.

Naval ratings are now enrolling in the many courses offered from introductory mathematics to University calculus, agriculture, languages, law, theology, engineering, pilotage and navigation, mining, music, literature and arts.

Examinations are accredited through departments of education, universities and colleges, and are able to receive the full advantages of the Canadian Educational System, while serving in the Forces.

George Sanders in "Appointment in Berlin" at Capitol Theatre This Wednesday and Thursday.

A thrilling and sensational story of a great international conspiracy, "Appointment in Berlin," starring Marguerite Chapman and George Sanders and with a supporting cast headed by Gale Sondergaard and Onslow Stevens, comes to the screen of the Capitol Theatre here this Wednesday and Thursday.

The story opens with Sanders, playing the part of a Royal Air Force commander, hearing the news that Chamberlain has concluded a pact with Hitler and, outraged, going on a spree with a newsboy as a result of which he is dishonorably discharged from the service and disowned by his father. However, a family friend, who is a British intelligence officer, believed in the airman's loyalty and engages him in a dangerous mission of counter-espionage. Following a series of "crimes" against his own country, he ingratiates himself with the Germans, is accepted by a ring of Nazi spies and gets his "Appointment in Berlin." There he becomes a radio broadcaster of Nazi propaganda but gets his own messages through to British intelligence. There is also a complicated romantic angle and the whole story leads up to a highly exciting and dramatic climax.

St. Peter's W.A.
Tea and Sale

Successful Affair Held at Seal Cove Last Week.

The Women's Auxiliary of St. Peter's Branch of the Anglican Church held a very successful tea and sale in the Parish Hall last week. Although the weather was very unfavorable many ladies turned out to give their support.

In a short speech Rev. E. W. Scott declared the sale open complimenting the members on the amount of work displayed on the stalls.

The guests were received by the President, Mrs. W. Garlick.

The following ladies were in charge of the various spheres of work:

Kitchen—Mrs. G. Hebb, Mrs. A. H. Hill-Tout and Mrs. W. Smith.

Serviteurs—Mrs. David Scott, H. Wardale and Mrs. K. Taylor.

Sewing—Mrs. A. J. Croxford and Mrs. D. Sievert.

MIDLANDS

The corvette "Cobourg" which was launched recently at a great lakes port is expected to visit its namesake town next spring on its way to deep sea service.

Little interest is evident so far in Cobourg's forthcoming civic elections. It is believed that Mayor J. D. Burnett will run again and five councillors are definitely interested in another term.

A 14-year-old girl who escaped from the Ontario Girls' Training school at Cobourg was captured last week in a Windsor drug store after a violent battle which involved a couple of policemen.

Harold Harper, Haldimand county farmer, recently found one of his heifers lying in a field shot near the heart with an arrow. The arrow, which was of the type used in archery tournaments, was deeply embedded in the animal's body and had evidently been shot from a powerful bow.

With his parish roughly defined as "the middle east" and his parishioners all the Canadian airmen in that territory, Squadron Leader Ernie Hartson, senior Protestant chaplain of the R.C.A.F., has been nicknamed the "travelling parson." The Rev. Mr. Hartson was formerly pastor of the Camborne United Church and has often been heard in Cobourg pulpits.

STANHOPE, Durham, Eng. — To remind townsmen that dues should be paid for local ground allotments, the town crier here has been instructed to cry, "it's time to pay your rent" when the dues become payable.

HINDERS BREATHING—SPOILS SLEEP

Here's mighty good news... if your nose "closes up" at night and makes breathing difficult, put 3-purposes Vicks Vapo-nol up each nostril. Vapo-nol does 3 important things: (1) shrinks swollen membranes; (2) soothes irritation; (3) helps flush nasal passages, clearing clogging mucus, relieving transient congestion. It brings more comfort, makes breathing easier, invites sleep. And remember, it helps prevent colds from developing if used in time. VICKS VAPOR-NOL

Searches For His Master

"Blackie," a pet dog of the Skeena constructions camps, has been making a camp to camp search for his "boss" who left some time ago for parts unknown. From pile-driver to bridge crew, from borrow-pit to fill, from steam-shovel through the rock cuts he is constantly seeking. Although welcome everywhere he is not contented and has become a risk under the swiftly moving traffic of construction. Blasted three times he is now nearly stone-deaf.

Twice he has been hit by a speeder, a local passenger train overtook him on a long bridge and, but for a soft-hearted engineer, he would have been run down. The train slowed until the dog reached safety when he stepped nonchalantly into the clear and wagged his tail in a "high-ball" signal to the friendly hog-head.

Novel Show of Saxophonist

A novel feature on the program of the Valhalla Lodge invitation dance held in the Oddfellows' Hall Friday was the rendition by Freddie Williams, saxophonist, of a number of songs of established popularity, done with an evidence of technical mastery and imagination which was very pleasing to the crowd. Among the songs played were "La Paloma," and Schubert's "Serenade."

Mr. Williams is a member of Mrs. Black's orchestra.

A large crowd attended the affair, and enjoyed the dancing, which lasted from 9:30 to 2 o'clock.

O. A. Morse was master of ceremonies, and Einar Christensen was at the door.

PASSING OF GUS TYCHO

Death of Well Known Telegraphs Official Widely Mourned.

SMITHERS, Nov. 30 — This community was grieved last Thursday at the passing of one of its residents who had been in Smithers almost from the beginning of this town in the person of Gust Tycho who died at six o'clock that morning in the Bulkley Valley District Hospital.

Gustave Hjalmar Tycho was born in Sweden on November 20, 1891, and came to Canada when a young man of 24 years. He was in the merchant marine service in Canada from 1905 to 1910 and then went to Kenora where he entered the employ of the Canadian Pacific Railways as plant inspector of telegraphs.

In 1914 he moved to Smithers where he lived since excepting for one year from 1932 until 1933 when he was moved to Jasper where he had charge of the territory from Prince Rupert to Jasper, and from Jasper to Vancouver of all the C.N.R. telegraph lines.

In 1921 on January 4 Mr. Tycho married Miss Gertrude O. A. Ercsson at Smithers and they have two sons, Pilot Officer Norman Tycho of the Royal Canadian Air Force, overseas, and Eric Tycho at home. Deceased is survived also by his father in Sweden and a brother Even Tycho, in Seattle.

Mr. Tycho was a well known and efficient official and his pleasant and friendly nature made him friends all along the line from Vancouver to Prince Rupert.

He became ill about a year ago and was taken to Vancouver last spring for medical attention. It was recognized that there was little could be done for him and he returned home where he made partial recovery for a time but recently was obliged to go to hospital where he passed away.

The sympathy of this community and of his many friends throughout Northern British Columbia is extended to the bereaved family.

The funeral was held from United Church at Smithers this afternoon and was conducted by Rev. C. E. Motte and the members of the Masonic Lodge at Smithers of which the deceased was a member.

ACTIVITIES OF Y.M.C.A. AND Y.W.C.A.

By DOROTHY GARBUTT

Both "Salty" and "Peppy" have been returned home. Where "Salty" was is a mystery but "Peppy" was up at the Garrison Officers' Mess. They came home looking hale and hearty and quite proud of their adventures. What's the use of belonging to the "Y" if you can't have adventures? That's what they think.

And please, when we do lose them, don't every well meaning and kind-hearted citizen in town deluge me with offers of more kittens! I was on our 'phone half the evening with kitten calls. Thanks very much for your good intentions, however, and I do like kittens, yes, and even full grown cats.

We were talking about the R. C.A.F. show "Washouts of 1943" and knowing what an attraction Jack MacClelland (the Y.M.C.A. supervisor at Seal Cove) can be on the stage, I asked what part he had in the show. "Nothing much," said someone. "He just sits down in front. Nothing much! I went Sunday night and Jack's place was down in front alright but Jack accompanied the whole production on the piano from start to finish and it was a two hour show. Besides which he was producer, director, and general Pooh Bah of the entire production. Our other Y.M.C.A. supervisor, Doug Badger, who is stationed at Group Headquarters, showed a decided flair for broad comedy and the three skits he was in were riots. The whole show was a first rate amateur production and I think that a lot of others besides myself would like to see it on the Capitol stage another Sunday soon. I know for a fact that there were a lot of persons disappointed because they were unable to see it this time. How about it Jack and Doug?

Now that the November dances are over I should like to thank the members of the Queen Mary Chapter I. O. D. E. for sponsoring the chaperones this month.

Dear Santa Claus:

Remember me? I wrote you a letter last Christmas, too. You must have got it because we all got just about everything we wanted. At least most everything. Course, Daddy only got old coal and wood in his stocking but he didn't care.

This year, Mommy said it oughta be different. She says we want to ask you this year to try to bring good things to all the poor little boys and girls in the war countries. (I guess she's right but after you've gone to see them maybe you can just keep a tiny tri-cycle for me. Or maybe a nice doll with curls. And course if you've got a few other odd toys you don't need real bad, well I'd take them. We won't tell Mommy about this, will we). I'm pretty lucky at that. You'll do what you think is right anyway, won't you Santa?

Bring something nice for Mother and Daddy, too, and don't forget the little children who won't have their Daddy's home with them this Christmas.

Your old friend,
JUDY.

P.S.: Daddy Says I get a spanking if I don't say the RUPERT PEOPLES STORE, RUPERT MEN'S AND BOYS' STORE and CUT RATE SHOE STORE have lots of nice things.
