CASABLANCA SCENE OF ALLIED WAR CONFERENCE

RED ARMY MOVES ON

Fresh Soviet Troops are Pouring Into Gaps in German Lines on Drive Towards Smolensk

MOSCOW, March 8 (CP)—The Red Army rolled on westward today with fresh Soviet troops pouring into gaps in the German lines far west of Gzhatsk and south of Olemino where two Russian columns apparently are planning the doom of the important German base at Vysama, 35 miles west of Gzhatsk. The capture of more than one hundred more settlements was reported in the last twenty-four hours while numerous others are falling continuously and still others blockaded by the Red Army are on the verge of falling.

WAR NEWS

HOLDING IN TUNISIA

LONDON—The Axis advance along the coast in northern Tunisia has been effectively checked. In central Tunisia there is little change in the situation. To the south Axis sallies from the Mareth Line have been held back. After weeks of strong German attacks, the British First Army had abandoned Sedjanane Friday, falling back seven miles to higher ground at Tamera, it was announced today. Later the Germans were stopped. The British withdrawal gave the Germans a total 20-mile advance along the Biserte-Mateur-Tabarka coastal road.

REDS MAKE HEADWAY

MOSCOW—The Russians are still making headway along the entire long front against the Nazis despite efforts of the latter at increased resistance. Beyond Vyasma and towards Smolensk particularly swift progress is being made.

MORE JAP SHIPS SUNK

WASHINGTON—Most important news from the southwestern Pacific is the announcement of two large Japanese destroyers having been sunk in a sea battle last Thursday in the Solomons Islands area. No United States vessels were lost. This makes 62 Japanese war vessels that have been so far lost in the Solomons alone. Straggler groups in lifeboats of 15,000 Japanese troops spilled into Bismarck Sea by the sinking of a 22-ship convoy have been mopped up by Allied planes, the High Command announces. Long range fighters swept the entire area, completing the mopping up of barges, lifeboats and rafts from sunken ships. A communique reported there was scarcely a survivor as far as was known.

MORE BEER IS WANTED

Local Union of Machinists Opposed To Restrictions

At the last meeting of the local National Union of Machinists, Fitters and heurgers, the membership expressed itself as opposed to the present restrictions on beer. It was felt that beer required no essential war material and no great amount of labor in its manufacture. Beer was not in the same category at all with distilled liquors which used materials needed in the manufacture of synthetic rubber. Further it was felt that unnecessary strong restrictions on beer were bound to create opposition among many conscientious and capable workmen. Beer had always been regarded as the people's drink. Canada would do well to remember how in Britain it has been considered as such. Any small saving in materials and labor that might result from over curtailing the use of beer would be offset by the negative effect on morale.

INSURANCE COMMITTEE

Social Protection Plan to be Studied for Canadian House

OTTAWA, March 8 (CP)—The House of Commons approved a motion to set up a house committee to study a plan of social insurance. Prime Minister W. L. Mackenzie King concluded debate on the motion with the statement that, if amendment of the British North America Act were held necessary to make the scheme effective, it could be obtained quickly from British Parliament.

Canada's Work Unsurpassed

LONDON, March 8 (CP)—Prime Minister Winston Churchill told Prime Minister William Lyon Mackenzie King that when victory is won, Canada "will be able to look back with just pride upon a record unsurpassed by none."

PAID VISIT TO LONDON

Only One Nazi Bomber Able To Get Over Metropolis—Incendiaries In Counties—R. A. F. Raid

LONDON, March 8 (CP)—London had another half an hour air raid alarm but only one enemy plane actually reached the city. Incendiaries were dropped on four places on the southeast coast and the Home Counties. Three Nazi planes were shot down, one a four-motored bomber. No bombs were dropped on London. Lorient and Brest were bombed tonight Saturday by the Royal Air Force which was over occupied France again yesterday and over Heligoland last night.

"ZIP YOUR LIP" NOW

Security Campaign Is Being Commenced in Prince Rupert

This Wednesday local Civilian Protection Committees (A. R. P.) authorities are joining with the armed forces in launching a "Zip Your Lip" campaign in Prince Rupert area. The campaign will stress the part every civilian, war worker, sailor, soldier and airman can play in defeating the Jap and the German by denying them information. Citizens are being asked to co-operate to the fullest extent.

Rommel's Smashes Have Failed And His Forces Retreat To Mareth Line

Thirty-three German Tanks Destroyed With British Losing Not One Single Machine

ALLIED HEADQUARTERS IN NORTH AFRICA, March 8 (CP)—Marshal Rommel's initial smashes at the British Eighth Army have completely failed and "Round One" is over with his tanks and infantrymen in retreat toward the Mareth Line positions north and northwest of Medinine, a competent military source said today.

General Sir Bernard Montgomery's men, after stopping two German attacks Saturday morning, disrupted four more thrusts in the course of the afternoon and forced Rommel to withdraw into the hills, it was announced. Thirty-three German tanks were destroyed while not one British tank was knocked out, it was disclosed.

Passing Of Dr. Eggert

Many old friends in the city will learn with feelings of regret of the death in Vancouver today of Dr. Charles A. Eggert, pioneer physician and surgeon of this city, who moved south several years ago to live in retirement. He had practised in Prince Rupert from the early days, having moved here from Atlin. He was Swiss by birth, having lived as a boy at Atlin. He is survived by his widow who for many years was a social leader here and to whom sympathy will be extended.

The step is in line with a steady program by Giraud to remove lingering touches of the Vichy influences in this territory now in the Allied camp. The anti-Jewish bureau director has been removed from office.

MINISTER'S CHALLENGE

Hon. Angus MacDonald Wants Member of Quebec Legislature To Prove Statement Regarding St. Lawrence Sinkings

HALIFAX, March 8 — Minister of the Navy Angus Macdonald has challenged the claim of a Quebec Legislature member that more than thirty sinkings had taken place in the St. Lawrence River and the Gulf last summer and offered to have a committee set up to investigate the sinkings. Declaring that the Navy knew of only twenty ships lost last summer in the area, Mr. Macdonald asked Onosime Gagnon, Union National member for Matane, to specify "upwards of thirty" sinkings he claims took place.

PHOENICIANS' TRIPOLI

The city of Tripoli is believed to have had its beginning as a trading post of the Phoenicians long before the Christian era.

MORE FOOD OR STRIKE

This is Ultimatum of Colliery Men in Nova Scotia

GLACE BAY, Nova Scotia, March 8 (CP)—A conference of delegates from United Mine Workers of America locals in Cape Breton decided to recommend a general strike at all Cape Breton collieries Thursday unless larger supplies of butter and other essential commodities are made available to miners on Wednesday.

Such a strike would involve ten thousand men employed in twelve collieries. Speakers said that the men were anxious to continue work but would be unable to do so unless they got what was described as adequate food.

PASSING OF BANDMASTER

Robert Greenfield Dies in South After Illness There of Two Months

Robert Greenfield, who resided in Prince Rupert for nearly twenty years and who for a long time was bandmaster of the Prince Rupert Boys' Band, passed away on Saturday at hospital in New Westminster where he had been a patient for the past two months. The remains are being brought back to Prince Rupert for interment and the funeral will take place next Sunday afternoon. News of his passing will be regretted by many friends.

The late Mr. Greenfield was fifty-seven years of age and was born at Newcastle, England. He came to Canada about 1909 and followed his trade as a carpenter and cabinet maker at Edmonton until the outbreak of the First Great War when he enlisted in the celebrated forty-ninth Edmonton Regiment. He served in France as machine gunner, sniper and bandmaster, seeing service in such battles as Paschendaelle and Vimy Ridge. Returning to Canada he was for a time at Edmonton and Winnipeg. A talented cornetist, he was one of thirty-two members of the famous Great War Veterans Band which spent eighteen months touring Canada and the United States.

Coming to Prince Rupert, the late Mr. Greenfield was for a time a member of the old Westholme Theatre Orchestra. For many years he was bandmaster of the Prince Rupert Boys' Band. Mr. Greenfield is survived by his widow in Winnipeg and one son, Corp. Thomas Greenfield who is with the Royal Canadian Artillery here. There are also two grandchildren.

EDITORIAL

DAILY EDITION Monday, March 8, 1943

On the Liquor Line . . .

We have seen long line-ups of people waiting at the Post Office for their mail. We have seen long line-ups of patrons for the picture show. Now, from the window of our editorial office at the Daily News, we have seen a line-up as long as any of them waiting entry to the government liquor store—and that on a chilly morning when one would have thought few people would have had so much time to spare in these supposedly busy days to waste hours lined up waiting to buy a few ounces of liquor with which to exhilarate themselves. But we could not repress the thought that people who could endure standing in that line must have placed a lot of value on what they were waiting for. And we wondered if there were many things besides liquor that those same people would have so cheerfully waited for—would they have unselfishly done it for something really helpful for their country, for their friends, for their family or even for themselves? There are a lot of people we could see upon whom John Barleycorn has a white grasp. Personally, we would have been ashamed to have been seen waiting in that line.

In the South Pacific . . .

It is a different picture—and a much brighter one—these days in the South Pacific war zone than it was just a year ago when we were having such heavy losses and discouragement in that area. A year ago today in these columns we were recording the reverses in the East Indies after the fall of Hong Kong, Manila, Singapore. We were in the throes of Bataan. It was bad going and the more thoughtful of us were wondering just where the end would be, when the turning point might come. It looked very bad, indeed, for our side.

The fighting season for this year is well along in the South Pacific and, even if we have a lot of lost ground still to win back and we must admit that it is going to take a lot of fighting against a now well entrenched enemy to get it back, we can at least feel heartened that we are well on the way. The Battle of the Japanese convoy and the Allied aircraft last week in the Bismarck Sea was indication of what we are now able to do as a result of our greatly improved position. Then there is the news of the sinking of the two big Japanese destroyers in the Solomons which we have to record today. These incidents may not have been attended with the actual winning back of lost ground but they are weakening blows for our enemy which must have valuable prefatory effects leading to the bigger things to come which will bring us the victory. It is early yet to make optimistic predictions and it would be dangerous to take too much for granted. However, we seem now to have definitely reached the point where we can be assured that, no matter how hard the going may be, and we might as well accept the fact that there is going to be plenty of hard going still, the outcome is to be victory for our side.

What we must guard against is being tricked into bargaining into a cheap victory. We might as well expect right now that if we are going to get a real article we are going to have to pay for it. We are now engaged in a fight not only for victory and peace but for victory of quality and peace of durability which we will not get at any bargain counter from our enemy. In other words, we must be resolute in fighting on until it shall be peace on our terms with no compromise.

SPORT CHAT

It all depends on offensive operations, but big slashes in major sport may be necessary in Britain this year. If the cream of the athletic crop is engaged with others in a full-scale European offensive, major events such as racing, cricket and professional football would all but fold up. But local events would continue to be given every encouragement, be it an inter-village soccer tilt or a darts tournament in the local pub. In general, the government policy remains as of last March when Herbert Morrison, Minister of Home Security, said sport within reason was regarded as a "lubricant" rather than a break in the war effort, although the government would not hesitate to impose further restrictions in the interests of the war effort. Come what may, every effort will be continued to stage events in aid of the Red Cross and other war charities which have yielded vastly greater sums than originally anticipated. The total now has topped $2,650,000. Last month sporting and social functions raised more than $225,000.

For the first time since war began there will be no summer football in the big leagues this season. Play, with the exception of a couple of special matches, will end May 1, peace-time day of closure, instead of wartime's June. No reason was given but—it could mean the Allies will be driving towards Berlin by then.

Stamford Bridge and Tottenham or West Ham are the grounds on which the Football League South Cup semi-finals will be played. The final is scheduled for May 1 at gigantic Wembley Stadium. Providing the grounds are available, Stamford will put on the first semi-final April 17, with the other at Tottenham or West Ham the following week. Choice of ground will depend on which teams reach the semi-finals. The mighty Arsenal Gunners are cup favorites and proof of their drawing ability can be found in the attendance. More than 300,000 have watched them this season—an amazing figure for a club in wartime.

Such problems as those of the post-war period took all the play at a meeting of the Football League management committee, governing body of big-time soccer. It was announced there would be no change in the league immediately after the war but that when conditions became reasonably normal, a full league program as in pre-war years was planned.

Army heavyweight boxing king added a knockout to his string of victories in English rings by dusting off Fred Hart of London in the ninth round of a bout at Bristol. A body blow did the trick. Hart was substituting for George Mac champion of the New Zealand forces who attended the bout but was unable to box because of an injury suffered in a previous appearance.

PICTURE IS EXCITING

"Across the Pacific" Coming to Capitol

Humphrey Bogart turns his active attention to would-be Jap saboteurs in "Across the Pacific," coming to the Capitol Theatre Monday and Tuesday. "Across the Pacific" is a succession of fist fights, gun duels, suspense and crackling dialogue.

Bogart is cast as a captain in the United States Army, dishonorably discharged. Rejected because of his record for Canadian Army service, he boards a Japanese vessel headed for Yokohama. On ship, he meets Alberta Marlow (Mary Astor) and Dr. Lorenz (Sydney Greenstreet).

Greenstreet who admits his great admiration for the Japanese slyly prods Bogart into talking about his discharge and also revealing his great knowledge of military installations guarding the Panama Canal. In New York, Bogart leaves the boat long enough to report to his superior. It becomes evident he's in the Army Secret Service and Greenstreet is the man he's after. Carrying along the game, Bogart "sells out" to Greenstreet and reveals certain information in an effort to trap him and his fellow conspirators. Miss Astor, going to the Bountiful Plantation in Panama, becomes his self-appointed assistant. Business leads to pleasure and soon they're in love. Once in Panama, events develop swiftly. Bogart is captured. The situation calls for swift action in the Bogart manner and "Across the Pacific" is no disappointment.

WEEKLY WARTIME NUTRITION HINTS

Martha Logan, Swift's famed home economist, whose weekly wartime cooking column is a regular feature of this page. Look for these valuable hints each Monday

by Martha Logan

Braised Heart

Liver, Heart or Kidneys should be eaten once a week, say Canada's food rules

Properly cooked, the "variety meats" are really delicious. What is more, they are often less in demand and as "protective foods" they are tops. This week we give you our favourite recipe for Beef Heart. First, the dressing: 1 cup stale bread crumbs, 2 tablespoons chopped onion, 2 tablespoons sausage meat, 1 egg. Brown sausage and onions in 1 tablespoon beef dripping. Add bread crumbs, beaten egg and seasoning. Now wash the heart and remove tubes. Season; fill with dressing and sew up. Brown in hot fat. Add 1/2 cup vegetable stock or water. Cover and cook slowly for about 3 hours till tender, adding liquid as needed. Try serving Heart braised this way, with cauliflower and corn kernels, for a main dish. It makes a thrifty meal but a very delicious one—and you know your family is getting the kind of food that will help keep each of them fit.

"EAT THESE FOODS EVERY DAY!"

say our Government's Nutrition Services
MEAT, FISH, ETC.—One serving a day of meat, fish or poultry. Liver, heart or kidney once a week.
EGGS—At least three or four eggs weekly.
FRUITS—One serving of tomatoes daily, or a citrus fruit, or tomato or citrus fruit juices, and one serving of other fruits, fresh, canned or dried.

FREIGHTER LAUNCHING

Fort Turtle, Which Took Ninety Days to Build, Slides Smoothly Into Water

A period of about ninety days having elapsed between keel laying and launching, another fine 10,000-ton freighter—Fort Turtle—slid smoothly off the stocks of a West Coast shipyard at 2:10 Saturday afternoon. The launching was as successful as any that had preceded it. Blasts of nearby whistles were sounded as the vessel took to the waters.

The launching ceremony itself was of extremely simple character. After the blessing of the ship by Rev. A. F. MacSween, the keel blocks were knocked out and, as the hull started to slide away, Mrs. H. G. Christiansen, wife of a shipwright, smashed the traditional bottle of champagne against the hull.

On behalf of the builders, Mrs. Christiansen was presented with a solid silver inscribed salver by the manager, Bernard Allen. Miss Evelyn Macdonald of the office staff presented Mrs. Christiansen with flowers.

The ninety-day time for construction of the vessel was with full day shifts and two partial night shifts.

CONCERT IS GOOD

Fine Program Furnished by Troops Themselves Last Night

(By Dorothy Garbutt)

Last night's show at the Capitol Theatre was one of the "By the Troops and For the Troops" variety always one of the best drawing cards on the concert program. To get the boys in the mood and incidentally to give the performers just that much more time for their deep breathing exercises guaranteed to cure the most stubborn case of stage fright, the concert was preceded by a rousing sing-song. Led by that veteran performer, Reg Kings, the boys sang such old favorites as "Bless 'Em All," "White Christmas," "Tipperary," "My Gal Sal" and the perennial "When Irish Eyes Are Smiling," the last-mentioned with regimental gusto.

Kings then introduced, as the opening number on the program, Cleaver Wilson impersonating in his own inimitable fashion Gipsy Rose Lee, queen of the strip tease gals. Wilson, however, did it in a way all his own. That is he stripped clear down to his battle dress, taking off in breath-taking order and with a supereundance of archness, coyness and coquetry: 1. an army great coat; 2. a heavy black galosh (left foot); 3. another heavy black galosh (right foot); 4. a pair of coveralls; 5. a long white union suit. Down to a mere winterweight battledress, he tore open his tunic in one dramatic gesture and displayed the slogan of the moment "Help the Red Cross"—and he meant it.

Following Cleaver who now took over from Reg King as master of ceremonies, were Pryzeneuk and Bond in a medley of old time tunes played very skillfully on the accordion and guitar—two instruments that are great favorites with the boys. Next came an item from the Air Force when Walter Black, accompanied at the piano by Al Small, sang numbers from the "Desert Song," taking as his encore "Mother Machree." Walter has a most pleasing baritone voice and his enunciation is so clear that listening to him is sheer delight.

Before introducing the ensuing number, Wilson, like all good masters of ceremonies, felt he must tell a story. As a raconteur complete with facial expressions and appropriate gestures he can't be beat. This time it was the tale of the
