BOMBERS WREAK HAVOC WITH PRECIOUS RUMANIAN OIL

Liberator bombers roar over the Axis oil capitol of Ploesti, Rumania, smashing the refineries with explosives. The blow was a hard one to the oil-hungry Nazi war machine. A flight of 175 planes made a record round trip of 2,400 miles from African bases for the raid. Some of the 600,000 pounds of bombs dropped send smoke clouds billowing skyward.

COMMITTEE, S RESIGNATION

Local Advisory Body of Wartime Housing Quits Owing to Lack of Consultation and Co-operation.

In protest at not being consulted as provided for under the order-in-council which constituted its appointment, the local advisory committee of Wartime Housing Ltd., consisting of R. N. Burnett (chairman), T. B. Black, J. E. Boddie and Robert Gordon, has submitted its resignation to Joseph M. Piggott, president of Wartime Housing. The particular act which brought about the final decision of the committee to resign was the recent appointment of another Vancouver man to the position of local administrator, the committee submitting that it was not consulted in the matter. Further, exception is taken by the committee to an outsider having been appointed to the position when a suitable local man could have been obtained. The local committee also asserts that there has been lack of co-operation and consultation by N. B. Robinson of Vancouver, provincial administrator. The letter of resignation to Mr. Piggott is as follows: "In view of the fact that this committee apparently has no jurisdiction or authority as outlined in Memorandum No. 1 which was submitted to us on our appointment of March 24, 1943, and as regarding recent developments in this area and the appointment of a local administrator as successor to D. I. Johnson, by the provincial administrator (N. B. Robinson) of which we have not been advised, or asked, for approval, we hereby submit our resignation to take effect immediately. "This decision has been reached after due consideration. We submit that this committee definitely disapproves of the present appointment and the procedure followed by the provincial supervisor in this connection."

Dogfight At Dover

LONDON—It was mid-August, 1940, and the Battle of Britain was on full blast. I stood with Associated Press cameraman Eddie Worth on Shakespeare Head on the south coast of England, a couple hundred feet below some heavy guns which were blasting away over the Strait of Dover. The day was so clear you could see a church spire in German-occupied Calais 28 miles away, and in the skies to the left a burning, twisting circus of British and German airplanes fought it out in intricate patterns about a mile high. Occasionally a stray machine-gun bullet sang past us and every now and then a plane would fall out of the melee and scream into the sea in a plume of smoke. Once a Messerschmitt dived and gunned a barrage balloon just above us. The balloon fell burning a few yards off trailing its ethal wires almost over our toes. We were so caught up in the sky scene to the left that we forgot to watch our right. Suddenly the deep roar of many planes jerked our eyes around to a formation of twelve flying low and leisurely toward us. "They surely must be ours," said Eddie. They were flying line astern of the sun, and you couldn't see their markings until the leader cocked his wings in a shallow dive at the guns behind us, the other following. "They're Jerries!" Eddie yelled. See the crosses on the wings! Bareheaded and without cover, we leaped together for a shallow foxhole we'd dug in the chalk. We reached it neck and neck as bombs shook the cliff like thunderclaps and geysers of smoke and earth shot skyward. There was an awful moment of unbearable noise and then it was over. Some of the guns still were going as we lost sight of the planes over the cliff.

WAITRESSES ORGANIZED

New Union is Formed in Prince Rupert With Mrs. Whelan as President.

At last night's regular meeting of the newly formed local No. 331, Hotel and Restaurant Employees, Prince Rupert, an enthusiastic and well attended affair, the highlight of the evening was the installation of the charter of the union by the president of the Trades and Labor Council, August Wallen, J. S. Black, business agent for the Carpenters, and recently returned delegate from the Trades and Labor Congress at Quebec, was on hand to congratulate them into the report of proceedings at the Quebec convention was both interesting and educational and was greatly appreciated by all. J. Mulroney, business agent for the piledrivers and operating Engineers, was enthusiastic in his praise of the accomplishments of organized labor in Prince Rupert Area during the past year, pointing out that most organized crafts hereabouts, had not only had their rates and working conditions brought up to a par with the Vancouver wages but in a great many instances had surpassed them, which he claimed was justified due to a higher cost of living in the north. Stressing the point that the waitresses, too had already reaped the rewards of their organization in more ways than one, in the short space of two months, he exhorted the members to treasure and protect their accomplishments by always giving due consideration to their own point of view. Messrs. Ramsay and Ford of the organizing committee of the Trades and Labor Council also congratulated those present and said they felt assured the new local would prove a valuable addition to the labor movement here. Officers of the new local are: President Mrs. Dixie Whelan Vice President, Mrs. Sadie Knapp, Secretary Treasurer, Marjorie Doll, Recording Secretary, Mrs. Myra Gilchrist.

Fresh Support Being Moved Up; Americans Under Heavy Pressure

Strongest Air Attacks So Far in Mediterranean War Being Directed Against Salerno Region — Naval Guns Also Thunder.

ALLIED HEADQUARTERS IN NORTH AFRICA, Sept. 15 (CP)—Allied troops have beaten off fierce German counter-attacks against the Salerno bridgehead in Italy but were forced last night to yield some ground gained earlier in order to straighten their lines. New support came to the invading forces in the form of the strongest air attacks of the Mediterranean war to date and the thunder of naval guns offshore. Today's Allied communique disclosed savage close quarter combat raged along the whole United States Fifth Army front from Salerno to Agropoli, 27 miles south, with both sides throwing heavy reinforcements of troops and armor into battle. British and Canadian troops, speeding up the west coast to support the American landing, drove through the village of Belvedere, 67 air miles from Agropoli, to close the gap between Allied forces to some eighty miles of coastline by land. Heavy sea-saw fighting swirled in the Salerno sector and the northwest African Air Force hurled all planes at its command against the Germans, flying more than two thousand sorties from dawn Tuesday to dawn today in the greatest air attack ever witnessed in this theatre. Not one Allied plane was lost. The German propaganda machine reported last night, without confirmation, that Canadians, "with many tanks and motorized infantry," are engaged in the Salerno fighting. London had earlier reported, also without confirmation, that units of the Canadian First Army Tank Brigade were in the vicinity.

Says Road Route Best

Walter Wilson Has Plan For Alaska Highway via Hazelton and Naas

SMITHERS, Sept. 15—Walter Wilson of Burns Lake has been in Smithers for several days completing data on his proposed route for the best location of the much talked of Alaska Highway through British Columbia. This route is one that has never been given any attention as yet but the figures compiled by Mr. Wilson would show it to be the shortest route with the lowest grades and the least snowfall of any of the various routes so far suggested. Besides those advantages it has the advantage of rail and highway service to Hazelton, the starting point, and is closest to the coast which gives it easy access to the many ports along the Alaska pan-handle. Mr. Wilson has prepared a map which will be submitted to the provincial government and which shows the route from Hazelton up the Kispiox River, thence over to the Naas River, passing just east of Meziaden Lake and keeping to water grades west of the old telegraph line until it joins the present Alaska Highway from Alberta in the north. So far as possibilities for mining, agriculture, timber, scenery, and not forgetting the immense coal resources of the Groundhog country are concerned, Mr. Wilson claims there is no proposed route can approach this farthest west route. Add to these the feasibility of having the ports along the coast connect with this route and the extra advantage of being able to get in the equipment and supplies to construct the road at the lowest possible cost and it makes a proposition well worth the intensive investigation of the government of British Columbia before they start out to spend untold millions in constructing the highway, he declared.

Good Fish At Babine

Big Lake North of Smithers Becoming Popular Resort

SMITHERS, Sept. 15—Babine Lake is fast becoming a favorite resort for fishing parties from Smithers and from many outside points. All those making the trip to this, one of the largest lakes in British Columbia, are enthused over the splendid scenery and excellent fishing to be had there. Early in July Rev. C. E. Motte established a camp on the shore of the lake for a party of Smithers school boys and they enjoyed two weeks of boating, fishing and swimming under his supervision and greatly enjoyed the outing. Last week a fishing party, consisting of H. F. Noel, A. C. Fowler, O. H. Hoskins of Smithers and Stephen H. Hoskins of Duncan returned from a four day trip, reporting excellent fishing and fine recreation. A. C. Fowler was the champion fisherman of the party, having landed a 15 pound rainbow trout that was too long to put into an orange crate without bending his tail around to fit in. Good catches of fish, including Kamloops trout and char, were gathered in by all of this party. A number of other parties from Smithers have made short trips to Babine and they report also that parties from Prince Rupert are visiting there. The road in from Topley is in pretty fair shape and, as it is only 25 miles from that place,

Japan Asking China to Quit

Proposes That She Should Drop Out of the War and Co-operate With Nipponese.

WASHINGTON, D.C., Sept. 15 —T. B. Sung, Chinese minister to Washington, said that Japan was continuing to make overtures to China to withdraw from the war and co-operate with her. No responsible officials, however, were entertaining the idea. The trip is easily and quickly made. There is no doubt that after the war this area will soon become one sought by fishing parties from far and near.

RED OFFENSIVE CONTINUES
MOSCOW—The great Russian offensive against the Germans continues without slackening and there is no slowing up in the advance of the Red Army principal objectives of which now appear to be Kiev and Novorossisk.

Prince Edward Island...

The little island province of Prince Edward Island is going to the polls today in a general provincial election. Prince Edward Island is a long way from here but the contest there will have some measure of interest for political observers generally even though the Co-operative Commonwealth Federation, which has been cutting such a swath throughout the country lately, may not be very fully represented. The C.C.F. has yet to break very seriously into the political picture of the Maritimes but recent events in Ontario and Quebec have indicated progress in that direction by the Socialist party.

Though the Liberal government's mandate was not due to expire until next year, the calling of a 1943 general election took no one by surprise in Prince Edward Island.

Both the major political parties for months had been getting their battle lines drawn for the contest.

The C.C.F., still in the formation stage in the island province, had not put up any candidates before the election date announcement but the third-party group quickly swung into action.

Both the opposition groups were critical of the way the election was called. Opposition Leader W. J. P. MacMillan, drawing attention to the time between dissolution and voting day, declared the government was "trying for a snap verdict, allowing only the time provided by law to discuss their unsavory record."

For the C.C.F., Provincial Secretary Douglas McFarlane charged the election had been called at this time to "prevent the C.C.F. from getting a start." He declared the outcome of the Ontario general election—where the C.C.F. made big strides—had precipitated this election.

Premier Jones, who took office only last May, retorted that it was usual for a new premier to seek a mandate and lay his policies before the people. Also, he declared, three by-elections would have to be held in any case, and these would cause "almost as much disturbance" as a general contest, which would have to be held early in 1944 anyway.

AMERICANS WIN GAME

Only One Run in Inter-Service Softball League Play-off.

With Southworth on second and one game in the first half of the seventh, Americans' Ambrose hammered a long double into left field and Southworth thundered into pay dirt with the winning and only run of the game in service softball last night.

The contest, which was played between the Air Force Flyers and Port Edward Americans, as part of the Inter-Service play-offs, was closely fought and, like Monday night's struggle, had all the earmarks of going into extra innings. Up to the seventh, it was practically a case of three men up — three men down.

The Flyers had a glorious chance to score in the fourth when Whittaker and Volsky opened with singles. O'Leary followed with a hopping grounder to Southworth at short who attempted to force Whittaker at third. But third sacker Ketchmark interfered with the runner and home umpire Mahl called him safe. But all this effort was in vain. While the cushions were jammed with potential runs, and none down, Brown forced Whittaker at the plate and then the Yanks pulled off the most beautiful fielding gem of the evening when Crymble lined to Ambrose who doubled Volsky off third with a clothes-line peg to Ketchmark to end the inning and ominous threat.

In the fifth, the Flyers again broke out in a rash. One was away when Benes hit the canteen roof for a two-ply smash. But Anderson and O'Connell rolled out, leaving Benes stranded at third.

Then came the fateful seventh—and Ambrose. But the Seal Cove men went down fighting to the very end. In their half, Brown, first man up, flied out, but Crymble lit a spark when he punched one of Kuntz's pitches through short. Hornidge caused the spark to glow a little brighter when he rolled out, advancing Crymble to second. Tall, husky-shouldered, heavy-hitting Benes strode up to the plate to do or die for the boys in blue. American strategy went into a huddle and decided to give the strapping airman a free ticket to first and get at Anderson instead. Benes let the first bad toss go by, then quickly thinking that the Americans would be expecting him to do likewise for the next three, lunged at the next pitch, hoping to catch them off guard. It was a smart gamble but it didn't work. He snotted the sphere down to short for the final put-out and threat of a close double between two evenly matched nines.

There was very little to choose between Crymble and Kuntz; for former gave away three

KEEP VISION KEEN!

FOR CLOSE WORK LONGER HOURS

Men and women can work no better nor faster than they can see. At home, at the office, in the factory, scientific lighting is helping to prevent the eyestrain that so often leads to sub-standard work and reduced production.

To Protect Precious Eyesight, Reddy Kilowatt recommends that you:

- Shade every light to eliminate glare.
- Use indirect reflector lamps wherever possible.
- Use light-coloured shades.
- Place lamps in positions where they will give the most light.
- Avoid sharp contrasts between brightly lighted surfaces and dark backgrounds.
- Guard against light reflected into the eyes from shiny surfaces.
- Keep fixtures, and especially globes, clean.
- For close eye work do not work in your own shadow.
- Use the right size globe.
- When redecorating, use light colours on walls and ceiling.
- Rest your eyes by closing them occasionally.
- If your eyes feel strained or unduly tired, see a competent eye specialist.

REDDY SAYS:
"With lighting fixtures, too, make this your motto:
FIX THEM UP! MAKE THEM LAST! KEEP THEM WORKING!"

Second Coming of Christ Is First Essential

Before a perfect democracy can function the second coming of Christ must first take place declared Evangelist F. T. Balmer of The Bible Facts Campaign last Sunday evening in the Oddfellows' Hall.

Every effort that statesmen make to bring order out of chaos is to be commended but as long as jealousy and greed exist as the tools of sin, it is utterly impossible to bring in the Golden Age or the Millennium of peace and righteousness on earth.

However, there will be peace for a period of 1,000 years which will be ushered in by Christ's second coming with all His angels. Unrepentant living men and women will be destroyed by the brightness of this event, while the resurrected righteous together with the living righteous shall be caught up to meet the Lord in the air and proceed on a long journey to the heavenly country there to reign with Christ for 1,000 years according to Revelations 20:6.

The reign of Christ with the righteous could not be on earth for the prophet Jeremiah (chap. 4:23-27) beheld the earth in a desolate, chaotic state with no men upon it and all the cities broken down at the presence of the Lord and by His fierce anger.

In that heavenly country and its great city, the new Jerusalem to which the patriarchs of old looked, there shall function the "four freedoms" which could not and will not find adequate expression on earth because of coetousness, hatred and prejudice.

The people who enter that country are "holy and without blemish." Sin has been conquered in their lives while on earth.

Faithful parents who had lost their little one through death will have them restored to them. There they will play in the streets of the heavenly city according to the prophet Zecharia (8:5) and "grow up as calves in the stall" (Mal. 4:2).

The animals which God created shall be there and little children shall lead them (Isa. 11:6-9).

The Evangelist, in closing, emphasized the importance of repentance and conversion and holy living in order to participate in the joys of that better world.

Mr. and Mrs. F. Van Antwerp are leaving tomorrow night for Vancouver. Mr. Antwerp has been located here for some time in an executive capacity with the British Columbia Bridge Dredging Co.

ACTIVITIES OF Y.M.C.A. AND Y.W.C.A.
By DOROTHY GARBUTT

Thursday evening Breen and Myrfin are inaugurating a series of discussion groups. These talks will be informal and of the round table variety. They will be on current affairs and all service men and women who are interested are very cordially invited to attend. With events changing so rapidly we are all doing a little extra thinking on our own these days and the exchange of ideas in these groups should help us get our thoughts clarified. The meetings will be held every Thursday evening in the Quiet room on the gallery.

On Thursday afternoon the Service Wives Club will hold its regular weekly meeting in the ladies' lounge at the "Y." With this lovely weather I hope all the ladies will turn out. And we especially extend a welcome to any of the new wives who may have come to town recently. Don't be shy, it's the friendliest of clubs and each member was new herself at one time.

Myrfin showed me the following clipping which I know you will find interesting. He doesn't say, but I think it is from a Toronto paper. Headed by "Y" Carries 61 Cases' Material to Sicily" it says:

"This is what the Canadian Y.M.C.A. War Services took into Sicily to help provide recreational facilities for Canadian soldiers: Seven cases Penguin books and leaflets, 220,000 sheets of paper, 48,000 envelopes, one movie projector (complete), two screens, 16 five-gallon tea urns packed with supplies and equipment, 360 dozen playing cards, 12 dozen softball bats, two dozen softballs, one case sports sundries (note: I think Hec MacKenzie must have arrived in Sicily) 144 dozen cribbage boards (also note: I didn't realise they were planning on sending me over), one case soccer balls boots, five cases sundry games and four cases warehouse supplies.

"In all the supplies were included in 61 cases, totalling 274 cubic feet and weighing 7,318 pounds."

STORY OF NINETIES

A sparkling story of the naughty nineties, "Heaven Can Wait," with Gene Tierney and Don Ameche heading the cast, comes to the screen of the Capitol Theatre here for an extra day's billing this Thursday, Friday and Saturday. Forbidden adventure and stolen romance lend spice to the sophisticated comedy based on the outstanding European play "Birthday."

Included in the cast are such outstanding actors as Charles Coburn, who enacts the role of the skeptical fun-loving grandfather; Louis Calhern and Spring Byington, as mid-Victorian parents of the boy, while Eugene Pallette and Marjorie Main play the girl's mother and father, an amusing team of scrapping Kansas City folks. Allan Joslyn portrays Don Ameche's insufferable, immaculate cousin.

Air Force Wins Cup

Captures Mobley Football Cup by Defeating Ontario Regiment Two to Nothing

Air Force captured the Mobley Cup by winning a sudden-death soccer game over Ontario Regiment two to nothing at Acropolis Hill last night. The teams had played to a two-all tie Saturday.

Both goal-tenders seemed unbeatable in the first half as they turned back all scoring attempts but in the second half Novack knocked the ball through the soldiers' posts to give the Flyers a one-goal lead and Killlops scored to put the Air Force two up.

Ontarios kept the ball in the Airmen's end a good deal of the time in the first half but couldn't cash in on their sniping attempts. However some clever ball-handling was displayed and this, combined with fast action, made it an interesting game to watch.

Kesselowski of the Army team suffered a wrenched leg when he collided with an Air Force player and was taken from the field in an ambulance. The exact nature of his injury was not immediately known.

As in the previous game, there was a large gathering of soldiers in attendance and remaining spectators were only a fraction of their number.

The teams:
Air Force—Goal, Watson; fullbacks, Biore, McAlpine; halves, Mindell, Novak, Bay; centre, Melville; insides, Kerr, Killlops; outsides, Bevington, Fowler; subs, Dmytriuk, Deziel.

Ontarios — Goal, Infantino; fullbacks, Prochuk, Scott; halves, Stengel; Smith, Highton; centre, Mills; insides, Kesselowski, Reid; outsides, Kennedy, Jentsch.
Referee, Woodside.

Smithers has been experiencing some very fine "Indian Summer" weather and full advantage is being taken of it by the farmers to get along with their fall work. A continuance of the same brand for several weeks would be duly appreciated by them.

Several carloads of cattle are being shipped from Smithers this week to the Vancouver market. With a shorter hay crop than usual this year it is probable that many stock raisers will be reducing their herds in order to avoid the possibility of being caught short of feed.

Miss Audrey Wrathall and Miss Vivian Wrathall, who have been on a holiday trip south, returned to the city this morning from Vancouver.

Three of a kind!

CANADIANS ARE ALL ALIKE in one important respect. They do their own thinking and get there under their own power. It's a national characteristic.

No pampered or servile people could have built this nation. It took men of courage and moral fibre to clear the forests, dig the mines—to build our farms and factories, our cities and our towns—to give us a standard of living that is the envy of the world. Canada's greatness stems directly from the self-reliance and initiative of individual citizens. These qualities provide a sure foundation on which to build for tomorrow.

What is PRIVATE ENTERPRISE?
It is the natural desire to make your own way, as far as your ability will take you; an instinct that has brought to this continent the highest standard of life enjoyed by any people on earth. It is the spirit of democracy on the march.
