Fulton acted as defence counsel.

Men Disciplined at Medicine Hat For Absenting Themselves From Work to go to Church

OTTAWA, March 26 (P)—The Department of National Defence reported in a return in the House of Commons at the request of J. F. Roy, Independent member for Gaspé, that forty-five soldiers were punished for absenting themselves from work at Medicine Hat on Sunday morning on the ground that they went to church. The report said that it was not in the interests of the men to give their names. They were members of the Fifteenth Field Company, Royal Canadian Engineers, working on the construction of an internment camp.

Nazis in Control of Mareth Fortifications Again—Fierce Battle Is On

BRITONS WIN GROUND

ALLIED HEADQUARTERS IN NORTH AFRICA, March 26 (CP)—Battering down fierce enemy resistance, General Montgomery's infantrymen have now won new ground in the Mareth sector of the Tunisian front, it was announced today. The six-day old struggle, apparently, has not reached anything like a decision—but counterblows launched in the middle of the week by Marshal Erwin Rommel have fallen off. The Americans repulsed a minor German infantry attack some twenty miles southeast of Gafsa and held firmly to the south side of El Gueatia Pass.

ALLIED HEADQUARTERS IN NORTH AFRICA

March 26—German counter-attacks have sealed the gap which the British Eighth Army had driven into the Mareth Line and the Imperial forces have fallen back to the east side of the line where they are digging in. A great artillery and tank battle is developing outside the line with the Eighth Army holding on the Wadi Zig Sou River despite the heavy pounding of the enemy artillery. This is the first withdrawal the Eighth Army has had to make since its 1700 mile advance out of Egypt.

Meanwhile the United States forces to the north continue to move towards the coast, having advanced another ten miles beyond Ed Gutear. The Americans were reported to have made another breakthrough in the Maknassy area on the central Tunisian front.

Allied planes continue in full control of the air and are keeping up a heavy pounding of enemy bases, communications and concentrations.

Open Office At Whitehorse

Wartime Prices and Trade Board Getting Established in Territory

An office of the Wartime Prices and Trade Board will be opened at Whitehorse, Yukon Territory, early in April. In charge of this office will be O. O. Davis of Calgary. The Whitehorse office will be administered from the Board's regional office at Edmonton which already handles the B.C.-Peace River Block.

The Whitehorse branch will supervise in the Yukon regulations of the Board dealing with prices and supplies, business and services, and rentals regulations.

Already the survey of rentals at Whitehorse is in progress, under W. L. A. Pope, regional rentals officer at Regina and G. B. Wenlaus who is the rentals examiner at the Regina office. They have been appointed a special committee to fix rentals.

After completing their survey at Whitehorse they will proceed south along the Alaska Highway and investigate rental conditions at Fort St. John, Dawson Creek and other towns of the Peace River area.

It is hoped other organizations will endorse this protest, thus helping Dr. R. J. McDonald, medical health officer, in his endeavours for more adequate supplies of this commodity.

Plans were completed for the holding of a dance Monday next.

At the next regular meeting on April 8 First Degree initiations will take place.

NOTIFY PARENTS, TOO

LONDON, March 26 (P)—Considerable attention is being paid to the teaching of domestic science in the colonies, especially in housecraft and infant care and teaching staffs have been strengthened by the appointment of domestic science mistresses in Mauritius (Indian Ocean) and Trinidad (West Indies).

Greek Government in Exile Going to Cairo; Thinks Getting Home

Axis Rushing Defences in Crete and Salonika—Striving To Put Down Guerrilla Forces

LONDON, March 26—The exiled Greek government is transferring its headquarters to Cairo with the ultimate idea, it is said, of following an Allied invasion into their homeland. Meanwhile the Germans are reported to be rushing defence preparations in the Balkans. Three more divisions of Nazi forces have been sent to Crete, it is said, and greater efforts are being made to put down guerrillas in Greece and Yugoslavia. Fortifications of the Nazis in Salonika are also being strengthened.

Budget Adopted; McGeer Wants Social Security

OTTAWA, March 26—The budget was adopted last night after three divisions, all of which gave the government a good majority. G. G. McGeer of Vancouver was cheered when he advocated national currency to finance a social security program. There should be a fifth freedom, he said, freedom from economic debt. The speech was reminiscent of his economic views expressed eight years ago.

Meanwhile the United States forces to the north continue to move towards the coast, having advanced another ten miles beyond Ed Gutear. The Americans were reported to have made another breakthrough in the Maknassy area on the central Tunisian front.

Allied planes continue in full control of the air and are keeping up a heavy pounding of enemy bases, communications and concentrations.

PACT IS RENEWED

Russia and Japan Extend Agreement for Fishing Privileges in North Pacific Waters

LONDON, March 26 (CP)—Japan and Russia, not at war against each other but fighting on opposite sides, have signed an agreement extending Japanese fishing privileges in Soviet far eastern waters, it was announced today. A Moscow broadcast said that Japanese fishing companies must pay between four and five percent more for these privileges than last year when the fee was raised twenty percent. Renewal of the agreement implies a continuation of neutrality between the two nations.

The Russian drive towards Novorossisk and Kerch Peninsula to the south is being maintained.

A new Russian offensive is developing in the Lake Ladoga section west of Leningrad, this being a principal development in the Russo-German war. Thirty-two planes of the enemy were shot down in a single day.

Giving To Red Cross

Orange Ladies To Take Matter Up With Authorities

At a general business meeting of the Ladies' Orange Benevolent Association last evening, with Mrs. E. A. Evans in the chair, the canned milk situation was discussed and the secretary was instructed to write the proper authorities protesting the lack of supply here.

It is hoped other organizations will endorse this protest, thus helping Dr. R. J. McDonald, medical health officer, in his endeavours for more adequate supplies of this commodity.

Plans were completed for the holding of a dance Monday next.

At the next regular meeting on April 8 First Degree initiations will take place.

LONDON, March 26 (P)—Advertiser: "Commando officer, starting stamp collecting for his men during long evenings in isolated locality, asks for gifts of stamps, variety more important than value."

What Peoria Thinks . . .

The Dominion of Canada has decided to go "all out" for the pay-as-you-go principle in income tax collection, observes the Peoria (Illinois) Star. The neighbor-nation to the north had tried out the principle on a "one-third" trial basis and found it workable.

Beardley Rumf visited Canada, at invitation, and explained his plan to legislators and executives. The action followed.

Canada is a smaller nation than the United States and it may well be that action is quicker there than here. But not that much quicker. It may also be explained that Canadians are more hard headed in the matter of raising revenue than we are down here. Here we seem more concerned with impressing upon the citizen his duty to pay taxes to his government, or fussing over possible social and economic inequalities than we are about getting the money in. Yet any such tax is natural anathema to the citizen, and the only excuse he recognizes for dipping into his pocket, at all, is to raise money to win the war.

Mr. Rumf's plan may not be perfect, as is. But the main principle which is to make it possible for a citizen to liquidate his governmental obligations and still remain solvent in private ways, is incontestable. Canada has shown us the way. We hope, before too many years pass, the United States will follow her example.

Post-War Nest-Egg

To any one familiar with the normal British wage scale, or even the rates which the demands of the present emergency have increased in many instances, the statement of Mr. Churchill that between 7 or 8 million workers will have of nest-egg of £200 to £300 in war savings certificates apiece at the end of the war will convey a striking impression of the size and effectiveness of the "cushion" being prepared in readiness for the transition period. Never before in the history of Great Britain has a Prime Minister been able to paint such an encouraging word picture of the financial position in which nearly one-fifth of the people will find themselves at the conclusion of the costliest and bloodiest human conflict in the memory of man.

The point is worth especial emphasis in this country at the present time because of the lesson it should teach Canadians who already are the possessors of government securities—either in the form of bonds or war savings certificates. Some of these investments in Canada's future already have been converted into cash by their owners; latest reports from Ottawa indicate that the process is continuing at a rate which is causing the Minister of Finance not a little alarm. But most of all, of course, this practice is a disservice both to the nation and to the individual. Our people must find still greater sums for the conduct of the war; but those who hang on to and increase their holdings of such securities will be the lucky ones during that trying period which must elapse while the transformation of a wartime economy to a peacetime economy is taking place.

"INGENIOUS USE OF AIRCRAFT"—CHURCHILL

Prime Minister Churchill in an address to the British House of Commons, commended General MacArthur for his "ingenious use of aircraft to solve intricate tactical problems by transport of reinforcements, supplies and munitions, including field guns," in the Allied campaign in New Guinea war front. Pictured ABOVE are howitzer parts being unloaded from a Flying Fortress on the New Guinea war front. The general on the RIGHT is Lieut.-Gen. RED WINGS WIN AGAIN

Move Up in Stanley Cup Series—Three Straight for Boston

TORONTO, March 26 — Detroit Red Wings went ahead again in Stanley Cup hockey playoffs last night by defeating Toronto Maple Leafs 4 to 2. The Red Wings have won two games and the Maple Leafs one in the best out of seven series.

Boston Bruins made it three straight wins over Montreal Canadiens with a three to two victory last night.

SPORT CHAT

Rock Lad, first Canadian-owned horse to compete in the Grand National Steeplechase at Aintree, England, fell at a water jump in that 4½ mile trap-laden course and was killed, five years ago. It was the 100th running of the race and the winner that year was Mrs. Marion Scott's Battleship, sired by Man O'War.

Twelve years ago yesterday there was much heart-searching among golf professionals when a slow-motion movie showed that Bobby Jones and Joyce Wethered, popular of the day, were guilty of "unorthodox styles" in their play. It soon developed, however, that many other famous golfers had broken most of the rules laid down by pro teachers.

WARNED NATION

Lack of Co-ordination in Dealing With Problems Was Seen by Beatty

The late Sir Edward Beatty, then President of the Canadian Pacific Railway, declared in 1937, when he addressed the Canadian Chamber of Commerce at Vancouver: "We have frittered away too much of our national wealth. There has been a lack of united thought and united effort in dealing with major national problems and failure of the better element of our community to give the nation leadership."

Always a believer in the great future of the Canadian West, even during the drought period beginning 1936, Sir Edward at Lethbridge in 1937 urged generous treatment for the people of the devastated area. "Nature will take a hand in solving the drought problem and help will be repaid when normal conditions prevail," he said.

Sir Edward was the first Canadian-born president of the C.P.R. and assumed office on the retirement of the late Lord Shaughnessy. His appointment came as a surprise to the man on the street. His predecessors had all been practical railroad operators while Beatty's experience was confined to the legal work of the company. However, it was accepted that, the railroad having been completed, problems of management in the future would be concerned with conservation of its properties and labor questions for which Beatty's experience was especially valuable.

Beatty entered the legal service of the railway in 1901 at a salary of $50 a month after a short period of practice with a Toronto law firm. He rose rapidly through minor positions in the company's law department, being made assistant solicitor in 1905 and general solicitor in 1910. In 1914 he was made chief counsel and vice-president, becoming president in 1918.

Young Beatty was first put into a school in Toronto where he "did nothing," as the work failed to interest him. He was then placed under a private tutor who made it a practice to study very carefully the peculiarities of each of his pupils. Sir Edward, discussing this master to whom he apparently owed much, said: "This man told me I could amount to something. That was news to me and it was an inspiration. Our master punished us for nothing so severely as for inattention. He was liable to use a ruler on our heads. We all soon learned to concentrate."

Beatty afterwards went to Harbord Collegiate Institute, Upper Canada College, Toronto University and finally Osgoode Hall. He was a normal student, working hard at law during college hours and taking part in most of the sports. He was a good footballer, but not heavy enough to make the senior team in the days when weight was essential. It was while at Harbord Collegiate that he learned the rudiments of extemporaneous public speaking. His contemporaries told of the persuasiveness of his methods and absence of aggressiveness.

DENTISTS FOR WAR PLANTS

LONDON, March 26 (O)—Because Britain's workers are forced to waste half-days in trips to the dentist, the dentist is coming to them. Dental surgeons now being recruited by the government for whole-time service will attend clinics at war factories.

ACTIVITIES

AND Y.W.C.A.

By DOROTHY GARBUTT
The Hostess

Once again I am indebted to dear old Dutch for his efforts on my behalf while I was away. He did some travelling himself during the same time and so we both in turn are very much in the debt of one "Sunshine," the newest of our ghost writing staff. However, next week I am off again and this time taking both "Dutch" and "Sunshine" with me. No, it isn't professional jealousy—so there will be a complete blackout of the column. Anyhow, "Dutch" and "Sunshine" many many thanks for the fine bit of understudy work you put in.

Well I see that you all know I was away at the Queen Charlottes. How I got there is a military secret but how I ever got there is also a mystery because I suffered every known variety of seasickness from plain nausea to the high flown mal de mer. Like the spring poet when admiring one of his own efforts—I didn't think I had it in me. But let us draw the curtain over this painful scene.

I had a most interesting time investigating the prospects of a local Hostess House at Skidegate. The citizens have decided that one is needed there and are going ahead on their own with the most laudable enthusiasm, getting concerts up and raffles and dances all to raise money for the very worthwhile venture. They need a sewing machine and any furniture that is in good repair and worth the paying of the freight on it. In short they need help in this. I stayed with Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Stevens who are pioneers of the district and who know many Prince Rupert old timers. They asked me to extend their best wishes to all their Prince Rupert

CO-OPERATION IN AFRICA

SALISBURY, Africa, March 26 (O)—Northern Rhodesia is exploring possibility of establishing a joint training school with Nyasaland for the training of medical assistants. These schools exist in other sections of British Africa, friends. They are a courteous and hospitable pair and I am greatly indebted to them for their kindness to me.

Back to the home front again—don't forget the Army Unit (Western Gentlemen) dance tonight at the Empress—prizes, competition dances and all juniors most cordially invited. Y.W.C.A. chaperones will be ladies from the Queen Mary Chapter Imperial Order, Daughters of Empire.

WATER

All users of water are urgently requested to reduce the amount consumed to provide some small reserve in case of fire or other emergency. Remedial measures are in hand but the greatest economy in the use of water will still be absolutely essential. Even a saving of one gallon per person per day will help to improve the situation. Your fullest co-operation is earnestly requested.

City Engineer.
