VANCOUVER, Oct. 25 (CP) — Liquor Commissioner W. F. Kennedy last night announced an increase in the beer ration for British Columbians from three dozen pints for the month of November. MINING FALLS, Que., Oct. 25 (CP) — Troops in a nearby training camp at Plant No. 2 of the Canadian Co. of Canada today scattered a picket line of men who had kept the pot since midnight Sunday. Several hundred soldiers were called in to break the picket line.

Everyone Backing Up Loan

Victory Loan canvassers are reaching into every corner of the community to solicit subscribers and very often subscribers figuratively reach out their hands to lead them to their doors. One man, not waiting for the Victory Loan salesman to come to him, went to the headquarters on Third Avenue. There were five in his family and he bought $1,500 worth of bonds, dividing them among all the members.

One newsboy bought a $50 bond for cash and five high school students have bought bonds which they will pay out of their allowances.

On Saturday there was a meeting for city employees in the City Hall at which pictures were shown and talks were given emphasizing the solid value of Victory bonds and the need to put the Fifth Loan over the top. This afternoon a similar meeting will be held in the Court House for government employees.

The first week of the three-week campaign ended Saturday night with an accumulative total of $326,250 subscribed of the objective of $750,000—or well over the one-third mark. Saturday's subscriptions were $14,900.

Further individual subscriptions to be acknowledged are as follows:

Then he went to Vancouver and joined the Finning Tractor and Equipment Co. AGREEMENT IS PATTERN

Settlement of Queen Charlotte Islands Logging Dispute Expected to be Basis of Other Contracts.

VOTE TO RETURN

VANCOUVER, Oct. 25 (CP) — Nigel Morgan, member of the board of the International Woodworkers of America, announced Sunday night that some six hundred loggers in nine Queen Charlotte Island camps voted yesterday to return to work at 8 o'clock this morning. The men voted to return to their jobs after hearing wired reports on the signing of an agreement between International Woodworkers of America and representatives of three logging companies. The agreement recognizes the International Woodworkers of America as the bargaining agency for the employees, this being the demand made by the workers when they walked out October 8.

VANCOUVER, Oct. 25 — The new agreement which brings to an end the strike of some six hundred loggers in nine Queen Charlotte Island logging camps, is between Harold Pritchett, Nigel Morgan and Ernest Dalskog, all International Woodworkers' Association officials; representatives of the Pacific Mills Ltd., J. R. Morgan Co. Ltd. and the Kelley Logging Co. Ltd. and Mr. Justice C. D. Richards, who was appointed by the Dominion government to investigate the dispute. The agreement, subscribed to by officials of a union which claims a membership of fifteen thousand workers in the industry in British Columbia, is expected to set a future pattern for contracts between operator and labor in the province.

The strike was settled when the operators and union representatives on Saturday signed the agreement which recognizes the International Woodworkers' Association of America as the bargaining agency for the employees. Union officials advised the loggers to resume work today pending official acceptance of the agreement by a secret ballot to be conducted in the camps immediately.

The men had stopped work October 8 demanding that the operators sign an agreement recognizing the International Woodworkers' Association as the bargaining agency.

BATTLE OF RUSSIA—

Nazis In Bad Way

GREAT CITY TAKEN
MOSCOW, Oct. 25 — The Russian High Command today announced the capture of Dnieperpetrovsk, important power and strategic city on the Dnieper River, and also Dnieperzhinsk. It is an outstanding victory for the Soviets.

MOSCOW, Oct. 25 — The Nazis threw in reinforcements of troops, planes, tanks and artillery and fought back violently on Monday in a desperate bid to stop the Russian offensive which threatened to trap the Nazis in the Dnieper River Bend as the Reds rolled to within six miles of the iron and rail centre of Krivoirol. The only way out of the trap for the Germans is a 50-mile wide gap from Krivoirol south-eastward to the Dnieper.

Other Russians moved through a Zaporozhe-Melitopol mine field toward the Crimea, having outflanked Dnieperpetrovsk and Dnieperzhinsk. It appeared dubious that the Germans could hold the two cities.

been charged with murder in connection with Shannon's death. Police testified that there was no apparent reason for the attack on Shannon.

Jap Raid On Alaska Hinted

ALLIED HEADQUARTERS IN ALASKA, Oct. 25 — General Butler, commander of Allied forces in Alaska, believes that a Japanese commando raid on the Aleutians or the Alaska mainland is possible. This would be in line with strategy of a new fighting on the defensive as Japan is now doing.

He is known to have a wife in California but there is no local record of any other relatives.

WAR NEWS

FIFTH ARMY MOVING ON
ALLIED HEADQUARTERS IN ALGIERS — The British Eighth Army, fighting on the east side of Italy, has made a decided advance of eight miles beyond Termoli towards Pescara, crossing the Trigo River and capturing three towns. General Bernard Montgomery's forces are now ten miles above Termoli. On the east the Fifth Army, facing difficult mountain terrain, is progressing but not so rapidly. Heavy air attacks have been made on railway facilities and air fields around Rome. Allied heavy artillery has crushed a Nazi counter-attack at Alife on the Fifth Army's right wing, destroying a number of Nazi tanks.

EISENHOWER SPEAKS
ALGIERS — General Sir Dwight Eisenhower, in a broadcast from Algiers, said that victory lies beyond a long and rough road. The Allied armies were ready for hard battles. He appealed for full support on the home front.

BOMBING BRITAIN
LONDON — London had its ninth straight night alert Saturday night when enemy raiders stabbed again. A few bombs were dropped by the enemy planes on one district with some damage but no casualties. East Anglia was also attacked and a few casualties were reported.

REDS OUTSMART NAZIS
LONDON — Fleeing Nazis, outsmarted and slashed along the entire eastern front by the Russians, are in imminent peril of suffering the biggest disaster since the Soviets began their summer offensive. Reports from the battlefield say that possibly 1,500,000 Germans face entrapment by the Russians flanking Dnieper Bend above the Crimea and around Kiev and Gomel. Some sources estimate that more than 1,000,000 Nazis are crowded into the Dnieperpetrovsk area alone. The Russians, now driving southward from captured Melitopol, defence of which cost the Nazis 20,000 men in killed alone, are within 31 miles of Dnieperpetrovsk. The Reds have already carried the attack half way toward Crimea and are also advancing on westward sectors.

HITTING AT REICH
LONDON — Official reports say the visibility was good for the big week-end raid over Kassel in Germany and first reports indicated that the Royal Air Force and the Royal Canadian Air Force had fought through many Nazi fighters on Friday night to concentrate their attack of explosives on the important war and industrial centre. It was the ninth and costliest major raid of the month by the British, 44 bombers, including 12 Canadians, failing to return. A smaller force of heavy planes bombed Frankfurt and Mosquitoes assaulted the Cologne area. There were lighter raids Saturday and Sunday night on the Ruhr and Rhineland.

88 Die In Collision

88 Die in Collision Two Blacked Out Vessels.

PALM BEACH, Florida, Oct. 25 (CP) — Two blacked out tankers, one loaded with aviation gasoline and the other in ballast, collided off the Florida coast in darkness Wednesday night and 88 men died in the flames which spread from the explosion of one.

The Navy Department permitted announcement of the disaster Saturday after investigating salvage possibilities. Twenty-eight merchant crew members and members of Navy gun crews were saved, most of them leaping overboard.

Battle In Mountains

ITALIAN WAR —

ALLIED HEADQUARTERS IN ALGIERS, Oct. 25 (CP) — Violent mountain battles flared up Monday on the Anglo-American Fifth Army front following an Allied three-mile drive that took the vital rail and road junction of Sparanise, 13 miles from the western coast. The advance placed the Allies north of the stoutly defended Regia defence canal leading to the sea and imperilled the position of Nazi troops in that area. The Germans launched several counter-attacks to relieve the position but were repulsed.

On the British Eighth Army's front General Bernard Montgomery's men poured into an enlarged bridgehead across the Trigno River to attack German positions. Heavy bombers blasted southern Austria and raided Tirana, Albania, airfield.

ACIENNE LORETTE, Que., Oct. 25 — A faint S.O.S. call, believed to have come from a portable transmitter carried by the R.C.A.F. Liberator missing in northern Quebec, was picked up today by a searching Anson plane in the area 25 miles northwest of Grand Mere.

Queen Charlotte Islands Strike . . .

It is satisfactory news that the loggers' strike on the Queen Charlotte Islands has been settled. It was most untimely that such a dispute should have occurred in an important and vital war industry. Had everybody concerned been reasonable in dealing with the points at issue it would never have happened. The basis of settlement is sufficient evidence to prove that settlement.

These are serious days in the business of producing the instruments of war in some of which the spruce of the Queen Charlotte Islands is an important constituent. Everything should be done to obviate tie-ups and certainly obstinacy or intolerance should not be permitted to lead to the interruption of orderly production.

The Late William Brown . . .

Only a few weeks ago we were expressing regret and sympathy over the news that Sergeant Pilot William Brown was missing while on service overseas with the Royal Canadian Air Force. Now we do so on the occasion of the passing of his father, the late Sergeant Major William M. Brown, also a gallant soldier and a good pioneer citizen.

The late "Bill" Brown will be deeply missed by many friends for he was widely acquainted and all who knew him regarded him highly. The place of honor and responsibility he had held in many organizations—public, social and fraternal—with which he was identified was sufficient token of the high regard in which he and his abilities were held. His passing removes another from the ranks of Prince Rupert's real pioneers who are rapidly dropping out these days.

The Daily News joins with the rest of the community in expressing sincere sympathy to the now doubly bereaved widow and daughter.

How Long to Victory? . . .

How long will it be till the bells and whistles burst into a mad discord of victory: till the glad morning when you go to meet Tom at the station—home from overseas to stay; till the family can go for a Sunday afternoon drive in the country; till you can have three cups of coffee and a big juicy steak whenever you wish; till all the strain and uncertainties cease to hang over our heads, and blessed peace settles in our hearts and our land?

How long? That depends on all of us, and how we back up such things as Canada's Fifth Victory Loan. If we Canadians fail to give our all-out support to the war effort, the war may be prolonged by months; thousands of lives may be sacrificed needlessly; the terrible cost of war may go on and on. But if all Canadians place their savings and their earnings completely at the service of the country, they help to bring the day of total victory that much closer.

Through four long years support has been given to the war effort—in the dark days when Norway was invaded, when France fell, when our enemies crashed deeper into Russia, threatened Cairo, and swept through Hong-Kong, Singapore and Java. We must stick to the job till the end. We must not relax or falter. By putting more of our dollars than ever before into Victory Bonds, we help to "Speed the Victory."

VICTORY LOAN CONCERT HELD

Excellent Radio and Stage Show Presented Here Yesterday Afternoon

Featuring the fine Royal Canadian Navy Band of H.M.C.S. Chatham, the popular Acropolis Hill Choir and a locally organized group known as the Victory Players, an acceptable combined radio and stage show was presented yesterday afternoon from the Capitol Theatre in support of the Fifth Victory Loan campaign. The audience at the point of origin nearly filled the theatre and, of course, many more heard the broadcasting of the first half of the concert by way of their radio receivers. The show was presented by arrangement of the publicity committee of the local Victory Loan committee with Maurice Brydges as the moving spirit.

The Navy Band, under the deft direction of Chief Petty Officer Sunderland, was making its first appearance in a public concert and it was also its initial local radio broadcast. It effectively demonstrated splendid talent and versatility with a repertoire which was representative of all types of band music from popular marches to the classics with touches of popular modernism and light opera. The numbers were the marches "Gypsy Land" and "Thunderer," Sigmund Romberg's "Student Prince," "Valse Blue," the novelty "Toy Trumpet," the modern "Havana" and the haunting "Night and Day."

The Acropolis Hill Male Chorus, directed by John E. W. Clark and with Andy McNaughton as a discriminating piano accompanist, made a splendid impression with its vocal harmonies in numbers such as Lewis Ford's "Proudly as the Eagle," Robert Burns' "Auld Lang Syne," Stephen Foster's "Jeannie With the Light Brown Hair" and David Owens' "All Through the Night."

The Victory playlet was written and directed by Bruce Stephens who also took part. The theme was the meeting of a party of Canadian soldiers overseas leading up to an appeal for support of the Victory Loan. Others participating were Len Griffiths, Carlton Clay, Chester LeMaitre and W. J. Johnston.

An impressive recitation was dramatically presented by Mrs. George Marchedon, this also being in the nature of a Victory Loan support appeal. Appropriately enough, Mrs. Marchedon is the wife of a well known local boy who is serving overseas. Lloyd Morris was master of

SMITHERS

The wedding took place in St. James Anglican Church Smithers, of Hazel Gertrude, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Leach, Smithers, and Maurice Harry Wright, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Wright of Prince Rupert. Rev. N. H. Atkinson officiated. The bride wore a frock of turquoise blue, with navy accessories, and was attended by Mrs. A. Sward, who wore a two-piece frock of floral crepe with beige accessories. Groomsman was Russell Morgan of Prince Rupert. A reception was held at the home of the bride's parents, at which a great many friends gathered to convey their best wishes to the bride and groom. Dancing and singing were enjoyed by the guests during the evening. Mr. and Mrs. Wright intend to make their home in Prince Rupert.

With their first objective for the Fifth Victory Loan set at $40,000, bond salesman reported a more auspicious start than in previous loans. First day's sales, exclusive of the railway, bank and government offices ceremonies and announcer. Usherettes were Miss Eleanor Moxley, Miss May Hartin, Miss Margaret Dodimead and Miss Eva Cavalier.

was $2,500. Dr. L. M. Greene bought the first bond.

A farewell party for Pte. Garnet Anderson was held at the home of his parents recently when 30 young people gathered to bid him goodbye before his departure for Camp Borden, Ontario.

Johnny Barker arrived from Vancouver last Tuesday to spend furlough with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. Barker, Second Avenue.

R. V. Stuart, secretary of the British Columbia Logging Association, prior to announcement of the agreement, said Friday night that "we have every reason to believe a settlement has been reached to end the 22-day old strike of some six hundred Queen Charlotte Island loggers and the plan should ensure resumption of operations on Monday."

Stuart had been one of the representatives of the operators in negotiations with Mr. Justice C. D. Richard who was appointed by the Dominion government to investigate the dispute.

The loggers walked out when the operators refused to sign an agreement recognizing the International Woodworkers of America as the bargaining agency for the employees.

Nigel Morgan, International Woodworkers' Association board member, refused to confirm or deny Stuart's report. He said that, if a satisfactory agreement is reached, union officials would wire the loggers urging an early return to work.

Stuart said that the agreement involved concessions on both sides and would ensure peaceful conditions in the Queen Charlotte Islands spruce industry for the duration of the war.

It had been suggested that the strike would be formally over at noon Saturday with the signing of an agreement.

WINDOW GARDEN—The joy of watching things grow, says Marion Harlow of nutrition services, can continue all winter if parsley plants are dug from gardens and brought indoors in pots. Besides being decorative, parsley is unusually rich in vitamin C, vitamin A and iron—which is another excellent reason for having some growing in your winter window garden.

PEPPER - UPPERS — Even though the season is getting late, ingredients for some years of pickles still are available and if you feel that your supply of them is not all it might be, Laura Pepper of the Dominion department of agriculture offers this new recipe for chopped cucumber pickle:

Peel, remove seeds and cut in small dice four cups of green cucumbers. Chop one cup onions, add to cucumbers with one and one-half teaspoons salt; cook together slowly for one hour, stirring slowly.

Now add three-quarter cup white sugar, one cup cider vinegar, one-half teaspoon tumeric, one-half teaspoon celery seed, one cup sweet red peppers, one cup green peppers, one and one-half cups apple and one cup celery, all chopped fine. Cook 20 minutes longer and pack in sterilized sealers.

PLANNING MEALS — Most housewives, day in and day out, are confronted with the problem of planning and preparing well-balanced, interesting lunches. Lunch or supper dishes seem more of a problem than dinner dishes.

A basic pattern of soup, salad or sandwich and dessert which can be varied from day to day may prove the answer to the what-to-have-for-lunch problem. Nutrition services say that a nutritionally adequate lunch should contain milk, a fruit or vegetable or both, and some form of protein food such as meat

VITAMIN D—Though autumn days may be filled with sunshine, it is time to start children on supplementary "bottled sunshine"—vitamin D, authorities say. "Bottled sunshine," which sounds more attractive than "fish-liver oil," truthfully describes cod and other fish-liver extracts. These oils and extracts supply vitamin D directly, while exposure to the direct rays of the sun enables the body to manufacture its own supply of the vitamin. For eight or nine months of the year in our northern country, growing children need supplementary "bottled sunshine" in the form of cod or other fish-liver oils.

IRONING TIP—New material designed for an ironer or ironing board cover should be laundered before taking up its new position. If this is not done, the fabric is apt to scorch.

MEDICAL DISCOVERY — A new serum especially effective in cases of injury to the bone will soon be produced on a mass scale in Soviet Russia.

Lieut. Mollie Entwistle, B. E. M.

A hotel fire is blazing one mid-winter night in Ottawa . . . Lance-Corporal Mollie Entwistle, Canadian Women's Army Corps, leads ranks under her command to safety. She's ill with a high fever . . . it makes no difference . . . she returns to the building . . . assists other occupants to safety. Canada's Governor-General pins the British Empire Medal to her tunic . . . the tunic of the same Mollie Entwistle, of Hamilton, who early in the war helped to organize a women's defence corps . . . who is one of the first to enlist in the C.W.A.C. Today, it is Lieutenant Mollie Entwistle . . . C.W.A.C. recruiting officer for Military District No. 2.

Says Mollie: "C.W.A.C.'s are buying Victory Bonds, because, like everyone else, they want to see this war won just as quickly as possible."

Messenger Jill Humphreys

A mobile canteen bumps over the English lanes through the blackest winter Britain ever saw . . . a 16-year-old girl driving. No more going to school abroad for a determined young Canadian . . . working in London's Beaver Club . . . the B.C. Canteen, supervised by her mother . . . an air raid . . . her mother is killed . . . her brother, an R.A.F. flier injured . . . grounded for the duration. Jill Nicola Humphreys, of Victoria . . . heads home to Canada . . . goes through a torpedoing at sea. Today, at 19, she serves aboard H.M.C.S. Bytown, at Ottawa . . . one of that establishment's hardest working messenger "WRENS."

Says Jill: "I think you know how I must feel about Victory Bonds. There are many reasons for buying them . . . mine is a very personal one."

Corp'l Doris Duncan

There is a burst of flame near a gasoline tender being fueled from a flying school's huge tanks. Without hesitation, a girl races into a building that contains thousands of gallons . . . turns off the pump . . . returns quickly to her job as an air-woman equipment assistant. Disastrous explosion averted . . . a grateful Chief of Air Staff commends a pleasant-looking, quiet, young woman for her courage and resourcefulness. Cpl. Doris Duncan is her name . . . an Ottawa girl . . . hers is an Air Force family . . . her father, her brother . . . and her husband, a wireless air gunner.

Says Doris: "When war is over, our Victory Bonds will help us settle back in civilian life. Meantime, we're in uniform, and our dollars are serving Canada too."

Match their valour with your self-denial

These are only three among thousands of Canadian women who are proud to wear the uniform . . . who do the countless, vital tasks behind the front line . . . who add to the temper of Canada's hard-striking forces.

Canadian women on the "home front" have an obligation to back the Victory Loan in the same way that their sisters in uniform are backing our armed forces. Each housewife can buy additional Victory Bonds by even more careful budgeting . . . salary earners by purchasing bonds from accumulated savings and by payroll deductions. Your stake in victory is not less than that of the women in our armed forces . . . and they, too, buy Victory Bonds.

Educational System Under Discussion

"To What Extent Does the Canadian Educational System Meet the Requirements of Changing Economic and Social Life?" This was the subject of the discussion at the open forum for service men which was held at the local Young Men's Christian War Services Hut last week. Breen Melvin was, as usual, in charge and the discussion was led by Douglas Bishop of the teaching staff of Booth Memorial High School. About 18 were present and the most of them took part in the discussion.

Tonight a discussion on the co-operative movement will be led by G. T. Greenwell of the University of British Columbia extension department and next week banking will be the subject with Arnold Flater leading the discussion.

Fire in Sixth Street Cafe

A fire, caused by a kitchen stove overheating the wall behind it, broke out at 10 o'clock last night in the Green Spot Cafe on Sixth Street near Second Avenue, doing an undetermined amount of damage. The fire spread upward on the outside of a brick chimney running up through the Empress dance hall above the cafe.

Running hose lines in through the cafe and through the dance hall, firemen had the blaze under control before it had advanced to a state where the whole building was threatened.

Prince Rupert Chinese Acts as Star Witness in Vancouver Prosecution

Wong Gonn, Chinese cannery worker from the Prince Rupert district, is the star witness for the crown in a bawdy house trial which is proceeding in County Court in Vancouver before Judge Harper. The defendant is Raymond Runner charged with living in part on the earnings of prostitution at the Palace Rooms on West Hastings Street in Vancouver.

Wong Gonn told of visiting the Palace Rooms and asking for a room and a girl. Runner took him to a room for which he charged 50c, telling him to wait a few minutes. Soon a girl entered the room and the Chinese paid her $2 which had been given him by the police.

Runner had been arrested and released on $200 but disappeared and was eventually re-arrested in Toronto and brought back to Vancouver.

NATIONAL SELECTIVE SERVICE

A WORD OF CAUTION
TO MEN OF MILITARY AGE AND TO THEIR EMPLOYERS

National Selective Service Civilian Regulations authorize the Minister of Labour to require that male employees furnish their employers with evidence that they have not failed to comply with National Selective Service Mobilization Regulations (i.e., the Military Call-Up).

It is intended that an order will be issued shortly, requiring employers to carry out the necessary check on their male employees, and to report any men who do not produce the required evidence of compliance.

The check up will cover every male employee who has reached the age of 18 years and six months and has not reached his 38th birthday. The man will have to show evidence in one of the following forms:—

- (a) A man discharged from the Armed Forces following service during the present war should have his discharge certificate. A discharged man who has not a certificate should apply for one in the following manner:—
Army—District Officer Commanding, Military District in which discharge took place.
Air—Records Office, R.C.A.F. Headquarters, No. 5 Temporary Building, Ottawa, Ont.
Navy—Secretary of Naval Board, Ottawa, Ont.
- (b) A man who has responded to a direction from a Registrar of a Divisional Mobilization Board, to report for medical examination under Mobilization Regulations, should have either a certificate of unfitness or an order for postponement of military training from the Divisional Registrar. (A man entitled to either document who has lost his copies should immediately apply to the Divisional Registrar who issued the original, for a duplicate.)
- (c) A man who has been rejected on application for voluntary enlistment in the Army since the beginning of the war, should have a certificate showing that he was rejected through medical unfitness. (If a man entitled to such a certificate does not possess it, he should apply to the District Military Headquarters of the District in which he applied for enlistment, in order to procure the necessary form.)
- (d) A man in the designated classes who has not reached his 38th birthday, who was married as at July 15th, 1940, or who, having been married before that date, is a widower with children, must be prepared to furnish evidence, such as a marriage certificate or birth certificate of a child, to show that he was married before July 15th, 1940, and that he is now either married or is a widower with children.
- (e) A man who has reported for enrolment in the Army under an Order—Military Training issued under the Mobilization Regulations and who has been rejected should have a certificate showing he was rejected through medical unfitness. If a man entitled to such certificate does not possess it, he should apply to the District Officer Commanding the Military District in which he was rejected.
- (f) (i) A man who is not subject to the Mobilization Regulations because he is an enemy alien who has not made application for naturalization may obtain a certificate from a registrar of his Divisional Mobilization Board indicating that the Mobilization Regulations do not apply to him and such certificates must be obtained by all such enemy aliens.
(ii) A man who is an alien and neither a national of Belgium, Czechoslovakia, The Netherlands, Norway, Poland, the United States nor Yugoslavia and has not applied for naturalization may be relieved of his duty under Mobilization Regulations, but he gives up his right to future Canadian citizenship after the war; where such men have applied for such relief and been granted such status, certificates will be issued by registrars in appropriate cases.

This caution is issued to facilitate compliance with the order which is proposed. A reasonable interval will be allowed to permit men to provide themselves with whatever document, as referred to above, they may be entitled to hold.

Employers are requested to give notice of this proposal to their male employees, to facilitate the operation of the order when issued.

ACTIVITIES OF Y.M.C.A. AND Y.W.C.A.
 By DOROTHY GARBUTT

The following timely "Victory Loan" verses were given me today by AC "Robbie" Robbins, RCAF. The idea behind the poem is that of a war worker father pledging his all to his country because of his son overseas.

A FATHER'S PLEDGE
 We said good-bye to our son last night,
 Our boy of the yesterday,
 Who used to come toddling up to us
 To kiss his hurts away.

I was shaken a bit when he stooped down low
 And kissed his Mother's tear.
 But I gripped his hand and smiled at him,
 And he didn't guess my fear.

"You'll take care of her, won't you Dad?
 She's precious to me, you know;
 It's the mothers and sweethearts and homes we love
 That make us want to go."

I was proud of my soldier son last night,
 And of thousands of others, too,
 Who have pledged themselves in the spring of life
 To see the battle through.

And I swore by the flag that I honour,
 And by our God divine,
 That I shall produce for Victory
 Each working hour of mine.

This badge I'm wearing so proudly,
 Burns deeply, a symbol bright,
 Keeping the faith with these men of ours,
 Leading them through the night.

If I should falter or I should fall,
 Who knows but the bitter cost,
 May mean a plane, or a ship at sea,
 Or a hard fought battle lost.

The blood of a thousand men and one
 May be spilt because of me,
 "I must" give more than my "nearly all"
 That mankind may be free

Tribute to Dr. Grant

A representative community congregation gathered yesterday morning at First Presbyterian Church where a special memorial service was held in tribute to the beloved former minister of the church from 1911 to 1925, Rev. Hugh R. Grant D. D., who died recently in Fort William. The service was conducted by the pastor, Rev. Alex F. MacSween, and was featured by memorial addresses by W. W. C. O'Neill, clerk of the Presbyterian Church congregation; P. H. Linzey, one of the leaders of First Baptist Church, and Rt. Rev. G. A. Rix D. D., Bishop of the Anglican diocese of Caledonia. Fitting tribute to the memory of deceased was paid by these three old personal friends.

Bishop Rix chose as the text of his address "I knew a man in Christ who ascended into heaven and has seen unspeakable things" from the Epistle to the Corinthians. In body and mind Dr. Grant had been a truly great man who had made his mark the hard and rough way. The Bishop told of a visit he had paid to Dr. Grant only a year ago at Fort William where the latter had been a patient for nine years. There he was, although body was tragically crippled, still strong and buoyant in mind, spirits as indomitable and cheerful as ever, calling on and ministering to fellow patients, a test of faith and zeal, deploring deeply the tendency to minimize the word of God. A truly good and great man, Dr. Grant would not himself regret that he had gone to his reward—a man in Christ, ascended into Heaven to see and experience unspeakable things. It was in that spirit that the Bishop regarded the passing of a truly good and great man.

Mr. O'Neill felt that Dr. Grant would have appreciated no greater tribute than that his friends should assemble in the church building which was conceived, planned and brought to completion by him and his loyal followers, a place that would be hallowed as his monument. Mr. O'Neill reviewed the association of Dr. Grant with the local church and congregation, how they had increased in stature and favor under his inspiring ministry and leadership with increased membership and missionary activities as well as financial achievement, culminating in the building of the new and spacious church. It was well and gratifying, Mr. O'Neill said, that the members of the congregation should not have waited until their friend passed away to express their affection and love but had year after year said by resolution in effect "We love you and we tell you so." He was one of those heroic souls, imbued with goodness and greatness, who appeared only too rarely as beacons of radiant hope and divine ardor who inspired hope and kindled courage.

Mr. Linzey recalled the incident how, when he was a young man leaving England for Canada, he had come across Ralph Connor's novel "The Sky Pilot" in a train. He had been inspired at that time by the book and little did he dream that the hero would become a personal friend who was to officiate at his marriage here in Prince Rupert. Now it was a privilege to have been called upon to participate in the paying of tribute to the memory of a trusted and loyal servant of God whose life and example had enriched all those who had come within the radius of his influence. Possessing all the attributes of a true Christian, he preached powerfully, positively and fundamentally. He was broadminded but he never compromised with the corrosive doctrine of the modern school. He was a born pioneer and he loved to blaze new trails for his gospel messages. His influence and the results of his life's work would live long after him. The church he had built was a material monument but his influence would be an even greater and more lasting one.

During the course of the service, there was a minute of silent prayer by the standing congregation.

The choir, with Mrs. E. J. Smith as leader and organist, sang as anthems "Thou Wilt Keep Him in Perfect Peace" and "Sunset and Evening Star." Bishop Rix pronounced the benediction.
