Allies Take Base at Mubo and Shoot Down 45 Enemy Planes in Stiff Fight

ALLIED HEADQUARTERS IN THE SOUTHWEST PACIFIC, July 16 (P)—The achievement of a big land victory by Allied forces, which included the capture of the Japanese base of Mubo on the island of New Guinea during which 950 Japanese were destroyed, and a sensational air triumph in which 45 enemy planes were shot down out of a formation of 80 planes were announced by Allied headquarters today. The seizure of Mubo opened the way for an advance on the Japanese airbase at Salamaua less than 12 miles north.

In the air battle only three Allied fighter planes were lost.

T. D. Pattullo Inquires if Policy Instituted by His Government Being Maintained

In the course of discussion of the city's financial position at last night's special meeting of the city council with T. D. Pattullo M.L.A., the matter of payment of taxes by the provincial RETIRES government to the city on regovernment was raised.

Payment of taxes on such property was instituted some years ago by Mr. Pattullo's government, some $80,000 being thus paid. Mr. Pattullo inquired if these payments had been continued. If not, he felt they should be and the city would be

The city clerk was instructed to ascertain the position in regard to payment of such taxes.

Shipbuilding Achievement Is Remarkable, British House of Commons is Told

LONDON, July 16 (P) Canada's shipbuilding effort since the start of the war was described as "one of the most remarkable things in the history of the British Commonwealth" during the debate in the House of Commons on wartime and postwar merchant shipping.

Sir Arthur Salter, joint Parliamentary secretary to the ministry of transport, said Canada now is building approximately the same tonnsize of merchant ships as Britain in addition to corvettes and other protective naval craft.

Alex Walker, president of the Canadian Legion, has presented a brief to the House of Commons, the the evening free and are able with his "road program" besubject matter of which points a pertinent finger at to attend, and I hope there will cause his preference for "B" the problems of post-war reconstruction and re-es- at the Y. tablishment in Canada. The brief, which bears the official approval of the Canadian Legion, states in part that "Canada can never survive, nor indeed, will her people tolerate, such a depression as they experienced before the war."

There are other recommendations and proposals in the brief but they are subsidiary to the assertion quote. That assertion, we think, encompasses a problem which, after victory, is the biggest thing that the Canadian people will find balanced on the brim of the future.

In the years before the war there was a docility Nursing Sister Rutherford and prevailing in this nation which allowed the interest Pte. After the war there will be progressive changes in this country. The wartime sacrifices and focussed ideals of the people have engendered a unity which will probably never find expression in any single both brought and served the reparty slogan but will, nevertheless, be fruitful in power to bring about social and economic betterment. Following the war Canada will have the facilities for tremendous development. But this country must develop not inflate. A vast lumber production will be more significant for despoiled forest acreage than anything else if at the same tine part of our population is poorly housed. And there is shame in our land being drained of its rich elements to produce a half billion bushel grain surplus while at the same time part of our people are underfed. These things happened before and they depressed the spirit of Canada. If they happen again they may cause it to revolt.
