FALL OF ATTU ISLAND WASHINGTON — Japanese defenders of Attu Island in the Aleutians have been pushed by the American landing forces into a narrow strip near Chicagoff Bay where they are under United States naval fire. The fall of Attu is expected hourly and Kiska will then be threatened from both sides.

EUROPEAN AIR WAR LONDON-For the ninth consecutive night the Royal Air Force had its bombers out over Germany and the occupied countries of western Europe, striking at enemy objectives. Targets included industries at Bremen and Essen and Berlin was again under fire by mosquito bombers. One British plane failed to return. London had a brief air raid alert last night but no bombs were dropped.

NAZIS THROWN BACK MOSCOW - Twelve thousand Nazi troops made a fierce assault on Russian lines outside of the naval base of Novorossisk on the Black Sea but the Russians, with heavy fire of a counter-attack, threw them back with large casualties. Six Nazi barges, laden with enemy troops, were sunk by the Russians in the Black Sea in the vicinity of Kierch Peninsula.
