RAISED ALERT — Coast Ship Makes Stir

Gunnery practise responsible for some excitement Saturday Night.

OTTAWA, Dec. 20.—Routine gunnery target practise of a friendly coastal merchant vessel off the west coast of Vancouver Island caused an alert for the army, navy and air force of British Columbia and Washington Coasts Saturday night about dusk. It threw military establishments of the Pacific into turmoil. Not until early Sunday was the source of some twenty shells which landed near a small cape between Tofino and Port Hardy definitely identified.

The coastal vessel, identity of which is not revealed, paused in the course of her voyage for the practise, and lobbed some twenty shells into the sea within one hundred yards of important military installations, falling short of shore none landing and no damage or injuries resulting. Meanwhile the shelling was reported to Pacific Command.

Leaves for military personnel were cancelled and air and navy patrols were sent out to scour nearby waters for hostile craft. All Vancouver Island was blacked out.

The alert was lifted when it was established that a friendly vessel had been responsible for the incident.

AMERICANS HOLD WELL

Americans Retain All Positions On New Britain—Air Attacks Broken Up.

ALLIED HEADQUARTERS IN NEW GUINEA, Dec. 20.—American planes providing protection for ground forces securing an invasion beachhead on New Britain, have broken up repeated Japanese air attacks, shooting down nine bombers and five fighters on Saturday. Meanwhile ground troops consolidated their beachhead. Every position seized has been retained.

American invasion forces on New Britain Island were approaching Arawe airstrip, six miles east of the Tip of Arawe Peninsula, a headquarters spokesman said today. The possibility that the presently un-serviceable airstrip may be in American hands by this time was suggested by the spokesman's statement which was based on reports as of late Saturday.

Meanwhile Japanese air attacks against United States positions on the southwest coast of the island are diminishing in the face of the strong Allied air support for ground forces.

SOBRIETY QUESTION

Further Evidence at Preliminary Trial Arising Out of Stabbing Affray.

The perpetrator of the stabbing of Paddy Keogh and Martin LeBelle did not appear to be drunk when he entered the lobby of the Knox Hotel on the night of November 19, Joseph C. LaBelle, father of Martin LaBelle, testified at the preliminary hearing of William Samuel Cooper, charged with wounding Keogh.

LeBelle described the man who wielded the knife as "a whiskered man."

He said that he and his son Martin and another man were sitting in the lobby of the hotel about 9 o'clock in the evening when two men, one a civilian with whiskers, and the other wearing khaki pants and wind-breaker, entered.

They asked if there were any girls in the hotel and when told that there were no girls there, one of them said, "Come on, let's go."

At that time Paddy Keogh entered the lobby and the whiskered man made a "pass" at him but did not hit him. The second man went out of the door. Martin LaBelle and Keogh held the whiskered man's arms until he agreed to go. They did not see the other man again.

Within a matter of minutes the whiskered man returned to the lobby and was told to get out. Keogh, apparently seeing that the man held a knife, tried to take it away from him. The other two men joined Keogh in trying to disarm the man, LaBelle said.

Before the struggling group fell to the floor, the whiskered man swung the knife several times. LaBelle said that he believed his son was stabbed first, then Keogh. While they were on the floor, LaBelle had pulled the man's arm over his back to make him drop the knife.

Other witnesses who gave testimony at the two-day hearing were Constable Turtle and Corporal Lashmar of the city police, Sergeant Albert Earle McBrien, R.C.A.F. Leading Aircraftsman Francis C. LaBelle, Doctors W. C. McDonald and Dr. L. W. Kergin and Paddy Keogh.

The specific targets of today's assaults were not named.

Yesterday's attacks encountered greater fighter opposition but forty-three German planes were shot down.

A communique said that Innesbruk railway yards were subjected to "great and accurate bombardment" and added that some of the sixteen missing planes are believed to have landed in friendly territory.

Mr. Matheson was about 45 years of age and is survived by a widow and eleven-year-old daughter. The funeral will take place in Vancouver.

TAX LAWS CRITICIZED

Inequality of Natives, Health and Election of Officers Probed at Brotherhood Conference.

The fact that the intricacies of income tax forms, which are the subject of self-confessed bafflement to members of parliament, are expected to be an open book to native fishermen, who, to be within the law, must estimate in advance their annual incomes from a highly uncertain industry was the basis for complaint at the convention of the Native Brotherhood of British Columbia at Cape Mudge recently according to William Beynon of Port Simpson, one of the returning delegates, who was in town during the week-end.

Mr. Beynon was appointed northern business agent for the Brotherhood at the conference.

Fishermen are required to fill out income tax forms at a time of year when prices and operating costs have not been adjusted and thus have no basis of estimation other than the previous year's income. Conditions during the coming fishing season could make an estimate based on the past year altogether incorrect, the Brotherhood complained.

The conference, which lasted a week and was attended by delegates from 42 villages along the coast, dealt with the problems of fishermen, the inconsistencies of the Indian Act, the Military Act, health and hospitalization, and the re-election of executive.

Alfred Adams of Massett, Queen Charlotte Islands, was re-elected president.

"Why is it that we are classified as British subjects sometimes but not all the time?" asked Andrew Paul, Vancouver business agent. "Why are we British subjects when it comes to paying taxes or conscription but in matters such as widows' pensions, mothers' allowances, relief, or the franchise, we are no longer British subjects, only wards of a government department?"

The revocation of the power of Indian agents to act as judges was favored by the conference, Mr. Beynon said. There had been instances it was revealed, where an Indian agent had presided at a court when he had also ordered the accused's arrest, provided the evidence, and acted in effect as prosecutor.

The problem of health among natives was the subject of considerable discussion. Dr. W. S. Barclay, head of the Coqual-e-tza Native Hospital at Sardis gave talks and showed films depicting the fight against tuberculosis. The conference passed a resolution asking the government for a $10,000 grant to build a hospital on the west coast of Vancouver Island, near Nootka.

Returned by acclamation to the post of president was Alfred Adams, Massett. District vice-presidents elected were: Northern, Johnson Russ; Skeena interior, Wallace Morgan; Central, Guy Williams; Alert Bay, William G. Scow; Nootka, August Murphy. Paul Price of Port Simpson, was chosen treasurer. William Beynon was appointed northern business agent.

Red Army Winter Offensive Smash Fully Under Way

LOSS OF KHERSON IS SERIOUS BLOW FOR ENEMY—BALTIC LINE OF NAZIS HAS ALSO BEEN CRACKED.

LONDON, Dec. 20 (CP)—The Red Army has smashed the southern anchor of Adolf Hitler's Russian front, forcing the Germans to retreat from their Kherson bridgehead at the lower extremity of the Dnieper River, the Berlin radio acknowledged today, while to the north powerful Soviet units, pouring through collapsed Nazi defences in the Nevel sector in the new winter offensive, surged to within 15 miles of the Latvian border. The loss of Kherson leaves the Germans without a good defence prospect short of the Bug River, thirty miles to the rear on the way to Odessa.

The Russians have cracked the German Baltic line to a depth of nearly twenty miles, killing twenty thousand in a 5-day surge toward Pelotok, key rail junction near the Polish and Latvian frontiers, Moscow announced Sunday night. The Russians are believed to be within forty miles of Polotok. Five hundred villages fell to the Russians who also captured two thousand prisoners and inflicted staggering equipment losses on the Germans.

Hail and Farewell . . .

Now that a newly elected group is soon to take over civic government for 1944, a few words of hail and farewell to those who are about to bow out may not be amiss. A green but willing crew, they took over after a ten-year lapse of municipal autonomy and in the year since they have, we can say without any fear of contradiction, done a good job of civic re-establishment. No doubt Mayor Watts and his colleagues look back and feel that there were many things that were not done and some things done that might have been done better. However, it was a year replete with difficulties and obstacles some of which might have seemed almost insurmountable. However, the retiring mayor and his council put their shoulders boldly and energetically to the wheel, gave freely of their talents and energies and, on the whole, did a mighty good job considering the circumstances under which they labored. The fruits of their labors may mature more fully anon provided their successors carry on as ably as they commenced.

Too often is there failure to acknowledge a good job well done and we should not like to see the 1943 city council be succeeded in office without some appreciation being recorded here of the capable and conscientious manner in which they handled the many and difficult—some distasteful—tasks which they were called upon to face.

If the 1944 council does as well we will be as glad to give them similar acknowledgment a year hence.

Standardizing Education . . .

There appears to be no good reason why provincial educational standards applying to various professions such as legal, medical, teaching and pharmacy should not be made interprovincially uniform and acceptable for employment in all provinces. For that matter the standards of elementary education are now virtually uniform, the matriculation certification qualifications being practically standardized and to large extent interprovincially acceptable. Each province, however, requires final qualification examinations for provincial certification in the professions mentioned. Why there should not be general Dominion certifications is one of the existing educational anomalies for which there appears to be no real justification. Just because it has always been that way is no reason why it should continue to be. Certainly there appears to be every argument favoring standardization of education in Canada particularly insofar as the professions are concerned.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Ducklin of the Young Men's Christian Association war services have taken up residence in Park Avenue.

Many local people have fallen before a real epidemic of influenza colds. This ailment appears to be quite severe and sends the victims to bed for two or three days but it has the saving feature that the illness soon abates. About three or four days' bed seems to be sufficient to effect the cure.

The will of our soldiers assures an unconditional surrender...
The will of our people can assure a just and durable peace

Today the United Nations are joined in their determination to win a decisive victory. On every battle front and on every farm and in every production centre a singleness of purpose is speeding "unconditional surrender".

Tomorrow millions of soldiers and workers can have steady employment if they also unite with determination to bring about "a just and durable peace".

Prosperity can be realized only through the will of an informed and a united people. With their courage and their determination, the people's will to accomplish a righteous peace is irresistible.

People here, in common with people of other lands, can prosper materially and spiritually after the war ends—but only if now the peoples of the United Nations make loud their demands for "a just and durable peace".

WOMEN IN WAR WORK
 Apart From Expansion of Uniformed Services Number in Civilian Jobs Showed Great Increase in 1943.
 By HELEN BANNERMAN (Canadian Press Staff Writer)
 OTTAWA, Dec. 20 — Canadian women in "battle-dress"—whether service uniform, nurse's uniform, house dress, business suit or overalls—played an increasing part in the struggle toward victory in 1943.
 Since June 1942, the number of women engaged directly or indirectly in war industry has increased from 120,000 to more than 260,000. Women in the armed forces numbered about 36,000 late in November.
 Latest available figures show that about 1,200,000 civilian women are gainfully occupied in Canada. Mrs. Rex Eaton, associate director of National Selective Service, told the Canadian Press.
 "The outstanding characteristic of the year has been the successful appeal to a group of women who ordinarily would not seek employment and their acceptance of employment for full or part time," she said.
 Appeals to members of the Social Council of Women and the Women's Institute during the late spring brought 11,000 women into industry immediately, to relieve a critical manpower shortage. During the past six months, 48,000 new women workers have taken employment.
Wrens Increase
 Youngest Women's Service to be organized to release men for active duty with the armed forces, the Women's Royal Canadian Naval Service, headed by Cmdr. Adelaide Sinclair of Toronto attested 3,674 officers and ratings between Aug. 29, 1942, and Nov. 15, 1943.
 The Canadian Women's Army Corps, formed in September, 1941, and commanded by Lt. Col. Joan Kennedy of Victoria, enlisted 6,679 members between Jan. 1 and Oct. 31 this year and may equal its 1942 enlistment of 7,398. At present C. W. A.C. members total more than 15,000.

 Oldest of the women's auxiliary forces, the R. C. A. F. Women's Division, almost doubled its strength during 1943. Approximately 8,800 women were in air force blue last Jan. 1, while in October the number passed 15,000. Officials say they expect 16,000 members by Jan. 1.
 Highlight of the year in the Women's Division was the increasing number of airwomen and officers overseas.
Commands Overseas
 Wing officer Kathleen O. Walker of Ottawa, was promoted to her present rank—comparable to Lieutenant Colonel—and posted overseas to take charge of all women in the R. C. A. F. bomber group. Wing Officer Willa Walker of Montreal and Ottawa was also promoted to her present rank and became Senior Women's Division Staff Officer to Air Force Headquarters. The officers are not related.
 Members of the W. R. C. N. S. also were posted overseas for the first time. Twelve ratings and two officers were in the first draft to the United Kingdom, arriving early in September. Last April the Wrens sent naval writers to Washington.
 Women in the nursing services totalled more than 2,414 at the end of June, with more than 1,714 in the Royal Canadian Army Medical Corps, 276 in the R. C. A. F. nursing service and 169 in the Royal Canadian Navy nursing service. There are also about 255 Canadian nurses with the South Africa military nursing service. Thirty-seven women doctors serve with the Canadian armed forces.
 Efforts of women working voluntarily toward victory were co-ordinated under direction of the women's voluntary services division of the War Services department. During the past two years 27 voluntary service centres have been established to prevent overlapping of national and local volunteer work.

Merry Christmas

On behalf of my sponsors and myself, the Season's Greetings to you all!
 It is now almost a year since this column was first published. In that time I have been helped and encouraged by thousands and thousands of letters from readers, many of them enclosing requests for my little book "Meat Complete."
 I am happy to be able to tell you all that these Weekly Food Hints will continue through 1944. I shall strive to make them as helpful to wartime housewives as I possibly can and at the same time valuable to the war effort by showing ways of making the most of our food resources. Finally I would like you all to know how much I value letters and suggestions . . . do let me know how I can serve you best. And now a Merry Christmas to you all . . . and a Happy New Year!

Gog Is Satan In The Person

Gog is a person, not a Country or place, for he is "of the land of Magog" declared Evangelist Balmer in his lecture "Gog and Magog" last evening in the Oddfellows' Hall.

A study of the prophecy, said the speaker will recast that Gog is to come against God's people in the last days. They—God's people will not "dwell safely" in the land of Israel until they descend with Christ and the Holy City after the Millennium. Among the forces with Gog and who engage in the contest are tribes and nations long passed away.

But in the second resurrection these identical tribes will be re-sonally present, likely enough armed as of yore and joining eagerly in the attack on the New Jerusalem.

The "Key" to this prophecy, said Mr. Balmer, is found in Rev. 20: 5-9. It is plainly indicated that Gog who is a person, is Satan. He is "of the land of Magog"—the earth over which Gog—Satan rallies his hosts to attack the people of God and the Holy City which are under the protection of God.

Paul's method of interpretation, said the speaker would eliminate much difficulty if followed (see 1 Cor. 2:13)

Death of George Cook, former Australian heavy weight champion who had more than 500 fights in Britain and the United States, left the ring mourning one of its strongest characters in its history. He died at the age of 45 following a short illness at Surbiton, Surrey, England. During a lengthy career—he fought the best heavyweights in the country at 4 o'clock met such top-notchers as Larry Gains, Toronto negro who once held the Empire heavy crown; Georges Carpenter and Primo Carnera. He had several fights for the British and Empire titles, none of them successful. His biggest handicap was that he lacked a knockout punch. Not so long before his death, George as member of the fire force formed to deal with bombings, told a friend: "They say I'm too old to soldier. However, nobody's too old to fight fires."

Frank Soo of Stoke City, English-born athlete of Chinese descent, long been one of the accepted stars of England's professional soccer circuits. Now another Chinese looks like emulating him. J. Scott-Lee, a Liverpool University graduate, played for Everton against Burnley in the League North match and was the big success of the tilt. Like Soo, he is a wing half. Small but powerful, he should have plenty of natural ability and brainwork.

When a British Coastal Command bomber was forced down in the Atlantic after attacking a submarine, all its crew were lost—except one. The boy who cheated death crashed a big league soccer a few weeks later when Sgt. Arthur Turner, an air gunner from London, shone at centre-forward for Charlton Athletic of the League South. That menas his ambition has been realized. The chance came when Turner was posted to ground duties after 18 months' flying.

Bravery while engaged in tunnel blasting at Gibraltar earned the George Medal for L. Cpl. Terry Hicks, former Welsh junior 105-pound boxing champion—Thirteen times England's diving champion, Wing Cmdr. C. D. Eomalin has been awarded the D. F. C. for his leadership of a Mosquito squadron. Capt. Robert Mayne, Irish rugby international forward capped six times, has been awarded a bar to his D. S. O. for distinguished services in Sicily.

Kingston was the capital of Canada from 1840 to 1844, and Montreal from 1844 to 1849.

MANY SHOOT FOR TURKEYS

There were over seventy entries at the Christmas turkey shoot at the Canadian National Recreation Association ranges on Saturday afternoon. Ladies were present as in other years and made a fine showing, considering the fact that in some cases competitors had not previously handled a rifle.

A visitor and competitor was A. R. Holtby, retired B. and B. master, who is spending the Christmas holiday in Prince Rupert, renewing old acquaintances. Mr. Holtby won the bird in a luck competition and also marked up a splendid score in one of the standard bulseye matches. It was remarkable for a man of his age. Mr. Holtby was a famous shot in his younger days.

Following are the winners in various matches:

Bulseye Target (Men)
First match, Capt. Dawson, score 50-5x.
Second match, A. Dahlberg, score 50-4x.
Third match, Capt. Dawson, score 50-3x.

(Ladies)
First match, Miss Maureen Earl, score 50-5x.
Second match, Miss Peggy Arkman, score 49-3x.

Luck Targets
First match, A. Holtby, high score; T. J. Fortune, low.
Second match, Mrs. W. Watts, high score; Allen Armstrong, low.
Third match, Mrs. W. Brass, low.

W. Brass, chairman of the Rifle Club, was in charge, assisted by T. J. Fortune, Mrs. W.

YANKS BEAT AMERICANS

Stretching their winning streak in the area basketball league to six games to take over first place, the yanks defeated Americans, 39 to 24 in a cage encounter Friday night.

This long awaited engagement between the only two unbeaten clubs in the circuit proved more decisive than most fans expected as the powerful Americans had previously won six successive games.

Yanks' grip on the top rung will not be challenged now until the contenders resume activities on January 6.

Christmas Music Is Appreciated

Christmas music, so far at least, has not been so general on the air as it has been in some years past. The hour's program, featuring such music, presented from station CFPR yesterday afternoon by the Acropolis Hill Choir, was, therefore, especially appreciated. The quality of the music itself was particularly good. The choir, consisted of twenty-five voices and soloists were Mary Lee Brown, soprano; Harold C. Normann, tenor; and Henry W. Kane, bass.

The choir was under the direction of John E. W. Clark. David McCracken was narrator and Walter Roberts was organist.

Lloyd Morris of station CFPR acted as announcer.

Brass, Walter Morgan and Ray Olsen.

WE MUST HOLD THE LINE!

On the home front the battle against inflation is now the most critical of all.

The winning of this battle will contribute much to winning the war.

It will contribute more than all else towards the solution of post-war problems.

The purpose of Price Control is to prevent inflation. Its purpose is to protect and maintain a basic standard of living.

A higher money income will not be of any advantage if, because prices are going up, our money buys less and less.

To win the battle against unemployment in the post-war period, we must first of all win the battle against inflation.

Salaries and wages are a large element, often the largest element, in the cost of everything we buy.

If the Price Ceiling breaks down, in the long run all stand to lose.

We must hold the line against inflation to assure victory in war.

We must hold the line to provide a solid foundation on which, after the war, to build a greater and a better Canada.

June Carr Wed Here Saturday

A quiet wedding of local interest took place on Saturday afternoon at Bishop's Lodge when, in the presence of family members, Miss June Carr, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Carr, of Smithers, was joined in matrimony to Harold Bunn, son of Mrs. H. Doiron, of Vancouver. Rev. Father W. F. Lantagne officiated.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father wore a floor length gown of blue sheer with a corsage of pink carnations and rose buds and had a blue veil fastened with pink carnations.

Matron of honor was Mrs. J. P. Carr, sister-in-law of the bride. She wore a floor length gown of blue taffeta with a corsage of pink and white carnations.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at the home of Mrs. H. A. Dodd at which many friends offered their felicitations to the happy couple.

Receiving the guests were Mrs. Dodd, Mrs. J. N. Carr, and Miss Emily Christopher.

Mr. and Mrs. Bunn expect to leave for Vancouver shortly.

ACTIVITIES OF Y.M.C.A. AND Y.W.C.A.

By DOROTHY GARBUTT

Some persons are born to adventure, some achieve adventure while still others have adventure thrust upon them. Take for instance the other night when, with a group of the "Y" party entertainers, I went out to one of the forts! I went in the capacity of wardrobe mistress to Leading Airwoman Marge Rigate, the singer of the troupe. We went into the recreation hut filled with eagerly expectant men. Opening with a sing-song, the concert got well away. They like Marge in her pretty evening gown. They applauded Red Snyder's songs and they roared at Chester Le Maistre's French Canadian jokes.

Everything was going lovely. Then Jack (Knock 'em-in-the-asses) McClelland got up to do his number. It was an elegant little thing called "You'd be Surprised" Jack's costume for this song is a thing of wonder. He loons the complete simpleton. He had just intoned the lines "I'm no good in a crowd but, when we're alone—you'd be surprised" when he looked up and he was alone! And he was surprised! As he said later, he knew his act S— Well, anyhow that it was odoriferous but he didn't know it would do that to the audience. For it seems that one of these funny alerts they have a way of having in the army was had and right in the middle of Jack's act too. So without a by your leave the army had vanished leaving us sitting around the stove for an hour or two with a subdued Colman lamp flickering long shadows against the walls. Later when the alert was over, the boys trooped in for the next spasm. Marge sang again, Chester told funny stories, Don Adams and Chester Le Maistre gave their funny Chinese wood-chopper skit and Jack came on again this time with his famous, and equally infamous, "Lady Taking a Bath" pantomime. He had the water just nicely in the bath and had removed one stocking when—ping!—you guessed it another alert. This time he emptied the hall in one minute flat. It was so much. Jack (sop-the-show) McClelland knew when he was licked. We all went home.

XMAS IN CHURCHES

Special Sermons and Music — Attendance Hampered by Prevailing Illness.

Special Christmas services marked the day in several Prince Rupert churches yesterday. Chancels and auditoriums were beautifully decorated with Yuletide flowers and foliage in the traditional red and green. Ministers gave sermons appropriate to the occasion and Yuletide music was furnished by the choirs — junior choirs in the morning and senior in the evening. Next Sunday there will also be special Christmas services in some of the churches.

Prevailing illness kept down the size of the congregations in most of the churches.
