Nearly Six Million in Bond Sales

MONTREAL, Oct. 30 — Approaching the six million dollar mark for subscriptions to the Fifth Victory Loan employees of the Canadian National Railways and affiliated companies now have their feet set firmly on the path leading towards their plan of setting a new high record in bond purchases to aid Canada's war effort. Passed Away This Morning

Death came unexpectedly this morning to Arthur Nolan, fisherman and pioneer resident of the district, in his sixty-fifth year. Apparently in normal health, Mr. Nolan had arisen this morning and gone about his activities in his usual way and then, complaining that he was not feeling well, he had gone to his cabin which he shared with Ben Johnson on Smith Island and, while lying on his bed, passed away.

Deceased, who came to the Prince Rupert district prior to 1907, was a fisherman for the greater part of his life and lately had operated a chicken ranch on Smith Island, across the Skeena from the Northern Pacific Cannery. He came to Canada from Finland, where, it is believed, he had a wife and family. He had no known relatives in Canada.

Lifting the Dimout . . .

We await with interest an announcement in regard to the lifting of the dimout regulations. In the United States it is officially announced that the restrictions are being removed. General Pearkes, general officer commanding of this military district, has stated that the move will probably be followed up on this side of the line.

So far such dimout regulations as have been relaxed seem to have had little effect upon Prince Rupert. The only thing we have been allowed has been the vault and the safe lights which made little difference to the most of us.

Of course, we would welcome a complete lifting of the dimout but we must realize that anything that is done about it is on the advice and with the consent of the military authorities. And if they say that the dimout must continue in Prince Rupert, we must accept their word that it is necessary and wise that it should be so.

Meanwhile we can hope that the situation is adjusted so that we may be allowed some measure of relief.

FASHION SHOW WAS COLORFUL

Display at Masonic Temple by Job's Daughters with Co-operation of People's Store

War conditions notwithstanding, the local Job's Daughters, with the co-operation of the Rupert People's Store, were able to present in the banquet hall of the Masonic Temple last night a fashion show which was in every respect an outstanding affair. The appreciation of a large audience at the fine display and entertainment was amply demonstrated by the measure of applause and approbation. Mrs. Alex Mitchell was in general charge of the organization of the affair with the girls of the bethel acting as the mannequins and entertainers. Mrs. Robert Strachan of the Rupert People's Store described the costumes as they were daintily presented and Miss Janet Rochester acted as program announcer

The stage was attractively set for the display. The mannequins approached through the main entrance of the banquet hall and moved down a long aisle in the centre, the audience being seated on either side.

Outstanding item of the fashion display was the bridal procession with Miss Yvonne Morin as the bride and the Misses Marie Boulter and Pat Love as the bridesmaids. The bridal gown was a stunning creation of heavy satin with raised silk felt, orange blossom designed, and there was a lace cap and a trailing vely. The bridesmaids' dresses were beautifully designed in heavy brocaded silk with sweetheart necklines. The bride carried a white prayer book with spray of bronze chrysanthemums which were the flowers also used in the bridesmaids' nosegays.

The "Early Nineties" bathing costume which Miss Mona McRae displayed after a successions of strips of the voluminous articles of costume of fifty years ago which look so grotesque now made an act which was, undoubtedly, a highlight It caused an uproar of merriment among the audience and the manner in which Miss McRae good naturedly carried off the act evoked as much laughter as it did applause.

Lounging pyjamas and dressing gowns, house coats, sports wear, suits, coats and dresses were all interesting, smart and up-to-the-minute. The mannequins and the costumes they wore were as follows:

Lounging pyjamas and dressing gowns — Janet Rochester (black dressing gown and pink nightie); Yvonne Morin (white chenille robe and red pyjamas); Molly Frew (pink quilted dressing gown and blue pyjamas); Mona McRae (blue dressing gown and pyjamas).

House Coats — Joyce Watts blue flannel, sailor style); Eileen West (flowered crepe).

Suits — Betty Allan (plaid suit); Lorna Donaldson (brown skirt, yellow sweater and tweed jacket); Betty Pullen (coral velvet suit).

Coats—Pat Love (green woollen dress and fur coat); Marie Boulter (fur trimmed coat); Joyce Hawkinson (tweed coat); Elspeth MacKenzie (black, silver fox trimmed coat).

Dresses — Lois Bennett (red two-piece dress); Solvig Mork (black crepe dress); Nan Kennedy (green woollen two-piece dress); Ruth Walton (brown dress); Marjorie Eby (black dress with ruffles); Bernice Eastwood (red two-piece dress).

Jean deCarlo presided at the piano for the accompanying music of the fashion parade which she handled with discrimination.

The musical program, interjected into the fashion display at intervals, consisted of the following numbers:

Piano solo, "Over the Waves," Viola Prendergast.

Vocal solo, "Sunday, Monday or Always," Elspeth MacKenzie.

Piano solo, "Robin's Return," Solvig Mork.

Violin solos, "Songs My Mother Taught Me" and "My Wild Irish Rose," Corp. Tachnicki.

Piano solo, "Sleepy Lagoon," Kay Nickerson.

Vocal solos, "The End of a Perfect Day" and "Little Locket of Long Ago," Bonnie Perkins.

Mrs. E. J. Smith assisted with some of the accompaniments.

Mrs. Mitchell, at the conclusion of the program, made presentations to Mrs. L. M. Felthensal, wife of the manager of the People's Store; Mrs. Strachan, Mrs. Parker and Miss MacDonald.

A telegram from Mr. Felsenthal in Montreal was read as well as a letter.

Usherettes for the evening were the Misses Dorothy Kergin, Audrey Hunter, Jean McAfee and Agnes Collins.

Hurry up that better world

....for him...for yourself!

IT ISN'T LONG BETWEEN ECSTATIC BABYHOOD and eager, striving, hope-filled manhood.

You know yourself how often you've said: "It seems only yesterday he was a tiny wee chap. Look at him now. He's grown up!"

Yes, all the tens of thousands of cute little fellows kicking joyfully in their baby beds now will be grown people in the twinkling of an eye.

Grown to live in what sort of a world? Just how far can we build from war's desolation to a happy, brilliant world in that short span?

Probably a long way!

But the "How far?" has a companion question: "How soon?"

How soon will Victory come? What day, what hour, will the flaming news leap round the world that the enemy surrenders unconditionally?

Pursue that question right down to its very end and you'll get the answer. It depends on how earnestly each one of us works and saves and lends. In the final analysis it depends on all of us — on our willingness to stretch to the utmost our abilities to buy Victory Bonds.

So buy again—and again—for our future and for the future of the little fellows who will be men in the twinkling of an eye. Make sure it will be unconditional surrender—that we will win the peace as well as the war—that life in the future will be life in security, freedom and abundance.

HOW TO BUY. Give your order to the Victory Loan salesman who calls on you or place it with any branch bank or trust company. You can also buy Bonds through your employer for cash or on the Payroll Savings Plan. Or send your order to your local Victory Loan Headquarters. Any one of these agencies will be glad to give you every assistance in completing your application. Bonds may be bought in denominations of $50, $100, $500, $1,000 and larger.

Mirrors Necessary For Quick Photos

Novel Method Adopted to Get Pictures from Fighter Planes

LONDON, Oct. 30 (?)— Fighter planes which swoop on enemy positions and come back with photographs in great detail do it with mirrors. That was one of several facts disclosed by Air Commodore J. L. Vachell in the magazine Aeroplane.

Normal photographs, he explained, are difficult to obtain because at a height of only 50 feet the speed of the plane causes the picture to be blurred with even the fastest shutter.

To oversome this difficulty a mirror is fitted to the lens at an angle of 45 degrees so that a picture of the target just attacked is taken backward under the tail.

Night photography has made the greatest development, Vachell wrote. A complete set of pictures is taken by our night bombers and the attacks can be checked in every detail.

"We know exactly where the bombs have been dropped and often the actual bomb burst can be seen," he added.

He revealed, too, that a mobile unit has been established to speed delivery of army reconnaissance photographs to the leading troops. Film magazines are dropped to it by parachute and the prints are turned out as quickly as at the home base.

Tonight's train, due from the east at 10:45, was reported this afternoon to be on time.

CORNFLAKE CRANBERRY PUFFS

Other jams than cranberry are delicious also in these little cup deserts — marmalade too, when you feel inclined to use it for this purpose! Serve the puffs very hot, with sauce or cream.

1½ cups pastry flour
2½ teaspoons baking powder
½ teaspoon salt
4 tablespoons shortening
3 tablespoons sugar
1 egg
½ cup milk
½ teaspoon vanilla
1 cup corn flakes
Cranberry jam

Sift the flour once before measuring. Add baking powder and salt and sift again. Combine the shortening and sugar, heating well together. Beat and add the egg. Add dry ingredients alternately with the milk, making three additions of dry, two of liquid, and combining after each. Add vanilla and corn flakes. Use to two-thirds fill greased medium-sized muffin pans. Top each with a spoonful of jam. Bake in moderately hot oven, 375 degrees, about 20 minutes. Makes eight "puffs."

Miss Woodward Is Shower Honoree

Delightful Affair by Staff of Fraser and Payne for Bride-elect.

On Thursday evening a delightful shower was held by the staff of Fraser and Payne at the home of Miss Netta McLeod, in honor of Miss Joan Woodward, a valued member of the staff, who will be leaving shortly for the south where her marriage to Lieut. Frank Hicks of Edmonton will take place.

The evening was pleasantly spent in playing games after which delicious refreshments were served. Mrs. J. D. Fraser and Mrs. N. McLeod presided over the daintily decorated table.

Miss Betty Payne, with a neat little speech, presented the bride-elect with a beautiful cut glass bowl with silver deposit.

Those present to extend best wishes to the bride-elect were Mrs. W. L. Sandison, Mrs. C. Hitchens, Miss Dorothy Stiles, Mrs. G. Robinson, Mrs. McLeod, the Misses Annie and Netta McLeod, Ina Robertson, Mrs. C. Gilker, Mrs. G. Danielles, Mrs. Garbutt, Mrs. Payne, Miss Betty Payne, Mrs. Phillipson, Miss Harriet Phillipson, Mrs. J. D. Fraser, Mrs. F. Barber and Cpl. Betty Barber.

ACTIVITIES OF Y.M.C.A. AND Y.W.C.A.

By DOROTHY GARBUTT

This really puts Prince Rupert on the map, what map I'm not sure though. Today I received a letter from, yes, you guessed it, Toronto, addressed:

"Director of Dramatics,
"Y.W.C.A.
1324 First Avenue West,
"Prince Rupert, Sask."

Yesterday afternoon a box was left on our front doorstep filled, simply brimming over, with yellow kittens. Well, anyway, there were three of them all exactly alike except that one poor little chap had his back legs paralyzed and had to be destroyed. Pinned to the box in the approved foundling fashion was "For Mrs. Garbutt, Y.W.C.A.-Y.M.C.A." But I would not advise anyone else doing this even for a joke because any further kittens will be destroyed. However the two little fellows we are keeping are dear little things and responding to their warm milk, which they will sit in while drinking and cod liver oil. They are ensconsed in the Ladies' Powder Room and are quite frisky. We are trying to think of names for them, "Toot" and "Sweet" or "Tawny" and "Toughy" twin names are what we needed, although which would be "Tawny" and which "Toughy" we don't know as yet. Any suggestions for names. We found them the anniversary of the day Italy invaded Greece three years ago. Does that set any train of thought working?

Sometimes here at the Y we simply scintillate, sparks from our brains fly out in all directions as joke meets joke. Today it was anagrams—and because it was my own Chester is mean enough to say he saw it before. I wonder if I did see it somewhere before too and have forgotten. Here it is—by rearranging

"A. Hitler
"You get
"The Liar.'

Funny isn't it and almost too true to be good!

TWO FILMS FEATURED

"Tarzan Triumphs" and "Saludos Amigos" Showing at Capitol Theatre Monday and Tuesday

"Tarzan Triumphs," another of the Johnny Weismuller series of the famous jungle character, and a feature length animated cartoon feature by Walt Disney entitled "Saludos Amigos" comprise a double bill picture program coming to the Capitol Theatre on Monday and Tuesday next.

"Tarzan Triumphs" combines the thrills of modern warfare with the hazardous existence of the jungle. German parachutists invade Tarzan's peaceful home in the wilds and he makes war, bringing a rousing story of many climaxes. Weismuller is provided with a new leading lady in the person of beauteous Frances Gifford. Johnny Sheffield is again Tarzan junior and the famous chimpanzee, Cheta, has his part again. Villains are Stanley Ridges, Rex Williams and Sig Rumann as Nazi soldiers.

Walt Disney turns to fresh fields in presenting his characters and story of "Saludos Amigos," technicolor cartoon with a South American background. Donald Duck is the hero of the piece. This happy entertainment is replete with melodies, beauties, charm and humor.
