NEW SOCIAL SECURITY PLAN

ACTION IN ALEUTIANS

Kiska is Bombed Again, Indicating Improvement of Weather

WASHINGTON, D.C., March 16 (CP)—Kiska in the Aleutians has been attacked again by planes, the Navy indicated Monday. The attack was the eighth made in March and presumably indicated the lifting of heavy weather which has postponed any major effort to knock the Japanese from their only possession in the western hemisphere.

Several grounded Japanese planes were damaged by low-flying fighters in the latest attack Saturday night. There was no mention of any opposition either in the air or from anti-aircraft fire.

KHARKOV IS FALLEN

Russian Defending Forces Being Strained by Heavy Assault of Germans

MOSCOW, March 16 (CP)—Fierce fighting continues to rage in the Kharkov area day and night as Soviet troops struggle against large forces of enemy tanks and motorized infantry. After stiff battles, the German succeeded in pressing the Red Army back to a new defence line in one sector at the price of large losses, it was announced, and at last Kharkov was evacuated.

The German High Command had claimed that the German southern army had encircled and occupied Kharkov. Then came official Russian admission of its fall.

Still Working On Water Shortage

Meanwhile No New Connections Being Granted as Long as Present Conditions Continue

The city council is adhering to the policy of granting no new water connections to military, contracting or any other interests as long as the present condition of shortage continues. The latest application to be turned down is one from the Royal Canadian Air Force.

Negotiations are continuing with the federal authorities with a view to installation of a booster pump and other means of alleviating the shortage are being worked on.

STUDENT HARVESTERS

SYDNEY, Australia, March 16 (CP)—Schoolboys and male and female university students are to be enlisted to swell the army engaged in picking and canning the Australian tomato and fruit crops.

PRINCESSES HELP

LONDON, March 16 (CP)—Princesses Elizabeth and Margaret Rose purchased, respectively, the first and second of Britain's new £1 saving certificates at a little post office near a village where they are staying.

LOOKING AHEAD

MELBOURNE, March 16 (CP)—The town clerk of Melbourne has received a postcard from a war prisoner camp in Germany asking that the writer, a 23-year old Australian be licensed as a taxi-cab driver after the war. The request was granted.

Reservoir To Acropolis Hill Be Repaired

The city council received a report from the utilities committee last night estimated the cost of repairing leaks to the Acropolis Hill reservoir at $4,500. It was decided to take steps necessary to having the work carried out.

FRENCH REVOLT

Situation in Savoie Close to Swiss Border Becoming Critical

GENEVA, March 16 (CP)—Motorized French police, led by German storm troopers, deployed into the hills of Haute Savoie, close to Lake Geneva, today to hunt several thousand well-armed French youths who defied a Nazi ultimatum to surrender.

All last night and today the storm troopers in units rolled into the valleys and hills but they did not appear so far to have made contact with the insurgents who are said to number at least five thousand.

The youths, rebellious against German labor draft, are reported to be led by former French officers.

APPEAL FOR POLICE AID

Condition of Affairs Here To Be Brought To Attention of Governments

The need for increased police protection in Prince Rupert due to conditions for which the city could not be held responsible was brought before the city council last night by Ald. N. E. Arnold with the suggestion that an appeal for the assistance be made to the government. It was decided to make an appeal to the federal Department of Justice and the British Columbia Attorney General.

It was suggested that this was being made a gathering place for criminals.

The condition was illustrated Ald. Elliott pointed out, by it having become necessary to pay $2.50 each night for taxis to take the telephone operators to and from work at the midnight shift change. It had also become necessary to post an officer to regulate traffic at school grounds.

Particular exception was taken to the posting of a city officer to regulate the line-up at the liquor store.

Reference was made to the revenue the governments were deriving from liquor profits, car licences and other sources here.

Eleventh Avenue Folk In Plight

Are Expropriated From Homes and No Provision Made To Find Them New Quarters

The plight of people on a section of Eleventh Avenue whose property was being expropriated by the Department of National Defence, making it difficult for them to re-establish themselves elsewhere owing to the near impossibility of being able to build anew, was brought to the attention of the city council last night. The suggestion was made that the least that could be done would be to make provision for moving them.

The government will be asked to give aid in the matter. This matter was brought to the attention of the council by Ald. H. M. Daggett.

COLLECT POLL TAX

Automatic Plan Under Discussion At Council Meeting—Some Complications

Poll tax deductions at the source were another topic of discussion at last night's meeting of the city council. The finance committee reported that the requirements in this regard were being placed before the contractors and the larger employers.

Ald. Elliott objected to an automatic plan whereby workers who owned property would have the poll tax for the year deducted from their wages before the statutory time for payment of taxes.

Ald. Hill suggested that the list of voters for the last election might prove a guide in determining who and who not were liable to payment of poll tax. Mayor W. M. Watts gave assurance that anyone whom poll tax was wrongfully deducted would have it refunded.

Air Force Ace In Air Again

Flying Officer "Buzz" Beurling is T.C.A. Passenger

TORONTO, March 16—Flying officer George "Buzz" Beurling, Canada's No. 1 flying ace and hero of many air battles over Malta, took to the air again at Malton airport, Toronto, Saturday afternoon. He was not at his favorite post in the cockpit, however, but seated in the cabin of a trans-Canada Air Lines plane as a regular passenger en route to Montreal.

Beurling, who is touring Royal Canadian Air Force stations across the Dominion, has just completed his visit to western Canada and is now headed for points in eastern Canada.

KILLED AT PT. EDWARD

P. Limlaw, Employee of B.C. Bridge and Dredging Co., Loses Life

P. Limlaw, an employee of the B.C. Bridge and Dredging Co., was killed at 11:15 last night by a truck at Port Edward where he was employed.

There will be an inquest tonight.

J. E. Ormheim returned to the city on Monday from a business trip to Vanderhoof and interior points.

Giraud and DeGaulle to Meet Soon

ALGIERS, March 16 (CP)—Gen. Henri Giraud has cleared the way for negotiations to end disunity in North Africa by extending to General Charles deGaulle, Fighting French leader, a formal invitation to join all the French together under one banner. The spokesman for the Fighting French in London described the invitation as encouraging.

SOFTENING UP DEFENCE

Allied Bombers Working on Mareth Line Preparatory to Coming Push

ALLIED HEADQUARTERS IN NORTH AFRICA, March 16 (CP)—Medium bombers raided Axis positions yesterday in continuation of an aerial assault intended to soften the Mareth Line for the British Eighth Army's coming push although bad weather almost paralyzed the air offensive elsewhere in Tunisia.

Water Line To Dairy Requested

But City Is Not Prepared To Bear Cost or Guarantee Service

Valentin Dairy had a letter before the city council last night asking for a water line connection for its dairy west of McBride Street in the Hays Creek area. The letter referred to the importance of the dairy business to the health of the city. In view of investment involved and service which had been given, the applicant felt he was entitled to some consideration.

Mayor W. M. Watts advised the council that he had already written to Mr. Valentin giving estimates of $1000 and $1500 for alternative connections, suggesting that the applicant would have to pay for the lines himself and that there could be no guarantee of water supply.

During discussion it developed that the dairy was not actually situated on city townsite property but on land which had been acquired from the Northern Power Co.

Four persons were drowned when the tug Empire Spruce collided with a steamship in the Firth of Clyde.

Many New Benefits Along Advanced Lines Advocated In Canadian House Report

CAPTAIN IS DEAD

Duncan Mackenzie, One of Best Known Pioneer Mariners of Coast, Passes Away

Capt. Duncan Mackenzie, one of the best known navigators of the coast and member of the pioneer shipping concern of Mackenzie Bros. which thirty-five years ago operated the steamers Rupert City and Henriette between Vancouver and Prince Rupert, died a few days ago in Vancouver. Capt. Mackenzie was himself skipper of both the Henriette and Rupert City but joined the Grand Trunk Pacific Steamship Company when it started up on this coast. For years he was the master of the steamer Prince Rupert, having been in command of that vessel when she had her historic sinking at Swanson Bay in 1920.

Capt. Mackenzie had many friends in Prince Rupert who will regret his passing. Retired for years, his health for some time had been quite poor.

Shipbuilding Director Is Invited Here

The federal director of wooden shipbuilding, who is coming to the coast from Ottawa to look into the possibility of building wooden vessels suitable for the fishing industry, will be invited to visit Prince Rupert and a committee consisting of Ald. W. H. Brett and Ald. T. H. Sorensen will meet him. This was decided at the meeting of the city council last night after Ald. Brett had brought the matter of Mr. Yull's forthcoming visit to the attention of the council.

SERUM IN AIRPLANE

T.C.A. Machine Brings Liquid to Save Toronto Woman's Life

TORONTO, March 16—The arrival of a TransCanada Air Lines plane at Malton airport here Saturday afternoon from Montreal had a special significance. Required in an effort to save the life of a Toronto woman patient in St. Michael's Hospital, it carried a precious package of serum.

A Toronto police cruiser was pit-patcher to the airport to rush the serum into the city. The minute the TransCanada Air Lines plane came to a halt Stewardess Faye Hart stepped out and handed the package to Constable James Young who dashed across the runway to the waiting cruiser which raced through traffic to the hospital where they arrived in 25 minutes.

The serum is used in specific types of pneumonia and it was necessary to have it sent by air from New York. The extract was transferred to the Canadian National Air Express at Montreal airport and the big T.C.A. plane took off at 12:30 p.m. arriving at Toronto two hours and twenty-five minutes later.

EVERY CANADIAN WOULD BE ASSURED OF BASIC MINIMUM INCOME REGARDLESS OF AGE OR OCCUPATION—WOULD SPEND TWO BILLION DOLLARS

OTTAWA, March 16 (CP)—An integrated plan to assure every Canadian of a basic minimum income, regardless of age, occupation, place of abode or sex, at an estimated cost of a billion dollars yearly was laid today before a special committee of the House of Commons on social security. It was prepared by Dr. Leonard C. Marsh, research adviser to the advisory committee on reconstruction. The report is on the general lines of the Beveridge Plan although prepared independently.

The report also proposes an outlay of a second billion dollars during the first year after the war on works projects designed to meet the gap between demobilization and restoration of the national economy to a peace basis.

The report says that all this can be done on half of the present war-expanded budget.

Here are the main suggestions of the report:

1. Establishment of children's allowances payable in respect of every child, regardless of family income, of $8 to $9 monthly or on a graduated scale depending on age. This program is to be coupled with the abolition of present income tax exemption for dependent children.
2. Increase the present benefits under unemployment insurance for workers with children to the figure of fifty percent above benefits to single persons.
3. Provide unemployment assistance to uninsured persons at rates of about ten percent under benefits paid under unemployment insurance.
4. Institute free medical care for all citizens.
5. Provide sickness benefits on a basis comparable to that of unemployment insurance.
6. Provide maternity benefits for employed women on the same basis.
7. Make no immediate change in workmen's compensation for industrial accidents.
8. Lower the age for existing non-contributory old age pensions to 65 for men and 60 for women and raise the maximum pension from $20 to $30 monthly with a premium for those who postpone acceptance to a more advanced age.
9. Institute a new contributory old age pensions plan for all persons under a certain age of $30 monthly for man and $15 for wife.
10. Provide permanent disability pensions at the same $30 and $15 rates payable at earlier ages on proof of unemployability.
11. Provide survivors' pensions for widows on the same scale as old age pensions.
12. Pay funeral benefits at $100 for adults, $65 for juveniles and $25 for children.

WAR NEWS

FIRST ARMY ADVANCES

ALLIED HEADQUARTERS IN NORTH AFRICA — The British First Army in northern Tunisia, advancing in the Sedjenane area without meeting resistance, has occupied a strategically wooded ridge and Allied forces, with artillery support, have routed strong enemy patrols of armored vehicles in the Gafsa area, 200 miles to the south.

GRIMSBY NAZI TARGET

LONDON—Striking back after the Royal Air Force had bombed German air fields in France at dusk, Nazi planes attacked several localities in eastern England last night in raids which the German radio said centred on Grimsby at the mouth of the Humber River. Four enemy raiders were brought down.

KHARKOV EVACUATED

LONDON—The Russians announced Monday night that the Red Army has evacuated Kharkov, the rail hub of all southern Russia. Both German and Russian dispatches indicated that a powerful Nazi counter offensive was pressing viciously on a broad front from Kursk to the Middle Donets, south and east of Kharkov. The Russians, however, reported new advances in the Smolensk region with the Red Army advancing farther west of Vyazma in that vital front.

EDITORIAL

DAILY EDITION TUESDAY, MARCH 16, 1943

Time For Action . . .

Spring has almost arrived in the northern hemisphere and already there is a quickening in the tempo of war. These are the days when new and sudden developments occur. They are the days when we must be prepared for surprises and shocks. For some time now the news has been generally pleasant for our side—that is if the tragic record of war which, at its best, is always so replete with sorrow and bitterness, can ever be called pleasant. However, we need not anticipate that there may not still be dark days ahead.

A sense of realism must convince us that the war is far from won yet and there must be a lot more fighting before the victory is ours. However, we face the future with well-justified confidence.

Meanwhile, possibly we might say that the sooner the unpleasant things which we must face are over and done with the better it will be for us. And we can all be readying ourselves to do everything we can—each in our own small way—to bring the successful victory and peace.

Talking of the Press . . .

Probably through its own fault in being too considerate and helpful, the press of Prince Rupert has come upon evil days through lack of appreciation. This was what two indignant newspapermen agreed upon last night when, to cap the climax of inconsideration and discourtesies that have long been heaped upon them, they turned up at the city council meeting to find their historic table gone, leaving only a couple of hard chairs upon which they could sit, if they wanted to, and scribble notes on their laps or as best they might.

One of the newspapermen would have none of it and quite rightly departed that place, suggesting that mayor, aldermen and whoever was responsible could go to they knew where as far as he was concerned. The other toughed out two hours and a half of talk which, eliminating the non-essentials, could have been as well boiled down into a meaty half hour.

The scribes of Prince Rupert have come to the conclusion that the time has arrived when they should assert themselves. They suggest that they have done enough for their townfolk to deserve better treatment than being relegated in the council chamber to the indignity of sitting until they are calloused by hard kitchen chairs while the good and wise mayor and aldermen exhaust themselves with more or less mighty questions into somnolence on their leather upholstered swivel chairs.

Maybe the people of this man's town have come to take their newspapers and the newspapermen a little bit too much for granted. We really do think that we have served our friends and neighbors well enough to deserve a little more consideration than we are getting. To take our poor old table in the council chamber away has just started us to thinking along these lines.

If the mayor and aldermen rate oak writing desks and leather upholstered swivel chairs, so do we.

Mother's Self-sacrifice . . .

One of the noblest of human emotions is the devotion of a mother to her child. In fact the life of a mother is filled with love for the children that she has brought into the world. Unfortunately she is often inadequately rewarded by them for her sacrifices. Much of this regrettable ingratitude is due to the husband's lack of appreciation for this long and priceless sacrifice.

Domestic life would mean more as a source of happiness to humanity if fathers and children were more thoughtful.

It is one of the unsolved mysteries that there should be demanded of one sex a perpetual exercise of self-sacrifice, in which the other declines to share. This is one of the most glaring injustices of our social life.

Well, I don't know what the sleepyheads who are on lodge and comp or are out on subsistence are going to do for alarm clocks once they've broken their old ones. I'd say treat them with the greatest respect because they are developing Yehudi like qualities—that is they are going off the market and going fast. I tried to get an alarm clock for P.O. Anderson yesterday and finally bought practically the last one on Third Avenue and no more are being made. So it's up bright and early for you from now on, Andy, rise and shine.

Bob Gibson is back again with us after attending a conference of Y.M.C.A. Area Supervisors in Toronto. On the way back he stopped off at Edmonton where his wife and family live and took some movies of Julie Anne Kathleen, his baby daughter. We are looking forward to seeing them soon.

Ed. Selyan, Y.M.C.A. Supervisor at Terrace, was in yesterday after a short while. He looks very hale and hearty and he too, like Breen and Frank, has gone and got himself engaged. He went all the way back to Toronto at Christmas and while there succumbed. Ah me, l'amour, toujours l'amour!

We carried Twenty Million NEW passengers . . . fighting men and war workers.

We built tanks, guns, shells, ships.

Twenty-two thousand of us were with the armed forces of our country.

Now, we are busier than ever providing the mass transportation that only the railways can furnish.

The country depends upon us to do this job. We must move the troops. We must handle freight. And, with your cooperation, it will be done.

HIS JOB TO MEET GIRLS

But Take it Easy, Boys, This is Down In Utah In Uncle Sam's Army

KEARNS FIELD Utah March 16 (P)—This is the United States Army with variations, and Technical Sgt. Elbert Bish loves it. Sgt. Bish's sole duty is to meet girls. He makes the rounds of soda fountains, movie lobbies and other public places in Salt Lake City just to meet girls. His approach sounds like the old come-on: He offers them a good job.

But Bish is no wolf. He's honestly looking for girls to fill scores of positions open at the basic training centre of the army Air Forces technical training command here. The idea of tagging girls in public places came to Bish after girls stayed away in droves from employment offices. His superior officers gave in after remembering he is a married man and father. So far civil service has employed more than 100 stenographers and clerks to whom the sergeant spun his line. Bish estimates he has approached more than 300 and only one took him to be "a fresh guy." He dissolved her suspicions so quickly that she was one of the first to take a job at Kearns under the Bish go-out-and-get-em' plan. Positions for girls at the field pay from $1,260 to $2,600 per year for a 40-hour week. And there's always the free soft drink Sergeant Bish is glad to buy for his prospects.

COMEDY IS FEATURED

"George Washington Slept Here" Coming to Capitol Theatre This Mid-Week.

Jack Benny and Ann Sheridan head the cast of the comedy "George Washington Slept Here" which is the feature picture for the Capitol Theatre here on Wednesday and Thursday of this week.

The screen story of "George Washington Slept here," adapted from a well known stage success, is the tale of a city-bred husband whose antique-hunting wife goes colonial and buys a pile of ruins which is supposed to be a house where George Washington slept. From then troubles come in quick succession. In the midst of moving in, a telegram announces the arrival of the wife's rich uncle, portrayed by Charles Coburn. To make matters worse, a young nephew makes it hot for everybody including the next door neighbor. The neighbor is the banker to whom the mortgage cannot be paid. When all hope is lost and the house is about to be surrendered, the dog comes to the rescue and the homestead is saved.

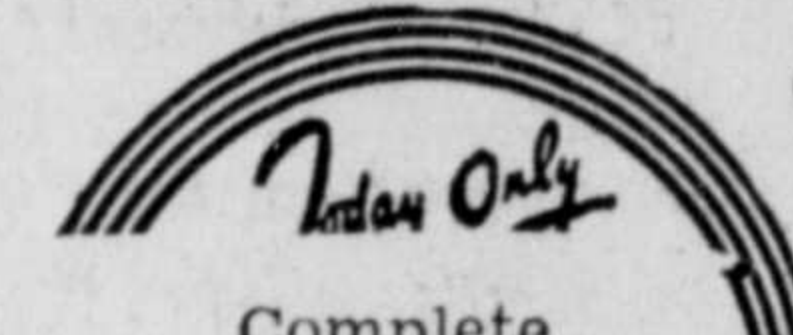

A talented supporting cast includes Percy Kilbride, Hattie McDaniel, William Tracy and Joyce Reynolds.

Helping to House Canada's War Workers

WHEN the huge shell-filling plant came to his town, Charles Hunter got to thinking about the critical shortage of housing... and about the two large cottages he owned. It wouldn't cost much to modernize and sub-divide them to make comfortable homes for four families.

He talked it over with his bank manager, who extended him a $600 loan. With the money, Hunter not only converted his cottages but took part of the loan, along with some of his rental income, to remodel another house to accommodate eight single individuals.

With the aid of the bank Hunter helped to provide urgently needed homes for war workers. He has now paid off all but $100 of the loan. A very small amount paid out for interest has thus enabled him to more than double his former revenues.

Such modest, highly useful loans typify the contributions that the banks make to Canadian enterprise. The above story is an actual case—only the name has been changed.

More than 5,000 experienced bank men out of 14,433 have gone into the armed forces since war began. This throws a greater burden on remaining staffs and new employees. Do your banking early in the day. Pay small bills by cash instead of cheque wherever possible. It all helps.

Cuts Soldiers $16.40 a Head to Get Bride

N. Carter has written. Color of the brides is saddle brown. There are strings attached to the purchase of one, such as:

1. The soldier must promise to marry her before he flirts with her.
2. He must get the consent of parents and the village chief.
3. He must promise not to take her home with him, across the seas.

LETTERBOX

LIQUOR SITUATION

Mr. Editor:
Daily News:

Your editorial on March 12th inst. is a little out of place at such a time. Ask yourself why the British are such a sturdy race? I will put it down to beer. When you have put in eight hours work at the shipyard in the dust and grime you will come to find out the value of a glass of beer at the end of the day. The bulk of the cases at the liquor store line-up are American and Canadian soldiers. Have they not eaten of their own by which they can be supplied? The men who need it cannot get it, therefore the resultant loss of work in the different jobs.

As for liquor you remember the prohibition days when one quarter of the people were near poisoned by bootleg stuff. Do you want your children to like the taste of that stuff in preference to good spirits? Would it not be like asking some folks to manufacture their own liquor. It would be quite an advertisement for the town. You would then feel very proud of yourself, Mr. Editor.

If you feel like reforming the town why not try your hand at the Post Office for a start. Why not print a few notices up. No man in uniform nor no woman to get their mail from 4:30 to 5:30. I think with that, everyone will be satisfied for I believe there is about 3,000 general delivery workers in this town now and that will take care of them.

As it is now if a man wants to send money away he has to lose half-a-day's work and perhaps a day. Forgive my bluntness.

WORKER.

We would suggest that those having strong views on the present liquor situation might well be ready to accept some responsibility for same by permitting the publication of their signatures instead of attacking the editor and then hiding themselves behind this protection.—Ed.)

Indian Schools Using Too Much Make-up, He Says

Jim Dane writes to say that many of the natives along the Skeena River live just like the white people and it is difficult to tell them apart. However, he found one Indian who claimed to be a big chief living in a slab house just below Terrace with the bare ground for floor. However, the mother and daughter were using too much make-up, Jim says.

FEWER JOBLESS

LONDON March 16 (P) — The number of men and boys in Great Britain registered as wholly unemployed Dec. 14, was 53,206, a decrease of 5,945 over figures for November. At the same date there were 28,737 unemployed women and girls, a decrease of 2,77.

KILLED ON ACTIVE SERVICE

CAMBRIDGE, Eng. March 16 (P) — Pilot officer John Percival Butler, younger son of Sir Montague Butler of Cambridge and brother of R. A. Butler, president of the British Board of Education, was killed on active service. He was 28.

"and tell Jane not to worry"

"The nurses and doctors were grand," writes a Canadian gunner, "but it was pretty awful lying sick there, so far from home. Then a cheerful woman came up to my bed and called me by name. She said she was a Canadian Red Cross Hospital Visitor. She wanted to make sure we were all comfortable and had all the things we wanted." To many a sick Canadian soldier, the Red Cross Visitor is a friend indeed. A message to his wife or mother... extra fruit and smokes... a home-town newspaper... friendly human talk and sympathy... these are the priceless gifts she brings. Thousands of these understanding Red Cross women visit Canadian soldiers, sailors and airmen in British and Canadian hospitals regularly. Just one of the many Canadian Red Cross services, which include food parcels for prisoners of war, clothing and food and medical supplies for fighters and civilian war victims, blood serum for the wounded, personal services for Canadian warriors wherever they go. As the war grows grimmer, the work widens. YOUR dollars are needed now as never before for this great humanitarian task.
