Hitler Changes His Tune . . .

It must have been a cheerless day in Germany yesterday what with the tune the Nazi propadanda machine was playing. Herr Goebbels has certainly been changing his line of late. Summer is almost here and the big campaign season is impending but no longer do we hear the blatant boasts such as permeated the atmosphere in 1940 and 1941 and to less degree in 1942. Now Hitler talks of how much worse it might have been and the only comment he has to make about the Russian campaign is that no other army than his could even have withstood the Red assault to say nothing of overcoming it. So that is the spirit in which the Nazis enter the summer. No longer do they talk of when they are going to be in Moscow or in London. Indeed, they can talk only in defensive terms now. Significant is the latest statement of the Fascist mouthpiece, Franco of Spain, that neither side in the war can hope to defeat the other which remark includes Germany. Thus our enemy himself admits that the tide has turned against him.

DAMAGE TO SKI CLUB

Vandalism Has Spread to Mount Oldfield, it is Reported

Vandalism has spread to Mount Oldfield—vandalism as stupid as it is wilful. Corduroy logs along the trail have been torn up. The Mount Oldfield Ski Club cabin has had the windows broken and the frames removed. A stove in the upper storey was pitched down the ladder on to the main floor.

LOCAL MEN RECOGNIZED

Vancouver Man Gets Second Award for His Life-Saving Efforts

HAMILTON, Ont., May 11 (C)—Already holder of the Royal Canadian Humane Association's bronze medal for life-saving, George A. Burrows of Vancouver, B.C., is awarded a bronze bar to his earlier award in citations of the association for heroic deeds.

The bar goes to Mr. Burrows in recognition of his attempt to rescue a boy from drowning in Kitsilano Pool, Jan. 25, 1943. He dived four times through a hole in the ice, suffering painful lacerations of legs, arms and face in the effort. In the fourth attempt he brought up the body but efforts at resuscitation were unavailing.

Awards of the association included parchment certificates to 12 other western people all for rescues and attempted rescues from drowning. Recipients and places of the incidents follow:

Lloyd Edward Rodway and Muriel Lorence Radcliffe, Winnipeg, Man., for assisting in rescue in the Red River, Aug. 19, 1942.

SPORT CHAT

George Seymour Lyon, "Grand Old Man" of Canadian golf, died five years ago yesterday at the age of 79. Thirty-four years previously when golf was in its infancy in Canada, Lyon won international honors at the St. Louis World's Fair. He was eight times Canadian amateur champion and won the North American senior title four times.

Lefty Grove, then with Baltimore in the International Baseball League, set Toronto Maple Leafs down with three hits and blanked them 1-0 at Toronto 21 years ago today. Three years later (1925) Lefty went to Philadelphia Athletics for a reported $109,000 and in 1934 was traded to Boston Red Sox.

Jimmy McLarnin was outpointed by Tony Canzoneri in New York seven years ago Saturday when the Vancouver boy essayed the lightweight championship. Jimmy, favorite in the betting, blasted Tony terrifically in the first round but Canzoneri fought back to win the unanimous verdict in the 10 rounds. McLarnin was welterweight champion in 1934 and 1935.

Kitkatla Has Easter Banquet

Almost Entire Population Attends With Visitors as Well

KITKATLA, May 11—A banquet was held on the evening of Easter Sunday in the Kitkatla village hall, sponsored by the Kitkatla celebration committee. The dinner was attended by almost the entire Kitkatla population and by visitors from Hartley Bay, Naas River, Port Simpson, and Massett.

Before and after the dinner speeches of appreciation and welcome were given by Chief E. H. Gamble, Henry Brown, vice-chairman of the committee, and Joseph Innes, councillor. Visiting speakers were John Tait, Port Simpson; Eli Gosnell, Naas River, and John Freeman, Vancouver.

Rufus Innes and John Brown sang a duet, accompanied by Henry Brown, organist.

Following the banquet a service was held in St. Peter's Church, under the leadership of James Ferris. Following Scripture readings the choir, under the direction of Henry Brown, sang an Easter Cantata, "The Immortality."

The service closed with the National Anthem and a brief prayer by Pastor William Ridley.

Candle Flicker Stops Auctions

Quaint Ceremony Connected With Lease of Water Cress Lands In Somerset

TATWORTH, England, May 11 (AP)—One of Britain's strangest sales took place by the light of a tall candle in a secret chamber at Ye Olde Poppe Inne. A time-honored event, it is the custom on the Saturday after April 8 to let for the next 12 months Stowell Mead, a five-acre holding with a valuable water-cress crop. Only owners and occupiers of certain land are allowed to attend. Bidding starts as the inch-long candle is lighted and the last bid before the final flicker wins.

Natives To File For Income Tax

Difficulty of New Government Requirement Referred to at Kitwanga

KITWANGA, May 11—In a circular letter received from the head office of the Native Brotherhood of British Columbia the local branch was informed that all native fishermen must fill out and sign their income tax forms before they will be granted licences to fish.

Harold Sinclair, president of the branch, in speaking to an assembly of the local Brotherhood suggested that the decree was unfair. Sinclair asked how fishermen could declare their 1943 incomes when the year's fish prices have not been established, nor the rental charges for fishing equipment set. In filing his income tax return now, Sinclair said, a man was facing the charge of making a false return yet, until he made his return, he could not get a licence to fish.

Elaborate Wedding Attire Ruled Out

June—traditional month of weddings—is near.

At long last, the almost overlooked father of the bride gets a break.

No longer need he anxiously contemplate the mounting cost of getting daughter married. The War-time Prices and Trade Board decided to curtail elaborate wedding attire for the duration.

The Board, not wishing to unduly blunt Cupid's arrow, points out that the bride may still step altars in full-length gown of cream or white.

But—costumes of the bride's mother, bridesmaids or flower girls must conform to board regulations; for them, no "long skirts." This is to conserve materials.

Custom or home dressmakers are advised that administrator's order A-474, governing manufacture of women's, misses' and children's wear, eliminates all fussy detail, overall tucking, shirring or pleating. "Minor trimming" is defined by the order.
