Beginning of End For Hitler Seen in Sicily By President Roosevelt

WASHINGTON, D.C., July 10 (CP)—President Franklin D. Roosevelt considers the Allied invasion of Sicily as virtually "the beginning of the end of Adolf Hitler's Europe," the White House said today, following announcement of the War Department that Canadian, British and American forces had invaded Sicily.

The President expressed his reaction to the invasion at a dinner last night for General Henri Giraud. He predicted confidently the liberation of France, referring to it in a manner suggesting the possibility that military operations designed to drive the enemy from French soil will develop eventually from Britain as well as Sicily.

BOUND TO GO AHEAD

Nothing Can Hold This District
Back, Says Telegraph Official

"Nothing can hold this north country from continuing to go ahead after the war is over," declares R. I. Bradley, commercial representative of Canadian National Telegraphs, who is a business visitor in the city. The war has brought this part of the country into its own and, no matter what happens now, it cannot be held back. The country has been so much in the limelight that great interest has developed in it and, due to the publicity and attention it is receiving, many will want to come here after the war from all parts of Canada and the United States with a view to participating in the peacetime development of its resources. Services such as telegraphs which have been extended to meet wartime traffic will also be useful in the post-war era.

Mr. Bradley has been in the city for the past couple of days and will be leaving by this evening train on his return to his headquarters in Winnipeg.

According to word brought to this city, the prospects are very favorable.

The Bralorne company, formerly prominent in gold production in the Cariboo district, is now bringing in machinery for mercury operation in the Manson Creek country.

Another Bombardment of Japanese in Aleutians

WASHINGTON, D.C., July 10 (CP)—Bombardment of Japanese positions on Kiska Island in the Aleutians by United States Navy guns was reported today by the Department of the Navy. Enemy shore batteries returned the fire caused no damage, the Navy said.

It was the second such bombardment in three days.

AIR TRAVEL INCREASES

TransCanada Passenger Traffic Is Up 80 Percent

MONCTON, N.B., July 10—Trans-Canada Air Lines carried 80 percent more passengers in the Maritimes the first five months of this year than in the corresponding period last year, stated W. J. Dalby, traffic manager, in Moncton on his way back to Winnipeg after a business trip to the East.

Discussing the matter of reservations, he said that emergency travellers frequently found it necessary to change their plans at the last minute which meant that seat space was available to regular travellers up to the maximum time limit before a trip took off. He urged those holding seat space who found they were unable to make the flight to release their reservation at the earliest possible moment to enable TransCanada to sell the space to other travellers.

Seventy percent of the traffic department was women, Mr. Dalby remarked, and they were doing a splendid job in handling passenger traffic. It had been found that they could be trained in a very short time to take on this responsible work.

Business At Rotary Meet

The interest of the members of the Rotary Club was turned to business matters at the luncheon held in the Commodore Cafe on Thursday.

The main target was identified as Gelsenkirchen.

Farmers Being Faced With Necessity of Killing Off Their Cattle as a Result

SMITHERS, July 10—There is a shortage of hay in the central interior and many farmers may have to market their cattle this fall because there is little feed to see it through the winter. Last winter having been exceptionally cold, timothy was killed out on numerous farms and, in some cases, this situation was not known until this spring's failure to grow. It has also been a poor growing year so far.

Quite a few central interior farmers are now going in for hogs.

Large Sum Taken From Office Of Knox Hotel on Thursday Evening

Mystery surrounds the disappearance of a large sum of money, the exact amount not yet known but estimated to be as high as $2,000, from a locked safe in the office of the Knox Hotel, First Avenue West, on Thursday night. Between 9:15 and 10 p.m. the money disappeared.

The money belonged to Mrs. Martin LaBelle, proprietor of the hotel, who had been the last person to open the safe before the disappearance of the money. Mrs. LaBelle opened the safe at 9:15 and closed and locked it again before leaving the office.

The money was taken from the safe in the 45 minutes between 9:15 and 10 o'clock. When Mrs. LaBelle returned to the office at that time she noticed the door of the safe slightly ajar. Investigation revealed the money gone. Violence had not figured in the entry into the safe, for it was undamaged. The lobby of the hotel was thought to have been vacant during Mrs. LaBelle's absence.

Police were called in about 10:30 but no clue was discovered at the time. They are continuing their investigation.

EVERYTHING GOING ACCORDING TO PLAN, SAYS LATEST ANNOUNCEMENT CONCERNING NEWLY STARTED ALLIED CAMPAIGN

May Be Only Beginning Of Much Bigger Events

POSSIBILITY OF ACTION IN BALKANS THIS WEEK-END HINTED — ALSO TALK OF CO-ORDINATED MOVE FROM BRITAIN TO FRANCE

Supported by naval and air power, Canadian, British and United States forces, under command of General Dwight Eisenhower, started landing in Sicily at 3 o'clock this morning and are now locked in fierce battle with the Axis defenders. The landing was preceded by heavy air attack. Naval forces landed the troops. First to go ashore were engineers to clear mines and defence positions. Infantry, breaking through barbed wire and pillboxes, followed. Parachutists were also said to have landed on Sicilian air fields but this is not confirmed. The landings were made on the southeast end of the island, according to early and unofficial reports.

For a week or more Sicily had been under intensive air assault which had resulted in many of her airfields being in ruins.

An early announcement said that the operations on Sicily were proceeding according to plan and the Allied forces were already consolidating positions. The Morocco radio said the landings had been successful and beachheads were being consolidated.

Allied headquarters in North Africa announced that Allied forces had stormed the rocky shores of Sicily today (Saturday) to open the second European front.

The landing forces had to overcome many obstacles including passing mine fields at sea, landing in barges under heavy artillery fire, penetrating barbed wire entanglements and passing through mine fields. An announcement today said that the landing forces were pushing inland towards the main Sicilian defences against still Axis resistance indicates that all these preliminary difficulties had been surmounted successfully.

Heavy Axis reinforcements were reported today to be streaming across the narrow Messina Strait from southern Italy to combat the invasion. Axis forces already on Sicily were numbered at 300,000 with heavy equipment and defences.

A United States communique issued at Cairo today disclosed how American bombers, striking in waves yesterday, smashed "the nerve centre of Axis Sicilian defence forces" at Taormina. The bulletin declared that the target area in Taormina on the east coast of Sicily was reduced to rubble and left in smoke and flame.

While Canadian troops were among the Allied landing force it was officially announced by the Department of Naval Affairs in Ottawa that no Canadian war vessels had taken part in connection with the landing operation. Prime Minister William Lyon Mackenzie King at Ottawa described the landings in Sicily as a new phase of war. Canadians would feel a sense of pride that troops from this Dominion were in the forefront of the new assault. The Prime Minister warned that no easy victory or immediate successes should be expected but rather fierce fighting and a long struggle.

Prime Minister Mackenzie King, in his statement at Ottawa, said that armed forces of Canada are "in the forefront of the attack which has as its ultimate objective the unconditional surrender of Italy and Germany."

"The soldiers of Canada have gone into battle exceptionally well trained, superbly equipped, keen and full of spirit, ready for offensive warfare," the Prime Minister said.

Climax In Russ War

MOSCOW, July 10 — Fierce fighting continues as the Nazis still strive vainly to accomplish a major breakthrough against the Russian lines. There is no confirmation of a German claim that a crossing of the Donets River has been accomplished and that the Nazis have advanced 36 miles toward Belgorod. There may be a climax in the fighting today. The latest Russian estimates place a Nazi dead in the campaign at 40,000 with 2036 tanks destroyed and 904 aircraft downed.

Gillis Couture Suffers Injury

Suffers Compound Fracture of Leg at Local Dry Dock

Gillis Couture, 62, a shipwright at the local dry dock and well known pioneer of the city, suffered a compound fracture of the right leg at 8:15 this morning when struck by a heavy timber which had been knocked over by a steel plate.

First aid was given immediately by the yard First Aid attendant, after which Mr. Couture was taken to hospital by ambulance.

His condition is reported to be favorable.

Lieut. Col. George A. Drew, leader of the Ontario Progressive Conservative party, in a speech in Cobourg recently, condemned the practice of allowing soldiers overseas only a proxy vote. They should, he declared, be allowed a personal vote like any other Canadian citizen.

today, striking with powerful air and sea forces in the first major land blow aimed at Hitler's Europe, referred to a bulletin from Italian headquarters which said that Allied parachutists had spearheaded the assault and that fighting was in progress along southern and eastern coasts nearest Italy. The first unofficial reports, according to Reuters News Agency, said that operations were going "according to plan."

Announcement of the invasion was the first word that Canadian troops had been moved from Britain to the African theatre. London headquarters described the Canadian troops as the greatest assault force Canada has ever assembled and hinted that the assault on Sicily might be accompanied at any moment by co-ordinated moves elsewhere along the Mediterranean front. These quarters said that the invasion now in progress should not be regarded as only a landing nor even as "the" landing planned by the Allies, thus implying that ever greater events may be in the offing.

Dispatches from Ankara said there was strong possibility of action in the Balkans this week-end with the Germans feverishly reinforcing defences there as well as in the key islands of the Aegean Sea.

Invasion of Sicily...

The invasion of Sicily, logical development in succession to recent events in the Mediterranean theatre and what might naturally have been expected as the next step in the Allied plan for global warfare, is under way. It is not only the invasion of Sicily but the invasion of Europe.

Most of observers had expected that, when the invasion of Europe did commence, it would be by way of the weakest spot in the Nazi armor—through Italy. It had been amply evident in the light of recent happenings that this was to be so and now it has come to pass.

The war has today reached another of its tense, epochal phases. Developments may be expected to unfold quickly now and there may be startling surprises. Certainly heavy action and all that it means may be anticipated.

We will, no doubt, now see more sanguinary fighting involving our own soldiers—for Canadians are in on the invasion of Italy—than there has been so far.

The immediate complications of the invasion of Italy may well be more intriguing to interest and anticipation than the actual event of Sicily which is beginning to unfold today.

The Man With The Gun...

The rumors afloat that Mussolini is considering accepting a separate peace with the Allies are pleasant to think about not only by us but, no doubt, by the Italian people as well. They should not, however, be taken too seriously.

Much as Mussolini would like a way out of his growing difficulties, such a characteristic action as surrender is at the present time denied him for the jelly of his backbone has been reinforced with a German rifle.

That German rifle may in the end crucify the miserable Duce for, though he may collapse against it, it will not let him sink into open defeat before the world, at least, not until it becomes more valuable as a weapon for its own harassed owners than as a prop for their poor, latter day Caesar.

Italy will not collapse yet because Germany will not let it collapse and one good reason for sustaining Italy is that the Allies have found it bomb-worthy. Bombs that fall on Milan cannot be picked up and dropped again to sizzle through the ruins of Dortmund. Bombs that fall in Piedmont cannot be heard north of the Alps but the sound carries well southward—even to the concrete bomb cellars under the Palazzo Veneto in Rome.

ACTIVITIES OF Y.M.C.A. AND Y.W.C.A.

By DOROTHY GARBUTT The Hostess

What with Army Shows, the R.C.A.F. blackouts and the opening of the new Navy drill hall this week has just been one giddy round of pleasure. Everything happens at once.

At long last another letter from Les Page arrived. We were all afraid he had come to grief in the Atlantic. He says that he is acting petty officer and is studying hard for his commission. He had just had a three hour go at trigonometry and his head was full of sines and cosines and equations—or do they belong to Algebra? It's so long since my university days and anyway I never liked trigonometry.

Signalman Jack MacIldoon also wrote by the same mail. He says that Maurice Reeves is at sea again and likes it. After being here for over two years Jack says it's just his luck that the Service Girls should be here as soon as he goes.

I've been clearing out the "Lost and Found" box today, having a good old house cleaning. It is surprising how careless people are of personal property. I wrap up the articles and date them as they come in and very few are claimed. On the other hand fountain pens and lighters are always getting themselves lost but never seem to be found or at least turned in.

It doesn't need a talent scout to know that we have a fine new entertainer in town. He's a Navy boy on one of the sweepers. His name is Cook and he's a remarkable dancer. He gave a turn, several turns, at the Navy dance Thursday night. He has speed, precision and the finish

FINE FILM IS COMING

"Pied Piper" is Due at Capitol Theatre Monday

Hailed as one of the best films of the year, the filmization of the great novel, "The Pied Piper," is due at the Capitol Theatre here next Monday and Tuesday. Monty Woolley, Roddy McDowall and Anne Baxter are featured in this story of the Englishman who led a band of helpless children across embattled France to England and safety. The film is said to have faithfully reproduced all the original warmth, tenderness and humor of the book, adding a few touches that only the screen can give.

Starting in the south of France as the gigantic German attack was launched in the tragic month of June 1940, the Englishman manages to make his halting way home, shepherding his straggling group of youngsters right under the very nose of the dreaded Gestapo.

Monty Woolley, cast as the crotchety Englishman, is at his best as he outwits the Gestapo. Roddy McDowall and Anne Baxter are, of course, featured in the leading juvenile roles.

that comes from being a member of the Major Bowes circuit before he joined up. And talking about our Sunday concerts I hope they will let the Chatham Navy Band contribute from time to time. They look so smart in their white uniforms although I saw one of them wearing his topcoat for a while before the dance started. It couldn't be that he was cold, could it, not in this lovely summer weather?

A GREAT EVENT—

ARMY SHOW IS FINEST SEEN HERE

Never Before Anything so Spectacular, Colorful and Tune-some in Prince Rupert

The Army Show opened in Prince Rupert last night before an audience of service people which packed the spacious new naval drill hall. Never was anything so elaborate, so colorful, so spectacular and so tune-some presented previously in real life in Prince Rupert. It is only to be regretted that circumstances here are such that the show cannot be presented to the public at large. But it has all been arranged for the services and they must be given the first chance which in Prince Rupert means the exclusive showings. It was not even certain up to this morning whether there would be the expected radio broadcast tomorrow.

The Army has spared neither time, talent nor expense in its effort to create lavish and spectacular entertainment. From a production point of view the show is particularly attractive, lighting is exceptional, costumes are eye-filling and the dancing and singing is tops. The comedy is brilliantly topical. The whole show moves with remarkable speed and precision.

In the opinion of many the outstanding star of the whole Army Show, many of whose members are already familiar to radio audiences, is attractive young Sergeant Mildred Moray with her performance in the Martha Raye manner who solos in the "That's All" number and knocks the audience cold in her impersonation of Gracie Fields. The show opens with the cast in uniform and takes them to a canteen, which setting stands through the entire first act. This act carries bits of service comedy interspersed with numbers, building up to the introduction of the C.W.A.C.'s in red can-can costume for their first expert routine.

In this part of the program highly entertaining items are the tuneless remarks of "Four Brass Hats" expressing sentiments "On Behalf of the General Staff," Sergeant Connie Vernon as a burlesque prima donna singing "The Kiss Waltz," Corp. Bill Harding in an impersonation of George Bernard Shaw and the amusing "A Soldier, a Sailor, and an Airman."

Sgt. Jimmy Shigas, with an outstanding voice is limited to one appearance, in this scene, singing a sentimental ballad, "H'ya Mom." The first act closes with a fast and hilarious jitterbug session "We're Marching to the Rhythm of the Boogie Beat," with the boys in zoot suit uniforms.

It is in the second act that the Army Show goes completely Ziegfeld. Opening number is an impressive and beautiful fan ballet called "A Soldier's Dream," built around the team of Sgt. Hal Seymour and Cpl. Lynda Tuero, well known in professional life as Marquette and Lynda. They are, incidentally, but two of a large number of professionals to be found in the cast.

There's an excellent comedy scene built around enlisting and and the ensuing medical examination. This is followed by a particularly beautiful ballet number Prince Charming and the Fairy Queen.

A fashion show built around the various issue garments evoked gales of laughter, following which Cpl. Lynda Tuero does a cute strip-tease with the aid of ultra-violet lighting. The Army Show's most lavish spectacle is the South American number, a riot of color and motion that is completely eye-filling. Highlight is a love dance in bolero rhythm by L.-Cpl. Everett Staples and Lisa Robineau.

No comment on this great Army Show could be considered complete without a word of tribute to the very fine orchestra which possesses a remarkable versatility. Probably there was never a finer orchestra ever heard in Prince Rupert before.

Army Show is staged under the direction of Jack Arthur of Famous Players Corporation. Musical director is Capt. Robert Farnon. Dialogue and lyrics are by Sergeants Frank Shuster and Johnny Wayne, skits and dialogue by Capt. Romney Brent, general co-ordination by Capt. Rai Purdy, technical direction by Lieut. UNITED IN MARRIAGE

On Thursday evening at a quiet ceremony in the First United Church, Rev. J. A. Donnell officiating, Eleanor Beckwith, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Clapp, was united in marriage to Sgt. George Leonard Sullivan, youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. G. L. Sullivan of New Westminster.

The bride was attired in a rose dressmaker suit with matching accessories and a corsage of pink roses. She was given in marriage by her father. Her sister, Alice Clapp, as bridesmaid, wore blue with matching accessories, and a corsage of red and white carnations. Signalman Eric James attended the groom.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents where the bride couple received the hearty congratulations of their immediate friends and relatives. Jack Cobb proposed the toast to the bride to which the groom replied suitably. The toast to the bridesmaid was proposed by Lance Corporal E. J. Payne to which the groomsmen replied. After cutting the wedding cake and the serving of refreshments, Sgt. and Mrs. Sullivan left for a honeymoon trip south.

The servants were Mrs. S. J. Anderson and the Misses Betty Borland and Marie Nickerson. The bride was born and brought up in Prince Rupert, and, until recently, was a member of the staff of the Canadian Bank of Commerce.

The groom has been stationed here for the past fifteen months with the Royal Canadian Corps of Signals.

The young couple will have the best wishes of their many friends.

MOOSE JAW

Lloyd Camyre, former Moose Jaw senior hockey star until an injury ended his playing career, is in Moose Jaw this week with his wife, visiting relatives and friends. Camyre, who went to Victoria about two years ago, was a member of the refereeing staff of the Pacific Coast Hockey League last winter.

Staff Sgt. Addis Osborne, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Osborne of Moose Jaw, one of a host of soldier-artists at present with the armed forces of the United States, has some of his work on display in a public exhibit being held at the Pasadena, California, Art Institutes.

William B. Davis, 67 years of age, passed away last Saturday morning in a Moose Jaw hospital. Resident of Moose Jaw since 1905, Mr. Davis was born in Woodstock, Ontario, from 1933 to January, 1943, when he returned to Moose Jaw.

The promotion of Flt. Lt. V. L. Macleod to the rank of squadron leader was announced last Saturday. Squadron Leader Macleod, commanding officer of No 5 recruiting centre, R.C.A.F., Regina, came to the centre in July, 1941, as adjutant.

Lucy Rainville, of Willow Bunch, Sask., was graduated from No. 2 C.W.A.C. basic training centre at Vermillion, Alberta, last Saturday.

The sergeant was inspecting some recruits when he became conscious of a slight movement behind him and whipped round. "You idiot," he roared at the offending recruit. "Don't you ever point a rifle at me again—even if it is empty."

"But, it's not empty," the recruit explained.

Anglican Picnic Is Successful

An excellent time was had by those attending the Anglican Sunday School picnic on Thursday afternoon when about 35 children and 15 adults journeyed to Digby Island on the mission boat Northern Cross to spend the afternoon in games and picnicking.

The sports program consisted of races and ball games and a few harder spirits among the youngsters braved the harbor water to go swimming.

Large quantities of ice cream and soda pop were consumed by youngsters of all ages and the picnic was a gay affair. The picnic party returned to the city at 6 o'clock.

In charge of the outing were Rev. E. W. Scott of St. Peter's Church and Frank Skinner.

The merchant seaman was visiting at the home of a very generous and patriotic lady who, despite her eagerness to help the war effort, wasn't too well versed about things.

"And there I was on the aft deck," said the seaman, "when all of a sudden I saw a torpedo plunging straight for me."

"My goodness," replied the hostess cheerfully, "I do hope it was one of ours!"

Judge: "The sentence is twenty years' penal servitude." Prisoner: "But, your honor, I won't live that long!" "Never mind, just do the best you can."

SHOVING AROUND

Editor, Daily News:
Let us consider the amount of shoving around the citizens and taxpayers are getting these days. The same goes for employers at the hands of public servants who are giving out advice that they might well be taking themselves. Particularly does this seem to be so in the matter of waste and economy and throwing around other people's money, not to mention the gall of essaying to save our own money for us so that we will not spend it foolishly.

Could you give us the low-down on scores of partly completed and occupied Wartime Housing houses in this town? TAXPAYER.
