G. Murrin, president of the British Columbia Electric Railway Company, with a view to discussing the acquisition of the public utilities operated by that corporation. The conference is expected to take place within a few days.

TALK OF INVASION

Goebbels Takes Nonchalant Stand Italy Sees Large Concentrations

LONDON, June 19 (CP)—Invasion-conscious Axis broadcasters continue to talk at length about great concentrations of Allied forces in the Mediterranean area and glibly brag about their own plans to repel landing attempts. Berlin radio quotes Propaganda Minister Joseph Goebbels as writing in Das Reich that Germany looks forward "with imperturbability to an impending storm from the west."

Rome radio, which had previously told listeners of "many landing craft concentrating from the African coasts toward Pantelleria," declares that large British forces are concentrating along the southern frontier of Turkey.

BIG CITY IS RUINED

One Thousand Acres of Great Industrial City Devastated by Bombing

LONDON, June 19—It was announced today that Duesseldorf, great German industrial city, is largely in ruins as a result of the huge Allied bombing raid upon it June 11. One thousand acres of the city were devastated.

The Air Ministry's announcement made after an examination of aerial photographs following the attack said: "Duesseldorf is in ruins with more than one thousand acres devastated after the great attack of the Royal Air Force heavy bombers June 11."

"When the complete count of all damage has been made it is thought the figures will be more like 1500 acres, considerably over two square miles."

"This is the most shattering blow to the German war potential which so far has been struck in the Battle of the Ruhr."

Duesseldorf is the administrative capital of the whole Ruhr district and the leading commercial city of Western Germany.

INDIA AND WAR PLAN

Appointment of Wavell as Viceroy Fits Into New Scheme of Things

LONDON, June 19 (CP)—Appointment of a five-year term as Viceroy of India in succession to Lord Linlithgow, Field Marshal Archibald P. Wavell will retire from the Army but will use his military talents for the strategical organization of the nation of 400,000,000 souls as a main forward base for a drive against Japan which is scheduled to follow the smashing of Adolf Hitler in Europe. General Sir Claude E. Auchinleck will return to the post of commander-in-chief of India which he held in 1940-41.

It was disclosed simultaneously that the commander-in-chief in India is to be relieved of responsibility for operations against Japan and a separate East Asia command is to be set up for this purpose. Further announcement in regard to this will be made shortly.

Field Marshal Wavell, who is at present in London, will not assume his duties as Viceroy until the end of September, this being taken as an indication that the offensive against Japan will not be undertaken until fall. Wavell has been described by Prime Minister Winston Churchill as a "master of war."

Lord Linlithgow's term of office expires in October.

General Auchinleck will assume the commandship-in-chief of Indian forces at once.

General Joseph Stilwell, Allied commander-in-chief in the Far East, will co-operate fully with Wavell and Auchinleck.

IS WINNER OF DERBY

NEWMARKET, Eng., June 19 (CP)—Straight Deal, 15 to 1 shot, owned by Dorothy Paget, won the historic Derby today.

TALK OF SUB WAR

Greatest Nazi Offensive Proves Ineffective, Says British Undersecretary—"Only Lull," Says Knox

MARGATE, Eng., June 19 (CP)—Germany threw her greatest submarine offensive in history into an all-out sea attack against Allied shipping in May, Harold Balfour, Undersecretary of State for Air, said today and repeated Prime Minister Winston Churchill's assertion that Britain's May losses were lower than in any month since the United States entered the war.

What Knox Thinks
WASHINGTON, D.C., June 19 — Secretary of the Navy Frank Knox said yesterday that the present lull in submarine warfare in the Atlantic indicated some change in German strategy. Possibly, it was suggested, Germany may be keeping her u-boats closer to home as a measure of protection against Allied invasion of Europe.

Emissaries For Peace From Italy

LONDON, June 19 — There are reports here that Italian emissaries have already arrived in Algiers with a view to discussing the possibility of Italy negotiating a separate peace. A Reuters dispatch from Algiers said that rumors were current in the French North African capital this morning that Italian peace emissaries were already in Algiers. This it was impossible to confirm. Prince Umberto and Marshal Badoglio, former chief of Italian general staff, were mentioned as envoys. Official London quarters said they had no information to confirm the report.

WHY BORDER WAS CLOSED

Speculation as to 48-Hour Restriction on Turko-Syrian Frontier

ANKARA, June 19 (CP)—A British source here said yesterday that the 48-hour closure of the Turkish-Syrian frontier had been ordered to shield Allied troop movements from Axis agents but officers in the border area said they thought the border had some connection with the visit of the King to the African front.

The Turkish-Syrian frontier was reopened yesterday by British authorities who for 48 hours had stopped all traffic except Allied diplomatic and military personnel between the Middle East and Turkey.

Working Conditions at Local Shipyard Are Complained of In Brief Entered at Ottawa

OTTAWA, June 19 (CP)—Briefs from a number of British Columbia organizations placed on the records of the National War Labor Board's labor relations inquiry today included one from Prince Rupert Allied Trades Council and Civic Labor Federation which said that general labor unrest was reflected particularly in labor turnover in Prince Rupert shipyards. Rentals and food costs were high and workers were brought to Prince Rupert unaware of these conditions, it is claimed.

Workers are hired in other parts of Canada on the basis of misrepresentation of the facts. They are told there are houses available but, on arriving, have to wait months for accommodation for their families. They are told they will get ninety cents an hour but some get 67c or are transferred to other categories of work than the ones for which they were hired," the brief said.

AIR WAR QUIETER

Little Doing Last Night Between Britain and Reich After Thursday's Activity

LONDON, June 19 (CP)—The air war between Britain and enemy territory across the Channel was quiet last night following the continuation of the current offensive Thursday night when the Royal Air Force carried their attack to various targets in Northern France while the German air force dropped bombs on London and on south coast towns.

Intruder planes, ranging over Northern France Thursday night, dropped a nightly packet of bombs on an airfield at Poix near Amiens, peppered a speeding Eboat off the French coast and shot up railways, trains and barges, the Air Ministry said. One mosquito pilot said he believed he had hit an ammunition train standing in a station and went off to fire through a train shed, touching off explosives both in train and shed.

Nazi raiders, running at top speed and low over London rooftops, plopped down a single surprise bomb in a major street, wrecking a post office and killing two persons.

MARTIAL LAW NOW

Decreed for Eight Provinces in Italy as Allied Invasion Looms

ROME, June 19 (CP)—Martial law has been declared in eight provinces of southern Italy on the personal decree of Premier Benito Mussolini. Against the impending Allied offensive coastal defence districts have been set up. Among the cities included in these special zones are Taranto, one of Italy's greatest naval bases, Bari and Brindisi.

Yesterday the greatest United States bomber force since Pantelleria pounded Sicily and Sardinia. Thirty-nine enemy planes were shot down and many were destroyed on the ground where there was great destruction.

Heavy American planes also attacked the eastern Sicilian city of Messina yesterday as they swung into their renewed action.

An Allied communique from headquarters in North Africa had announced yesterday that Wellington bombers, striking from North Africa, had hammered the Italian port of Naples Wednesday night as the Allies continued to carry the war to Germany's faltering junior partner.

Wavell and India . . .

First and foremost implication in the appointment of Field Marshal Sir Archibald Wavell as Viceroy of India is the military aspect. It is obvious that military rather than diplomatic considerations actuated the naming of Wavell, the soldier, to succeed Linlithgow, the diplomat. Linlithgow, who has been a good Viceroy of India through trying times, has prepared the ground from his standpoint for Wavell, the militarist.

Wavell's experience as commander-in-chief there should well fit him for the new duties he now assumes in that strange land of Hindustan. Of particular importance may be the fact that he knows the nature of the particular enemy which India faces.

Much will depend on Wavell, much more probably than we know. Anyone who knows anything about India realizes that he has a large job on his hands. We would say that, if any one could make a success of it, Wavell could.

Greeks Need Our Help . . .

Under the leadership of a civic committee a campaign to raise funds for the Greef Relief Fund will be held in Prince Rupert next week. Despite the fact that there have been many appeals for funds in recent months, this is a cause in which the public should need no special urging to participate.

An objective of $2,500 has been set for the drive in Prince Rupert. The Dominion-wide campaign in which it is hoped to raise $500,000 to alleviate the sufferings of the people who stood so bravely against the German invaders, despite the fact their equipment was far below the standard of that of their enemies and the numbers of their troops were insignificant as compared with the hordes who swept down upon them.

In early times Greece was the cradle of culture and civilization and her contributions to democracy have been many and varied. Now that her people are reduced to a worse than hand-to-mouth existence, it is only fitting that we who live in plenty should give something to make their existence a little easier. Help accorded at this time will be the means of bringing of new hope that some day they will again be able to live in the manner of their own choosing at peace with their neighbors.

Father's Day . . .

From the very first hour of the very first time that he paces a hospital corridor in horrible suspense until the time that he is fondly referred to as "Granddad" every father is a logical candidate for the title of "The Forgotten Man."

Mothers are glamorized in song and story but poor Pop is heard of only in such ditties as "Father, dear Father, come home with me now. The clock in the steeple strikes one."

Noble soul that he is! He stands up calmly under the slings and arrows, and goes about his daily task of bringing home the bacon . . . (it isn't so easy to get now!) He suffers under the injustice of being held up to his quaking children as the stern and unyielding arm of justice who lies in wait behind the woodshed armed with a razor strap or a willow switch. His only recreation is the occasional poker game with his downtrodden brethren and the calmness with which he draws to an inside straight is ruffled by the retribution that awaits him if he stays out late.

June 20 is Father's Day. On this day we should remember that at least one-half of the parents in the country are fathers. Send him a card or buy him a tie. He probably won't say much but he sure will appreciate it.

ACTIVITIES OF Y.M.C.A. AND Y.W.C.A.

By DOROTHY GARBUTT
The Hostess

Do you remember the mine-sweeper boys who contributed to our Sunday night concerts some time ago? They have been practising hard and hope to have a full concert for us this Sunday, taking over the whole show, with a larger cast, no end of trouble and so on. Anyhow I think it's a fine idea on the part of the boys and, if their last show was any foretaste of what's to come, it's going to be good.

Douglas Badger and Jack McNeiland say, if the "Three and a Half Balls of Fire," as the mine-sweeper boys called themselves, don't turn up they are going to leave town. They'll have to because they have nothing ready in case of such an emergency.

Somebody sat on poor little "Sarge" and bruised his leg rather badly but it isn't broken.

On Monday night there is a dance at the Empress by one of the Army units. Junior hostesses are cordially invited.

The regiments at the highway camps are planning weekly dances on alternate nights. They mean to keep to the regular Thursday night that the Hec MacKenzie's boys used all last winter. Hostesses will meet at the "Y." Remembering the fun you had all last year on Thursday evenings I would suggest you girls keep Thursday evenings a regular free night.

The Service Wives' Club had a most enjoyable outing Thursday evening when they went to the

SPORT CHAT

Like all ringmen Nel Tarleton must give in to old age one of these days and either retire from the ring or be knocked from it. Unless he's short sighted he must see the handwriting on the wall. First indication that the 36-year old British featherweight champion is losing a bit of speed and ringcraft came at Birmingham where Len Davies of Wales took a surprise eight-round decision. Len, a comparative unknown, was a clear winner. The bout was part of a tournament staged on a cleared bomb site and it marked Birmingham's return to big-time boxing for the first time since the war began. On the same card, Cpl. Arnold Hayes, who probably has engaged in more professional fights in Britain than any other Canadian during this war, lost on points to a tough Irishman, Martin Thornton. The Montreal negro, a hot and cold miltman, was meeting Thornton for the first time. He'll get a return bout in London later this month.

Y.M.C.A. Cafeteria for dinner followed by a show at the "Y." What if only 13 did sit down at dinner when 17 were expected, was anyone nervous and refused to sit down? Not that band of dauntless women. They all followed their husbands to Prince Rupert in the face of every known rumor so 13 doesn't scare them. Stout fellas!

first outstanding match of the season, the Lord's management decided to use some other gates. Each of the crowd paid stipence for the privilege of basking in the sun and watching an English XI trounce a not-too-strong West Indian side. Surrey cricketers, one of the famed first bat-trick of the season, the fast bowling bothered all West Indian batsmen and the English side won by seven wickets.

This was quite a football game, the feature of Stafford Village's wings for Victory week. R. A. V. lads recovering from limb fractures defeated a team of nurses and the hospital staff 2-1. Four of the players were on crutches and the others had sticks. The nurses' team included the matron and two members of the staff.

GREEK WAR RELIEF FUND

500 more will be DEAD

Tomorrow! - - -

TWO YEARS AGO THEY helped save OUR lives

How Food is Distributed:

ALL REACHES GREEK PEOPLE

All of the food shipped into Greece is distributed by a joint commission of the Swedish and Swiss Red Cross Societies under the auspices of the International Swiss Red Cross Committee in Greece. None of this food goes into the hands of the enemy. This is absolutely guaranteed by the International Red Cross Committee, and has been confirmed by official reports and by many responsible eye-witnesses who have escaped.

YOU ONLY YOU can save them NOW

When you read of individual heroes throwing themselves under the treads of a tank, remember that two years ago a whole nation hurled itself beneath the greatest war machine in history—and by so doing changed the course of the whole war and of our very existence.

It was Greece, when the whole might of the Nazis as well as the Italian army was ranged against it, cried "No!" rather than accept a dishonorable peace — and thus gave the United Nations precious weeks and months that changed the course of the whole war.

Now Greece is suffering more terribly than has even been told, than can be told. Starvation is not occasional, but chronic; deaths from starvation and disease are not counted in the hundreds but by hundreds daily.

Yet, horrible as conditions are, they would have been infinitely worse had relief not been sent to the Greeks. Remember, Greece was never self-sufficient in food and after the despoilment of the nation by the Axis hordes, no reserves were left; the lot of millions was a ration literally not enough to sustain life, or no food at all. Whole-villages have looked upon shipment from this country as their only hope of living. In Athens itself the situation is much worse.

Since last summer, shipments of breadstuffs have gone to Greece by international agreement. These shipments, made possible by the response to appeals such as this, a response by generous Canadians who remembered, have saved literally hundreds of thousands of lives. But—if help stops now, that work will be undone, and virtually the whole Greek nation will surely perish.

They Must Live

Because these people must not be allowed to die, because Canada will surely remember and repay them, Greek War Relief Fund asks you to help them now.

Just think, when you feel that you are inconvenienced by gas or sugar or coffee rationing, of the millions of Greeks to whom even the sight of such luxuries has been a dream for many months; men, women and children to whom even the tiniest piece of meat is unknown.

The power of life or death is literally in your hands. We ask you to remember what they have done for us and what they need now, and to help them now.

Today—send a check, cash, or money order—but send something.

Closing of Area No. 2 Impends — Gill-netting for Salmon to Start Soon—Trolling Just Fair

With the season for exclusive halibut fishing in Area No. 2 closing tomorrow midnight, some of the Prince Rupert halibut fleet will continue operations in the area under permit which allows them to take one pound of halibut with every seven pounds of saleable fish of other species not including salmon and tuna. Others of the halibut fleet will turn to salmon packing. Of course, some of the larger Prince Rupert vessels will continue halibut fishing in the more remote Area No. 3 which has not yet been closed to fishing.

Up to and including yesterday halibut landings at the port of Prince Rupert for the 1943 season had reached a total of 6,302,800 pounds as compared with 6,339,919 pounds at the corresponding date last year. The Canadian landings now amount to 3,338,600 pounds as against 2,466,119 pounds a year ago while the American landings aggregated 2,964,200 pounds compared with 3,873,800 pounds last year. During the past week landings at Prince Rupert amounted to 649,700 pounds of which 231,700 pounds was from American vessels and 418,000 pounds from Canadian. Prices during the week continued high with a top of 25.5c and 17c and 16c for Canadian fish received by the Clipper II for 12,000 pounds and a high American price of 26.6c and 18c paid the Akutan for 56,000 pounds.

Gill net fishermen of the Skeena and Naas Rivers are standing ready for the opening of the sockeye season on the night of Sunday, June 27 although the matter of price has not yet been settled to their satisfaction. Canneries on the Skeena River ready to receive fish are Nelson Bros, newly established plant at Port Edward, Inverness, Sunnyside, North Pacific, Cassiar, Carlisle and Claxton. This year there will be no salmon canneries operating on the Naas River, not even Arrandale, it being the first time in many many years that this plant has not poked fish. The Naas River caught fish is being brought this year to the Skeena for canning. The fisherman are still seeking more than 12 1/2c per pound for Sockeye and there is a delegation in Ottawa consisting of W. J. Burgess, Andy Paul and Dan Assu negotiating with the government with a ceiling.

There was a slight improvement in trolling for spring salmon in Hecate Straits and Queen Charlotte Islands waters around mid-June, according to reports reaching Prince Rupert, this despite the fact that fishing conditions have been not too good. In the Warke Canal area there are also fairly good catches. The gill net yield of springs on the Skeena and Naas Rivers has been good to date.

R. W. Sinclair, manager of Inverness cannery on the Skeena River, was here this morning going through to Namu on a brief business trip.

FILM OF HORRORS

Two of the screen's most fearsome horror purveyors combine their wickedness to provide a double measure of chills and thrills in "Frankenstein Meets the Wolf Man", coming to the Capitol Theatre on Monday and Tuesday. The picture, said to contain even more than the stark action drama which is credited for the success of the sensational "Frankenstein" series of films, continues the depredations of the famous monster and this time, the fiend is assisted by another frightening creation, the Wolf Man.

There are spine-chilling innovations in the drama which stars Ilona Massey and Patric Knowles. Miss Massey has the role of Baroness Elsa Frankenstein, who lives under the shadow of the Frankenstein tradition. Knowles appears as Dr. Mannering, who follows the mysterious Wolf Man from one fiendish crime to another until the trail leads to the Frankenstein castle and the monster.

Bela Lugosi is seen as the monster. Others in the substantial supporting cast include Lionel Atwill and Maria Ouspenskaya. Lon Chaney portrays the Wolf Man, a role described as his most terrifying.

The story, filmed from an original screen play by Curtis Siodmak, is said to pick up the careers of the Frankenstein monster and the Wolf man from the mysterious means by which they apparently perished in their previous movies. Their ferocity is claimed to be undiminished in the current film.
