BREACH IS STILL WIDE

Churchill and Roosevelt to Appeal Personally to Stalin, it is Said

LONDON, April 29 — Prime Minister Winston Churchill and President Franklin D. Roosevelt were reported today to have agreed, following on transatlantic telephone conversation yesterday, to make direct personal appeal, probably through the ambassadors at Moscow, to Premier Joseph Stalin in regard to the crisis between Russia and the Polish government in exile. Stalin, it was suggested, might be asked to meet Churchill and Roosevelt personally.

The Polish government last night appealed to "the United Nations and humanity" for the release of Polish prisoners from Russia. A Polish spokesman denied that there was a secret pact with Germany.

Meanwhile Russian newspapers are blunt and outspoken about the attitude of the Polish government in London, demanding that Nazi sympathizers be removed. They declare that the Polish government is not representative of Poland.

The breach appears to be as wide as ever today.

SMELTERS IN SESSION

Annual Meeting of Big Mining Company is Held in Montreal Today

MONTREAL, April 29 — The Dominion government has been "very wise in granting certain tax savings in connection with exploration expenses incurred in searching for base metals and strategic minerals," S. C. Blaylock said in his presidential address at the annual meeting today of Consolidated Mining & Smelting Co. of Canada Limited.

Mr. Blaylock added: "However, the present level of excess profits tax and price of controls makes it difficult for mining companies to increase production of base metals from established mines. While the excess profits tax exempts profits derived from the operation of new mines, there is no relief in connection with any profits arising from increased production from mines which have been in operation for about a year or longer."

Mr. Blaylock reported profits of the company for the first three months of 1943 were at the same rate as for the first quarter of 1942, in fact were little higher.

SOMEWHAT MISLEADING

Figures on Ship Losses and New Construction Not Altogether Conclusive

WASHINGTON, D.C., April 29 — The net figure of more than one million tons of merchant shipping loss for the Allies last year when comparing the total tonnage of vessels sunk in enemy action with new ship construction is not fully conclusive as it was arrived at by counting total Allied losses but not all new construction by all Allied nations.

It was on the basis of only partly complete figures on merchant shipping construction that the United States Navy Department reported the net loss, the report being designed to clear up a conflict between two previous reports.

The Right Spirit . . .

It is unlikely that anyone will make a more important individual contribution to the success of the Fourth Victory Loan than that made by Prime Minister Mackenzie King in his address to the nation from Toronto. The head of the government swept aside all the minor issues involved in the campaign for $1,100,000,000 and drove home to the hearts of Canadians the real spirit of this campaign in the following words:

"Of one thing we may be assured. In every effort our fighting men will not fail us. Let us make very sure we do not fail them. Let them see how completely their country is behind them. For us at home, in Canada, it is not enough to be proud of their achievements. We must not permit the pride which all Canada feels in their gallant exploits to blind us to what their efforts cost in human life, in anguish of heart and mind. They are prepared to give their all. Let them see that we are prepared to do the same."

Local Development . . .

Mayor Watts' suggestion that, the business of war notwithstanding, we might to good advantage be thinking of organization of industrial development for the post-war days is timely enough. We may reasonably expect that ship-building may continue for a while after the war is over but there can be no certainty as to how long it may last. Sooner or later the loss of tonnage due to the war will have been made up for and there will be a slowing up.

Such natural resources as the fisheries and timber can form the basis for permanent industry at Prince Rupert. Rightly enough His Worship advocates that now is the time when we might well be making plans by organizing among ourselves along these lines.

The idea, we might say, is not a new one as far as the mayor himself is concerned.

Need of Local Band . . .

The local reserve regiment again made a good showing in the great Victory Loan parade on Sunday. The men of the reserve have been busy, we might say, ever since its formation last January getting trained in types of fighting methods other than marching. Unostentatiously, they have been making splendid progress.

The ceremonial side as far as the unit is concerned has been practically disregarded as well it might be. However, with military units marching and ceremonial are admittedly popular and diverting and they have their effect in maintaining enthusiasm, morale and esprit de corps.

It has been suggested that a band might be formed in connection with the local unit. The suggestion has been made, and would seem to have much to recommend it, that the present unused equipment of the inactive Prince Rupert Boys' Band might be obtained for a regimental band, the nucleus of which might be some of the former members of the Boys' Band who are now in the reserve.

And, after all, what is a regiment without a band?

Cleveland Giving New York Close Run for First Place in American League

NEW YORK, April 29— If they keep up the way they have been going so far, the Brooklyn Robins would appear to be headed for another pennant. Beaten only once in five starts so far this season, the Bums eked out another close victory over the Phillies yesterday. Five teams are still bunched for second place with wins balancing losses while the New York Giants are still in seventh place with the luckless Phillies in their customary basement position.

New York Yankees, after losing their first game of the season Monday, got revenge yesterday by blanking the Boston Red Sox although the Cleveland Indians remained in a menacing second place position by shutting out the Chicago White Sox. The Washington Senators by defeating Philadelphia Athletics, also by a shut-out, assumed third place ahead of the St. Louis Browns who dropped their game to Detroit Tigers.

Yesterday's Big League scores:

National League
 Chicago 4, St. Louis 0.

LETTERBOX

CHIDES VANCOUVER SUN

Editor, Daily News:
 In the issue of March 20 the Vancouver Sun published in "What's Your Opinion Column?" a letter headed "No Road Policy" to which my name was appended.

In regard to this letter I wish to say that it was not my letter in whole or part.

I did, however, write a letter to the Vancouver Sun on or about March 14 for publication entitled "Progress in Reverse on Queen Charlotte Islands" in which I treated on the road policy as it affects us.

I quite realize and I grant that a publisher has the right to refrain from publishing any letter that contains in any part material or wording that the publisher does not think fit. But to add or delete words is not permissible — much less recondition a letter that someone has taken the responsibility of signing as I had done to this letter.

If the Vancouver Sun had wished to muzzle my letter, they would have done me a favor by not printing such incomplete and inaccurate statements and signing my name to them.

In closing I would suggest that the Vancouver Sun, for future guidance, study section 466, subsections 1, 2, 3 and 4, Chapter 146 of the Criminal Code.

I hope that this letter will not encroach too much upon your space and I and my friends hope you will do us the favor of printing it.

 Port Clements.

HOUSEWIVES BACK LOAN

Editor, Daily News:

The Prince Rupert branch of the Housewives' League, takes this opportunity to endorse the Victory Loan drive. Being a newly-formed organization locally, we are unable to support the drive financially.

Victory of Democracy over Fascism is of vital importance to us as women, wives and mothers.

Of Canada's war workers totaling 1,650,000, 225,000 are women. Women are slowly forging ahead and we anticipate the day when we will stand shoulder to shoulder with men and enjoy equal rights in all sphere of economic, social, and political life.

Under fascism women are considered fit only for the well known trinity of "Kitchen, Church, Children." Women are dismissed from all important positions and only limited types of positions are open to them. It is compulsory for all unmarried women under 25 and for all women wishing to obtain general employment to put in a year of labor service on farms or in households.

We would become the servants

Working women, remember that fascism deprives you of the rights you have won in bitter struggle and denies you the right to independent work!

Such slogans as "No beer, no bonds" only give comfort and satisfaction to Hitler and Hirohito and are work of fifth columnists at home to confuse the people and undermine Canada's war efforts.

Bonds are necessary if we are to defeat the Axis. Beer is necessary to maintain the morale of our workers but they are separate issues. Let us realize this and first and foremost give our support to the Victory Loan drive and "Back the Attack."

MARRY IN INTERIOR

Miss Phyllis Kennedy is Bride of Rufus McDames at Skeena Crossing

SKEENA CROSSING, April 29—A very beautiful and impressive wedding was solemnized in Kitseguia United Church on Saturday last by Rev. Roy MacDonald of Hazelton when Miss Phyllis Kennedy, daughter of Mrs. Esther Kennedy and the late Mr. Kennedy of Terrace, became the bride of Rufus McDames, only son of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred McDames of Skeena Crossing.

The bride, charmingly dressed in white satin and full length Victorian veil and carrying a bouquet of white roses, was escorted to the church by the village band.

Mrs. Fred MacKenzie was matron of honor. The Misses Anne McDames, Violet Wesley, Flora Bevin and Laura Hudson were bridesmaids. Little Maisie Wesley and Barbara Nelson were flower girls.

The groom was attended by Fred MacKenzie and, as he wished to have a member of the family attending him, Mrs. E. M. Wagner also stood with the groom.

Ushers were Wilfred Weget, William Milton, Albert Douse and Willard Seymour.

The bride entered the church to the strains of the "Lohengrin" Wedding March. During the signing of the register Anne McDames sang "Oh Perfect Love."

After the ceremony the bridal party was driven to the Community Hall, followed by the band, where a reception was held for the entire village. The bride's table was prettily set. The wedding cake in a prominent position was duly cut by the bride assisted by the groom and served by the groom's sisters.

Many friends from Terrace, Cedarvale, Kitwano, Kitwanga, Hazelton and Kispiox arrived to show their esteem for the popular young couple.

About 300 guests sat down to a well prepared luncheon.

In the evening a big dance culminated a perfect day.

Little Interest Shown in Garden

Only half a dozen persons turned up at a meeting called in the Eagles' Hall last night to go into the suggestion of A. O. Olsen, "the friendly gardener," that a community garden be undertaken here. However, Mr. Olsen is still enthusiastic about the idea which is being further gone into. Sites suggested for such a project include one on Ninth Avenue near McBride Street and another on Eleventh Avenue near the Prince Rupert Dairy.

In spite of the small attendance, there was a general discussion of the community garden idea. Fire Chief H. T. Lock, president of the Prince Rupert Horticultural Society, was in the chair.

Grandmas, Mothers Busy in War Work These Days and Survey Gives Reasons

By CHRISTINE TRIPP (Canadian Press Staff Writer)

If any wartime Little Red Riding Hood wants to visit grandma, she can go to a number of Canadian war plants and get the "real McCoy" in grandmas there. She may find mother there, too.

One plant, for example, reports that 18 percent of the several thousand women employed are between 40 and 50 and 12 percent are over 50. According to the women's head of Toronto's Selective Service definitely the older woman is coming to the rescue of many industries these days.

In a recent survey conducted by Selective Service, it turned out that 50 cases in 100 the prime object of the older married women seeking jobs is to supplement the family income. Nine in 100 give patriotic reasons and such.

Again, according to the survey, the sort of work the older married woman has in mind these war-times is by percentage as follows, factory work, 31; general office work, 18; restaurants, 21; others fall into sales, cleaning, laundry and other categories. Twelve percent of the women interviewed had never worked previously. Of those who had their experience was largely in factories.

Variety of Jobs

Weekly in a representative Canadian city Selective Service sends out 400 to 500 of the older women into jobs of part-time work. The jobs are scaled in accordance with the older woman's strength and the hours she can give from home and other duties. The survey showed that 95 percent of the applicants were carrying on in household duties and intended to continue to.

Jobs for older women include assembly and packing of goods for overseas; factory jobs such as sewing or running a power sewing machine; assisting in the assembly line in war plants taking places in departmental stores releasing younger men and women for service and taking places in offices.

Of older women job-seekers not all are hale and hearty. One group surveyed included a cripple and a sufferer from bronchial trouble.

Women of Courage

Ninety-five percent of the older women interviewed stated that they were not a bit reluctant about applying for jobs—and had no fears or doubts about returning to work or taking up new work. There is this interesting fact—it isn't the breadwinner going to war that makes the older married women look for a job. Of the older women interviewed—only 10 percent had husbands in the services. Five out of 100 were widows.

At the present time industries are studying the scheme of having short evening shifts in which they could take older women released from home and other duties.

Mrs. E. M. Wagner has returned to the city after attending the wedding in Skeena Crossing of her brother, Rufus McDames, to Miss Phyllis Kennedy. She was accompanied by her sister, Miss Anne McDames, who arrived from Walcott to spend Easter holidays here.

SPORT CHAT

The last year that Ottawa Senators won the Stanley Cup and the N. H. L. championship, 16 years ago this week there was a near riot in the play-off game at Ottawa when the Senators beat Boston Bruins 3-1. The upshot was that Bill Couto, Bruins defenceman, was suspended from the league for assaulting both referees while several other players were fined. Hooley Smith of Ottawa was also suspended for a month.

Babe Ruth, who had just retired from baseball, attended the major league opening at New York seven years ago Wednesday as a spectator for the first time. The King of Swat then received the most unanimous ovation he ever had in his 23 years of professional baseball. He remains to this day one of baseball's most colorful figures.

PERFUME THAT STAYED

When the tomb of Tutankhamen who ruled Egypt about 1350 B. C. was opened, vases containing quantities of still fragrant aromatics were found.

GOVERNMENT HOUSE CLUB

AUCKLAND, N. Z., April 29 — Historic Government House, here, the Northern home of New Zealand's Governor-General, is now a club for members of the Allied armed services and merchant marine.

FIRST TIME OUT FATAL

LONDON, April 29 — John Perry, 86, waited more than three years before venturing out in the blackout and his first trip cost him his life. He collided with another pedestrian, broke his leg and died in hospital.

Timely Recipes

4 cups rhubarb 3 tablespoons water Few grains salt 3/4 cup sugar.

Wash rhubarb and cut into 1 inch pieces, do not peel. Pour boiling water over the rhubarb and allow to stand 5 minutes. Drain off all but 3 tablespoons of the water. Add salt. Cover closely and cook slowly until tender. Remove from the stove, add sugar, recover and let stand until cool, then stir gently. The rhubarb may be cooked in the top of a double boiler or baked in a very slow oven, 250-275 deg. F. about 30 minutes. The pieces of rhubarb retain their shape better if done this way.

Section Officer Stewart and Leading Airwoman Daly of the Royal Canadian Air Force Women's Division were up to visit us at the "Y" Wednesday. They are here on a recruiting campaign. L.A.W. Daly is a Smithers girl whose parents are now in Prince Rupert. All the women's division, and, in fact, any of the girls in uniform I have met seem tickled to death with regimental life, so there must be something to it after all. Why not give it a try girls?

Fred Livingstone from Toronto helped to swell the "Y" ranks today. This is his first "Y" assignment and I hope he'll find it a happy probation period. Yes, he's big, blonde and beautiful.

Captain Garbutt was in on a short "48" this week. He and Padre Stewart, who were great chums last summer, met each other with open arms and, but for the fact that they weren't Parisians, would have kissed each other on both cheeks. The two of them together are good for anyone's morale.

One of the boys was trying to fix a broken down jeep when another came up to ask what the matter was. Says the first lad: "I don't know, seems something has fallen out of it" to which the second one wisecracked: "You mean, it looks as though it has fallen out of something." They are queer looking contraptions, come to think of it.

RATION NEWS

Meat Rationing by Chart

Meat Coupon Value Charts will shortly be published in the press and will be supplied to retail stores that sell meat. The chart will explain clearly the number of Coupons which must be surrendered for each cut of rationed meats. It is necessary to cut Canadian consumption of meat by about 15 percent. This will allow approximately two pounds per person per week, carcass weight. The brown Spare "A" Coupons in Ration Book 2 will be used for the meat ration.

Butter Coupons

Butter Coupon No. 7 which became good on April 24, does not expire until May 31. Coupon No. 8 becomes good on May 1. Coupon No. 9 on May 8. Both Coupons expire May 31.

Spare Sugar Coupon

Dates for marketing rhubarb vary in different parts of the country. But this does not prevent housewives from using their No. 1 Spare "B" (blue) Coupon now for the extra pound of sugar for this purpose. This Coupon expires May 31. Your dealer has no right to insist you buy rhubarb when you use this spare sugar Coupon.

Wartime Emergencies

Branches of the Ration Administration can supply all information necessary to anyone seeking rationed food supplies in situations arising as wartime emergencies. Special arrangements have been made to meet such situations and anyone may obtain the necessary information and application forms at Ration Branches.

Small Arms Ammunition

The manufacture of cartridges for civilian requirements is being cut to about one-third of ordinary quantity. Fifty percent of the amount manufactured is being allocated to remote areas in the far North where people rely to a large extent on the hunting of game for food and for their livelihood. Any person may use whatever ammunition he has on hand but cannot buy ammunition without completing a certificate to establish that he is an authorized purchaser. The supply situation is such that small arms ammunition is not available for sporting purposes.

Barter or Exchange of Rationed Commodities

The Ration Orders explain how rationed commodities may be acquired. Consumers may only acquire rationed commodities by surrender of Coupons whether the goods are paid for in cash or whether they are exchanged for other goods. Any barter or exchange of rationed commodities is considered as a purchase. Dealers in rationed commodities are described in the Orders and they are the only persons from whom rationed commodities may be obtained.

Abbott and Costello Coming to Capitol This Week-end in "Who Done It?"

Bud Abbott and Lou Costello, crowd-drawing screen comedians, have excitingly different roles in "Who Done It?", murder mystery travesty, which is coming as the feature picture to the Capitol Theatre this Friday and Saturday. However, the comics are said to have been provided with funnier material than ever before.

The story places Bud and Lou in the hazardous profession of amateur detectives and, in turn, on the wrong end of a police drag-net. Action of the plot for the most part takes place in a big radio broadcasting station. Methods by which the boys extricate themselves from a maze of troubles provide as hilarious moments, it is said, as have ever been experienced by moviegoers.

Patric Knowles has a prominent role and others in a rather interesting cast include William G. Louis Allbritton Jerome Cowan William Bendix, Mary Wickes, Forrier and Thomas Gomez.
