"Mission to Moscow," picturization of the book of Joseph E. Davies which recounted the experiences of the author as Uniter States ambassador to Russia around the early days of the war, comes as a feature offering of outstanding interest to the screen of the Capitol Theatre here this Friday and Saturday.

The film is an eye-witness account of Russia through the eyes of a typical American and ! his family. Mr. Davies, during his two years in the Russian capital as ambassador from the United States, went where he pleased, saw what he pleased and became friends with high Soviet officials. Many living notables are portrayed on the screen with particular attention to details of accuracy.

Walter Huston and Ann Harding are starred in the roles of ambassador and Mrs. Davies and the talented supporting cast includes George Tobias, Oscar Homolka, Gene Lockhart, Helmut Dantine, Eleanor Parker and others.
