New Year Thoughts . . .

A new year brings us new hopes in our individual lives and in these war years we are dreaming of a new world order of peace, and a new social order of justice writes Most Rev. J. C. McGuigan, Archbishop of Toronto, in a New Year message urging a spiritual revival in world rehabilitation.

Have these dreams a basis in reality? Those of us who were old enough in 1914-18 to listen to what was then being said remember being told that the war was to end war and to make the world safe for democracy.

Disillusionment came quickly. Democracy was overthrown in all the larger nations of Europe except Britain and France, and in most of the smaller countries. There was a new order indeed, but of militarist nationalism which took possession of men's souls like a religion.

There were respects in which the democratic countries did not compare favorably with the totalitarian regimes, which seemed able to inspire a fervor, a discipline, a unity and a hopefulness that the democratic countries lacked. The depression showed us in an unflattering light.

The strength of the totalitarian regimes lay in their inculcation of ideal worthy of sacrifice. They were false ideals, they were monstrous idols set up for worship in the place of God, but they met a need of human nature. Man is by nature a moral and religious being. Because he is moral he knows he is bound by a law higher than his own wishes, and because he is religious he feels his dependence on a Being greater than himself, a Being to whom he owes the service and honor which is called worship.

Christianity reveals God as the proper object of worship, and it reveals God as the writer of the moral law in our hearts, as the Lord who demands our obedience but also as a Father who loves us and desires our love in return.

The nations formed by Christian teaching became the leaders of the world in humanity and culture, but in modern times these nations have been trusting to humanity and culture more than to God, taking pride in the fruits and neglecting the tree. Religion was taken out of public education. The Church was told it could concern itself with ministering to private religious needs but it had no place in the direction of public affairs.

Wars, revolutions and depressions are the achievements of secularized science, education and politics. Why should we expect a victory in 1944 to be followed by better results than our victory in 1918 unless we restore the most essential part of right order, which is to put God first in public and in private life?

Incongruity In Garbage . . .

Along the Kaien Island Highway just inside the city limits there is the incongruity of a modern garbage incinerator taking care of the refuse emanating from the various military establishments here and right alongside it the crude city garbage dump where they are still trying to dispose of garbage by the antiquated method of open burn with the result that a great deal of swill and refuse lies around to be a reservoir of rats all the year around and flies in season. The garbage dump for many years in Prince Rupert has been a nuisance if not a menace and a constant cause of criticism.

Now the United States authorities have offered to make the new incinerator available to the city, doubtless realizing that, if the city handled its garbage in the modern way, it would reduce a menace to good health as well as remove an unsightly and smelly nuisance.

Doubtless, the city will make every effort to take advantage of the new service without letting any inconsequential factors prevent it being done. If there is the question of public co-operation in any of these factors, it should be forthcoming since the public here has long enough complained in regard to antiquated and inefficient methods of garbage disposal.

Smiles

The tightwad, out of town on his wife's birthday, sent her a cheque for a million kisses as a present. The wife, a little annoyed at this thrift, sent back a postcard: "Dear Jim: Thanks for the perfectly lovely birthday cheque. The milkman cashed it this morning."

Customer: "I'd like a dollar dinner, please."
Waiter: "Yes, sir. On white or rye bread, sir?"

"It's nice to kiss in a shady parking place, but my boy friend doesn't stop there."
"You mean—"
"Yes, he keeps right on driving."

ACTIVITIES OF Y.M.C.A. AND Y.W.C.A.

By DOROTHY GARBUTT

Chester LeMaistre has quite an interesting collection of manographs up in his office. When his friends come up to have a chat or make a touch he whips out a piece of white paper, makes them spread the left hand out on it and then traces around the hand. The surprising thing in so many hands is the unusual width from the thumb to the hand. Some thumbs look as though they don't belong there at all. I suppose it's an heritage from our climbing days.

Private Hawkins, who is the regimental tailor at one of the Highway regiments, came in yesterday to see if he could attend the meeting of the Service Wives Club. He said that one day one of the young newsboys who delivered papers to his tailor shop referred to him as "the dressmaker." And so he thinks with that qualification he ought at least be made an honorary member of the club.

Saturday evening there will be no movies at the Empress, all the regular Y shows being shown at the Navy Drill Hall for that day. There will be one afternoon and two evening shows and wives and girls friends may attend as at the Empress shows.

Yesterday afternoon I attended a delightful New Year's tea at the American Hut. Our host, Mr. Finnerty, and our hostess, Miss La Pierre, showed us all over the Hut which has only recently been redecorated and cleverly altered so that every available inch of space is put to good use. I was particularly taken with the music room in which only the better music is played and which contains a fine collection of good records. During the tea hour two of the service boys Ed Berger and Charles Holte—played musical recorded selections. Another practical service I noted was a typewriter for the use of the boys. It was a pleasant get-together of Prince Rupert ladies and I am sure each enjoyed herself as much as I did.

And now to everyone, from both the YMCA and the YWCA a happy and victorious New Year.

The sum of $322 obtained by the Parent-Teacher's Association on their recent Tag Day, has been supplemented by $166. This further sum was donated by local business men and other who recognize that the libraries of reference books and the sports equipment of the local schools are entirely inadequate.

Prince Rupert

(By M. N. MacPhail)

Land of incessant rain
Which oft does give me pain!
The sun I seldom see
But that were not to be.
Prince Rupert has a place
Upon this world's fair face.
Tho' many discomforts we endure
That hoped for victory will insure.

Prince Rupert—what a name!
Given by one who earned his fame
Seeking wealth in the wilderness
With all its danger and its stress.
They ventured forth with firm resolve
Though many dangers would involve
This gallant army of the brave
Who sought the treasure they did crave.

The hardy pioneers have gone,
Leaving behind naught but renown.
From bush and hill they carved
Although often nearly starved.
A place that's fit for man.
So let us do the best we can
To make a name that will redound
Wherever hardy men are found!

Fine Concert At Kitsegukla

KITSEKUKLA, Dec. 31 — The children as well as the older folk took full enjoyment from a Christmas Tree entertainment which was held in this village on Christmas Eve. The program consisted of plays, songs, games and musical selections and, of course, Santa Claus paid a visit to distribute toys and other gifts for the children after which he engaged in dancing with them.

The music was directed by Walter D. Wesley, organist of the United Church, who, with Mrs. Wesley, has looked after the Christmas Tree entertainments here for eleven years. Mrs. J. Johnson assisted them on this occasion.

The program included community singing of Christmas carols and hymns, speeches by Walter Wesley, A. Howard and Chief James Weget.

Douglas Wesley presided at the piano for the dancing and Walter Wesley called the square dances in which Santa Claus and his wife participated, much to the enjoyment of all.

Apples were served to some three hundred persons attending by L. Russell, Douglas Wesley and Freddie Sampare who collected the substantial sum of $81.

Miss Gertrude Johnson, Mrs. W. Wesley and Walter Milton looked after the decorating of the Community Hall for the season.

Following the concert, forty members of the choir remained to sing carols there and on the streets, accompanied by Bert Russell.

The padre of the Air Force, officiated.

POIGNANT LOVE TALE

An intensely dramatic love story with Charles Boyer and Joan Fontaine in the leading roles, "The Constant Nymph" comes as the feature picture to the screen of the Capitol Theatre here on Monday and Tuesday of next week.
Miss Fontaine is a shy, frightened young woman one of four daughters of a celebrated musician who goes to the Swiss Alps to reside. Appears Boyer in the role of a promising young composer whom Miss Fontaine is to marry but who becomes enamored of Alexis Smith, a glamorous figure in London society, and instead marries her. Too late Boyer realizes that the young girl he was so fond of was the young woman he really loved. The mood becomes troubled and poignant and the climax is along tender and tragic lines. A brilliant supporting cast includes Charles Coburn, Peter Lorre, Dame May Whitty, Jean Muir, Montagu Love, Joyce Reynolds and Edward Channell.

There will be a special New Year's Eve midnight Matinee at the Capitol Theatre tonight with a stage show and Laurel and Hardy comedy.

As the bells ring in a glad New Year our thoughts turn in warm friendliness toward all of our friends and customers. We'd like you to know that we're wishing for you everything that is good. We hope that 1944 is very kind to you, and brings you nothing but joy, health and success.
