ORGANIZING OF SALVAGE

Freight Rate is Latest Stumbling Block to be Encountered by Local Committee

The Junior Section of the Prince Rupert Chamber of Commerce is still having difficulty in the organizing of its local salvage campaign, the latest stumbling block being the matter of freight rates.

Recently a shed for the storage of salvage became available on the local waterfront. Within forty-eight hours it was filled with bottles but the bottles are still there with no immediate prospect of moving them out since it costs $11.90 per ton to ship them to the glass factory at Red Cliff, Alberta, whereas only $10 per ton is paid for them.

After some discussion at last night's regular monthly meeting of the Junior Chamber it was decided to take the matter up direct with Ottawa with a view to getting some consideration in the matter of freight rates for salvage from here.

Meantime, the Junior Chamber is considering plans for future salvage activity here. President Robert Parker made one suggestion that an old truck might be taken from point to point in the city and parked for a time so that citizens might take salvage to it for delivery to the depot. Another suggestion was that 150 old tires might be readily gathered from local garages and shipped to Vancouver.

Bruce Stevens reported that he and P. C. Miller had made two shipments of salvage material to Vancouver during the past month and expected to make another larger shipment soon.

Rushbrook Heights Sidewalks Are Up

Matter Again Discussed at Monday Night's Meeting of City Council

The question of sidewalks in the Rushbrook Heights War-time Housing area came up again at Monday night's meeting of the city council. War-time Housing has undertaken to build a sidewalk on Sixth Avenue provided the city makes another sidewalk to connect it with the Hays Creek bridge. So far the city has not been able to obtain the necessary material. The matter was left in the hands of the Board of Works.

Mayor W. M. Watts advised the council Monday night that progress was being made in the clearing up by War-time Housing contractors of old lumber and buildings from Booth Memorial School grounds. The matter came up with the receipts of a report from the fire committee in which it was disclosed by the fire chief that results of fire drills had been satisfactory at all schools with the exception of Booth Memorial, there having been difficulty there owing to blockade by contractors' materials around the school.

R.A.F. TARGET WAS ACCURATE ON THIS FACTORY

This photograph was made at the height of the production and during daylight attack staged by the Royal Air Force on the Philips Works at Eindhoven, Holland. The attack was extremely concentrated, the bombers unloading all their high explosive and incendiary bombs within a few minutes of reaching the target area 60 miles inland from the Dutch coast.

BACK UP COUNCIL

President of Senior Chamber of Commerce Gives Some Advice To Junior Body

Speaking before the Junior Section of the Prince Rupert Chamber of Commerce last night, R. M. Winslow, president of the Senior Chamber, urged that both the senior and junior chambers should do their utmost to back up and cooperate with the city council in its efforts to protect the interests of the citizens against encroachment. This should be done both for the good of the war effort and post-war conditions.

City Has Sewage Nuisance Of Its Own, 'Tis Said

Ald. Robert McKay, chairman of the board of works, suggested at Monday night's meeting of the city council that some houses on Ninth Avenue, where there had been a sewage overflow nuisance lately, might be provided with a sewer connection. Ald. McKay felt that, when the city was endeavouring to force the hand of War-time Housing in connection with sewage disposal the city should be taking care of its own nuisances. Ald. J. S. Black thought that the situation to which Ald. McKay referred was much different than that existing at Rushbrook Heights.

OLD AND NEW

Though Port Lyauty, Morocco, was not founded until 1913, evidences of earlier colonization are found near its harbor.

The city council Monday night granted to the Department of National Defence a reserve on lots 15 to 18, block 20, section 8, on Eleventh Avenue at Frederick Street, where it is proposed to erect a drill hall. There will be the usual conditions in regard to water and sewerage service.

Pay as Earn Income Tax Plan Is Fully Adopted; Tobaccos and Liquors Are To Be Heavily Hit

HERE LIKE IN BRITAIN

General Fearkes Takes Realistic View of Possibility of Attack—Healed With New Reserve Unit

The people of the Pacific Coast today appear to Major General G. R. Fearkes, V.C., D.S.O., M.C., general officer commanding in chief, Pacific Command, to be much in the same position as were the people of England in 1940 after the fall of France—quite liable to some sort of an invasion attempt by the enemy. Such was the statement of the general last night in speaking before the Prince Rupert Machine Gun Regiment following a review of the unit which turned out for the first time in a public parade. General Fearkes congratulated the members of the unit on their appreciation of duty, enthusiasm and smartness of appearance after having been in existence for a short period of six weeks. He was delighted on what he had seen, he said, and would tell the rest of British Columbia about it. He felt that his own efforts with a view to having a reserve unit formed at Prince Rupert had been well vindicated.

General Fearkes, who only last fall returned from England where he had been with the First Canadian Division since early in the war, told how ill Britain had been prepared militarily after the fall of France. Almost sure that the Germans would follow up with an invasion of England, Britons had rallied strongly to the reserve army in readiness to defend their homes from the invader. There had been no hesitation about it. The situation on the British Columbia coast today was somewhat similar. It might well be that the enemy would consider it good military policy to make an attack on these parts. It was pleasing to see that Prince Rupert men were appreciative of this possibility as evidenced by their rallying to the reserve.

The local unit turned out in practically full strength to parade behind an Ontario regimental band. It marched smartly through the city streets starting at the armory and progressing down McBride Street, along Third Avenue to Sixth Street and thence along Second Avenue by way of the Court House and back along McBride Street to dismiss at the armory. Crowds lined the streets to watch the parade.

There was a "March Past" with General Fearkes taking the salute at the Post Office steps. The general addressed the regiment from the steps of the Court House.

TELEVISION IN AFRICA

NAZIS SHOOT NAZIS

NEW YORK, March 3 (CP)—Eighteen Germans were shot at Kristiansand, Norway, following court martial for "escape" and "co-operation with the enemy." Some officers were included.

Postal Rate After April 1 Will be Four Cents Instead of Three—Other Important Changes Detailed

OTTAWA, March 3 (CP)—Adoption of a "pay as we earn" income tax system, increased liquor taxation designed to increase prices by $4 per gallon and a one-cent increase in letter postal rates except for mail to service men overseas were the main features of the 1943-44 budget presented in the House of Commons last night by Hon. J. L. Halsey, minister of finance. There is no change in income tax rates. Fifty percent of the personal income tax liability of 1942 will be wiped out in the case of earned incomes and fifty percent in the case of investment incomes up to $3,000. Other budget features include:

- * ALLIES KEEP UP PRESSURE IN TUNISIA
- * ALLIED HEADQUARTERS IN NORTH AFRICA, Mar. 3 (CP)—Allied forces maintained their pressure on the enemy in northern Tunisia yesterday and their heavy artillery inflicted considerable damage on Axis positions north of Reja and East of the crossroads of the town of Sedouane, a communique said today.
- * Income tax concessions to encourage the search for oil, metaliferous and strategic metals.
- * Officers returned from overseas to have six months' exemption.
- * Officers serving outside of Canada on the western hemisphere such as Alaska to pay only half of normal income tax rates.
- * All service personnel, commissioned and non-commissioned, except those overseas, to be taxed if pay alone exceeds $1,000.
- * Provinces to be compensated for liquor sale losses from the level for the year ended last June 30 if they increase liquor prices by a total of $4 per proof gallon.
- * Tax on cigars to be increased by $5 per thousand.
- * The present tax of $8 per thousand on cigarettes to be increased to $10.
- * Tax on cigarette papers increased by 2c per hundred.
- * Total revenues for 1943-44 are estimated at $2,752,200,000. The difference of $2,748,000,000 from expenditures is to be obtained by borrowing.
- * Regarding income tax deductions already made in 1943, these will be applied to 1943 income and the final adjustment of the 1942 tax will be covered by returns to be filed not later than June 30.
- * A higher rate of deductions at the source on 1943 income with the objective of ninety-five percent of the total will begin April 1 and returns for 1943 will be due before March 31, 1944.
- * Final adjustments on 1942 tax may be paid on June 30 when the return is due and the balance on instalments running to next December.
- * Tax changes on liquor, cigarette papers and tobacco and cigars are effective March 3, 1943, and on postage after April 1.

CONVOY IS BROKEN UP

Japanese Transport Column Suffers Heavy Damage and is Scattered

ALLIED HEADQUARTERS IN AUSTRALIA, Mar. 3 (CP)—Allied war planes have smashed a strong Japanese convoy thrusting toward New Guinea, sinking or damaging at least four ships and scattering the rest of a column of fourteen vessels over a wide area, Allied headquarters announced.

Allied planes downed thirteen or fourteen Japanese fighter planes fighting to protect the convoy. The pursuit of the Japanese ships is continuing.

Discussion Of Postal Service

The Junior Section of the Prince Rupert Chamber of Commerce, at its meeting last night, again discussed at some length the present unsatisfactory postal service and the difficulty in getting action towards bringing about an improvement. There was a letter from the Postmaster General stating that the district director of postal service from Vancouver would be coming here soon to go into the local situation. The letter said that every possible effort was being made to have the new east-end post office completed and ready for business at the earliest possible date.

Further action in the matter for the time being was left in the hands of President Robert Parker and Secretary C. G. Ham.

A letter from J. J. Little, local A.R.P. controller, advising that there was no objection to the painting of rails of Hays Creek and Morse Creek bridges, providing the painting was on the inside of the rails and not on the top, was read at Monday night's council meeting. The letter was filed since the council had already dropped the idea of painting the rails.

ISSUE TO BE RAISED

City is Prepared to Prosecute if Necessary to Ensure Reasonable Traffic on Streets

The city is now prepared to make an issue of the abuse of streets by large tractors and other contracting vehicles and the contracting companies concerned are to be so warned.

The police have the necessary information with a view to instituting prosecutions under the old traffic bylaw. Mayor W. M. Watts expresses the belief that it is time the city took a stand and instituted these prosecutions.

Ald. H. M. Daggett suggested at Monday night's council meeting that the United States Engineering Department be requested to put streets back in condition and that the use of streets for such equipment as tractors be prohibited.

THE DAILY NEWS

EDITORIAL

DAILY EDITION  Wednesday, March 3, 1943

These Changing Times . . .

Extending rationing restrictions and increased taxation are among other things which remind us every day that we, at last, are all beginning to feel the direct effects of war. The most of us in many ways are now having to change our way of living. Nevertheless it is little—very little—that we have so far suffered.

The impact of war has been late in reaching us and to this moment it has been light enough compared with what many other less favored parts of the world have suffered.

However, the real implications of a nation at war are fast catching up on us.

Notwithstanding, there is little cause as yet to complain at anything we may have so far suffered.

Possibly, we have been hurt more than anything else by the mere necessity of having to change our ways—something that we must all be prepared to do without complaint. Truly enough we might as well reserve our complaints for a later date, when there may be something more justifiable to pity ourselves about.

Hint to Council . . .

It seems to us that the city council might not be quite so implacable in its rule about refusing the use of city council chamber or city police court room to certain organizations—and we refer more particularly to such as the chambers of commerce which are supposed to function for the benefit and in the interests of the community.

No matter how busy the city council and the school board may be, they are not now and they are not likely to be in the future using the council chamber every night of the week. Very rarely is the police court used at night for the functions of the police.

Under these circumstances it is difficult to appreciate the point in applying a hard and fast rule that excludes an organization like the junior chamber for instance, hard put to it to find a venue for meetings and ready to adjust its time to fit in with the primary functions of these quarters, from using this accommodation that goes unused night after night. It looks a little obstinate and dog-in-the-mangerish to us and not quite in keeping with the policy of fostering the citizens' interests which, quite evidently in the most of other things, the council is making a real effort to maintain.

Nurses' Ass'n Is In Session

Delightful Musical Program Is Feature of Meeting Monday Night

The local chapter of the Registered Nurses Association of B. C. held a regular monthly meeting in the Nurses' Home on Monday evening, the president, Miss Eleanor Graham, presiding.

Routine business and correspondence dealing with the activities of the chapter was discussed during the meeting.

Mrs. Gordon Bryant, dance convener, gave a progress report of the dance to be held on March 18 in the Oddfellows' Hall. Invitations to the dance were distributed to the members from whom they may be obtained.

Following the close of the routine business a delightful half hour of entertainment was given by Mrs. Gilker, Sgt. Scarvey and Pte. Grommeir, refreshments being served at this time.

The next regular meeting will be held at the Nurses' Home on April 5.

Fine parades in which naval men made a smart appearance featured the visit here at the end of the week of the Royal Canadian Naval Band from Esquimalt. The parades were through the downtown streets and were witnessed by many people who had turned out especially to see them.

Arnold Flaten, president of the Prince Rupert Red Cross Society, was the speaker today at the regular weekly luncheon of the Prince Rupert Gyro Club, his talk, appropriate to the national drive, having to do especially with Red Cross activities in Greece. President W. J. Scott was in the chair and there was a good attendance of members with a few guests.

Suggestion was made at the meeting last night of the Junior Section of the Prince Rupert Chamber of Commerce by L. M. Felsenthal that monthly dinner meetings of the Senior and Junior Chambers of Commerce might in future be combined, each body to adjourn later for its respective business session. The suggestion will be further looked into.

Community Sunday School Plan For Rushbrook Heights

A representative group of all Protestant denominations gathered in the study of First Baptist Church on Monday evening to make final arrangements for the establishment of a Community Sunday School to be held in the Prince Rupert East Hall each Sunday afternoon.

Realizing the vital need of such a school for those who are so far removed from the central churches and also from the Seal Cove Church it was decided to cast aside all denominational barriers and it was mutually agreed to open and operate a Sunday School in the Rushbrook Heights.

Rev. E. W. Scott of the Seal Cove Church will superintend the Sunday School with the teaching staff being representative of each denomination in the city. No denominational views shall enter the course of study. Material and supplies shall be undenominational as far as it is possible to secure such.

From the standpoint of organization and careful planning the evening's deliberations proved very successful and it is hoped that the parents in this area will co-operate by sending their boys and girls to this school when it is opened.

Last evening at the home of Mrs. W. H. Tolin, the Prince Rupert Chapter, No. 211, Women of the Moose, held their regular monthly executive board meeting. This was followed by the executive committee meeting. After the reading of reports and discussion of other business, the meeting was closed. The evening was brought to an end with a very enjoyable social hour.

Now, he's well again and doing a war job.

"MY HUSBAND'S had a nervous breakdown—just worry. He left his job in the shipyard to go into logging. But his health suffered and the doctor says he's got to take a complete rest. But we haven't any ready money. How can he rest?"

The bank manager listened to her troubles sympathetically. He knew the husband, knew the wife—both sound citizens. The bank advanced the money on personal security . . . on the good character of two honest, hard-working people.

In a few weeks, Fred was well again and working in the shipyard. The loan was paid back in full. Because of bank accommodation he is now getting financially on his feet again—and aiding Canada's war effort.

This true story—only the name is changed—illustrates how Canada's Chartered Banks, day in and day out, serve the human as well as the financial needs of Canadians.

By banking during morning hours you can help the war effort, facilitate your own business, and lighten the wartime burden on the men and women in your branch bank. More than one-third of our experienced men have gone to war.

BLOOD DONORS MUST BE BACKED BY MONEY DONORS

MACHINE-GUNNED, bleeding to death, another Canadian or British fighting man is reached by the Medical Corps. Will he live? Yes, his chances are good, if he receives a blood transfusion in time. Thanks to the Red Cross Volunteer Blood Donor Service, military doctors on the field and in hospitals, ashore and afloat, are equipped to administer the blood serum that cheats death.

Last year Canadian Red Cross collected 200,000 blood donations for use in bombed areas and on fighting fronts. This year the demand is far greater—world wide. Reserves of blood must be neither too little nor too late.

GIVE—human suffering is greater than ever NOW!

MUST be enlarged and new ones MUST be equipped. Although doctors and nurses give their time, donors give their blood free, large sums are involved in maintaining clinics.

For funds to carry on, the Red Cross looks to you. The stark life-or-death nature of this appeal commands the wholehearted response of every Canadian. Think of our wounded, our prisoners of war in barbed wire Nazi camps.

Think of battle-ravaged Russia, starving China, and dying Greece and other peoples of the United Nations—then you'll give every dollar you can. Your donation will save many lives. Every dollar is urgently needed NOW.

PROPOSES PLAYING FIELD

Editor, Daily News:

One of the greatest and most urgent needs in the city, and the lack of which affects detrimentally both members of all forces and civilians, is playing grounds. The only place which never was very satisfactory the Acropolis Hill—is no longer available for sports. Surely it is not only possible but necessary for all units and organizations to co-operate in planning and making suitable playing grounds?

There is an area between Ninth and Eleventh Avenues not far from the McClymont Park that is generally recognized as being the most suitable and convenient location. Would it not be possible, with all the equipment now available in the city and with the full support of all organizations, industrial plants and men of the allied forces, to get joint action now? Then all would have reasonable opportunity to get the exercise that they need and in the years after the war the grounds would be a real memorial to the men who served here and a legacy to the youth for whom they now fight.

There would be little outlay for lumber or other material but, with the mechanical equipment now available, the levelling off and grading could be done, and done in time for use this year.

—JOHN S. WILSON.

 By DOROTHY GARBUTT
 The Hostess

What with the Navy and bits of poetry I've been putting in this column the past two days I seem to have gone off the beam to some extent and forgotten to give you the usual Monday dance schedule for the week. Here it is and to all three junior hostesses are cordially invited and asked to come early.

Wednesday—"Y" dance, Empress Hall, The King's Own Men Orchestra.

Thursday—Regular regimental dance. Junior hostesses to meet at the "Y", Chaperone, Mrs. MacKenzie.

Friday—Army unit dance Western Gentlemen, Capt. Young's company. Junior hostesses go directly to the Empress, Chaperones, Mrs. Keays and Mrs. Love.

Although it does not come on this week's schedule I may as well mention that there is a minesweeper dance for next Monday at the Empress.

The Service Wives Club will meet tomorrow afternoon in the Y.W.C.A. ladies' lounge. Any service wives having Red Cross work on hand are asked to return it or finish it up as soon as possible. Some of this work has been out since September and Mrs. Elkins, who is in charge of the Red Cross workroom, would like to have as much outstanding work as possible brought in. Mrs. Elkins also asks that as many service wives as possible come down to the Red Cross workroom in the top floor of the
