Has Pride and Faith in Canada

experience," said R. C. Vaughan, president of the Canadian National Railways, on returning from a western tour. "It has been most encouraging. I am returning to Montreal with renewed pride and faith in Canada."

As far as the Canadian National Railways was concerned, the president said that its value to the national economy and the Allied cause was being demonstrated beyond doubt. "The people have every reason for taking pride in the national system. We are faithful and efficiently carrying out our stewardship. We have no problems but we are carrying tremendous quantities of supplies, tremendous numbers of men, and we have had no interruption or delays of a serious nature. We are improving our service as much as possible. Our thousands of workers, every man a woman enlisted in the war at the home front, are serious about their work and doing their utmost. The affairs of the Canadian National are in good shape. The same was true, Mr. Vaughan said, of the TransCanada lines, of which he is a director. "The T.C.A. is playing its part today and is preparing itself for great responsibility in the post war world."

Outflank Volturno

Is Objective of Fifth Army—Eighth Advances on East Sector

ALLIED HEADQUARTERS ALGIERS, Oct. 13 (CP)—The Anglo-American Fifth Army advanced ten miles northeast of Pontelandolfo to capture San Croce, while the British Eighth Army, advancing along the entire front, captured Riccia and Boniferno, official front line despatches announced today.

The plunge to San Croce sent deeper northward the spearhead outflanking the strong German Volturno River line. Along the Adriatic coast the Eighth Army smashed four miles ahead beyond Termoli against strong German resistance.

Night flying bombers smashed at road bridges and yards at Civitavecchia, forty miles northwest of Rome. No Allied planes were lost.

ALASKA FLOODS

Torrential Rain Reported to Have Caused Serious Inundations at Skagway and Elsewhere

SEATTLE, Oct. 13—Reports are reaching here of a rather serious flood of the creek at Skagway which caused a number of inundations and washouts, occasioning damage to buildings on flat ground as well as transportation facilities. Some buildings, it is said, were carried into the sea. Roads and bridges suffered.

Elsewhere in the Lynn Canal area there was also flood damage arising from recent torrential rains.

Trains In Collision

Slight injuries to passengers and crew members and a small amount of damage to equipment occurred at Nichol, west of Prince George, on Friday when an eastbound passenger train struck the rear of a work train which was pulling into a siding to let the passenger train pass.

About 20 passengers suffered shock or bruises and three were taken to hospital. They were released the following day. Their names were not available.

Two crewmen of the passenger train—Engineer Alfred Armstrong and Brakeman F. D. Byres—also received injuries. Armstrong received a sprained knee which will keep him off work for about two weeks and Byres suffered a strained back which will keep him idle for about the same time. Neither were taken to hospital.

Damage to equipment was slight, and no part of either train was derailed.

Is Empire In Itself

Vivid Word Picture of Britain's Greatest Jewel Given to Women's Canadian Club Gathering

With one out of every person in the world a British Indian, India, 400,000,000 in population, a people speaking 2000 dialects, living lives from a state of most primitive barbarism and squalor to fabulous wealth and luxury, is a world of its own.

Col. F. O. St. John D.S.O., M.C., retired officer of the Indian Army, now living in the Okanagan country of British Columbia, declared before a dinner meeting of the local Women's Canadian Club with Mrs. J. A. Kutherford, president, in the chair over a full gathering in the Central Hotel. It was a vivid description of a great land which held the rapt attention of a deeply interested audience as Col. St. John spoke for over an hour. His word picture covered many phases of ways of life and customs in that storied gem of Empire.

Contrary to what might be general opinion, most of the men of India were not fighters and did not want to fight, Col. St. John said. There were, indeed, only about half a dozen fighting castes but they were bold and fierce.

Col. St. John told of the northwest frontier where there had been four thousand years of fighting, was fighting today and probably would be fighting for some time to come. It was a traditional fighting ground where people lived by plunder, not caring who or for what they fought.

Of deceptive nature, there was often little truth in what an Indian said. Gandhi and Nehru, for instance, the speaker asserted, never expected to get for India the things they asked. "They do not believe that we would be so stupid as to grant them," he declared.

The primitive fighting people of Khyber Pass, the great mountains of the northeast frontier where one entered Tibet through the lofty ramparts, the people, the wild life, the flowers all came in for graphic description by the speaker.

The British really had no rights in India, Col. St. John admitted. They had never conquered the country. "We are in India because we were asked to go there," he said.

At the bottom of all the trouble in India was the caste system and Hindu religion, the speaker asserted.

However, Great Britain need have no apology for being in India. The function of the British Army there was nothing more than that of a police force. If it were not for Britain the land might now be under control of some monster like Hitler, barbarians, head hunters or cannibals.

"If we were not in India," the speaker asserted, "somebody else would be—maybe the Japanese or the Germans, preying on the fabulous wealth of the land." It was a grand training ground for the army and the navy.

Col. St. John, digressing to the Empire and the war, closed on a note of confidence and optimism, exhorting a spirit of mutual tolerance and goodwill. Slowly, surely and relentlessly the Empire and her Allies were today passing from a period of despair and disaster to a new springtime of hope and victory.

Terrace, With Population Of Two or Three Thousand, Enjoys Wave of Prosperity

As Indian summer pigments yellow and crimson its desiccated hills and valleys and the zesty coolness of autumn sharpens the lengthening nights, the interior town of Terrace prepares for winter after the busiest season the community and its population have ever had. With some two or three thousand people estimated to be in the area, a measure of prosperity which Terrace has never before experienced continues and there is reason to expect that it will carry on. A current exodus of a certain element of population is easing somewhat the pressure on hard pressed business and service facilities but that does not imply that there is still not plenty of activity. Some of the important construction work in the immediate proximity of the town has been completed but a little further out large scale work continues.

Timbering and agriculture are still, of course, the permanent mainstays of the town.

An increasing interest from the outside appears to be mani-

Death Penalty For Italians

AT THE SWISS-ITALIAN FRONTIER, Oct. 13 (CP)—Benito Mussolini's Fascist Republican government, getting in step with stern measures of the Nazis' occupation forces, has ordered the death penalty for Italian civilians who fail to heed German and Fascist decrees. It is Mussolini's effort to quell patriot activities in northern Italy.

Coal Mines Will Not Be Nationalized

Will Continue on Present Basis During War, Churchill Says—Greatest Fight to Come

LONDON, Oct. 13 (CP)—Prime Minister Churchill, warning that the worst fighting for Britain lies ahead, today rejected the nationalization of coal mines during wartime. He told the House of Commons that the government would continue its control of mines on a national service basis, but far-reaching changes of a controversial nature would not be made unless they were clearly necessary as a furtherance of the war effort.

"People would be absolute fools to count on an altogether unexpected collapse of the enemy," he said.

Badoglio Regime to Co-operate; Will Be Co-Belligerent Role

Denies Grasp At Monopoly

LONDON, Oct. 13 (CP)—In oblique reply to American charges that Britain is attempting to monopolize post-war civilian air transport, Prime Minister Winston Churchill told the House of Commons today "we do not wish to obstruct natural, normal healthy development in civil aviation."

Lord Beaverbrook has assumed responsibility for the co-ordination of post-war civil air police, and is expected to go to the United States soon to confer with American officials on the question.

WILL NOT AFFECT ARMISTICE TERMS WHICH WILL DEPEND UPON MEASURE OF ASSISTANCE THAT IS GIVEN.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 13 (CP)—President Roosevelt, Prime Minister Churchill and Premier Stalin announced today that Italy has declared war against Germany. The joint statement said that Marshal Badoglio has communicated Italy's declaration against the former Axis partner to General Eisenhower, Allied commander in the Mediterranean theatre.

Roosevelt, Churchill and Stalin have accepted the "active co-operation of the Italian nation and its armed forces as a co-belligerent in the war against Germany."

Badoglio said that the Italian government headed by himself would be completed shortly with representatives of every political party being invited to participate so it might constitute a true expression of democratic government.

The joint statement said relationship of co-belligerency could not affect Italian armistice terms which retain full force and can be adjusted only by agreement among the governments in the light of the circumstances.

The Italians may be able to afford to the United Nations. Before the official statement it had been reported unofficially in London early today that Italy might soon declare war on Germany and be recognized by the United Nations as a co-belligerent. The question of Italian participation in the war had been thoroughly discussed by General Dwight Eisenhower and Premier Marshal Badoglio and the time might be ripe for the Italian army and navy to strike a blow against the former Axis partner.

Krupps Is Shattered

LONDON, Oct. 13 (CP)—The Krupp munitions works at Essen, "greatest armament combine in Europe and the main source of Germany's heavy armament," has been shattered by air attack, Air Secretary Archibald Sinclair said today. He said that the destruction was accomplished in six raids.

Better Radio Here Sought

Local Union Demands That CFPB Be Put on National Network

At a regular meeting of the Prince Rupert local of the National Union of Machinists, Fitters, Blacksmiths, Moulders, and Helpers, the following resolution was endorsed unanimously by the members:

Whereas the owners of radio receiving sets in the Prince Rupert area pay the same licence fee as in other parts of the Dominion of Canada, and whereas the people in the Prince Rupert area are not receiving up to the minute radio programs because Station CFPB is not directly on the Canadian Broadcasting System hook-up and whereas the responsible parties for this situation have made one empty promise after another to have these primitive conditions remedied.

Be it therefore resolved that this meeting go on record as demanding that immediate steps be taken by the Radio Division, Department of Transport, Ottawa, Canada, to have Station CFPB placed on the CBC hook-up.

ROOT CROPS AT TERRACE GOOD

Potatoes Are Fine This Year—Apples and Hay and Grain Just Average

Exceptionally good root crops, including potatoes, are the highlight of the 1943 harvest in the Terrace area, according to word brought back to the city from the interior town. There is a good market and ready sale for everything the ranchers of that district have to offer.

The apple crop at Terrace this year is only average although some fine crabapples are to be noticed. Plums are off color and not of the usual good quality.

The hay and grain crop at Terrace this year has been average.

Speaking generally, it has been an unduly wet year at Terrace, although the fall is not as bad as was the summer.

Picked Up For Mobilization

Bringing in three natives—Paul Bell, William Charles and Blake Williams—who were picked up for failing to report under selective service mobilization orders, Provincial Constable Ernest Bradley of Massett arrived in the city yesterday morning from the Queen Charlotte Islands and have been turned over to the military authorities to be sent on to Vancouver. Constable Bradley will return to Massett in about ten days and is meantime attached to district headquarters staff here.

A word about the Wednesday night dances at the "Y" Empress Hall. Until now we have given out tickets at the door of the Empress but the crush has been altogether too great and there is a very definite fire hazard when entrances are so blocked. So a new policy is now in force. Each Wednesday night see it. You will find that our rules are very mild compared to the rules set out for those girls. So try to conform to the few we have. And while I'm in this sort of a mood I may as well get another grouse out of my system. That is, I should like to ask those who come to the concerts at the Capitol Theatre Sunday evenings to display a little more courtesy to the performers. I know that in a movie you can wait out if you have another appointment or the cafeteria calls and the actors and actresses in the film, being but mechanical images, are entirely unaware of what you do. But flesh and blood performers are highly sensitive to audience reaction and give their best performances only if the audience is with them. You want shows, you ask for "real live" actors, that is the cry continually. Try then, and it's not so very hard, to display a modicum of good manner when you do get what you ask for. I speak, I realise, only to a minority of the audience. All the rest of you will know it's not for you.

Kingdom of Israel Under Discussion

Not since the day of Pentecost when the Holy Spirit rested upon the Apostles did they discuss the setting up of a Kingdom of Israel in Palestine nor did they again mention the Holy City as a special centre for such a kingdom, asserted Evangelist Balmer Sunday evening in the Oddfellows' Hall.

Continuing, he said the many promises of Jeremiah and other prophets regarding the restoration of Israel to Palestine were fulfilled in their return from Babylonian captivity under the decrees of Cyrus and others. There will be no other restoration of the Hebrew nation to Palestine in this world notwithstanding the Balfour declaration in which the British government viewed with favor the establishment of Palestine as a national home for them.

Their city and temple was destroyed in AD 70 and, according to Luke 21:24, would be trodden down of the Gentiles until the times of the Gentiles be fulfilled which, according to the speaker, would not be until the second coming of Christ.

BUILDERS OF VICTORY

The RAILWAYMAN
"Moving food to market, raw material to factories, and finished products to win Victory is taxing our time and equipment to the limit," says the railroader. "But you can count on us—both for vital transport and for our dollars to buy Victory Bonds."

The MERCHANT SEAMAN
"We take a lot of pride in beating the U-boats and delivering vital war cargoes safely," says the merchant navy seaman. "Besides, we have a personal interest in the goods we carry because they are paid for with our money invested in Victory Bonds."

The FARMER
"My job," says the farmer, "is to produce more food than ever before. In spite of help shortage we're sending enormous quantities of food overseas as well as keeping home pantries supplied. I'm working harder than ever—and saving more than ever to buy Victory Bonds."

The WAR WORKER
"Our part in building Victory," say the tens of thousands of men and women in war work, "is to make sure there'll be no shortage of weapons. We are making sure in two ways. We are working full shifts full time—and we are helping to provide the money by turning as much of our earnings as we can into Victory Bonds."

The HOUSEWIFE
"Mine is a war job, too," says the Canadian homemaker. "It is up to me to keep my family well fed and healthy—and to save as much as I can toward another Victory Bond."

VICTORY ISN'T JUST HAPPENING. It is being built . . . built by countless builders.

Victory is being built not alone by the armed services. Victory is being built by the farmer who grows food for our fighters and our workers . . .

. . . by the men and women in war industry . . .

. . . by the railwaymen and truckers who provide the means of transport . . .

. . . by the braveness of daring merchant seamen in delivering the goods . . .

. . . by the whole-souled willingness of men and women everywhere to make Victory the primary job.

Yes, Victory won't just happen. It will come because all of us have willed it—worked for it—saved for it. It will come sooner as each one of us redoubles our effort. And that means getting ready to buy more Victory Bonds—more than you bought last time—more than you think you can afford.

Former Local Girl Becomes Bride in Vancouver

Shimmering white satin, cut on torso lines and misted in the folds of a full-length veil was the choice of Joan Dorothy Squire, when, at a pretty ceremony taking place Tuesday in the West Point Grey United Church, Vancouver, she became the bride of PO Garnet Hopper, R.C.A.F. The daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Squire, and the son of Mr. and Mrs. William Hopper were married by Douglas Telfer, after which a reception was held in the White Rose Ballroom.

The bride, who carried red roses and white carnations, was attended by her sister, Miss Norma Squire, wearing a toe-touching model of turquoise sheer, with shoulder veil caught by a headress of white gardenias and carried yellow baby mums. PO. Albert Buckley was the groomsmen, and Sgt. Gordon Dixon ushered the guests with PO. Douglas Arthur. For the wedding trip to Toronto, the bride donned a tailored frock of aquamarine blue.

with an autumn brown fur-lined llama topcoat and matching accessories. PO. and Mrs. Hopper will reside in Vancouver.

The bride was born and raised in Prince Rupert and lived here until three years ago when the family moved to Vancouver.

Hill Sixty Chapter Is In Session

The regular monthly meeting of Hill 60 Chapter, Imperial Order, Daughters of the Empire, was held at the home of Mrs. R. J. Keron, Water Street, on Monday. There was a fine display of articles ready for filling ditty bags.

Plans were made for Christmas cheer for an interior school. Donations were made to camp libraries fund, also to the frigate H.M.C.S. Prince Rupert.

Satisfactory reports were given by members regarding the Provincial Chapter house raffle which will be drawn in December.

Regret was expressed at the departure from the city of Mrs. E. G. Kidd who had been a very valuable member and faithful

OPENER IN HOOP PLAY

Ontario Regiment Defeats Air Force by 55 to 49 Score.

In their first basketball exhibition of the new season, Air Force Flyers came out on the short end of a 55 to 49 score against the Ontario Regiment at Seal Cove last night.

The game was a typical pre-schedule affair with plenty of wide open playing, very little team work and considerable fouling. Air Force were charged with 13 personals and Ontarians with 12.

Zack, a newcomer to the Flyers this year, bids bold to make himself heard from in the Inter-Service League this season. He's a tall and husky young man and seems to know what it's all about. Besides playing a strong two-way game, he slipped through the opposition for 19 points.

Kutner and Hunt, the Regiment's only left-overs, and also the mainstays of their last season's ball team, ripped through for 26 and 17 points respectively. Kutner was especially strong on free tosses, potting six.

It was a see-saw battle all the way. The first quarter ended with a 16 to 11 count for the Air Force but, in the second stanza the Ontarians, with Kutner in the van, poured 17 points through the hoop to the Air Force's puny six to grab the lead, 28 to 22.

There was a difference of only one point in the third quarter when the Flyers scrambled on top 40 to 39. The boys from the Regiment cinched the exhibition contest in the last canto by turning on a heavy volley of leather on the Air Force hoop, to come out on top by three baskets.

Lineups:
Ontario Regiment — Mackay, Hunt 17, Kutner 26, Bacala 4, Yalowski 6, Brydle 2, Gottfred, Thomas
Air Force Flyers—Maxwell 1, McMoran 7, McMaster 4, Zack 19, Anderson 3, Bay 4, Blore 9, Higham 2.
Referee—Clay.
