NEW DELHI-The Royal Air Force has damaged more than 100 Japanese warcraft in Burma as well as motorvehicles. All bombing planes returned safely.

A dramatic picture made from a high-flying Allied plane, showing a B-24 Liberator bomber poised over bombed, smoking Messina, Sicilian terminus of the important Reggio-Messina ferry line, during the latest of the series of raids on that city. The results and effects of bomb bursts among naval barracks and oil tanks can be seen clearly.
