J. J. Hennessy Dealing with City For Site in Section Five

J. J. Hennessy, who has been in the wood fuel business in the East for years, is in Prince Rupert with a view to establishing a large yard and is negotiating with the city for a site. He favors a portion of a block in Section Five between Eighth and Nineth Avenues which is reserved for school purposes and is at present negotiating with the city for its use. The property would only be used for storage purposes.

The matter came up at last night's meeting of the city council and was left in the hands of a special committee headed by Ald. H. M. Daggett which has been delegated to go into the fuel situation

First Things First ...

The Co-operative Commonwealth Federation, in convention at Vancouver, has proposed another Dominionprovincial conference to consider constitutional matters. Such a proposal causes no surprise coming from a party Mayor William Mott on the occa- that, as far as its acts and deliberations are concerned, the consistently seems to ignore the fact that a vital war is going on, the winning or losing of which represents the difference between whether or not the things upon which the C.C.F. monopolizes its attention could ever have being. It is all very well for the C.C.F. to go on giving its attention to matters which predicate themselves upon winning the war but it might also be well for the same party to also do some thinking about this matter of winning

> A Dominion-provincial conference, it seems to us, is comething that might be left for a time until after more important business before us has been disposed of. It is conceivable that such a conference might not be of any benefit in preserving the national unity which is essential for us to have in pursuing our war job. "First things first" we would suggest to the C.C.F.
