Canada's Case Placed Before United Nations

For Equipment To Actively Bring About World Peace

For Armament Reduction and Production For Improvement of Living—Cuts His Talk to 8 Minutes

NEW YORK (CP)—Canada today urged the United Nations to speedily equip the United Nations to enforce "proper decisions" to maintain peace. Canada's position was made known to the general assembly by Hon. Louis St. Laurent, the Canadian delegation, when he addressed representatives of fifty-one nations at the conference.

Canada also called for worldwide armaments reduction "so that productive capacity of the world thus conserved may be used for improving living conditions of all peoples."

In addition, Mr. St. Laurent called for:

- Modification of international law with all members of the United Nations.
- Acceptance of compulsory jurisdiction of an international court of justice "with minimum reservations."
- Economy in operation of the United Nations.

The Canadian leader also urged that the security council and military staff committee speed up the work of organizing military and economic measures of enforcement. He said: "The government and the people of Canada are anxious to know what armed forces, in common with other members of the United Nations, Canada should maintain as our share of the burden of putting world force behind world law."

In keeping with Canada's previous suggestions that assembly speeches should be kept at a minimum, Mr. St. Laurent himself spoke only eight minutes.

Blue Jay Throws Out City Power

Corpus delicti of an incident about 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon which threw out the entire power and light service of the city was presented to the Daily News this morning by the line department of the Northern British Columbia Power Co. It was the well roasted remains of a blue jay which had perched too close to a 13,000-volt power line near the elevator, causing a short-circuit and an arc so fierce that it burned out eight inches of hot wire, thereby causing the power failure.

Line Superintendent Thomas Black and crew were soon on the job to mend the line and restore the service. The remains of the blue jay were found in a crossarm.

Was It Just Social Call?

Speculation Over Meeting of Truman and Mackenzie King

WASHINGTON, (CP)—Statement from the White House yesterday saying that Prime Minister Mackenzie King's call on President Truman in the afternoon was "without any political significance" followed earlier assumption that the two leaders would discuss such subjects as defence establishments in the Arctic area, control of atomic energy and continuing Canadian-American co-operation. Mr. King returned to Ottawa today.

An Associated Press dispatch from Ottawa to New York had said that joint American-Canadian plans for defence of the Arctic might be among topics to be discussed by Mr. Truman and Mr. Mackenzie King at the White House. The story said: "It has been a year since the two have sat down together and, in the intervening 12 months, much work has been done by subordinates on the defence problem. Although it is stressed that there is no urgency in this matter, it remains near the top of the list of subjects for discussion. Military authorities of both countries are known to be anxious to coordinate Arctic activities."

A New Rupert Policy ...

IMBUED WITH THE IDEA that the rest of the world—at least the most of it—has been opposed to us and trying to put every obstacle possible in the path of our progress. Prince Rupert for thirty years and more has been trying to fight a lone battle for recognition and development. War gave us an unnatural boom in the arising of a sudden emergency. Now the war is over, the great activity of attendant military, industrial and shipping standpoint arising from the emergency has to large extent disappeared. True, a greater volume of fish business than the port ever knew before has developed and gives promise of even further expansion. The lumber manufacturing industry along the railway line east of here is producing on the greatest scale on record and there is reason to believe that it will continue to do so in the present manner for the next few years and, in the meantime, new types of manufacturing based on the utilization of our timber resources should be developed. Mining is gradually coming back in spite of the economical and industrial uncertainty. It is to be reasonably anticipated that a major influx of settlement may come to the fine unoccupied agricultural lands of the interior. Tourist traffic by railway, highway, ship and airplane is due for an expansion limited only by the facilities available to handle and accommodate it.

Generally speaking, therefore, the prospect is rosy in every way and there need to be little fear that Prince Rupert will ever go back to the old dull status of pre-war days. However, there are many still wondering, in the matter of industrial and port development, just where do we go from here. Instead of continuing to suspect the railway company, the government, Vancouver, the east and, at times, even our own good neighbors, of working against us, the time has come it would seem, for us to forget that small kind of thing and endeavour by friendliness and closer contact with them to develop the co-operation of these interests which, probably quite wrongfully and certainly not as much as we may have suspected, we might think have been inimical to us this long time.

After all, we are not going to get anywhere trying to fight the rest of the world all the time and making bad friends with people who, if they could or would do us harm, could just as well help us if we cultivated them. Maybe it is time for Prince Rupert to change its foreign policy and try making friends rather than belaboring those who may be enemies only in our own delusion.

Certainly, we have not been getting places the way we have been doing so far. So, why not change our ways?

FOR JOE STALIN

In the democratic countries in the first decade of the present century there were no purges or liquidations. No army of state overseers was needed. Vast state-planning schemes did not break down, as they do inevitably, sooner or later. There were no firing squads for economic failures, no liquidations, no purges. To the extent that the economy was free, men reaped the rewards of their wisdom and production or the economic penalties of their own follies. The poverty and misery of the poor was being eliminated rapidly by prodigious production. The world was moving as close to perfection as men are likely ever to come.

War destroyed that world. Only freedom can restore it. Peace and freedom could work unprecedented wonders throughout the world, including Russia. Someone should tell Uncle Joe, and on the way home drop in at the other world capitals to remind them of what made the good in the world, pre-1914.

We are short of everything we fought for—except our ideals.

The people are fed up with the Kilkenny Cat complex of groups of limited vision—because our common sense tells us it's time to take off our coats and go back to work.

Yes, the people are fed up but are not afraid.

The people are confident.

We are an informed people. We know what is going on because, with but few exceptions, we have a press in Canada which reports facts: we know that a people possessed of facts cannot be led into false thinking by emotion or hysteria.

A free press proved powerful in War. Through the news columns, the editorial pages and by advertising, public opinion was moulded by facts—and the people won the war.

What about Peace? We know that an unbiased, free and independent press can help us swap the Kilkenny Cat complex for a Dovecote. A free press can demonstrate the common sense of going back to work, with each man free to work at the job of his choice, with the law giving equal protection to employer and employee.

THE PEOPLE ARE FED UP

There was two cats of Kilkenny. Each thought there was one cat too many. So they quarrelled and fit, They scratched and they bit, Till, barring their nails, And the tips of their tails. Instead of two cats, there warnt any.

THERE seem to be more Kilkenny cats around than Doves of Peace. Peace just isn't! Not anywhere!

Franklin D. Roosevelt once said: "The raising of the standard of modern civilization among all groups of people during the past half century would have been impossible without the spreading of the knowledge of high standards by means of advertising."

Letters to the Editor

DON'T DESERVE HOCKEY
 Editor, Daily News:

So the people of Prince Rupert think they have been gypped because they didn't hear the hockey game. Well, I think they have too much. They don't deserve a hockey broadcast.

Since coming to Prince Rupert I have heard nothing but beefs most of them being directed at outsiders, because they weren't catering to the people of Rupert. Prince Rupert people don't know how to cater to outsiders so why expect anything in return?

A young fellow visiting Prince Rupert asked someone if there was any place to go or anything to see here. His answer was a stupid grin. Another one tried to find out the time a certain boat sailed from Prince Rupert. Not a single person who should have known could supply the needed information.

The only person the residents of this town do cater to is the storekeeper who keeps his hard-to-get items tucked away under the counter for his privileged friends.

One club sponsored a summer camp for the healthy boys of Prince Rupert but a plea from the mother of a crippled child falls on deaf ears.

The same people who are howling for their money's worth on the radio are too tight or mean to get out and spend twenty-five cents on a lacrosse game which is played by local talent and which, in my opinion, is just as good a game as hockey anyway.

No, I don't blame the C.N.R., the C.B.C. or the City Council. I blame the people who are too lazy to get out and do something for themselves but who howl as one voice to be noticed by outsiders. They don't deserve a hockey broadcast and their type of sportsmanship is apparent through their actions.

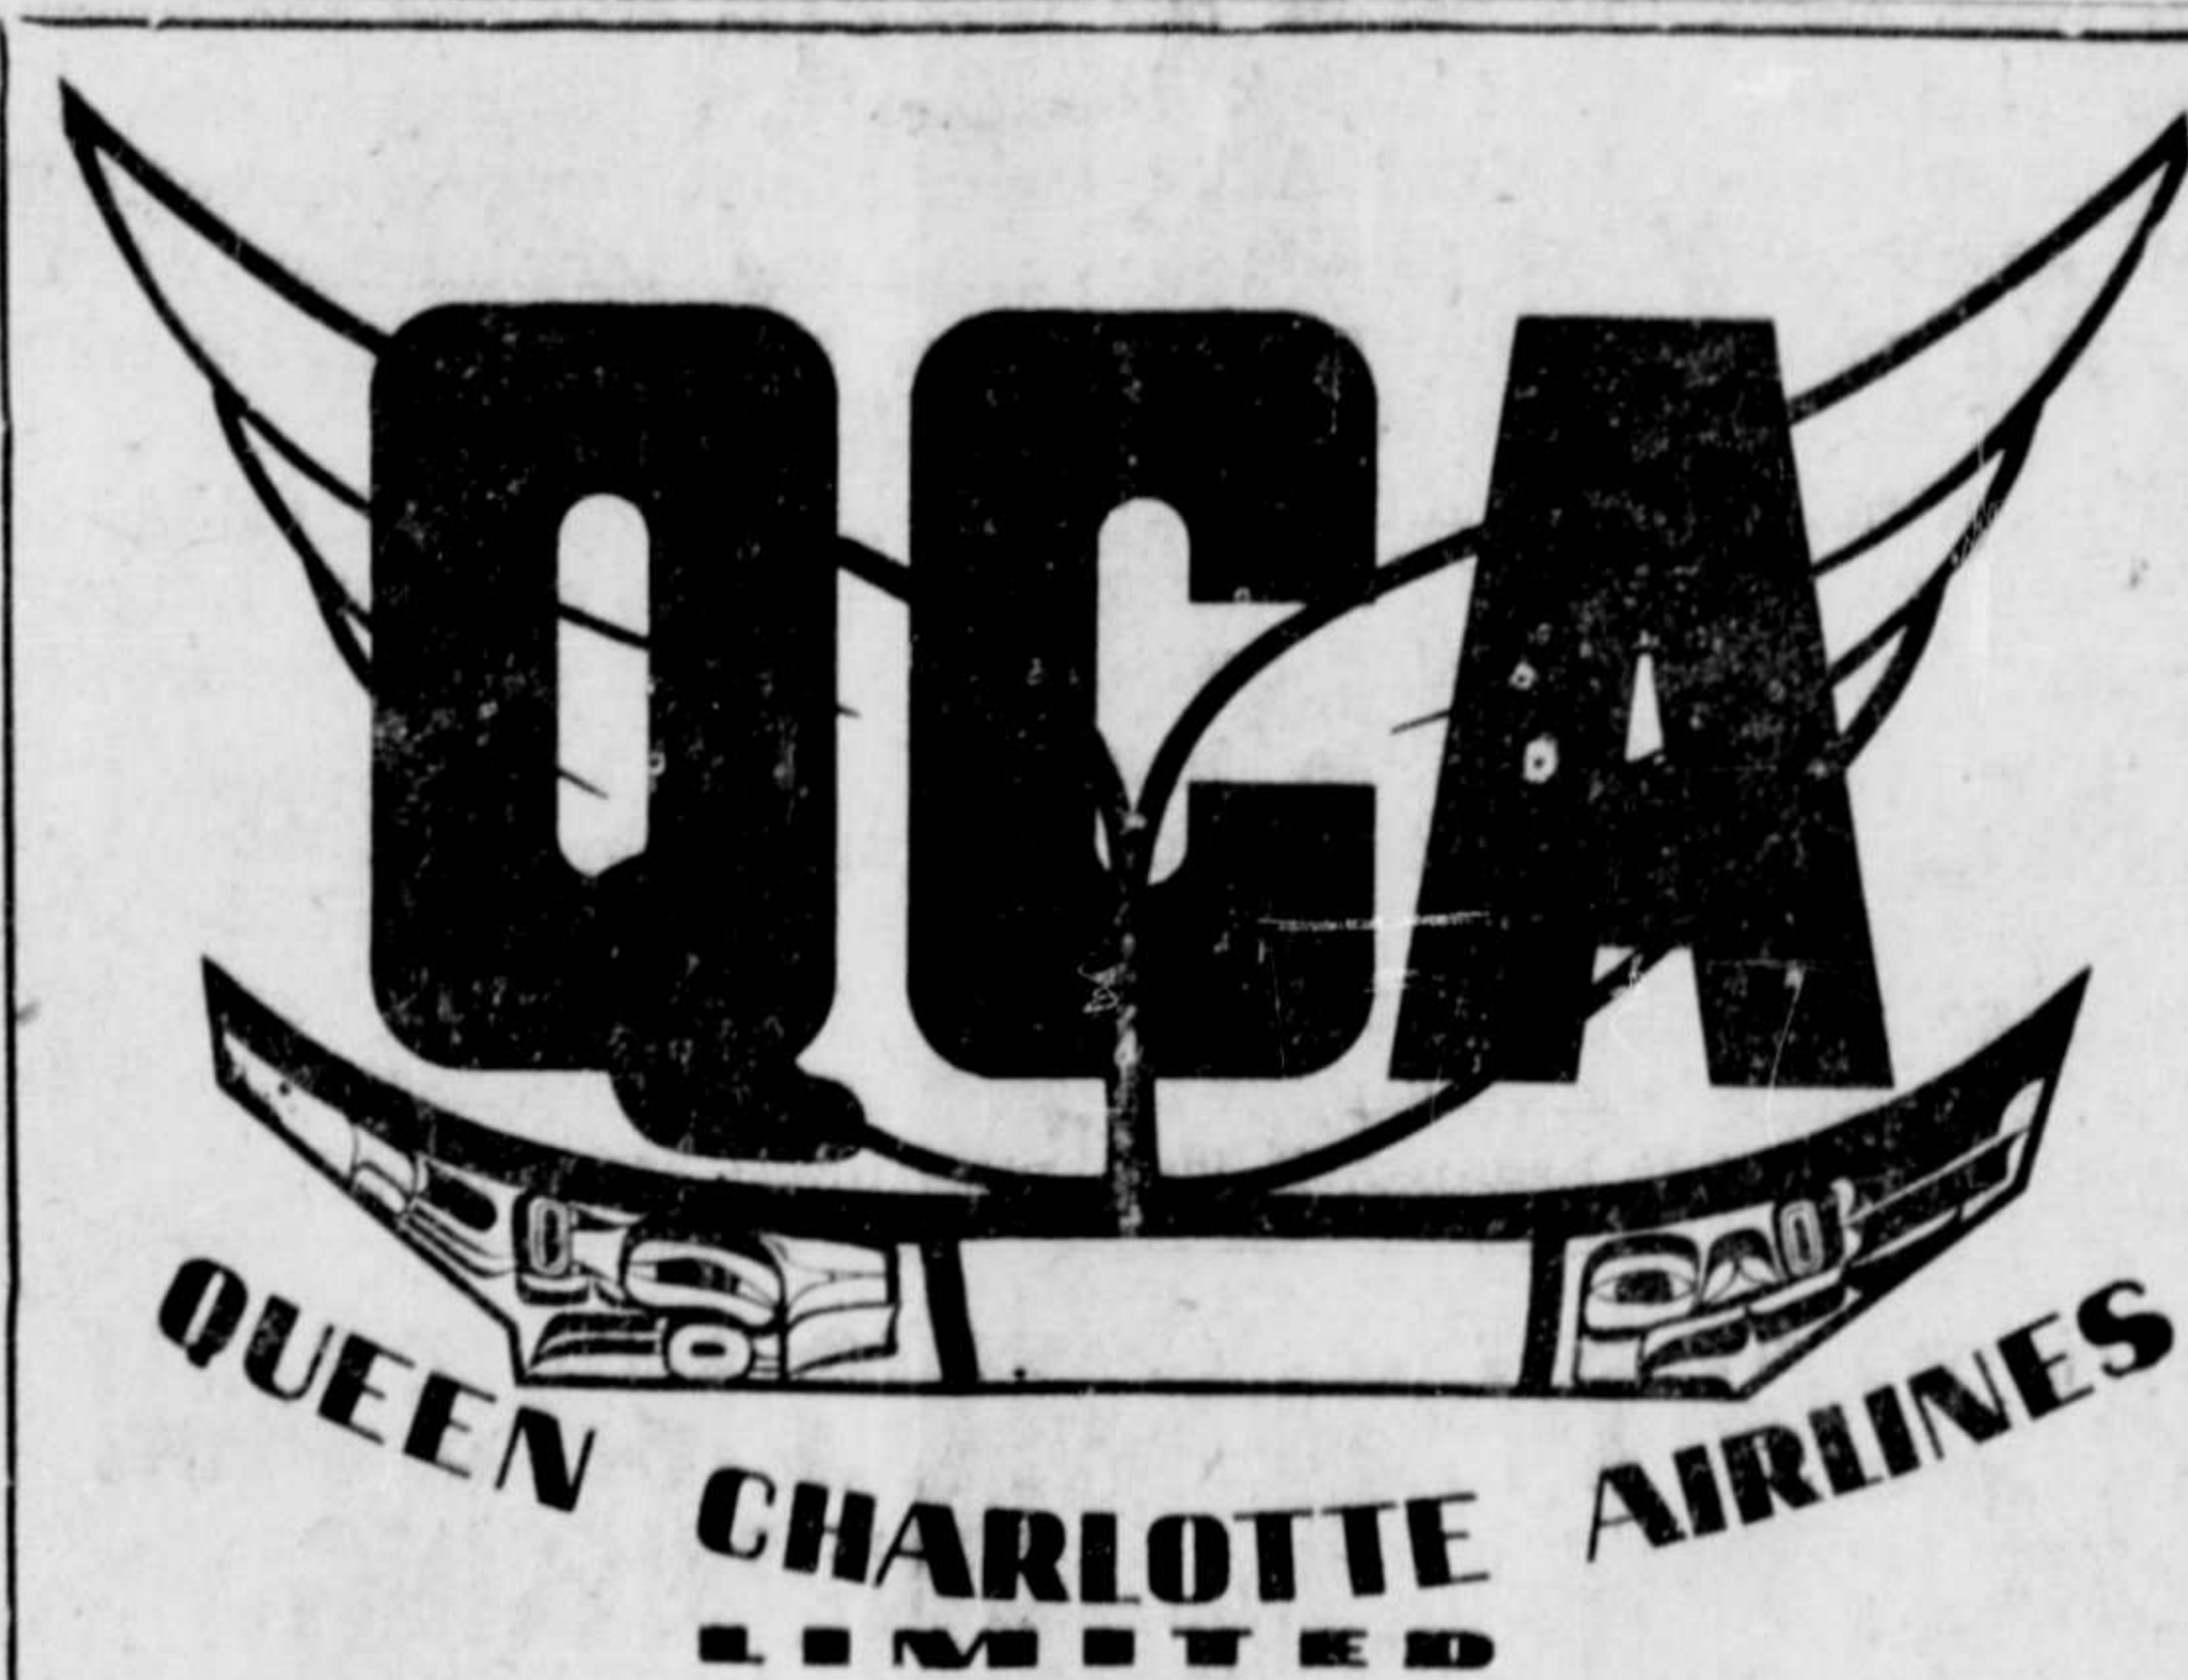

Thank you for letting me express my opinion, Mr. Editor.

CLEAR RADIO DISTURBANCE

Aiming at clearing up radio disturbances which have been annoying radio listeners in the city, City Council passed a motion last night urging that the radio division, Department of Transport, provide equipment to detect the interferences and have it at hand at all times, instead of only periodically.

The motion, presented by Alderman McKay, suggested that the equipment be kept by the city wiring inspector, and loaned out to competent radio technicians to detect disturbances.

WILL CLEAR TREES BACK FROM STREETS

Dark shadows which blacken the footpaths on Young and Green Streets between Fourth Avenue and Eighth Avenue will be dissipated in the near future with the removal of the masses of trees that overhang both streets, city council decided last night.

Alderman Robert McKay, who had previously been appointed to investigate the growth of trees at the sides of the narrow streets, reported that the "greatest offender has been the municipality itself" since the trees had grown up on city property bordering the pathways.

"At present the streets are little more than cowpaths," he told the council. "They should certainly be widened and brightened so that people will not hesitate to use them at night."

Council authorized the clearing of a right-of-way bordering the paths to a width of 20 feet. The work will be done by workmen from the City Engineer's Department. Since the City Engineer's budget for the year is admitted near exhaustion, most of the clearing will be borne by a fund held for "contingencies."

SEEK CLOTHES FOR PIONEERS

May Not Be Able to Go To Christmas Party Unless They Get Them

Lacking proper clothes, a number of Prince Rupert pioneers are unable to appear downtown and may even miss the annual Christmas banquet given for them by the Women's Co-ordinating Council in December.

An appeal for clothes for the elderly residents is being launched by Mrs. Ross Richardson, of the Women of the Moose, who describes the need in some cases as urgent.

"Some of the men, who have no sources of outside income, with the possible exception of a small pension, are badly in need of clothes and we would be grateful if the citizens could contribute men's garments for their assistance," Mrs. Richardson said.

Mrs. Richardson recalled that several of the men were unable to attend a dinner given for the pioneers early in September by the Moose ladies and she fears that the same situation may prevail at the annual Christmas dinner in September.

Specifically required are work and dress socks, sizes 11 and 11½, work and dress shirts, sizes 15, 15½, 16, 16½ and 17; overcoats, sizes 40, 42 and 44; trousers, sizes 32, 34 and 36; coats and vests, sizes 38, 40 and 42; work and dress shoes, sizes 8, 8½ and 9½.

Canadian Film Panorama Here

The film "This Is Our Canada" will be shown Wednesday evening at the Civic Centre. It includes scenes from many "typically Canadian regions. A Maritime fishing village, a farm on the red soil or the Island, a Quebec village set in the valley, a Niagara vineyard, a northern mining town, elevators rising out of prairie wheat fields, a ranch in the foothills, a narrow railway line winding through the Rockies, the fertile Okanagan Valley, the abundant Fraser River delta, all pass in succession across the screen. There are glimpses of Canada's cities too—of Halifax, Victoria, of the old world skyline of Quebec, the "House on the Hill" at Ottawa, Portage Avenue in Winnipeg, Hockey nights at Toronto's Maple Leaf Gardens, the Calgary Stampede, winter sports and summer days on the beaches of English Bay at Vancouver are also shown.

The industrial contribution made by manufacturers, farmers, ranchers, lumbermen, fishermen and miners in turning Canada's natural wealth to the advantage of her people is also illustrated. Harold Box, field representative of NFB, Quesnel, and Mel Harper, Prince Rupert, will lead the discussion period after the film showing.

The child was Matthew William Venn, one-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Venn of Arrandale.

REFUSAL OF MINERS' TAG SUSTAINED

The strike at the Premier Mine took on a semblance of vitality last night long enough to give the city aldermen time to examine their motives for refusing to grant a tag day last summer for the striking miners, then was laid at rest again after the aldermen had confirmed their previous refusal.

The Trades and Labor Council, in a letter that was received too late for the last city council meeting two weeks ago, deplored the refusal of its application for a tag day to aid the striking hard rock miners at the Portland Canal mine.

Their attitude was backed up by Aldermen George Hills and Alex Sinclair who were the only dissenters when council reaffirmed its previous attitude in refusing to grant the tag day.

Alderman McKay led off with the opinion, expressed as a motion, that tag days have been granted to organizations unable to raise funds by other means and suggested that the miners were able-bodied men and should be able to find money from other sources.

Alderman Arnold added: "These people pay heavy dues to their unions and it is up to the unions to support them when they go on strike."

Alderman Youngs brought the meeting back to its original reason for turning down the request when he said: "I think we turned down the original application on grounds that this council is composed of representatives of every section of the community and, therefore, is not in a position to take sides in a dispute between labor and management."

Alderman Hills replied that it was "ridiculous" to say that striking miners had other ways of raising money and declared that the matter closely concerned this city, which is a supply

AUSSIES PRODUCE 'ERSATZ' CLOTHES

SYDNEY, Australia (P)—Australian mannequins are modelling "ersatz" clothes and demonstrating the latest scientific aids to enhance beauty at the Chemical Exposition at present being held in the Sydney Town Hall.

In the "chemical fashion show" a group of beautiful mannequins displays attractive, up-to-the-minute bathing suits, evening frocks, street dresses, rain coats and shoes made of synthetic materials all owing their existence to chemistry.

Coal, casein from milk, oxygen, nitrogen and hydrogen and various organic acids for dyes all play their part in the production of the materials. There are brief swim-suits of plastic and rayon, evening frocks of rayon, so cleverly woven that it looks like wool or linen, plastic raincoats with nylon umbrellas, plastic shoes and brilliantly-colored gowns of acetate rayon.

The mannequins are introduced by a Sydney actress, Muriel Steinbeck, star of the Australian film, "Smithy."

Women visitors to the exposition have been especially attracted by a completely-equipped working laboratory, staffed by the food preservation division of the Council for Scientific and Industrial Research. Qualified scientists analyze various types of food while the public looks on.

BIRMINGHAM (P)—For the first time since its foundation in 1857, The Birmingham Post now carries news on its front page, formerly devoted to advertisements.

Store Application Refused by Council

An application by the A. MacKenzie Furniture Co. to remain open on the evening of November 1 for a "preview of Christmas merchandise" was turned down by city council last night. The application also asked permission for the store to remain open on the night of November 2 but since that is a Saturday night and the stores can remain open legally that night, council expressed no opinion in that regard. City Clerk Thain said that opinion by the city solicitor indicated that the store might remain open Friday night without infracting the law but council was of the opinion that it would be setting an unwelcome precedent to agree to allowing stores to stay open after regular hours.

TURGEON NOT RUNNING FOR HOUSE AGAIN

PRINCE GEORGE — J. Gray Turgeon, former Member of Parliament for Cariboo, has advised Frank Clark, president of the Cariboo Liberal Association, that he will not be able to accept the federal nomination again. He suggests that a nominating convention should be held fairly soon and that organization for an election be commenced without delay. The candidate should start touring the riding.

HOW METEOR COULD HAVE DESTROYED WORLD—This artist's conception from the Hayden planetarium in New York shows how the world might have been destroyed by the bombardment of meteoric lumps from the head of a comet. This destruction could have happened recently when our planet—the earth—whizzed through a mass of meteors, debris from the tail of the Giacobini-Zinner comet which passed within 135,000 miles of the path of the earth. This shows what would have happened if the wandering lumps or even the mass of them in the head of the comet should strike any large city in Canada. Not only would the cities themselves be destroyed, but the crust of the earth would be breached and terrific earthquakes would result. People in the foreground are shown praying on the brink of an abyss while comet fragments rain down from the brilliantly lit heavens and the cities are pounded into dust in the background.

BIRTHS INCREASE IN NETHERLANDS

NEW YORK (P)—Birth rates for the Netherlands have been increasing sharply in the last year, the Netherlands Information Bureau here reports. The current rate of 35.4 per thousand compares with 29.1 per thousand before the war and reflects a large increase in the number of marriages.

The bureau says this birth rate never before was approached in the country. The famine which ravaged the country immediately after the war had its effect in a very low birth rate in large cities, which reported a rate of 14.8 for January, 1946, but that rate has been climbing until the latest report from the large cities shows a rate of 38.1 per thousand.

The country also reports a low death rate, although statisticians suggest that many premature deaths among older people during the famine may be partly responsible for the better showing now.

The Eskimo was sitting on a cake of ice telling a story. He finished, got up and said, "My tale is told."

SHORT SPORT

Cleveland Indians of the American League closed one of the most bizarre chapters in baseball history six years ago yesterday when they dismissed manager Oscar Vitt. Vitt's resignation had been demanded by 12 players in an unprecedented rebellion in June.

The $500,000 grandstand and clubhouse at Cleveland's Thistle Down track burned to the ground two years ago today in the fifth United States racetrack fire of the year. Seven hundred horses stabled at the far end of the track escaped injury.

Seasonable Ideas for Housekeepers

OUR GOOD FRIEND, POTATO IS COMING IN FAVOR AGAIN

Although there is still a lot of fresh vegetables on the market stall and in the stores, potatoes, which were more or less forgotten or neglected the past months, are creeping up on us again. All the varieties of root vegetables come more and more general standbys with colder weather but because they are familiar to everyone they don't necessary have to appear in the same dress every day. A change of dress or at least of appearance is always welcome even if down deep it's really the same familiar food. Many people say that a potato is always a potato no matter what you do to it, so why bother disguising it. They are right in their first statement but home economists disagree with them on the second one and offer recipes which will settle the argument of differences of opinion.

Basically, whether the potato is boiled, baked, mashed, riced or fried, etc., the flavor is the same but seasonings, other vegetables, meat drippings, cheese, sauces, will dress it up and give it a brand new dress or rather flavor.

Potato Chowder

- 2 tablespoons fat
- 1 medium onion, minced
- 2 cups diced raw potato
- 2 cups diced raw carrot
- 2 cups boiling water
- 1½ teaspoons salt
- ¼ teaspoon paprika
- ¼ teaspoon pepper
- ¼ teaspoon celery salt
- 1 tablespoon flour
- 1 tablespoon fat, melted
- 2 cups hot milk

Melt fat in soup kettle, add onion and cook 5 minutes without brown. Add potatoes, carrots and water, cook till vegetables are tender, add seasonings. Blend flour with melted fat, add hot milk. Add to vegetables and cook 3 minutes longer or until slightly thickened. Garnish with chopped parsley if desired. Six servings.

Potato Creole

- 4 tablespoons fat
- 4 cups sliced raw potatoes
- 1 onion, sliced
- 2 cups canned tomatoes or tomato juice
- 1½ teaspoons salt
- ¼ teaspoon pepper

Melt fat in a frying pan. Add the potatoes and onion and cook for 10 minutes. Add the tomatoes, salt and pepper. Cover and simmer for 30 minutes, or until the potatoes are tender and the tomato juice becomes thickened by the starchy potatoes. Six servings.

Potato Biscuits

- 2 cups hot riced potatoes
- 2 tablespoons grated cheese
- 1 teaspoon chopped parsley
- 2 eggs, well beaten
- 1 cup sifted all-purpose flour or 1 cup plus 2 tablespoons sifted pastry flour
- 2 teaspoons baking powder
- 1 teaspoon salt

To the potatoes add the grated

Many-Colored Heels For London Belles

LONDON — Suburban Cinderellas are more likely to leave colored heels behind them at midnight than glass slippers this season.

The latest fashion, introduced by a shoemaker in the suburb of Burnt Oak, Edgware, is interchangeable to match each dance frock.

Thrifty women, who feel one warm winter coat is worth three pairs of evening shoes, will still be able to get a bit of glamor by experimenting with three-pairs - of - heels - to - one - dance-slipper bargains, and may even try a harlequin effect with one heel red and the other blue.

cheese, chopped parsley and the well-beaten eggs. Sift together the flour, baking powder and salt. Blend thoroughly with first mixture. Shape into rounds like a biscuit and bake in a hot oven, 425 degrees F., for 15 to 20 minutes. These biscuits are good served with jam or jelly and require no butter. Yield: 18 12-inch biscuits.

HOW CAN I ???

By ANNE ASHLEY

Q. How can I find the proper working height for a kitchen table?

A. By holding the upper part of the arm close to the body. Then bend the arm at the elbow. The correct height is the distance from the floor to the elbow minus two inches.

Q. How can I iron round table cloths properly?

A. Always iron the round table cloth from the centre to the edge, and then roll instead of folding.

WOMAN CRASHES FOREIGN OFFICE

LONDON, —The foreign office, hitherto almost exclusively a male preserve, established precedent by appointing 28-year old Miss Monica Milne to a permanent administrative post. She may become Britain's first woman ambassador. Daughter of Surgeon Rear-Admiral Robert Milne a Harley Street specialist. Miss Milne worked in the Ministry of Economic Welfare for five years after leaving University. Although women are rare in foreign office employment there have been others, notably Mary Craig McGeachy of Sarnia, Ont., who for a time was temporary first secretary at the British Embassy in Washington, and Hon. Mrs. Stewart-Mackenzie, for a time assistant commercial attache in Moscow.

FEW VOTERS REGISTERING

Little Interest So Far Shown In Municipal List

Although the city clerk's office remained open until 9 o'clock last night to receive names for the civic voters' list, no applications were taken yesterday, according to City Clerk H. D. Thain. Registration period for the 1946 voters' list closes at 5 p.m. Thursday.

In the meantime, the City Hall will be open for registration of voters from 7 o'clock to 9 o'clock in the evening, tonight and Wednesday.

Only sign of interest Monday in the voters' list was when one citizen called to confirm the fact that his name was already on the list.

Citizens are warned by Returning Officer H. D. Thain that the fact that they pay poll taxes does not automatically place them on the voters' list. They must make formal registration at the City Hall.

It is estimated that this year's voters' list will be smaller than the 1945 list which contained 2,165 names.

WINCHESTER, Eng., © — St. Cross Hospital, run by the Order of Noble Poverty, has marked its 500th anniversary.

20 YEARS AGO

October 29, 1926

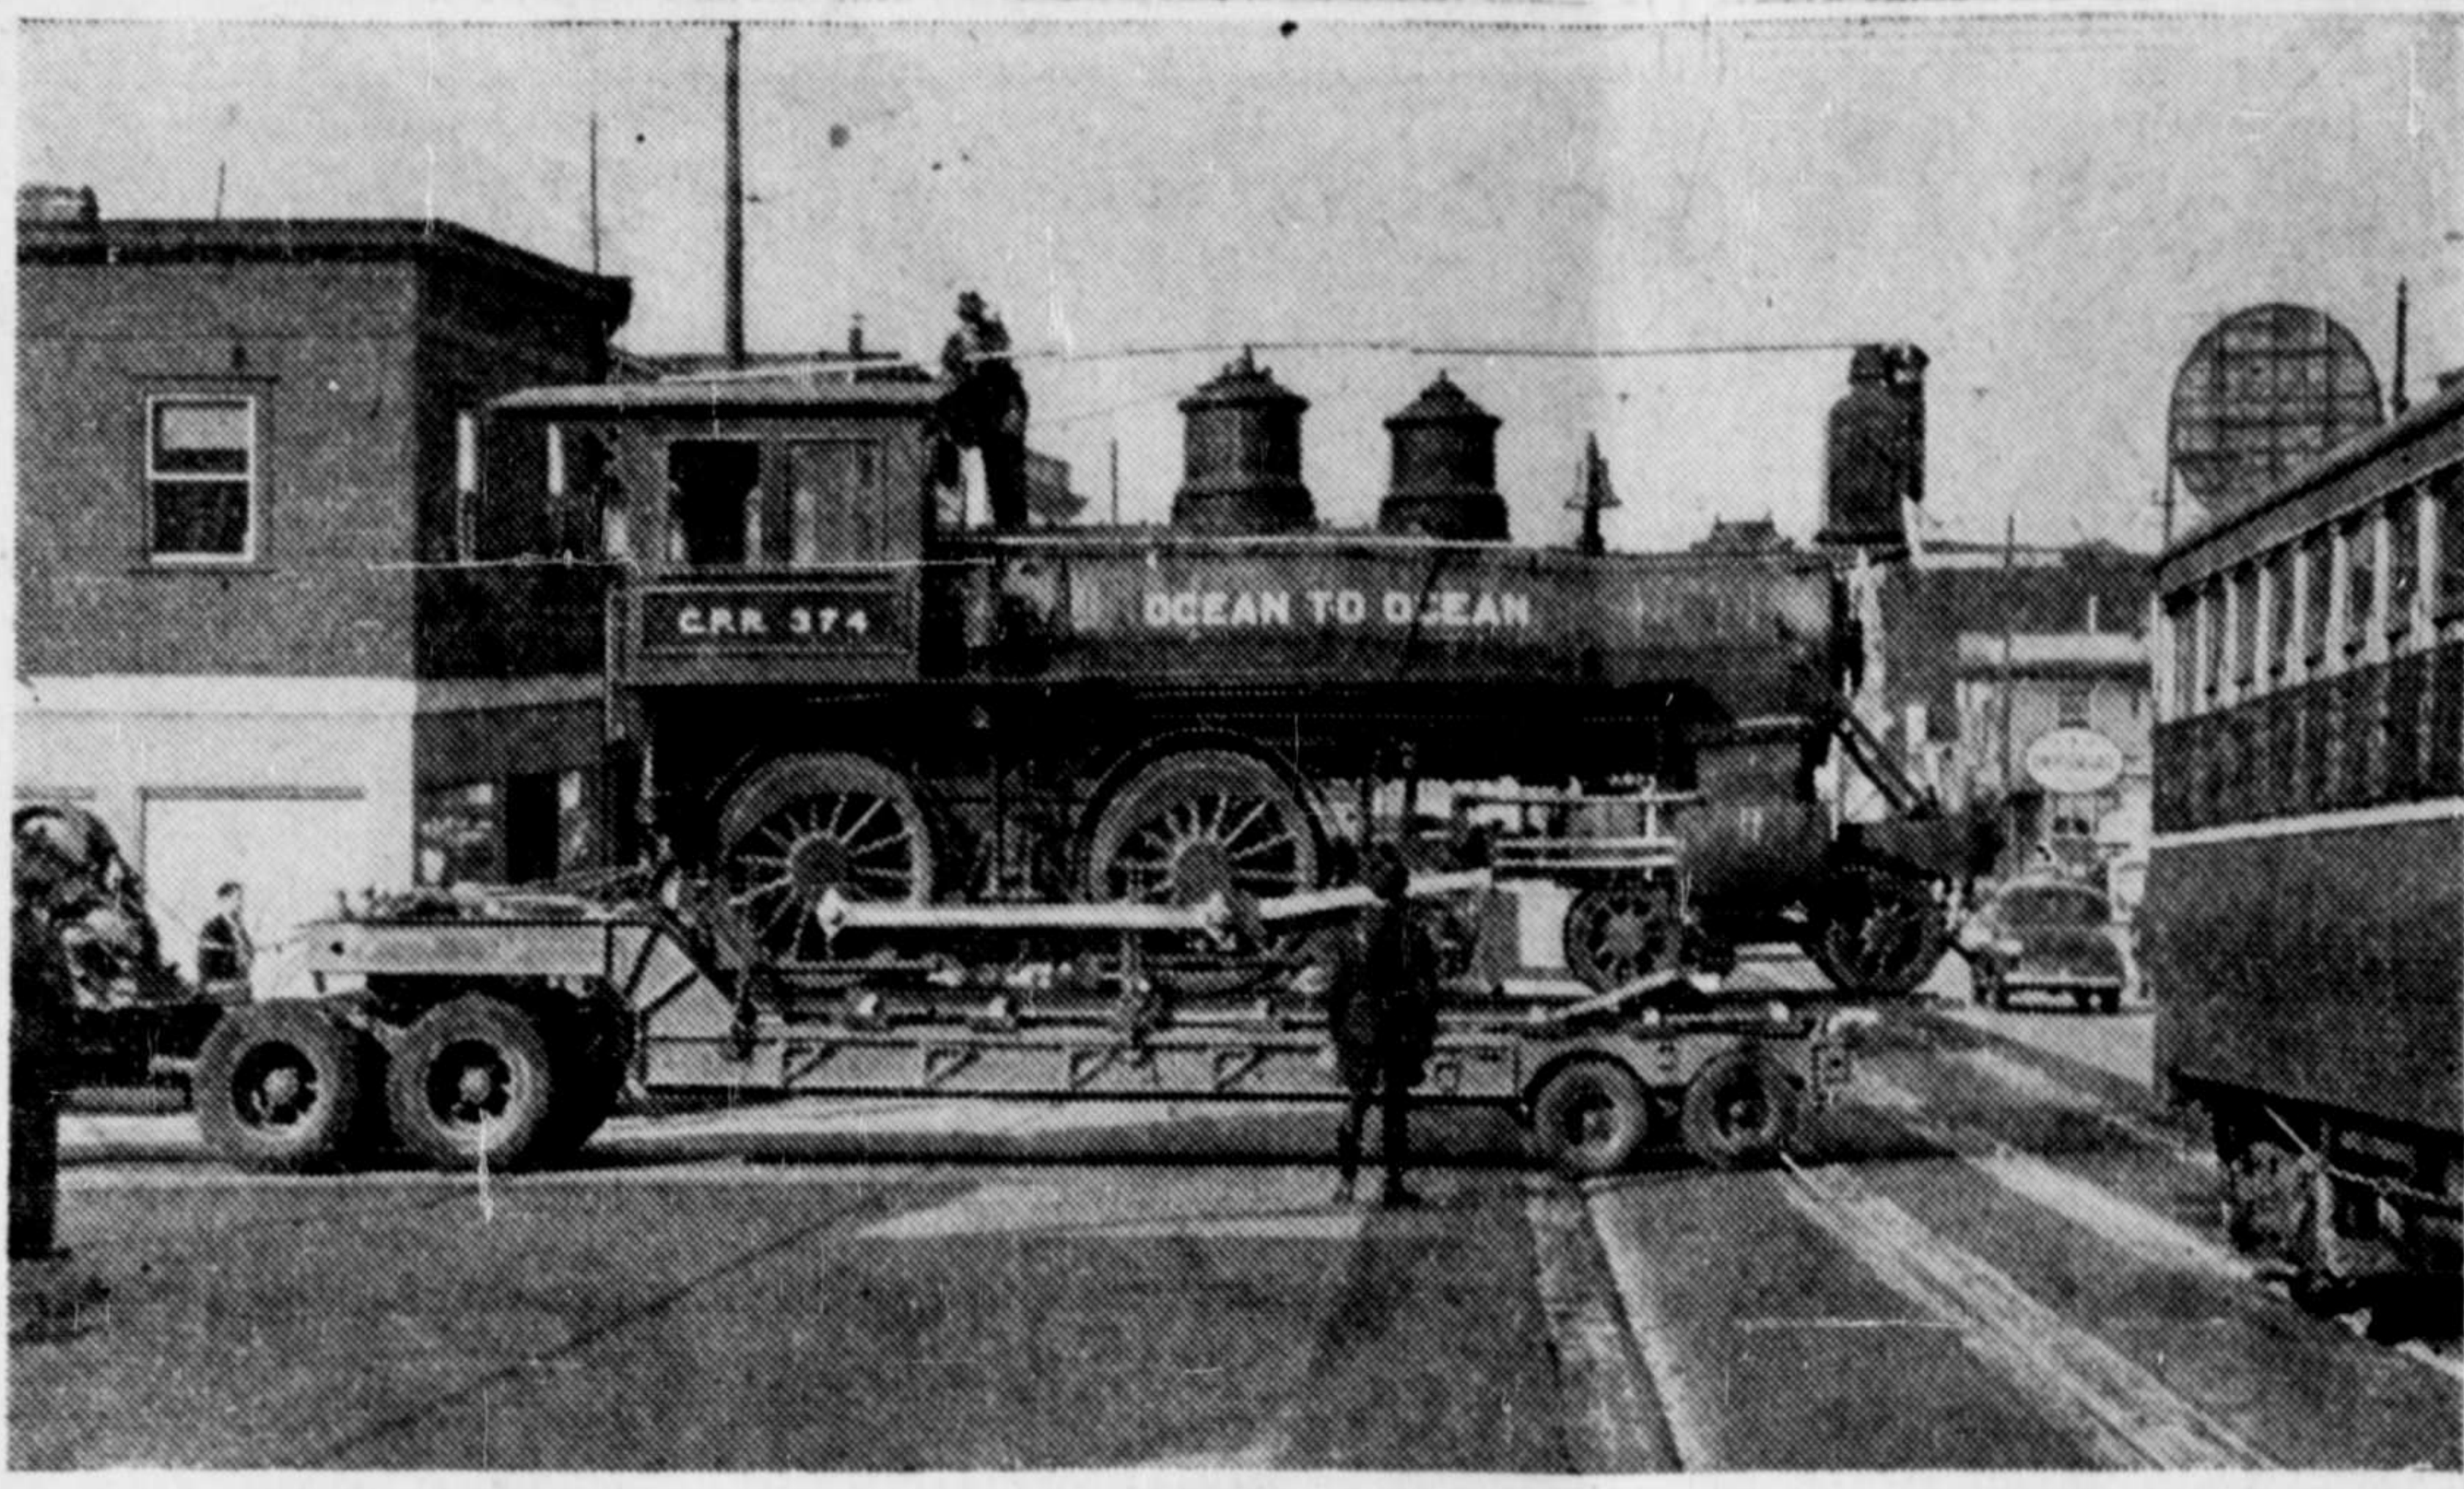

There were 965 carloads of grain on the C.N.R. line moving toward the Prince Rupert elevator for shipment overseas. Three hundred of the cars were between Prince Rupert and Jasper and 600 east of Jasper.

The question of finding a radio direction finding station near Prince Rupert was to be investigated by Director Edwards of the Department of Marine during a forthcoming tour of the west coast.

The annual hospital ball was one of the most successful social events of the year. The committee in charge consisted of Mrs. Parsons, Mrs. Stork, Mrs. Deddie and Mrs. John Dybhan.

OFFICE ENTERED; TIRES STOLEN

In the second breaking and entering in the city this week, thieves entered the office of Highway Construction Co., Second Avenue, and made off with two tires and inner tubes some time last night. Entry was gained by breaking a pane of glass in a window and unlocking and raising the sash. The city police are investigating.

REMAINDER OF CANADIAN RAILWAY HISTORY RESTS IN VANCOUVER—Holding itself as dignified as possible under the circumstances, Canadian Pacific locomotive 374, the famous old wood-burner which drew the transcontinental passenger train into Vancouver from Montreal in 1887, is pictured here as it was trundled through the streets of Vancouver to a site in Kitsilano Park. The 44-ton engine, minus its pilot and old-fashioned smoke stack was uncoupled from its wood-filled tender at the C.P.R.'s Drake Street yard for the truck haul, but will be "re-outfitted" at Kitsilano where it will rest as a reminder of Canadian transcontinental railway history.

Canadian Pacific Airlines announces a substantial decrease in plane fares from Prince George. Effective November 1 the fare from Prince George to Fort St. John will be $12 instead of $28; to Grande Prairie, $19 and to Edmonton, $48 instead of $73.60. It is proposed to use larger aircraft.

There will be an ambitious celebration of Hallowe'en here on Thursday night under the direction of the Rotary and Kinsmen Clubs. A gay party is planned.

The sum of $150 has so far been raised in the current Salvation Army drive in Prince George. The objective is $2000.

There will be three teams in the Prince George Commercial Hockey League during the coming winter.

Women of many nationalities participated in the "Fair of All Nations" held here last Friday evening. It was a colorful and successful affair, the proceeds going towards the fund to send concentrated foods to needy overseas countries.

URGENT HOUSES BE LEFT ON EIGHTH AVE

A resolution urging time Houses for sale on Avenue be made a purchase on their site of having to be moved present locations was city council last night of the houses are in the eastern end of the city, however, to get back the lots the houses are sites which were sold to Housing originally.
