Flying Boat Disaster Evidence Mounts

Two More Bodies From 'Skeena Queen' Yielded

Remains of Pilot Ken Wilson of Skeena Queen and Little Bernice Dempsey Picked Up Yesterday But Little More Wreckage From Flying Boat Disaster

Sullen waters of Chatham Sound yesterday yielded two more bodies—those of Pilot Ken Wilson and three-and-a-half year old Bernice Dempsey of Stewart—but, otherwise, withheld all but fragmentary evidence of the now apparent violent end of the Queen Charlotte Airlines flying boat Skeena Queen's ill-fated mercy flight to Stewart last Saturday night.

Three bodies have now been found, including that of Mrs. Margaret Dempsey, which was picked up Tuesday morning. Surface craft, manned largely by local volunteers, are continuing the minute and diligent search today for four other persons—Co-Pilot George Hatch, engineers Jens Madsen and Lloyd Douglas and another passenger, Nick Killas of Prince Rupert—who were aboard the Skeena Queen as well as for further wreckage which so far consists of five life belts, two cushions, an oil tank and a lubricating tank.

Inquest into the tragedy was commenced at 2 o'clock this afternoon by Coroner M. M. Stephens. Bodies of two victims were viewed by the jury prior to a start being made on the hearing of evidence. The jury consists of Gus Stromdahl, Frederick Dannhauer, George Rowe, Harry Norman, Fred Hardy and Frank Skinner.

It was at 1 o'clock yesterday afternoon that Searchers Rev. Basil Procter and Albert Bleakley found the body of Pilot Wilson afloat between Mud Bay and Jap Point, a considerable distance to the south of Finlayson Island below where the body of Mrs. Dempsey and first evidence of the crash had been located. Floating only about six feet away was another of the Skeena Queen's life belts. The body was brought into the city last evening by the police boat P.M.L. 15 and removed to the morgue of the B.C. Undertakers Preparatory to the inquest, a postmortem examination was undertaken by Autopsist Dr. R. E. Coleman. There was evidence of considerable injury to Wilson's head.

The pilot's watch had stopped at 9:20. It was at 8:50 p.m. Saturday that the Skeena Queen had circled over Prince Rupert above harbor fog. Later last evening communication was received from Hudson Bay Co. manager and Stipendiary Magistrate Cuthill of Port Simpson that still another body had been picked up—that of little Bernice Dempsey—off Finlayson Island and not far from where that of her mother had been found. The police

U.S. Seamen Go On Strike

Major Maritime Tie-up in United States Looms

NEW YORK — The American Federation of Labor seamen, seeking a reversal of a Wage Stabilization Board decision through a country-wide strike, began walking off ships in all United States harbors today, a union spokesman announced.

Union officials at Seattle said the strike would be continued "until this thing is settled." The strike involves 100,000 A.F.L. seamen and 100,000 A.F.L. union members and the C.I.O. National Maritime Union, which has announced it would observe the picket lines.

New York longshoremen promised to respect the picket lines when they are established tomorrow. The strike follows failure of the government's Wage Stabilization Board to approve wage increases for seamen which had been agreed upon between companies and unions.

President Truman has indicated that he will intervene directly. Mrs. Earl Vinton of Minneapolis and Mrs. Harvey Naysmith of Vancouver, sisters of Mrs. H. F. Pullen, arrived in the city from the south on the Prince Rupert yesterday morning and are returning to Vancouver tonight. Mrs. Vinton and Mrs. Pullen are making the round trip to Ketchikan today.

Brands' Report 'Alibis'

Publisher Ralph Ingersoll Critical of British Commander-in-Chief

NEW YORK — Publisher Ralph Ingersoll today termed Field Marshal Montgomery's latest report on the Normandy campaign of 1944 "another set of alibis concerning his shortcomings in France... chiefly distinguished for its amazing claims of proprietorship over General Omar Bradley's victories at St. Lo and thereafter." Lord Montgomery, in a report released by the British War Office, said his delaying action at Caen on the east flank of the Allied line drew German reserves away from positions opposite the United States First Army under General Bradley and materially assisted the American breakthrough from the Argentan peninsula.

"MONTY" NOW AT JASPER

Famous Soldier to Spend Three Days at Mountain Resort

VANCOUVER — The British Empire's No. 1 soldier, Field Marshal, The Viscount Montgomery, boarded a Canadian train for the second time on his present tour as he left here Wednesday night for Jasper. He will stay at Jasper Park Lodge for three days.

Hundreds of admirers thronged the Canadian National Railways station for a glimpse of "Monty." Many of them chatted with him as he concluded his Pacific coast visit of eight hours in Victoria and Vancouver and waved farewell from the rear platform of his special car on the Continental Limited. The Field Marshall's itinerary calls for him to leave Jasper on Saturday for Edmonton where he again takes to the air for the east.

ON GUARD IN HAIFA—RIOTING IN INDIA, PARADES IN LONDON

British troops guard the barbed-wired streets of Haifa, Palestine, during the outbreak which followed when immigrants from Europe, seeking entrance into Palestine, were transferred to British ships and transported to the island of Cyprus and detention camps. Three Jews were killed and many injured during the demonstration.

Members of the All-Indian Moslem league are shown demonstrating in London for "Pakistan"—an all-Moslem independent state in India. The following day bloody riots broke out in Calcutta, India, between Moslems and Hindus. Latest reports indicate the rioting is still in progress with some 2,000 persons killed and other thousands injured. British troops in armoured cars fired repeatedly on mobs of looters, but street battles seem to go on unchecked.

Crowds line the streets as the bodies of three Jews, killed by British troops when they tried to break into the port area in violation of the curfew, are borne on a single lorry during funeral procession. The riots took place when crowds surged down Mt. Carmel on the tightly blockaded port area, where two Royal Navy transports sailed for Cyprus with about 1,300 would-be immigrants for Palestine.

RUSSIA WAGING WAR

IT IS NATURAL ENOUGH, if, here in strategically situated Prince Rupert, we may feel just a little nervous when we hear so much talk about the possibility of war in the Pacific and in the Arctic. Not so long ago we were thinking about Russia in this connection but were not mentioning her by name. Now we are talking quite frankly about the Soviet Republic as our next enemy.

It is not, of course, because we have any particular quarrel with Russia. God knows we do not want any more wars with anybody but Russia herself seems to be doing her best to force us into the position of regarding her as an enemy.

What the Moscow radio says notwithstanding, we know that no elaborate defence preparations are being made in this country, to say nothing of trying to pick a fight with Russia as some Soviet spokesmen and commentators are suggesting. We in Canada know the ridiculousness of such suggestion. Possibly many feel we are not even taking sensibly adequate precautions.

The disturbing part of the thing is that the propaganda now being disseminated from the Moscow radio and the Soviet press organizations smacks so much of the nonsensical talk of aggression and war-mongering which the Nazis accused us of in the nervous days before the Second World War, propaganda which led to the undeclared war in Europe in 1939, propaganda similar to that which emanated from Japan before Pearl Harbor.

Maybe it is something more than just conjuring up in the imagination when an American congressional military affairs committee in the Orient makes hints of the possibility of another "Pearl Harbor" which, of course, wouldn't be a Japanese coup this time.

Meantime, even if the Russians do not mean real war, they are at least inflicting a war of nerves upon the rest of the world.

CANADA'S NEXT LOAN

THERE WILL BE no great Victory Loan campaign staged this fall such as marked the war years but thrifty and thoughtful Canadians will, no doubt, welcome the new opportunity for sound investment which will come in October when the federal government floats its issue of Canada Savings Bonds.

On this occasion there will not be exciting patriotic urge but the appeal will be principally in the conviction that continued thrift and saving on the part of citizens in all income brackets is highly desirable and that increased stakes in Canadian resources held by individuals in all walks of life are something to be encouraged.

One thing which will apply as much to the buying of Canada Savings Bonds this October as applied to any of the Victory Loans is that it is as much if not more to the personal interest of people to buy.

There will be no great selling campaign this time. During the war the bonds were carried to the buyers. Now, for the most part the buyers will have to seek their own bonds.

BUILDING ILLWILL

DURING THE PERIOD of the war, there has grown a habit of being discourteous. It has been like an epidemic sweeping the country. Many people seem to be convinced that they will always have all the business they want. Many seem to be convinced that they are indispensable and won't get the sack.

Memory is longer than shortages, whether of materials or of help. A lot of customers are still adding to their lists of firms they are going to delight in avoiding. And some firms are astutely building long future security for themselves and their staffs by lavish use of that least costly commodity, courtesy.

To Rebuild London in 30 Years

Many of Quaint Corners in Financial District to be Sacrificed

LONDON (AP)—St. Paul's cathedral as the centre of a great traffic circle is now part of a 30-year plan for reconstruction of the old City of London district devastated by the "blitz."

Sacrificing many of the quaint corners of the "City," oldest of greater London's boroughs, may give sentimentalists but practical idealists foresee relief for traffic congestion in the new plan.

This district, only a mile square, was founded by the Romans and its streets to some extent still follow the lines of the old Roman walls.

It is the market place of the Empire. Within its gates are the Bank of England, Lloyd's and the stock exchange, the Fleet Street home of the greatest news agencies, and, rising above all, old St. Paul's.

It will be the first of the London boroughs to be reclaimed from war's devastation, and city planners, envisaging a new metropolitan area, say the more the city is modernized the more it will remain as a world centre of commerce and finance.

From a traffic viewpoint, the "City" is referred to as a heart or lung, into which and out of which are pumped each day some 500,000 workers and about 50,000 vehicles. It is planned to divide the program of relief into two stages, 1946-1955 and 1955-1975.

The road system is planned for double the amount of traffic. Two new routes will run from Falcon Square to London Wall and from the Guildhall to a new junction at Cannon and Queen Victoria streets. A special route of two arms, 80 feet wide, will start at Holborn Circus and Aldgate and meet at Liverpool St.

A circuit of inner distributive roads, 64 feet wide, will be provided for mixed traffic. Old through routes will be widened.

Underground Parking Plan

Underground parking space also is being planned.

The St. Paul's precinct—feature of the program—will be opened out to Carter Lane and Paternoster Row, the choir school rebuilt at the east end, with the top of Ludgate Hill becoming mainly a processional drive to the west front of the cathedral.

The planners view the architectural glory of St. Paul's as the centre of a new square which would provide a site for a national memorial. They regard this feeling of spaciousness as "one of the most striking and most cherished inheritances of the devastation."

MILITARY WING BEING OFFERED

General Hospital to Make Offer to War Assets for Adjoining Structure

Although not, apparently, keenly interested in acquiring the structure for which there is no keen need and which would cost considerable to adapt to the requirements of general hospital purposes, the board of directors of the Prince Rupert General Hospital, nevertheless, decided at its monthly meeting last night to submit a nominal bid for the former military hospital structure which has now been declared surplus to War Assets Corporation. The military hospital, of permanent construction, duplicates the general hospital in size and is on property immediately adjoining and owned by

Forty-Four Hour Week Is Asked

Hospital board was requested at its meeting last night by the International Steam and Operating Engineers' Union to put three engineers of its steam heating plant on the 44-hour week as required by provincial statute, saving overtime for time over the 14 hours. The hospital engineers are now working 48 hours a week, getting overtime for the seventh day. Chairman Frank Dibb was not so sure that steam engineers were covered under the Hours of Work Act. If the 44-hour week were to be applied to them, he suggested the possibility of changing the plant from steam to hot water and reducing the number of engineers.

BOARD SEEKS TO EQUALIZE NEW CLASSES

Prince Rupert school board is wondering how it can equalize the load of beginners at the city's three elementary schools without calling down on itself the wrath of the parents who might have to be asked to shift from one school to another to adjust the sizes of classes.

The situation revolves particularly around Borden Street school where the class of beginners is smaller than at either King Edward or Conrad Street. The Board feels that some of the new pupils will have to transfer from King Edward to Borden Street.

With 61 beginners, King Edward has the most congested primary class while Borden Street is 19 pupils short of the required number for six teachers. The answer is not, the board feels, a simple matter of subtraction from one, and addition to the other. There are complications.

It would appear that the geographic areas surrounding the two schools have never been divided into zones from which the students nearest each school would automatically send their children to that institution. As a result, some children living nearer to Borden Street School are attending King Edward, presumably as a result of parental preference.

Inspector of Schools E. E. Hyndman suggested a possible solution when he urged that children from homes which are the same distance from both schools be sent to Borden Street.

"We have an unusually large class of beginners in all schools this year," he said. "This year's primary class has been called the 'first of the war babies' and it has been noted in Vancouver, too."

The Board decided to follow Mr. Hyndman's suggestion as tactfully as possible.

Enrolment at the city's four schools stood at 1,033 on Tuesday, Schools Secretary Mrs. M.M. Roper said. Enrolment for individual schools was as follows:
Conrad Street, 190.
King Edward, 260.
Borden Street, 182.
Booth High School, 441.

GYROS TO BE ACTIVE

Program of Functions in Support of Community Service Work—Apple Day and Hoedown Highlights

An active fall season in support of its program of community work including substantial regular contribution to the recreational work for children conducted both summer and winter under the auspices of the Civic Centre organization is planned by the Prince Rupert Gyro Club. Highlight events will include an Apple Day sale at the end of October when luscious Macintosh Red apples will be offered to the public in quantities large and small, the plan being to catch the market just ahead of the Hallowe'en demand. Then on Hallowe'en itself the club will be staging another of its traditional Hoedown dances which have been highly successful features of Gyro money-raising activity down through the years. A committee consisting of David Allen, Lloyd Morris and Alf Rivett was named on the Apple Day committee while W. F. Stone, who has directed so many such events in the past, will marshal every Gyro for the planning and carrying out of the Super Hoedown.

David Allen, Orme Stuart, Frank Skinner and Frank Dibb were named to a committee to consider further ways and means of raising funds for the revived program of public service.

The Gyros will take active interest in winter sports activities by sponsoring a Junior League basketball team and entering the Bowling League.

Thanks of the club were tendered by vote to Americo Dominato and his committee on the

Hospital Having Fewer Patients

There has been a sharp decrease of late in hospitalization traffic, according to figures presented to the hospital board at its meeting last night by Arnold Platen, chairman of the finance committee. There were 1898 hospital days in July as compared with 2282 in June. Inpatients were 197 in July compared with 166 in June and 226 in July last year. Outpatients were 120 in July as against 151 in July and 516 in July last year.

For Ovaltine acts in three ways, to help make you alert and glad to be alive.

First, taken warm at bedtime, it fosters sound, refreshing sleep, without drugs.

Second, it supplies essential food elements to rebuild vitality while you sleep!

So why not try Ovaltine beginning tonight and get off to a good start in the morning.

MAY RE-OPEN PORT EDWARD SCHOOL HOUSE

Transporting Port Edward school children to Prince Rupert schools is proving unsatisfactory to the parents of the suburban youngsters and an effort will be made by the Prince Rupert district School Board to re-open the elementary school at the nearby cannery centre.

The parents of the Port Edward children feel that the nine-mile trip to school and return makes "too long a day" for the small children who leave home shortly after eight o'clock in the morning and do not return until 5 p.m. They also fear winter road conditions.

Decision by the school board to try and re-open the Port Edward school, which functioned last year, was made on the basis of an offer by Nelson Bros. Cannery Manager Harry Robins that he would make a building available for classroom purposes.

In addition, the board was in receipt of an application from a teacher in Edmonton, seeking a post in the Prince Rupert district. Schools Secretary Mrs. M. M. Roper wired the applicant at the conclusion of last night's meeting that the position was open.

In the meantime, Mrs. Baynton, who taught at Port Edward last year, and is now living there, will be approached to act as substitute teacher until a permanent one can be found.

Attending the elementary schools here are ten Port Edward children while four more attend the Catholic parochial school and two others attend Booth Memorial high school. Since the two High School students will continue to attend in Prince Rupert, it is felt that an elementary enrolment of from 10 to 14 pupils is available at Port Edward.

HOW CAN I ??? ? ?

By ANNE ASHLEY

Q. How can I get rid of bats?

A. The only satisfactory way ever discovered to eliminate bats is to drive them out of their haunts and then close their means of entry. A characteristic of the bat is that it takes its food on the wing, and therefore cannot be poisoned.

Q. What is a remedy for removing warts?

A. Dissolve a quantity of washing soda in a pan of water. Wash the hands in this solution and then allow them to dry without wiping.

Q. How can I clean a granite-ware vessel that has been burned?

A. Let boiled water and a tablespoonful of soda set in it for an hour or more.

mentary enrolment of from 10 to 14 pupils is available at Port Edward.

Minimum enrolment required by the Department of Education is eight pupils.

BRENTWOOD, England — Food ministry officials denied extra soap rations to Brentwood, which has hard water, but offered to send extra supplies of soda for softening purposes.

KINSMEN HEAR CAMP REPORT

Two Hundred and Fifty Gallons of Milk Was Consumed

Two hundred and fifty gallons of milk contain a lot of vitamins and muscle-building food—and that is the amount that Prince Rupert boys who attended the Kinsmen's summer camp at Lake Lakelse drank during the first 25 days of August.

Details of the summer camp, which ran for six weeks during July and August, were unfolded to a meeting of the Kinsmen's Club at the Commodore Cafe by Leonard Casey of Terrace, camp supervisor.

Altogether 60 boys attended the three two-week sessions, and, in spite of the fact that the club spent slightly more than they had allotted for it, the members plan to repeat it next year.

As a final gesture to the boys, the club plans to hold a banquet for them in the Commodore cafe tonight, after which they will be taken to the theatre.

All 60 boys who attended the camp have been invited to the dinner and theatre party which, the club feels, is justified by the good conduct and co-operative spirit of the boys during the camp period.

"We spent the $2,000 which we collected on the May 24 celebration but it was worth it," Kin President R. E. Montador said.

MEN LEAVING PREMIER NOW

With the strike of hard rock miners continuing and little indication of an early settlement, employees of the Slibak-Premier mine in the Portland Canal district are gradually pulling out of the camp, according to reports from the north. Several of them came south in the Catala this week, some disembarking here and others going through to Vancouver.

RETAINS LIGHT TITLE

CARDIFF, Wales—Ike Williams successfully defended his world lightweight title last night by knocking out the Welsh challenger, Ronnie Janes, in the ninth round.

"In fact, we spent about $200 more than we had but we plan to repeat the camp next year."

Camp equipment is being stored at Lake Lakelse under the eye of a Lakeside resident who is acting as caretaker.

Present at the meeting was Miss Marjorie Wilson, successful Port Queen candidate sponsored by the Kinsmen Club. Miss Wilson thanked the members for their support during the campaign.

The club appointed William Noble and William Bremner delegates to the Civic Centre Association and named Danny McDonald as bulletin editor.

CONGRESS PLANS ARE SUBMITTED

Salvation Army Extension to Be Considered by Commission

The Salvation Army concluded its Summer Congress meetings with three conference sessions on Monday, conducted by Colonel and Mrs. A. Layman of Toronto. Various phases of Salvation Army work and service were discussed by the various divisional workers and plans submitted for extension of the work will be submitted to the territorial commissioner.

The Salvation Army work was first commenced along the Skeena River by the city of 1888. With the help of the work to the villages of the Nass River.

WELCOME HUT'S FAITHFUL WORK

Canadian Legion Women Did Noble Duty in Greeting Homecoming Veterans—Distinguished Visitors
 Record of the Canadian Legion Women's Auxiliary Welcome Hut, now about to close after a year's service, has been one of faithful service on the part of the Legion ladies, more than 30 of whom sacrificed their time at one period or another during the year to welcome men and women whose military service embraced all parts of the globe for the United Nations.

Now, feeling that the period of usefulness of the Welcome Hut is over, practically all local service personnel having returned home, Mrs. William Rothwell and Mrs. W. F. Robertson, who have taken a leading part in the work, will recommend to the W.A. that the centre be closed.

"It has been difficult work at times and it has not always been convenient to meet incoming boats and trains, but there has been a great deal of satisfaction in it," Mrs. Rothwell said this morning. She had been in attendance at the hut more than a hundred times in the last 12 months.

Ritual at the Welcome Hut prior to the arrival of a boat or train was for two or three of the ladies to open the hut, make coffee, with cookies, buns or some other delicacy, make sure several packages of cigarettes were at hand, then go out on the pier and invite newly arrived veterans to enjoy their hospitality and to sign his or her name in the register.

IS INTERESTED IN HOME TOWN FIRE

Caller at the Daily News office yesterday was D. J. Kenaston, insurance dealer from Wenatchee, Washington, who was particularly interested in getting information about a big fire which swept the business section of his home town last week.

It was a $750,000 conflagration and Mr. Kenaston found that some of the buildings destroyed were ones on which he had the insurance.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenaston and young son, Donnie, drove here by way of the Okanagan and the Cariboo and are shipping their car and going to Vancouver on the Cardena tomorrow night.

Mr. Kenaston mentioned being well acquainted with T. H. Arneil, who was manager of a wholesale house here in the early days, moving to Wenatchee and now being located in Spokane.

IS INTERESTED IN HOME TOWN FIRE

There is Major General George Hays of the American Army, who on Monday received the dedication of Roosevelt Park in behalf of the people of the United States; Capt. Harry Sanders of U.S.S. Tucson, and other military and naval notables from other places.

Also there are the names of several Prince Rupert men decorated for their war service—Lieut. Commander Orme Stuart, D.S.C.; Fl/Lt. Pat Deane, D.F.C.; Sgt. Darrow Gomez, D.C.M.; Hon. Major R. C. Durnford, D.S.O., and F/O J. Victor Bouzak, D.F.C., and many others.

There are names of members of the United States Army, Navy and Coast Guard, the Norwegian armed services as well as Canadians. It is a record of which the Women's Auxiliary to the Canadian Legion is extremely proud.

Ladies who attended the hut during the year were: Mrs. W. Rothwell, Mrs. W. F. Robertson, Mrs. W. Murdoch, Mrs. G. V. Hanley, Mrs. C. Morrow, Mrs. F. Miller, Mrs. Dan Parent, Mrs. J. A. Teng, Mrs. G. NURSES ARE VERY FICKLE LOT NOW

The Prince Rupert General Hospital is still "terribly" short of nurses and is just "muddling" along, Miss P. M. Mooney R.N., lady superintendent, told the board at its monthly meeting last night. Of twelve nurses, most of them from Ontario, who had applied recently, only one had actually come while a second was expected about September 15. Nurses would indicate their desire to come here and then would change their minds, some without even the courtesy of sending notice. The conduct of the nurses in this way was lowering the standard of the profession, President Frank Dibb felt.

AFTER THAT BOXLA GAME

There was something new to mark down in the lacrosse book in the Labor Day game between Prince Rupert and Aiyansh when the natives refused to play if the locals did not take off their pads. The Prince Rupert men did just that thing and, as a result, there have been quite a few lacrosse players limping around and nursing sore ribs and arms. For the native boys were playing their men, if not the ball, all the time.

Dick Woods, in talking about it, says his players will not be so obliging again. "It was a tough game," he said, "and I don't think even the Salmon-bellies would look good against that kind of checking."

The veteran Bud Schumann, leading the recruit line, appeared to be marked for special attention by the opposition from up the Neas River until in the fourth period he decided it was time that some one had to oblige P. Perry who seemed quite willing to take on anybody. They both dropped their sticks and went at it in the old-fashioned manner until the referees were able to get the little argument straightened out and the game got under way again.

Another old timer, Abercrombie also received a lot of personal attention in the course of his periodical runs the length of the floor. Husky Defenceman Al Nelson, under full headway, collided with Heavyweight R. Gunoo and something had to give so it was Gunoo who went down.

Of the recruits Ralph Smith and the Scarffe boys proved they can take it and will, no doubt, be heard from in future games. Parsons and Arney showed flashes of classy combination result in two of the prettiest goals of the evening.

Among the veterans Denny Morvan and Gus Gunoo gave a fine display of stick-handling and played a bang-up game, leading a young and practically untried team for the majority of whom it was the first competitive game.

Fastball Ends— Protest Is Disallowed

Play-off Series Ends in General Motors Winning— Finding of Committee

Its victory of Sunday night, sustained by a special committee over a protest of the General Motors on the complaint that an unregistered player had been used, thereby keeping them in the final play-off series, 99 Taxi lost again last night and thus General Motors won the series three games to one.

In a statement last night, Neil Ross, chairman of the Civic Centre Fastball Committee, said: "Since the League was not officially notified by the management of 99 Taxi team that his team was withdrawing from the play-offs (despite his reader in the Daily News), the League has no alternative but to consider tonight's game as official, thus giving the General Motors team the series three games to one."

The history of the play-off series was, therefore, as follows: First game, tie.

Second game, won by General Motors.

Third game, won by General Motors.

Fourth game, won by 99 Taxi.

Fifth game, won by General Motors.

Finding of Committee

The finding of the special protest committee consisting of W. F. Stone, W. G. Murray and W. J. Scott which considered the protest of General Motors against 99 Taxi's use of an unauthorized player in the play-off game of Sunday was as follows:

"After considering all factual information relative to the game in question and after interviewing managers of both teams involved it is our unanimous decision that the protest be disallowed and that 99 Taxi be declared the official winner."

"Although our decision was unanimous it was not reached without much deliberation. It is our opinion that a protest would never have been lodged had the manager of the '99' team advised the General Motors manager that but eight of his registered players were in the city and available for Sunday night's game. We feel sure that the General Motors manager would have given his consent for an un-

FISH BIG AND HUNGRY AND SO ARE THE FLIES

Big cutthroats were caught by an angling party consisting of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Richards, Mr. and Mrs. S. J. Hunter and Norman Moorehouse which visited Levenson Lake in the Warke Canal area over the Labor Day holiday week-end, but the flies were big and hungry too and that somewhat took the joy out of the outing. The trip was made on Richards' Grace R., leaving Saturday afternoon and returning Monday night.

SHORT SPORT

How did Bill Sherring get to be the Dominion's lone Olympic Marathon champion, with laurel wreath, plus statues of Hermes and Minerva? He started marathoning around Burlington Bay back in 1897, nine years before he went to Greece. Bill finished third in the Hamilton Herald road race that year; was the winner in 1899; finished second to Jack Caffrey, also of Hamilton, in the Boston Marathon of 1900; was second in the Hamilton grind in 1900 and came back to win the Herald fixture once more in 1903, after which he directed his attention toward the Athenian Games in 1906. Forty years later, Sherring is still hale and hearty in a Customs Department post at Hamilton—still an athletic immortal in a Canadian city that has produced its share of sports heroes.

istered player to take the field. It was this lack of co-operation on the part of the 99 management that brought the matter to a head. This, together with the fact that the game had been extensively advertised by the Fastball Association and one of the largest crowds of the season was on hand Sunday evening, were the factors which, more than any others, influenced our decision. The teams must realize that they have a duty to the public and squabbles among individual players must not interfere with that duty.

"It must be understood that the Fastball Association have no formal constitution which would have simplified our task. Had this been available we would have had no recourse but to uphold the protest. Its absence has made our task more difficult but our decision, we feel, has been arrived at while considering the best interests of the players and the public but, above all, the benefit of sport in the city.

GENERAL MOTORS WINS PLAY-OFFS

Defeats 99 Taxi in Deciding Game 10-4 to Take City Championship

Last evening at the Gyro Ball Park the General Motors fastball team won from 99 Taxi by a score of 10-4 to take the third and deciding match of the city fastball play-off championships. There was a good crowd on hand to witness a hard-fought game.

Ted Arney, on the mound for General Motors, was in good form and, with reliable support in the field, held the 99 Taxi to eleven hits. For 99 Taxi Dominato pitched and yielded 19 hits but was not given the same steady support in the field, eight errors proving costly.

Simundsen and Johnson scored for General Motors in their first trip to the plate and Davis, Lindsay and Fitch crossed the plate with three runs in the third. Two more runs came in when Johnson and Davis scored in the fourth on two-baggers by Davis and Fitch. Two more were added in the fifth by Davis, who hit another 2-bagger, and Fitch. They added one more run in the eighth when Lindsay scored after hitting a two-bagger though there was a dispute as to whether he had left the base before Lambie was caught by Houston.

99 failed to score till the seventh inning when Windie and Ratchford crossed the plate. Murray, first man up in the eighth, hit and scored on Windie's hit. Pustak scored their fourth run when he got on base on an error in the ninth, stole second and third and came home after Calderoni was caught in the outfield.

Arney walked four and struck out two. Dominato walked two and struck out three. Davis hit two 2-baggers and Lindsay and Fitch one each. Lindsay was out to a great catch by Smith and robbed of a three-bagger.
