HAROLD ICKES HAS RESIGNED

Secretary of Interior of United States Quits Truman Cabinet

Trygve Lye, Secretary-General, is reported to have expressed the opinion that the Assembly will wind up its business by Friday night.

REMANDED ON LIQUOR CHARGES

Charged with supplying liquor to Indians, John Samuel Wing appeared before Magistrate W. D. Vance in city police court this morning and was remanded for sentence after he pleaded guilty to the charge. Robert Gordon Robinson pleaded not guilty to a charge of committing to supply Indians with liquor, and was remanded for hearing to this afternoon. Both charges arose out of an alleged drinking party at a cabin at 208 Ninth Avenue East which was followed by the death of an 18-year-old native girl on Sunday.

PROGRESS OF RECONVERSION

Job is About Half Done, Reconstruction Minister Says

At a news conference in Ottawa Monday the minister said that on V-E Day there were 760,000 in Canada's armed forces and 900,000 in war industry. Now, he said, there are about 300,000 left in the forces and about 250,000 unemployed. Among the other statements made by Mr. Howe was one that more than 50,000 houses will be built in the Dominion in 1946.

Hamilton Girl Is Burned to Death

HAMILTON ©—Fire in a Hamilton, Ontario, district home took the life of seventeen-year-old Jessie Hislop. Three other members of the family are in hospital as a result of the fire.

SUGGEST DEAD INDIAN GIRL MAY HAVE SMOTHERED DURING SLEEP

Admittedly failing to find any pathological signs of injury which might account for the death of 18-year-old Ethel Shanoss, Dr. R. E. Coleman, autopsist, expressed the opinion to a Coroner's jury Tuesday afternoon that the Indian girl, whose body was found in a two-room cabin on Ninth Avenue East on Sunday, might have smothered while in a drunken sleep.
However, pending results of an analysis of the contents of the Shanoss girl's stomach and blood, the inquest was adjourned until February 28. The inquest, yesterday heard testimony by six witnesses after the body of the girl was identified by Walter Derrick, native of Kitwanooc.
The story of the drinking party at a cabin at 208 Ninth Avenue East early Sunday morning which preceded the girl's death and of the discovery of the girl's dead body on the bed shortly after noon on Sunday was told to the court by Effie Johnson, 17-year-old native girl companion of Ethel Shanoss, and by John Wing, age 23, who admitted picking the girls up on the street about midnight Saturday and taking them to the Ninth Avenue cabin.
Robert Gordon Robinson, whose cabin the affair took place, admitted only a vague recollection of the early morning events in the cabin, saying that he had gone to bed shortly after entering his home about 2 o'clock a.m. Sunday and had slept with only brief interruptions until about noon.
Testimony of Effie Johnson, whose home is at Kitwanooc, was given through an interpreter, R. S. Woods, as was that of Walter Derrick who identified the body of Ethel Shanoss.
Only Slight Injury Found
Dr. Coleman told the court that the only injury revealed on the body was a slight abrasion over right eye and minor injury to the lower part of the body, neither which could have caused death. However, he said, the flattened appearance of part of the girl's face, including her nose, was "consistent with her apparent complete inability to breathe."
"Pathology," he said "revealed no cause of death, which leaves only the possibility of asphyxiation (smothering) as the cause of death."
Autopsy showed signs of an old, healed condition of pleurisy, which could not have been a death cause, Dr. Coleman asserted.
Constable E. D. Anderson told of receiving a telephone call at 1:40 Sunday afternoon, allegedly from Robinson. On arriving at Robinson's cabin, he and Constable James Cowgill found the dead girl lying on her back with her knees drawn up about her chest.
Robinson, Constable Anderson declared, told him that he had moved the body from the back of the bed near the cabin wall, to the front of the bed. Rigor

More Nazi Deception

The attempt of the high-class Nazi rats in the Nuernberg war crimes trial to scuttle away with their miserable lives by resorting to the subterfuge of blaming it all on their dead chief, Adolf Hitler, will likely avail them little. It is but another example of the deceit and cunning of the trapped criminal and has been seen so often among the Fascist elements that none, much less the international adjudicators, are likely to be misled by any such shallow defence. As the tribunal was told yesterday by one of the German generals no single man could have been capable of conceiving so many crimes, much less seeing that they were carried out.

The late unlamented Adolf Hitler may or may not have been the greatest criminal of them all but he had his willing henchmen and colleagues and the men now arraigned at Nuernberg before a court of international justice, beyond a doubt, among the chief of them. The people of the world who cherish the principles of civilization, democracy and humanity shall not be satisfied unless the carriage of justice is justly dispensed upon them. It is grimly amusing, however, to see the resorts to which the beastly lot will go to save their wretched necks from a fate which will be too good for them.

Nylons Coming, Take It Easy!

February 19th is approaching, when the first nylon stockings will appear in stores across Canada. The men are waiting . . . just waiting to see the fun should their wives, daughters, sisters, aunts, girl friends, yes even their grandmothers, go temporarily crazy. They expect mob scenes, frenzied women trampling each other, fighting madly to get to the counters. And for what? Just to grab a pair of nylons before some other woman can get them!

Silly, isn't it? Can you blame the men if they are ready to stand by and jeer? If they are planning never to let you forget the time you made "such a fool" of yourself?

Of course, it need not be like that. You can outsmart the men by passing up the first nylons without so much as a backward glance, telling yourself that there'll be plenty of them later, enough for everyone.

Getting one of the first pairs of nylons really isn't a life-or-death matter. Supplies will be coming into stores in a steadily increasing stream as the weeks go by and production of nylon yarn and hosiery gets into high gear. February 19th was selected by the trade as the date when nylon hosiery would first be on sale, because by that time the industry should be running at a rate which will ensure that supplies will go out steadily.

By fall, the supply can be expected to match the demand, and the wearing qualities of nylon mean that replacements won't be needed so often.

Before the year is out, there should be seamless nylons as well.

(P.S.—Of course, it might be that the trampling, fighting mob would consist of men).

St. Valentine's Day

Cupid won't have to take such a long shot on St. Valentine's Day with most of the eligible boys on this side of the Atlantic again.

Canada's fair set will have a chance once more to test the old legend which had it that the first man seen by a girl on February 14 was her Valentine for a year. From overseas marriage records it appears that British, Dutch and French girls took advantage of the legend at every opportunity in the last six years but it is Miss Canada's opportunity tomorrow.

How the name of St. Valentine became associated with this special day of expressing one's affections is obscure. There are eight saints named Valentine mentioned in history, but it is probable that the one who is most closely connected with the events of February 14 is that St. Valentine who in 170 A.D. was beheaded at the Flaminian Gate in Rome on the orders of Claudius II, a Roman emperor whose displeasure he had incurred.

The day coincided with the Feast of Lupercalia, a pagan Roman festival of spring which was held in honor of—and here is the love interest—Pan and Juno. A gay lottery was held in Rome in which the young Lotharios of the day drew names of girls from an urn and accepted them in a make-believe betrothal which was supposed to last for a year but they say in many cases led to marriage.

The Romans in Britain perpetuated the Lupercalian festival and in Scotland, the 18th century girl celebrated a type of "Sadie Hawkins" day on February 14, pursuing the man of her choice who became "hers" for a year when captured.

Until the close of the 19th century the custom in Europe was to send love tokens anonymously. Today some send anonymous tokens but these are usually the satirical Valentines popular in America.

Tomorrow some swains and maids will reveal their preference with frilly heart-shaped mementoes but it is not likely that the girls will be as bold as Ophelia when she said in the "Mad Scene" of Shakespear's Hamlet:

"Tomorrow is St. Valentine's Day,
All in the morning betime,
And I a maid at your window,
To be your Valentine."

HOROLOGY IS INTERESTING

Ex-Service Students From All Over Canada Learn Watchmaking at Toronto

By NORMAN ALTSTEDTER
Canadian Press Staff Writer

TORONTO — After 34 years in the medical branch of Canada's armed forces, M. H. Mills of Truro, N.S., is starting a new career as a watchmaker.

The 51-year-old veteran, who served with the Black Watch in the First Great War and recently left the R.C.A.F. with the rank of flight lieutenant, has "always wanted to take a course in watchmaking."

Mills now is at the Toronto Training and Re-establishment Institute where 3,700 ex-service men and women are enrolled in more than 24 other courses including horology—the art of watchmaking.

Unique in Canada, the course takes a year to complete. There are 69 pupils enrolled at present and some 200 waiting to enter. Students have been attracted from all parts of the Dominion.

J. R. Cadieux of Cornwall, Ont., said he originally intended to go to the United States for a course of study before entering his family's watchmaking business in Cornwall, but he was informed that the U.S. course would cost $2,000.

"When we were in Italy we thought the government were kidding about all they were going to do for us but they have lived up to their promises 100 per cent," Cadieux said.

Students sit at long benches outfitted with shiny, humming lathes. Equipment, valued at nearly $25,000, was donated in part by commercial companies who are interested in raising the standard of watchmaking in Canada.

H. V. Wilkins, chief instructor in horology, says the spirit of students is "excellent." There has been only one man dropped from the course and that was at his own request.

As in other parts of the school, pupils in horology work in shifts. One class starts at 8 a.m. and works to 3 p.m. The second shift starts at 3:20 p.m. and works until 10 p.m. Students alternate every two weeks.

Hungry students may satisfy their craving for tasty dishes at the school cafeteria which is operated by the members of the chefs and bakers course.

The neophyte restaurateurs have a model organization in which to learn the secrets of their trade. Complete with pressure ovens the kitchen of the cafeteria has an adjoining bakery which, in addition to more substantial fare turns out such delicacies as swan-like cream puffs.

The special at noon time is a 25 cent meal which includes soup, a meat dish with two vegetables, two slices of bread, pie and beverage. Students and instructors say that they cannot find anything to equal the fare outside the school.

Seventy-five students, including five girls, work in two shifts in kitchen and classrooms and there is a long list of applicants waiting to take the course.

Mrs. G. A. Dodson, instructor in the restaurant technique, said the busiest time of the day is between 9:30 a.m. and 12 noon when some 2,000 veterans are served at the school snack bar adjoining the cafeteria. It is here that the veterans in training meet between classes to discuss their progress in the job of rehabilitation.

Connecticut-New York Site Favored

LONDON—The permanent site selection committee of the United Nations Organization Monday headed the objection of the Greenwich area of Connecticut against being elected as the permanent headquarters of UNO but decided in favor of a site on the New York-Connecticut border. This has yet to be approved by the General Assembly.

Australia was expected to make a last ditch stand today to put the United Nations headquarters in San Francisco until the peace agency opens its permanent home. Australian delegate W. Hodgson indicated he will open his fight for San Francisco before General Assembly headquarters committee scheduled to meet today to take up the question of an interim site.

The committee voted Monday 22 to 17 that the permanent home should be located in the region of Westchester County in New York.

LETTERBOX

PARK AVENUE ROAD

Editor, Daily News:

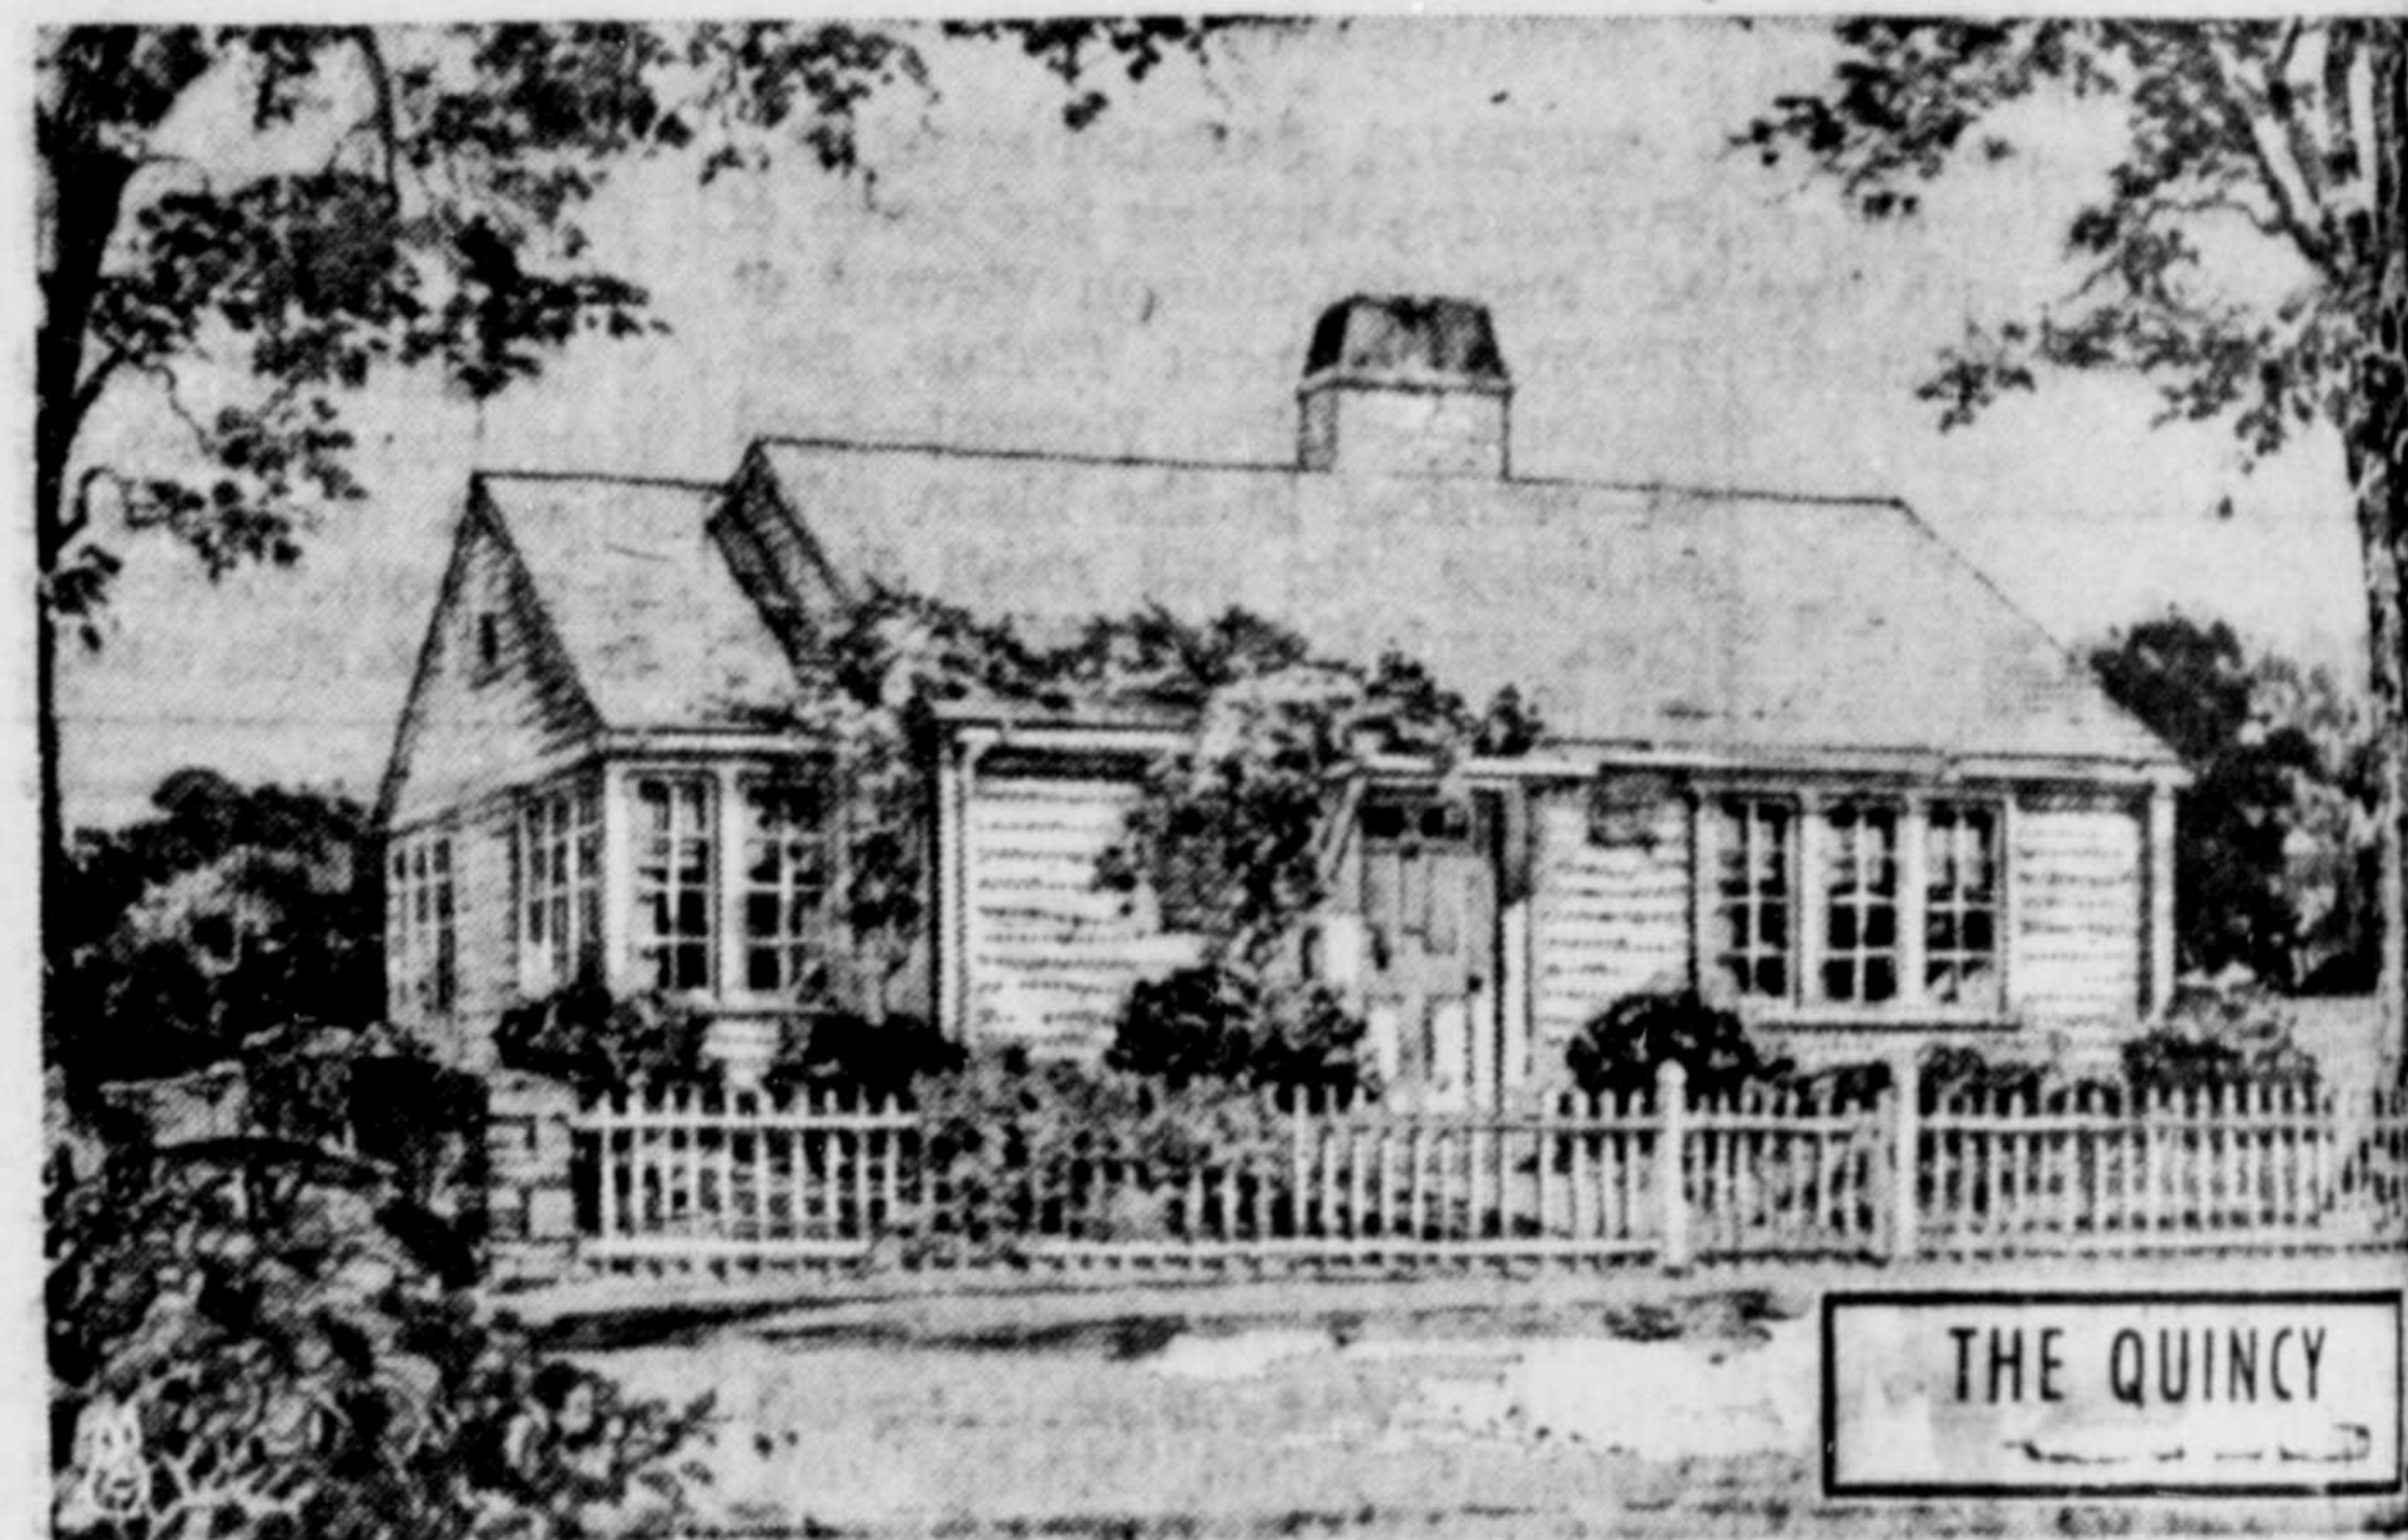

I notice the city council gave a few moments to the condition of Park Ave. or Cemetery Road at Monday night's meeting. The portion of that road beyond the point maintained by the Americans up to recent date will compare with the world's worst. The portion used by the Americans was kept in good order by the continued use of the road scraper which is now the property of the city. The question now agitating the minds of car owners is will the city keep that scraper at work on the roads or will the road be allowed to continue its work of car wrecking.

REC DIRECTOR SCORES ACTS OF VANDALISM

Commenting on recent acts of vandalism which have caused the Y.M.C.A. authorities to clamp down restrictions on civilian use of the "Y" war services centre, Rec Director George McGregor said that he "regrets the irresponsibility of a few which has caused these restrictions to be put on."

As viewed by a Daily News reporter the damage to lavatories and gymnasium dressing rooms in the "Y" building appeared nothing more than wanton acts of destruction completely justifying restrictive action on the part of "Y" Supervisor Pete Collins.

Damaged were toilet plumbing fixtures, gym locker and other equipment.

"Since the damage was obviously done while civilians ball players were using the I feel as though the responsibility were mine. I am actual damage was done individuals whose acts have certainly disqualified them use of this building," McGregor said.

As a result of the an order has gone up prohibiting the use of the "Y" building all civilians except those who can show discharge papers the services.

Only exception to the the Rec training, which will be continuing responsibility of Mr. McGregor said.

PLASTIC LUNG NOW FOR POLIO VICTIMS—A portable "plastic lung," known as the Blanchard mechanical physio-therapist, developed by A. L. Berger and associates, is demonstrated by Nurse Minnie Malek on "patient" Barbara Johanson at Los Angeles, Calif. The new boon to victims of infantile paralysis weighs less than 60 pounds as compared to the heavy iron lung type which weighs from 600 to 2,300 pounds. The plastic lung is now in use in several hospitals. It consists of a motor driven pump. Flexible tubing and bellows, with transparent plexi-glass shields of gradual sizes to fit the wearer.

FRANK SINATRA IN ANCHORS AWEIGH

"Anchors Aweigh," coming Thursday, Friday and Saturday to the Capitol, boasts a co-starring trio of Frank Sinatra, Kathryn Grayson and Gene Kelly, a host of elaborate production numbers a highly amusing story and a fine supporting cast.

Clarence Doolittle (Sinatra) and Joe Brady (Kelly) are a couple of sailors on a four-day leave from an aircraft carrier anchored off San Diego. Clarence idolizes Joe, not only because the older sailor once rescued him from drowning, but also because Joe is the ship's "master wolf."

Clarence, who up to now has spent all his shore leaves in public libraries, admits he would like to try a new interest—girls for instance—and asks Joe to get him a date.

From then on the singing and dancing pair of tars find themselves in one hilarious situation after another as they meet Susan Abbott (Kathryn Grayson), a beautiful Hollywood "extra" who is seeking a singing career in the movies and attempts to arrange an audition for her with Jose Iturbi. Things become a little complicated when Clarence also meets a waitress from Brooklyn.

G. S. WOOD HEADS PRINCE GEORGE TRADE BOARD

PRINCE GEORGE—Gordon S. Wood was elected president of the Prince George Board of Trade recently. He succeeds William Benson, vice-president is A. M. Patterson, and second vice-president is Jack Ratledge. W. S. Russell was returned as secretary-treasurer.

After hearing the road between Prince George and McBride described as a "cow trail," the board empowered F. W. Dobson and Carl Anderson to continue with preparation of an appeal to have the route completed. Another immediate objective of the board is to press for land registry office facilities at Prince George. It was stressed how returned veterans desirous of going on the land with the aid of rehabilitation benefits have been "brought up short" by having to wait for three months to obtain a title.

The United States will oppose the Philippines and two of the countries considered likely to have the strongest teams in Europe — Great Britain and France — have been drawn against each other for the first round of the Davis Cup zone elimination play.

With the surprisingly large number of challengers entered against Australia's defending cup champions, the draw was made in Melbourne town hall. The names of the participating nations were drawn from the Davis Cup trophy itself.

It was the first such occasion since the war brought a halt to the international competition. Australia brought the coveted cup Down Under in the last challenge in 1939, when Adrian Quist and the ambidextrous John Bromwich defeated the U.S. title-holding team, headed by Bobby Riggs and Don Budge, by a 3-2 score.

Only four teams are competing in the American zone and Mexico and Canada will match strokes for the right to meet the winner of the U.S.-Philippines series.

Besides Britain and France, the other European zone pairings are: Spain vs. Switzerland,

NEW SKATING RECORDS SET

SUDBURY—Two new Canadian speed skating records were set yesterday at the championship meet in Sudbury. Beatrice Amann of Meriden, Connecticut, established one of the new records when she won the women's 220-yard event in 22 1-5 seconds. Her time was 2 4-5 seconds better than the old mark which was made by Gladys Robinson of Toronto in 1923.

The other new record was set by Eileen Whalley of Winnipeg who won the senior women's 180-yard event in one minute, 38 seconds. The old record was one minute 46 2-4 seconds and was also held by Gladys Robinson.

CzechoSlovakia vs. Turkey, Yugoslavia vs. Egypt, Denmark vs. China (which elected to play in the European zone) Belgium vs. Monaco, and Sweden vs. The Netherlands. Ireland drew a first round bye.

New Zealand, with no opponents in the Pacific zone, will face the winner of the Western Hemisphere eliminations, and the survivor of that round will clash with the European champion for the right to meet Australia for the cup next December.

SANTA ANITA WIN RECORD IS TIED

He ran fifth in the fourth race and sat out the third and sixth races. Yesterday's wins brought Atkinson's victory total to 45 for the meet, 14 ahead of his nearest competitor, Johnny Longden of Tabor, Alberta.

Basketball—BO-ME-HI TOPS SAVOY IN FAST OVERTIME GAME

erson defeated High School 23-17.

Bo-Me-Hi realized their determination to stop Savoy's prolonged winning streak and achieved victory in spite of an initial surge by Savoy which made the early periods look as though the game was going to be badly one-sided. The game, however, ran into overtime.

Savoy started off with a series of baskets which resulted in the score at half time standing at 26-15 in their favor. However, when the whistle started the second half, Bo-Me-Hi started a drive with Hartwig, Forman and James leading the attack. At the end of the fourth quarter the score was 41-41 and the game went into overtime.

Hartwig of Bo-Me-Hi started the overtime scoring with two quick baskets, and with additional scores by James and Forman, the 10-point margin was achieved. Savoy was held scoreless in the overtime.

Davis, Holkestad and Arney sparked the Savoy scoring during the second half.

The scoring:

Bo-Me-Hi—F. James 12, Hartwig 15, Lavigne 1, Forman 13, Thompson 6, J. James 5.

Savoy—Holkestad 3, Arney 3, Simundsen 3, Davis 15, Haugan, Vuckovitch 2, Eby, Alexander, Total, 42.

• Maceys—Holkestad 5, Murray 5, Hougan 14, Pierce 3, Cruickshank 2, Menzies 7, Teng 4, Arntsen 2, Total, 42.

NOW THE LID IS OFF

SECRETLY, back in 1942, eight locomotives were dismantled at the Fort Rouge Shops of the Canadian National Railways at Winnipeg. Part by part, thousands of them, each one a masterpiece of engineering, were broken down into an erection diagram and tugged with metal discs. The smoke stacks, whistles and steam domes had to be shortened and the width of the locomotives narrowed to meet clearance requirements. None of the fifty employees who did the work knew why.

Now the secret is out. Threatened by the Japanese advances in the South Pacific, the Australian Government was short of power to move war equipment to strategic points. It sent out an appeal for aid. Although hard pressed for locomotives, the C.N.R. turned over eight engines. They were transported to a Pacific Coast port on 40 flat cars. The photographs show, upper, an engine frame and, lower, boiler and air reservoirs loaded for shipment.

GOOD YEAR ACTIVITIES

Hill 60 Chapter Bid Well Under Mrs. McLeod's Leadership

Annual reports of activities during 1945, presented at the meeting of Hill 60 Chapter, I.O.G.E. last night, showed a very successful year's work under the leadership of the regent, Mrs. D. Orchard McLeod.

During 1945, donations were made to the frigate "Prince Rupert." Blankets and quilts for the bombed-out victims, also blanket fund, endowment fund, Women's Co-ordinating Council, B. C. Music Bursary and Prince Rupert Recreational Association (monthly donation of $5).

Hill 60 had taken an interest in King Edward School, providing yearly subscriptions to four geologic and instructional magazines, also donated War Savings Stamps as prizes in a quiz contest. Two beautiful pictures of the King and Queen had been presented.

Twelve personal bags for service women were made and filled and 180 articles were knitted and sewn for shipment overseas.

The chapter assisted with sale of cancer stamps in aid of "Jessie Burke" cancer fund. Prince Rupert was in fourth place in the provincial sale of these stamps.

The I.O.G.E. annual provincial convention will be held at the Empress Hotel in Victoria in April and the regent, Mrs. James Hutchison, will attend.

Mrs. D. Orchard McLeod, the retiring regent, was presented with a gift from the members as a token of appreciation for her leadership throughout the past year.

The next regular meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. C. Smith on March 11.

SPRING SHOW OF FASHIONS

London Fashions Feature Sloping Shoulders in Formal Dresses

LONDON © — Important changes are shown in the 1946 spring dress collections which were opened in London, recently by the Society of London Fashion Designers.

Sloping shoulders take the place of square ones on the very formal dresses in the first three collections shown by Hardy Amies, Charles Creed, and Victor Stiebel, all of whom have just been demobilized from the forces. The silhouette becomes a pyramid in the Amies collection, narrow at the shoulders, wide at the skirt hem.

Hips are padded and artificial, even on tailored suits, which alone keep their broad shoulders with waists very narrow. Dinner and evening dresses show 18th century influence with very wide skirts and closely fitting bodices with low décolletage only in front. Stiebel shows a very similar evening line with off-the-shoulder décolletages and victorian wool embroidery used as stomachers on dinner dresses.

Jackets of many afternoon suits are padded over the hips like the skirts and also break into fullness below the waist, especially at the back. Tiny pink ostrich feathers are sewn all over a black velvet full skirt gown as trimming. Charles Creed lowers the waist line and makes jackets to wear without blouses since he says women rarely take their jackets off today.

There are bold tweeds in stripes or checks from Cumberland and Scotland, much rayon satin and rayon tie silk (hitherto used only for men's ties) and some cottons. Notable are printed cottons and diaphanous sea island cottons, both used for evening dresses with striped cottons (processed like crepe de chine) for blouses.

IMMORTAL SNOWFLAKES Snowflake patterns are preserved now by a plastic process.

CHRONIC BRONCHITIS

Does a stubborn bronchial cough, (either phlegmy or dry and hacking) make you choke, gasp, wheeze, keep you awake nights? Relieve it—now! Do as thousands have done—get Templeton's RAZ-MAH—and stop that cough! RAZ-MAH has helped others—let it help you. 50c. $1.—at druggists everywhere. R-14

TRANSPARENT IDEA . . . LET IT RAIN—Let it rain, let it pour. This lady will no longer worry about getting her coiffure wet. This new rain-repellant plastic transparent chapeau, modelled by Conchita Ulmo at the spring fashion show at the Ritz Carlton, New York, was designed by Walter Florell, millinery creator for many film stars.

MRS. OLSEN OF TERRACE DIES

Pioneer Woman of Interior Town Passes Away

TERRACE — At two o'clock Monday afternoon, Mrs. Alex Olson passed away quietly at her home here. The previous day her daughter, Mrs. Gunnar Moran of Decker Lake had arrived and was with her mother at the time.

Mrs. Olson would have been 67 on January 17. She is survived by her husband; a brother, Ivar Millarson, in Norway; a son, Stanley, who is married and living in Terrace; and her daughter, Agnes. There are five grandchildren.

Mrs. Olson was a Norwegian and arrived in Prince Rupert from that country in 1910. She was on board the Prince Rupert which at that time was making her second trip up the coast. In 1922 Mrs. Olson came to Terrace and has been here ever since.

Until just a few years ago she was very active as a nurse and the faithful service she rendered in this capacity will long be remembered by the people of Terrace. Friends everywhere regret her passing.

Funeral service took place this afternoon from Knox United Church with Rev. T. C. Colwell officiating. Interment was at Kalum Cemetery. W. A. Kirkpatrick was in charge of funeral arrangements.

Modern Etiquette

By ROBERTA LEE

Q. Would it be rude for a bride to exchange a wedding gift if she has received three or four duplicates, for something she really needs.

A. No; it would really indicate good sense. But it would be better to consult a member of her or her husband's families before doing so.

Q. Why is it necessary for one to repeat a person's name when being introduced?

A. This is not really necessary, but is done to show that one has heard the name correctly.

Q. How should the invitations be extended when giving an informal dinner at a club?

A. By informal note, or by telephone.

COLOR CONSCIOUS LONDON ©—British industry is stressing the use of color as an incentive to bigger output. A North England cotton mill recently announced its intention to paint its looms in lime green and duck egg blue and its walls in green and light gold.

cabin "Johnnie" had brought out a bottle of gin and etzel drank a "full cup," the Johnson girl testified. Then "Johnnie" gave Ethel another cup of gin and later Ethel drank right out of the bottle.

Ethel had got so intoxicated that she could not stand up and then the Johnson girl and "Johnnie" had put her to bed. Later Ethel had called out to her, apparently in distress. "Johnnie" left the cabin after Robinson came home and she did not see him again, Effie Johnson testified.

She had gone to bed with Ethel after "Johnnie" left. When they arose "late" on Sunday Robinson had told her to awaken Ethel. Ethel, who was lying on her side facing the wall, did not respond to being shaken. Both she and Robinson realized the girl was dead.

John Wing said that he had taken the girls to the cabin after midnight Saturday and had given them drinks. He left the cabin about 3 o'clock Sunday morning. Wing said that Robinson had returned to the cabin at 2 o'clock.

Robinson told the court that he had returned to the cabin about 2 o'clock and had found Wing and the two girls there. He had done no drinking at the cabin, but had gone almost immediately to bed. He had awak-

COPY BOY DINES AT UNO PARTY

LONDON—A 16-year old messenger for a London news agency reporter "covering" a banquet for UNO delegates, sipped sherry with the stripe-trousered guests and sat down to dinner directly opposite Britain's Prime Minister Attlee. Entering the hall, he couldn't find the reporter. A Wren called up to him with a tray of glasses, offered him one, and his evening had started, even if he was a little out of place in sports coat and baggy flannels.

WHATS DOING AT PRINCE RUPERT RECREATION COUNCIL GYMS BY JIM NAST

PERSONALITIES — Your reporter has been looking through the old scrap book and has been reading with interest the write-ups on some of the leaders, those persevering people who have contributed so much to the success-story which Rup-Rec has become. He was somewhat pained to note that a charming young lady, who has had such huge success with the junior girls' class on Wednesday nights has not yet been interviewed so made haste to rectify this omission. The girl in question is Mrs. Eileen Yelland (Yes, Mr. Editor, Eileen spells her name with two "L's"). Eileen was born in Vancouver and went to school there for a short time, but early in her childhood came to Prince Rupert and immediately became active in school sports. During her High School days she was captain of the girls' basketball team. When the Pro-Rec Movement was started here, prior to the war, she became a keen gymnast, her specialty being tumbling. It was with much regret that she had to relinquish this favorite activity when the hall used by Pro-Rec was turned over to the Army at the outbreak of hostilities and classes came to an end. However, Eileen is also a keen hiker, swimmer and badminton player, so she was still able to indulge her love of sport. Needless to say, she is very happy to be back with our local Rup-Rec in the gymnastic game.
